AN OPEN LETTER TO SENATOR CAIN

January 10, 1951

Hon. Harry F. Cain
Senator from Washington
Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C.

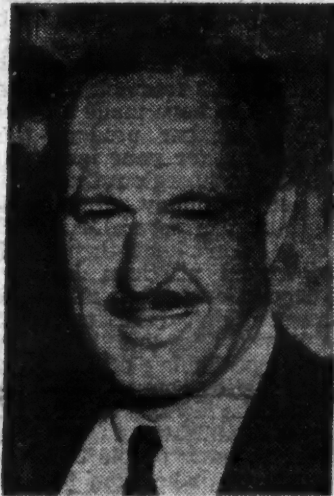

My dear Senator Cain:

I am indebted to you for having received a copy of the hearings of the Senate Armed Forces Committee concerning the appointment of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense. May I thank you for your thoughtfulness in sending them to me.

I most heartily endorse your point of view as expressed in your release of December 21, viz; that perjury charges should issue against individuals who maliciously accuse persons of disloyalty and who attempt to offer false testimony under oath and without supporting evidence. . . I, myself, have been a victim of that vicious and cowardly conduct during years past when I, and my wife and children were mercilessly persecuted by the Jewish Anti-Defamation League of the pro-Red Zionist B'nai B'rith. . . In those years how very grateful I would have been could I have had the benefit of such zeal (in the protection of my constitutional rights from the wrath of organized Jewry) as the Senate Armed Forces Committee have so meticulously shown in coming to the defense of Anna M. Rosenberg, whose appointment has obviously been maneuvered by strong Zionist pressure. . . Indeed with that benign halo of Jewish influence, which has protected this controversial appointment, had it been placed about my head when I was being denied my constitutional rights by representatives of this same pro-Red-Defamation League, I and my family would have been spared the untold suffering and mental agony which was our reward, during the years past, for attempting to expose the same Red-Zionist conspiracies—in and out of our Government—which in this present day have all but accomplished the ruin of my beloved Country and yours. That those conspiracies and those conspirators and spies identified with Communism and the Soviet Government are, and have been heavily Jewish has been no fault of mine, nor yours; however the list of Jew spies and their dupes increases day by day as the F.B.I. arrests them and as our courts convict them.

I have read and re-read very carefully every page of the hearings referred to herein, and it is my opinion that the average person who reads them—casually—as most people do—would feel that a great injustice has been done to Mrs. Rosenberg and that the opposition to her appointment and confirmation has been promoted by anti-semites and "Jew-baiters." For my part the discrimination against, or in favor of, any American seeking political office—based upon religious views—is and "Jew-baiters." For my part the discrimination against, or in favor of, any American seeking political office—based upon religious views—is not only un-American—it is anti-American. . . I have in mind a number of highly esteemed

Franklin D. Roosevelt Was He Murdered?

Of extraordinary interest, in view of the many speculations concerning the death of the late President Roosevelt, is the incident mentioned by the Zionist Joseph M. Proskauer, in his recent book, "A Segment of My Time."

According to Judge Proskauer, he visited F.D.R. a few weeks before the President's death with the intention of discussing the San Francisco Conference of the U.N. Instead, Roosevelt insisted upon talking about the Palestine problem.

Proskauer states that Roosevelt declared: "that he believed that the Zionist demand for a state was premature, that it would cause either a pogrom or a war." Proskauer writes further: "When I avowed my astonishment of this because it was wholly at variance with Roosevelt's public statements, he replied that he had been to Yalta, that he had talked with Ibn Saud since and he was now frightened and wanted me to talk to the Zionist leaders about it. I pointed out to him that their first answer to me would be that my counsel of delay was at variance with his utterances."

With a flash of amusement, F.D.R. continued: "Joe you know I go out on a limb for my friends and have done so here. . . You must help, for I think you know how."

There is no reason to doubt the words of Proskauer, a member of the N. Y. bar, former N.Y. State Supreme Court Justice, and for many years President of the American Jewish Committee. Instead, his revealing comments confirm confidential reports from other sources and give rise, once again, to that $64. question: Why was the casket of F.D.R. sealed? Why does there still remain a 24-hour guard at his resting place? Was he MURDERED when he learned the truth that Zionism and Communism are one and the same thing????

Westbrook Pegler calls him a "lying Blackguard"

Drew Pearson has been denounced by more decent Americans than any other citizen with the possible exception of his partner, Walter Winchell (Israel Lipschitz). These two, always work along the same line, because they both receive their orders from the anti-Christian Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. B'nai B'rith is the Marxist Invisible Government, the power that forces Gentile Dean Acheson to refuse to turn his back on Alger Hiss, and prevents President Truman from attacking the Communists planted all around him while he sends our boys 5000 miles to fight Chinese boys who are not Communists at all, but dupes trapped into fighting by World leaders in Marxism right here in Washington such as Felix Frankfurter on the Supreme Court.

When Drew Pearson attacks COMMON SENSE in his column it affects us the same as when the DAILY WORKER attacks us. When we draw the fire of these Marxists we know that our exposures of Communism are hitting the nail on the head. The Anti-Defamation League, known as the Jewish Gestapo, which is actively engaged in conditioning the United States for Zionist Rule as exists in all so-called Communist countries, uses Drew Pearson and Walter Winchell (Israel Lipschitz) as their smear agents on the air. The Anti-Defamation League boasts in print of having 2000 snoopers. These Zionists are maneuvered into important spots as secretaries, clerks and executives to listen in and scan records then report to the A.D.L. which is the Marxist backbone of the United States.

Senator McCarthy said January 9th in a letter to the Secretary of the Army: "If someone is actually stealing secret decoded messages from the Pentagon and handing them to Pearson the lives of many of our young men and the security of this nation are in grave danger." In a Senate speech last Friday, McCarthy charged "some man in the decoding room (at the Pentagon) is guilty of high treason" if the messages published by Pearson in a column Dec. 30th were authentic.

More food for thought. Drew Pearson has been most aggressive in promoting the Zionist and A.D.L. supporter, Anna M. Rosenberg, for Assistant Secretary of Defense. Of course he must do this when the A.D.L. orders him.

One of Pearson's top smear job for A.D.L. as when he opened up the smear campaign to ruin Secretary of Defense James Forrestal. But he will never say a word against Anna M. Rosenberg who now controls the Secretary of Defense office.

In February 1949 when the A.D.L. was afraid a demand would be made to return Father Coughlin to the radio, Pearson spread a smear the A.D.L. had cooked up on Father Coughlin, one of the few greatest living Americans. Pearson was proved a lying scoundrel for this act which placed him on the level of a sewer rat. Pearson himself is unimportant, but it is important to make known the fact that he spreads propaganda for un-American forces.

On the floor of the Senate, Senator McCarthy had this to say:

"I have a file which I desire to insert in the record containing photostats of the so-called Americans professing Judaism as their religion, who would be eminently well qualified to fill the office of Assistant Secretary of Defense—whose innate loyalty is beyond controversy and against whom there could not be the least suspicion as to loyalty at this critical time. These persons are, to the best of my knowledge, violently opposed to Zionism or any of its concepts. They profess the ancient religion of Judaism . . . It appears to me—and it should have been apparent to your committee had they questioned her under oath—that Anna M. Rosenberg is a Zionist jewess . . . I presume this questioning was not done because, in the minds of the members of your committee there is the common error that Zionism is a form of religion, which it most certainly is NOT. It is the motivating power behind International Communism. Those who have studied the subject intently have come to know Zionism as being a latter day International conspiracy planned, promoted and organized in 1897 by Theodore Herzl and others in Switzerland and now headed up by international jews to gain national control of government—government policies—our courts—and to undermine and destroy our Christian institutions wherever and whenever it is possible to do so.

In examining the list of organizations of which Anna M. Rosenberg takes oath she is a member, I fail to find listed an organization known as the "New York State Committee for Equality in Education"—alho she stated under oath that she was presenting a "full list" of all the organizations to which she belonged. Incidentally, she made no mention of any other Zionist organizations.

The above referred to group, made up (with three exceptions) of Zionist jews, loudly protests against the use of the New Testament in public schools on the ground that it is an anti-semitic book. The group also works for, and in some cities demands, the abolishment of Christmas and Easter celebrations from American public schools. This committee is most active in its attempts to coerce clergymen—authors—publishers—and radio speakers into deleting from their manuscripts any reference to the Crucifixion or to any other bible passages which might have any slant toward being anti-semitic . . . The name of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg appears as a member of this "Education Committee" in company with that of Rabbi Stephen S. Wise (notorious Zionist Red-supporter) Meier Steinbrink of the Zionist Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith—Joseph Lash, Zionist President of the Communist Youth Congress—Irving Fellerman of the Zionist Free Sons of Israel—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam and other equally notorious Communist sympathizers.

Our United States is a Christian Nation—founded upon Christian principles and practices . . . In this most critical hour we are vitally concerned as to our security and the personalities who occupy its key government positions of power . . . The power invested by our laws into the hands of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense, are tremendous . . . In the assumption of her duties she will have the force of a dictator—she will hold in her hands the destiny of every working man and woman in the United States . . . We are now to see that power administered by a Zionist jewess who seeks, through her membership and association with the "New York State Committee for Equality in Education," to abolish the Bible of our Fathers and to destroy our Christmas and Easter celebrations because they are repugnant to those who seek to destroy our Christian way of life. This is the woman whom you distinguished Senators of the Senate Armed Services Committee have investigated and now have approved as being a person qualified to absolutely control the 116 agencies and departments covering the man-power of the United States—and the Senate has unanimously confirmed her.

I am familiar with the peculiar odor of "whitewash." Could it be that your committee might have been overcome with that same foul aroma, mixed, behind the scenes, with the strong and unsavory influence of the defeated Senator Millard Tydings whose father-in-law, Joseph E. Davies (author of "Mission to Moscow") and one of the most powerful Zionists, reported as stating "there was nothing wrong with the Russian spies stealing atomic secrets" at the time when they were nabbed in Canada.

In conclusion, may I say that I am deeply impressed with Mr. DeSola's forthright testimony before your Committee. I had already received a photostatic copy of his notarized statement made on December 5, 1950. From his testimony it appears that, whether or not Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg is a victim of mistaken identity still remains to be proven—despite the monotonous and extravagant praise (preponderantly Jewish or New Deal) heaped upon her in the numerous testimonial letters received by your committee. Incidentally, these testimonial letters are so obviously purposeful in their expressions that one cannot but wonder to what extent they may have been solicited.

Mr. DeSola, in his testimony on page 43 says: "If Mrs. Anna Rosenberg knows of another by that name who resembles her so closely that I may be said to have made an error in identification—then let her produce the other Mrs. Anna Rosenberg for your inspection and mine." It was Mrs. Rosenberg's rather glib reply to that one, in her testimony on page 120-121—"Mr. DeSola, there are several Anna Rosenbergs in New York. I don't know them . . . It is up to you to have looked at them before making this serious accusation against me." Obviously Senator Russell didn't care to develop anything further along this line because he abruptly turned his questioning of DeSola to a supercilious interrogation about a lot of trivia having no bearing upon the identity of Mrs. Rosenberg with Communist organizations. The great question in the minds of many people today in this area is WHY, since we have been told that the F.B.I. has finally located the mysterious other Anna Rosenberg, why has she not been brought into the Committee hearings and stood alongside Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg so that a similarity of their personalities—if any—could have been compared . . . This not having been done, just why was it that your committee failed to procure a bona fide photograph of this mysterious "other" Mrs. Anna Rosenberg—I mean a real one—not one faked up by some Hollywood motion picture photographer.

Another factor which goes far in nullifying the value of the hearings for establishing the loyalty of Anna M. Rosenberg was the hostile attitude and obvious prejudice of some of the Senators against those witnesses who had appeared only for the patriotic purpose of defending the welfare of the United States with whatever testimony they could offer to that end . . . ing the welfare of the United States with whatever testimony of Dr. Marjorie Shearon without being convinced of the hostile climate in which she found herself before your committee. Obviously, Senator Wayne Morse had a preconceived determination to discredit her testimony and to "give her the works." This appeared to be his great moment of revenge against Dr. Shearon, who is the editor of a weekly newspaper named "Challenge to Socialism," in which she has mercilessly played Senator Morse for his well earned title of a "New Deal Republican" . . . Senator Morse's statement on page 247 and also his general type of questioning illustrates his venom against Dr. Shearon all through her testimony—making it clear that he was more concerned in attempting to hold her up to scorn and ridicule as a psychopathic—than to evaluate some of her testimony, carefully prepared, which would show that Anna M. Rosenberg was an unfit person for the vital office of Assistant Secretary of Defense by reason of her association with persons and organizations notorious for their communist sympathies. Senator Morse then resorted to the usual New Deal smear tactics and savagely asked her such questions as the following:

"Have you ever attempted to commit suicide?"
"Have you ever had a nervous breakdown?"

"Have you ever sought the assistance of a psychiatrist?"

"Were you ever married to a Richard Cadbury?"

To all the foregoing questions and others of like nature, Dr. Shearon's answer was an emphatic "NO!" to the Senator's attempt to confuse the real issue, viz Anna Rosenberg's identification with Zionist-Communist activities.

Not content with that method of cheap smearing, Senator Morse descended further in his attack upon a woman who appears to be possessed of a fervor thoroughly patriotic, and presented a letter written by one David Schneider to one Albert Rosen (both co-racials of Anna Rosenberg) in which it is stated that Dr. Shearon's mind is unquestionably off-balance . . . Obviously this is the old thread-bare smear against anyone who happens to oppose the interests of organized Jewry.

Finally, in my humble opinion, it would be highly possible that Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, having been born in Hungary, might conceivably be imbued with latent memories of the barbarous activities of her countryman, the murderous dictator Bela Kun, whose butcheries in the interests of Zionist revenge upon the Christian gentile nation of Hungary is historic. Who does not recall the horrible slaughter of some thirty thousand Christians, some 25 years ago combining murder and robbery with Hungarian politics?

Hardly a day passes when we do not learn of some Zionist Jew being moved up by administration appointment to some position in our Government involving the National security until we now have an imposing list of these characters, like Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, occupying positions most vital to our Governmental security and welfare. Tragically for us, in this grave situation with which we are confronted, our Gentile leadership has become confused and stumbling. They are men who neither understand International intrigue nor duplicity—they are men who are incapable of conceiving that they are being guided to destruction by Christian-hating Zionist leaders, Frankfurter—Baruch—Morganthau, et al—under which we shall be ruled when they have maneuvered the United States into a world government (United Nations) under Zionist dictators when millions of our precious American boys have been sent to the slaughter, in Europe—in the Far East—or elsewhere. May God help us.

Most Respectfully,
Henry D. Allen

Karr Report via the Executive Director and Chief Examiner of the Civil Service Commission dated June 25, 1943. Before doing so I should like to mention the fact that last week I discussed on the Senate Floor the service being rendered to the Communist Party by Drew Pearson. His collaborator and the man through whom he receives orders and directions from the Communist Party is one David Karr who was and is a very active member of the Communist Party.

"Pearson denied Karr's membership in the Communist Party. Lest there be any doubt about this phase of the Pearson case, I am today reading into the Congressional Record the opinion rendered to the Civil Service Commission from the office of the Chief Examiner. This is one of the those secret reports never supposed to come to the eyes of the American people. I assume that Mr. Pearson did not know we had this report when he denied Mr. Karr's membership in the Communist Party. As I pointed out, Karr is the connecting link between Pearson and the Communist Party. He is the man who assigns Pearson to the important task of conducting a character assassination of any man who dares to stand in the way of international Communism.

"I read from the report:

Status of Karr Case

"While working for the Fuller Brush Company in and around New York, David Karr formed a close association with the Communist Party joining it before he was hired by the Communist organ, DAILY WORKER.

The DAILY WORKER is a Communist paper which goes generally to all members of the Communist Party and whoever else cares to subscribe. Mr. Karr admitted to several FBI agents and informants that he was doing re-write work for the PARTY ORGANIZER. The PARTY ORGANIZER is the most influential of all publications of the Communist Party. It is printed for and issued to only those who are high in the ranks of the party and it contains the latest instructions and decisions of the Communist Party."

"That," Senator McCarthy interposed, "is the FBI analysis of this organ." I continue to quote:

"Among doing re-write work for the PARTY ORGANIZER was of necessity a trusted and powerful member of the Communist Party. While making no mention of it in his application for Government jobs in the office of War Information (and other agencies) Mr. Karr was doing work intermittently for the DAILY WORKER in 1937-8-9 at which time he was a member of the Communist Party. Mr. Karr also wrote for a magazine called FIGHT which was published by the League for Peace and Democracy which was heavily infiltrated and controlled by members of the Communist Party.

"Mr. Karr was militantly and vociferous against U.S. intervention in the war until Hitler invaded Russia, after which he adopted the party line and just as vociferously urged immediate U.S. intervention.

"Karr became active in the formation of a Victory Council sponsored by the O.W.I. He succeeded in having a heavy Communist representation on that council. He was also active in assisting the Communist Party to form a United Front with several groups which the party had in the past succeeded in infiltrating and dominating.

"The FBI reports show that while working for the WORKER, Karr freely admitted he was a member of the Party. Karr also was connected with HOUR which was headed by Albert E. Kahn. The HOUR had a very definite Communist background."

David Katz and David Karr are one and the same Zionist.

Now, Mr. Pearson, may COMMON SENSE ask if the following is an accurate account of what took place Easter Sunday, 1949, at the American Broadcasting Company studio in Washington, D.C.? We quote our informants (two men and a woman): "Mounting stairs to the second floor studio, we inquired at the reception desk if we could obtain tickets for the broadcast. (On the desk lay a package addressed to Mr. Pearson from the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith's offices in Chicago.) The receptionist replied that Mr. Pearson never had spectators for his broadcasts.

"At that moment the receptionist ex-claimed,

"Oh there's Mr. Pearson now!" We turned to face a man in a topcoat. The receptionist asked Mr. Pearson if we could witness his broadcast. He was surprised that anyone was interested and said yes. We then walked with him down a narrow corridor to a studio at the end. It was carpeted and had comfortable furniture with a large desk in the middle and two chairs facing each other across the table.

"In about two minutes, a man with rather sharp facial characteristics and a disheveled appearance entered our studio and handed one of the two scripts or copies of a script to Mr. Pearson. Pearson then read the script swiftly and paused at one section. Pointing to the section, he asked the man, 'Don't you think that's a little far fetched?' The man turned in anger toward Pearson and replied, 'You're getting paid to read it, not write it!'

"Pearson at once sat down and cast aside the script. Then he began a series of gymnastic exercises and soon it was time for the broadcast.

"Pearson took his seat at one side of the table and the other man facing him. A microphone was on the table. Pearsons began to broadcast. During the broadcast, the other man took notes and at the commercial conferred in hushed tones with Pearson.

"When the broadcast was concluded, Mr. Pearson introduced us to 'my boss, Mr. Katz'. We took exception to one remark regarding Soviet military manpower or Stalin's health. Mr. Pearson said, 'Our sources of information are the very best. We can't be wrong.' At that remark, the man introduced as Mr. Katz told Pearson to shut up.

"Mr. Pearson joined us in going down to the street by the front way while Mr. Katz left by the rear stairs." How about this Mr. Pearson?

The following was reported by a Washington Press Service:

Drew Pearson Called Villian and Arch Liar by Head of Committee Investigating Un-American Activities

Washington, June 15, 1950—In scathing terms seldom heard on the house floor, Chairman Wood (D., Ga.) of the house committee on Un-American activities today denounced gossip columnist Drew Pearson as a liar of ultimate degree and a weapon used by the Communists.

Wood called Pearson an "arch liar," "scandal monger," "character assassin," "rogue," "villian," and "slanderer." He said Pearson's "stock in trade consists of a wicked heart, a lying tongue, and a poisonous pen."

When Wood finished, the house arose as a body and applauded loud and long.

"Nothing is Sacred"

"Drew Pearson has consistently misrepresented, slandered, and abused every person—man or woman—who, because of love of country and constitutional liberty, have raised their voices against the spread of alien ideologies and against those who would overthrow our form of government," Wood said.

"He has been the most effective weapon that the Stalinites have been able to use in America for the undermining of our whole constitutional system.

"To him there is nothing under the heavens that is sacred. He befouls and means to befoul everything he touches. He occupies the unique and unenviable position today of standing alone at the very pinnacle of all the slanderers and scandal mongers in all of American history."

Names Chief "Stooge"

Wood said Pearson heads a group which for many years has tried to "destroy confidence in public officials, which confidence is the very bed rock of the continuance of a free republic."

He said Pearson's "chief legman and stooge" is DAVID KATZ, A FORMER STAFF MEMBER OF THE DAILY WORKER, OFFICIAL COMMUNIST PARTY PUBLICATION.

Attacking specific charges in the Pearson column as "malicious, wicked, and gratuitous" lies, Wood said it contained "unsupported conclusions spawned in the distorted mind of this scandal monger."

"Condemned by Millions"

"This rogue," he continued, "has built his name upon the wreckage of the reputations of others that he has wrought. . . . He has been slandering people high and low, great and small for years. This is his profession—and he has been condemned by millions of people upon whom he has unjustifiably inflicted injury."

Wood recalled that more than 70 congressmen and 20 some senators have called him a "congenital" or "malicious" liar.

AN OPEN LETTER TO SENATOR TAFT

Washington, D. C.
December 29, 1950

Hon. Robert A. Taft
U.S. Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C.

Dear Senator:

Please find enclosed a copy of "Common Sense" which I believe should be read into the Congressional Record so that members of Congress could study the facts therein contained and if they be true, stop "In Limne" this filling of key positions in our Government with foreign born, naturalized citizens.

I propose a law making it a legal requirement that all key positions, such as Supreme Court Justices, Cabinet Officers, Admirals, and Generals of the Department of Defense and other key positions be NATIVE BORN AMERICAN CITIZENS. While it is true that a few foreign born persons have become great Americans, just one slip or mistake and more damage might be done to America than all the good of the few, loyal Naturalized Citizens.

Are there not sufficient native born citizens to fill these key positions? No person who becomes a naturalized citizen of one country for convenience or otherwise, ever fully loses his love and interest for and in his native land.

We need another law to wit, that all naturalized citizens of the U.S. should have their papers revoked if they have joined since such naturalization any subversive organization or party, communist or otherwise, and all such people should be deported to their native land.

There should also be a law enjoining and making it a criminal offense for foreigners and other persons taking good American names, (names of outstanding American families) without good and justifiable reasons or to fool the public or to cover up bad records and such. Today we have Winchell, whose name is Lipshitz; Sheldon (Jacob Shapiro); Davis A. Morse (Moscovitch); David K. Niles (Neyhus); Michael J. Lee (Lieberman) to mention a few and there are hundreds of others.

It is up to Congress to fight the enemies within while the boys in the field are fighting the enemies without and these boys expect their representatives at home to put up a good fight and rid their country of those who are undermining the Constitution and relaying our plans to the enemy.

Lets start a housecleaning of these termites and there is no better time than NOW and Congress should lead the fight. Senator, the Cabinet, the Supreme Court and the Army and Navy at least should be out of the reach of foreign born citizens, possibly Red agents.

WHY NOT STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN TO THE LITTLE VOICES CRYING OUT TO YOU TO SAVE AMERICA AND ACT NOW?

Sincerely,

Norman S. Bowles, L.L.B.

LEARN FROM THE MASTER'S TEACHING AND EXAMPLE

A Teacher's right and qualification to teach may be judged by his mandate and his performance. Christ had received His mandate from His heavenly Father. "I am the truth . . . This is why I was born and came into the world to bear witness to the truth." John 14:6 - 18:37. "I must proclaim the kingdom of God, for this is why I have been sent." Luke 4:43. The gospels prove that He taught continuously, with divine wisdom in human ways, the things about God and our salvation. He taught the workers and the scholars, and rich and the poor, the hypocrites and the sincere ones. Teaching was an eminent part of His mission to bring mankind back to God — and to heaven. He taught to His last word on the cross. He is still teaching in our Sunday gospels. Let Him not teach you in vain.

Thank you friend in Louisville (?) Kentucky for your donation of $20 and the Louisville telephone directory — we have put both to good use.

RED HIGHLIGHTS

The biggest play of the year was recently run off in the game between the American Nationalists and the International Zionists. Although it was full-back ANNA M. ROSENBERG who carried the ball for the touchdown, if it had not been for her clever thinking team mates the International Zionists would have lost yardage on this all important play.

Quarterback Senator Herbert Lehman looked the field over, knowing that it was fourth down and ten to go, and called the play. It was Rosenberg around right end with Senator Tydings running interference. Left halfback Senator Russell faked as if he had the ball and ran out to left flank taking the American Nationalist team's attention off of Rosenberg. The result was that the whole American Nationalist team was momentarily out maneuvered, giving Rosenberg enough time to out-run the stunned American Nationalists to a glorious touchdown. Much credit must be given to the fine team work of the Internationalist line which did a good job of clearing the field for Rosenberg. At left end, Zionist Controlled Newspapers; left tackle, Zionist Controlled Radio; left guard, the B'nai B'rith; center, Zionist Government Officials; right guard, the Anti-Defamation League; right tackle, Zionist Controlled Senators; right end, Zionist International Bankers.

The game is not over, for now the American Nationalists have the ball and it is up to them to carry it down the field of American history. If they fumble, the game will be lost because we are playing our last quarter. Our readers should know that the "Tex and Jinx" program is another mouth piece for the Marxists and Zionists in America. Their program is open to anyone who is a New Dealer, World Federalist or Marxist Internationalist. They have such people as Alan Cranston, who is for World Government first and America second; O. John Rogge, the Zionist's legal brain; the Roosevelt family which supports everything that the American Nationalists are against; and any other person or persons who wish to spread Marxist propaganda. When Charles E. Wilson took office as Director of Defense Mobilization it was understood that he would immediately appoint the ZIONIST Sidney Weinberg as his assistant. Who do you think will be giving the orders, the Christian or the Zionist? In the Defense Department, now, we have the Christian Marshall and his Zionist assistants Anna M. Rosenberg and Marx Leva. Do you think Marshall will be giving the orders? Marshall is getting so that he doesn't know which end is up. He will most likely retire and Anna M. will be boss also in name as well as in reality.

Another Zionist gets the "boost" into American governmental affairs. Her name is Frieda Hennock (Zionist) and she is the first woman commissioner on the Federal Communications Commission. Miss Hennock who writes and speaks Yiddish fluently is of the opinion that control of Communications is second only to atomic energy in national importance. The truth of the matter is that she is right. That is why she is there. The Rosenbergs, Weinbergs, Hennocks and the rest of the Zionists who have control of our government are greatly interested in pushing through the GENOCIDE BILL immediately. For his own good and safety it behoves every American to understand what the Genocide Bill is and what it will do to the Christian population. Order your copy of "GENOCIDE A MENACE TO UNITED STATES" by Myron C. Fagan from Common Sense, Union N.J. Price 50¢. Ruth Roman, the actress who is getting a tremendous amount of publicity is married to Mortimer Hall, son of the Zionist-Marxist Mrs. Dorothy Schiff. The latter is the publisher of the Marxist newspaper "The New York Post" and the granddaughter of Jacob Schiff of Kuhn Loeb Co. who financed the Russian revolution.

TAX — SPEND — ELECT

In 1939 as Harry Hopkins was placing a bet on a horse at Belmont Track he paused and explained to a friend the New Deal success formula: "We'll tax and tax, spend and spend, elect and elect." At that time the closest men to Roosevelt were Harry Hopkins, Sidney Hillman, Felix Frankfurter, Samuel Roseman and Bernard Baruch, all Zionists.

COMMON SENSE has been informed by a heretofore reliable source that 63% of the Secretariat of the U.N. are Khazars, Zionists.

COMMENTS ON MARSHALL APPOINTMENT

By Lieut. General P.A. del Valle USMC (Ret.)

My analysis of the Marshall appointment yields but little which can be called wholesome.

The elements are not of a nature to inspire confidence. These are the considerations which come to mind:

1. Johnson and Acheson were on opposite sides of the important political and military questions: Formosa and the Far East generally, rearmament of Germany, the re-approachment with Spain. All in all, Johnson followed the sounder views of the military against the appeasement of Russia policy which distinguishes Mr. Acheson's contribution to world politics. The removal of Johnson eliminates what slight opposition there was to the Acheson-Frankfurter-Niles axis.

2. Marshall is a military man, a professional soldier. It violates every tenet of our sound republican concept of government to have a soldier in practical charge of all the armed forces of America. Civilian heads of the departments of the armed forces are a necessary check and balance to militaristic domination.

3. The record of Marshall as Chief of Staff contains some questionable material:

(a) The Pearl Harbor incident. He never has explained satisfactorily why, when we had broken a Japanese code message announcing the attack, the garrison remained unaware of the impending disaster.

(b) Mission to China. Marshall spent thirteen months in China trying to persuade Chiang Kai Shek to accept Mao Tze Tung's Communists in accordance with the State Department's left-wing China policy which has since been exposed in the Amerasia case as pro-Communist.

(c) Marshall, as Chief of Staff, acceded to the Executive's order to withdraw from Berlin and to evacuate parts of Germany in order to allow the Soviet Union to occupy these places.

(d) Marshall, as Secretary of State gave his name to the "Marshall Plan," written by a Zionist, to serve the purposes of Zionism, not of the U.S.A. We have seen this develop into the principal support of Marxism in European governments.

Marshall has given many indications of being under "control" in addition to the ones cited, even coming to the defense of indefensible traitors when these were exposed.

It remains to be seen how well controlled is this man. At first blush his appointment would appear bona fide to the general public, and an astute political move to the less naive. By getting Johnson out Truman has reduced the vulnerable target area of the Republican's political artillery by about fifty percent, the other fifty being the forces represented by Acheson. To this extent it strengthens Truman and the New Deal generally in the coming campaign, which is going to be hot.

As far as Truman is concerned, we cannot but look upon any act of his with suspicion born of experience. As time goes on he shows more and more that he is himself a mere prisoner in the White House, so lacking in the mental and moral qualities demanded of the highest office the Republic has to offer as to present a pitiful, if hateful, spectacle of gross ineptitude. This is the type admirably suited to the Zionist

Control. He presents no ethical objections to the things he is told to do, has not the mentality to appreciate the significance of his acts, and has a past so shadily rooted in the Pendergast hog-wallow alliance between crime and politics that they scarcely have to remind him to behave as they say, or else.

This being the condition of the man who picked him, we cannot but feel great distrust of Marshall. There remains only one hope, and, with the record as it is, this is a slim one. Can Marshall be counted on to turn American, as did Forrestal? And if he does, will they crucify him as they did Forrestal? When Marshall first came into prominence as Roosevelt's Army Chief of Staff he was supplied with all the information then available to patriotic groups in the U.S.A. concerning the Zionist plot. The record does not show that he took the slightest notice of it. He was hand-picked by Roosevelt, the first Chief of Staff who was not a West Pointer (he came from Virginia Military Institute). We shall have to pray to God in His mercy to give this man Christian inspiration and fortitude. The power he wields is sufficient to destroy America or to save it from chaos.

This is not hysteria pouring forth from an alarmed citizen. This is the long-held opinion of an old experienced soldier of the Republic who has risked his life in seven wars during his thirty seven years of service and has offered to do so again in this one. May God grant us the vision and the courage to do what is needed to save not only our beloved country, but the entire world from a fate worse than death.

PROSECUTE FOR PERJURY

The many Marxist hate sheets are giving the impression that they are promoting the prosecution of those who perjured themselves before the Senate Armed Services Committee during the hearings on Zionist Anna M. Rosenberg. Now here is a good idea. We are quite certain that Mr. Ralph De Sola and the other anti-Communists would be glad to see prosecution started. But this won't happen.

Anna M. Rosenberg and other top Marxists would not allow such a prosecution for fear of the truth being made known to the public. Remember how the Alger Hiss-Wittaker Chambers contest ended? Anna Rosenberg feels lucky that she has accomplished what she has and is willing to let the issue rest. She doesn't want publicity carried any further.

If an open hearing was held now on her fitness for this all important position she holds she would be OUT quickly.

PLEASE PASS THIS ON TO A FRIEND.

Hungary-A Classic Study Of Communism In Action

By Hilary Cotter

(Note: One may think that Korea and protection from the Atom Bomb are more urgent questions than the workings of Communism in Hungary, but it is there, as this article by Hilary Cotter will show, that you will find the key to the world situation—the Editor.)

The Communists are saying that Hungary is now a "working-class dictatorship," a "workers' paradise" and a country where all the profits have been taken away from the factory owners and given to the workers. This is a complete lie, but then Lenin told Communists in his book "Left-Wing Communism" to use "Lies and deceit" to non-Communists—in the same way that Jews are allowed by their Bible, "The Talmud" to use lies to Gentiles.

The London "News Review" of 16th December 1948 stated that the Hungarian Communist Cabinet then consisted of five Jews and one Gentile (Laslo Rajk) under the dictatorship of the Jew Matyas Rakosi who was flown into Hungary from Moscow after the Red Army had "liberated" it in 1945. The London "Times" of 20th June 1949 went even further—it bluntly stated that Laslo Rajk was the sole Gentile in the entire Hungarian Communist Party hierarchy!

Laslo Rajk was hanged in October 1949 for "treason"—but both the "Times" of 20th June 1949 and the London "Jewish Chronicle" of 23rd September 1949 stated that one of his "crimes"

A PART OF A PLAN

A Russian newspaper, Pravda, of 5th February, 1920, published in Berlin, contained an interesting document in Hebrew, dated December, 1919, which was found in the pocket of the dead Jew Zunder, the Bolshevik Commander of the 11th Sharp-shooter Battalion, throwing light on the secret organizations of Jewry in Russia.

This Protocol has, like the first, never been called in question by the Nation of Jewry. It reveals identically the same plans and purposes of the Jews for World domination and revenge which pervade them all. This one especially gloats over the Jew conquest and enslavement of Russia.

In extenso it ran as follows:

Secret:—To the representatives of all the branches of the Israelite International League.

Sons of Israel! The hour of our ultimate victory is near. We stand on the threshold to the command of the world. That which we could only dream of before us is about to be realized. Only quite recently feeble and powerless, we can now, thanks to the world's catastrophe, raise our heads with pride.

'We must, however, be careful. It can surely be prophesied that, after we have marched over ruined and broken altars and thrones, we shall advance further on the same-indicated path.

The authority of the, to us, alien religions and doctrines of faith we have, through very successful propaganda, subjected to a merciless criticism and mockery. We have brought the culture, civilization, traditions and thrones of the Christian nations to stagger. We have done everything to bring the Russian people under the Lenin said: "For every Communist we have ten others ready and able to do our work."

COMMON SENSE will gladly prove that the only difference between Communism and Zionism is in the spelling of the words.

Here we have Gen. George C. Marshall who does not yet remember where he was the night before Pearl Harbor; the man who as Ambassador to China, spent 13 months setting up Communism in China for our Marxist-dominated State Department.

Marshall allowed the "Marshall Plan" to be camouflaged with his name. The "Marshall Plan" was written by L. Levitsky (Levine) changed again to Louis Lorwin, a Russian-born Yiddish Zionist.

Left to right: Abba Eban, Israel Ambassador to U.S., Gen. Marshall, and Moshe Sharret, Israel Foreign Minister. This picture was taken on November 29, 1950, the day of the worst crisis for our armed forces in Korea. On that day President Truman and Dean Acheson were asked to speak at dinners but refused due to the serious military crisis. Marshall dared not refuse his invitation, just as he dared not refuse to recommend the appointment of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense to work with Marx Leva, also an Assistant Secretary of Defense. Both are Zionists.

Another top man in the Marshall circle is R. A. Lovett, Marxist student of Felix Frankfurter at Harvard.

It would seem that our Defense system is being packed with servants to Marxism just as our State Department has been.

Anna M. Rosenberg, the new Assistant Secretary of Defense, was pushed into the U.S. Defense Department by pressure from every Zionist group in America. Such Zionist financial powers as Lazard Freres & Co., Lehman Brothers, Kuhn, Loeb and Co.; Albert Lasker (a close associate of Bernard Baruch) and Gimbels Co., all used their influence to ascertain that Anna M. Rosenberg be placed in charge of the Nation's manpower.

Mrs. Rosenberg's record speaks for itself. Never in the history of America has a person with such a questionable background been placed in such an important position. Her hate for Christianity, and those who follow the teachings of Jesus Christ, has been made unequivocally clear by the fact that she was one of the most active supporters of the Lincoln Brigade composed of Communists who went from the U.S. to Spain to slaughter 20,000 Priests, thousands of nuns and Christians, and burned 25,000 religious institutions. Anna M. Rosenberg's Red Record would fill 30 pages of Common Sense—the red record of her associates would fill 5,000 pages. If it is not so, sue us. Marx Leva, also an Assistant Secretary of Defense, is another ZIONIST who is in an important position to dictate the policies to patriotic men and women of America.

U. S. WAR DEPARTMENT

William S. Paley (Zionist), Board Chairman of Columbia Broadcasting System, has just been named in defense post by President Truman to head the new Materials Policy Commission that will study the nation's vast supply problems.

It is interesting to know that Lehman Bros. control CBS; also remember that Senator Herbert Lehman sat in on the Senate Armed Service Committee Hearing on Anna M. Rosenberg; and it was Senator Lehman who was most active on the defense committee for the top Communist spy, Gerhard Eisler, before Eisler escaped in the Polish ship. It was also Senator Lehman who directed the fight against the McNaren anti-Communist bill.

William S. Paley (Zionist)

When will we wake up?

R. A. Lovett

Anna M. Rosenberg who claims she is not THE Anna Rosenberg. If there is another Anna, more red than this one, we would like to see her.

ENGLISH WAR DEPARTMENT

Clement Attlee, the British Prime Minister (Labor party), who was recently in the United States conferring on defense plans, is front left, giving the Communist clenched-fist salute in Spain at the time of the Spanish Civil war. The picture appears in a book, "The International Brigades—Foreign Assistants of the Spanish Reds," published by the Spanish Office of Information, Madrid, in 1948.

He is accompanied by General Maija and the Zionist Commissar of the Central Army Anton, leader of the Spanish Communist party.

The Brigades were formed by Russian Communists in various countries to keep Generalissimo Franco from an early victory. The picture is taken from Our Fight, weekly publication of the XV International Brigade, and it was accompanied by a letter in Attlee's own handwriting (also reproduced in the book) with the text saying: "I should like to give my best wishes to all the Brigade and especially to the English company. We have been proud to hear of the high reputation which they have gained. I would assure them of our admiration for their courage and devotion for the cause of freedom and social justice. I shall try to tell our comrades at home of what I have seen. Workers of the world, unite! C.R. Attlee."

Now we can understand why England must support Communist China as against the United States.

FRENCH WAR DEPARTMENT

Gen. Eisenhower in Paris, January 10, 1951, talks with Jules Moch, French Defense Minister. Moch is a Zionist as was his cousin, Leon Blum, former President of France and originator of the sit-down strike. It was Leon Blum who transformed the French military machine into a mere shell, allowing Germany to walk right through their lines. Gen. Eisenhower, during the last war, held our troops outside of Berlin for three weeks to allow the Russian Communists to sack the city. Informants state that it was the late Rabbi Stephen S. Wise and Henry Morgenthau who ordered Eisenhower to commit this insane act against the German people.

Also in France, as Secretary of the French Armed Forces, is the Zionist Admiral Louis Kahn.

yoke of the Jewish power, and ultimately compelled them to fall on their knees before us.

We have nearly completed all this but we must all the same be very cautious, because the oppressed Russia is our arch-enemy. The victory over Russia, gained through our intellectual superiority, may in future, in a new generation, turn against us.

Russia is conquered and brought to the ground. Russia is in the agony of death under our heel, but do not forget—not even for a moment—that we must be careful! The holy care for our safety does not allow us to show either pity or mercy. At last we have been allowed to behold the bitter need of the Russian people, and to see it in tears! By taking from them their property their gold, we have reduced this people to helpless slaves.

Be cautious and silent! We ought to have no mercy for our enemy. We must make an end of the best and leading elements of the Russian people, so that the vanquished Russia may not find any leader! Thereby every possibility will vanish for them to resist our power. We must excite hatred and disputes between workers and peasants. War and class-struggle will destroy all treasures and culture created by the Christian people. But be cautious, Sons of Israel! Our victory is near, because our political and economic power and influence upon the masses are in rapid progress. We buy up Government loans and gold, and thereby we have controlling power over the world's exchanges. The power is in our hands, but be careful—place no faith in traitorous shady powers!

Bronstein (Trotsky), Apfelbaum (Zinovief), Rosenfeld (Kamaneff), Steinberg—all of them are like unto thousands of other true sons of Israel. Our power in Russia is unlimited. In the towns, the Commissariats and Commissions of Food, House Commissions, etc., are dominated by our people. But do not let victory intoxicate you. Be careful, cautious, because no one except yourselves will protect us!

Remember we cannot rely on the Red Army, which one day may turn its warfare on ourselves.

Sons of Israel! The hour for our long-cherished victory over Russia is near; close up solid your ranks! Make known our people's national policy! Fight for eternal ideals! Keep holy the old laws, which history has bequeathed to us! May our intellect, our genius, protect and lead us!

Signed, The Central Committee of the Petersburg Branch of the Israelite International League.

was anti-Semitism! The case of Laslo Rajk serves as a dreadful warning to all Gentile scum who play ball with Jewish Communism. Just as the savages of Africa throw their old women who are no longer able to bear children into the river to be eaten by crocodiles, so do the Jews send their Gentile figure-heads under Communism to the gallows when they no longer have any use for them.

There is thus no longer a sole Gentile among the Hungarian Communist party leaders.

This fact was so blatant that even the Hungarian Communist Party was compelled to do something about it.

The London "Times" of 6th July 1949 reported that the official Hungarian Communist Party daily newspaper "Szabad Nep" had been forced to scold Hungarian Communists for "not having a single working-man among their friends," telling them to cultivate such friendships in the future!

How can Communist Hungary be a "working-class dictatorship" when the Hungarian Communist Party, by their own admission, consists of 100% Jews?

But the climax is yet to come! For years Matyas Rakosi (when not in gaol for mass murders of Christians during the Jew Bela Kuhn's Communist dictatorship of 1919) and his Communists told the Hungarian working class that if he was made Dictator he would make everything and everyone equal under Communism and take away the profits of the factory owners and give them to the workers.

But the workers didn't believe him. What they suspected was that Rakosi and his Jewish Communists would take away the profits from the factory owners and keep them—and not pass them off to the working class at all! And how right they were!

Since the Red Army made Rakosi Communist dictator in 1945, the Hungarian Working classes have suffered agonies and privations unknown ever before. And to crown everything on 31st May 1949, in a violent attack on the Hungarian working class for slackness, Rakosi—according to the London "Times" of 3rd June 1949—jeered and laughed at them for believing that Socialism implied equality and for expecting that the shares in the factories would be taken over and divided among themselves.

Rakosi's actual words (in the "Times" of 3rd June 1949:—"Some workers still believe that Socialism implied 'some sort of equality' and expected the shares in factories taken over and divided among themselves.")

(Note:—Socialism is the regime in Hungary and all Communist countries, including Russia. Communism is a kind of bait and incentive the Jew holds in front of the helpless worker—vague promise of Utopia or Paradise to be attained after 1000 or so years of slavery under the Jew.)

In other words, Rakosi, having for years promised the workers that everything would be equal and that he would soak the rich and give the money to the poor, cynically admitted—now that he has the secret police and Red Army behind him—that Communism is a confidence trick whereby Jews acquire the nation's wealth by pretending to nationalise it for the working classes.

The London "Daily Telegraph" of 17th July 1950 reports another violent attack on the Hungarian working class for slackness by the Hungarian Communist Party and the introduction of the much-hated workbooks.

By all accounts the struggle of the Hungarian working class against the Jews in Hungary is beginning to rival that of their heroic brothers in Ukraine—if that is possible.

SENATE SHOULD REVIEW ANNA ROSENBERG'S RECORD

By Robert H. Williams

Editor, "Williams Intelligence Summary"

The Senate voted almost unanimously to confirm the appointment of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense.

A committee had absolved her of charges that she was the Anna Rosenberg who belonged to the John Reed Clubs and the Communist Party in the 1930's. Committeemen said they had only the sworn statement of one Ralph de Sola, former Communist, that she was the same Anna M. Rosenberg he had known inside the John Reed Clubs, and de Sola weakened his position by naming several other witnesses who said they knew nothing about the case.

Major Robert H. Williams

It was then reported that a California woman whose maiden name had been Anna Rosenberg, confessed to the FBI that she was the former John Reed Club member. Our report was taken from the California Un-American Activities Committee Report of 1948 and it was only logical to suppose that it referred to the only Anna Rosenberg notorious for championing left wing causes.

We are not yet satisfied about this case, by a long shot. We want the California woman, for instance, to show whether or not she is now anti-Communist, for if she is still a Communist too, then we have no choice but to conclude that she is making the confession on behalf of the Communist Party, and that the Party wants to clear the name of Anna M. Rosenberg so as to keep her in the second highest position in the defense establishment of the United States.

We believe the California former Anna Rosenberg can make clear that she is now anti-Communist if she is. And we believe that if she really is the former John Reed Club member she can find plenty of witnesses to prove her statement. So far she has hedged against giving the House Committee on Un-American Activities the benefit of her information about former members of the John Reed Clubs and so far we know of no one who has verified her alleged former membership in the John Reed Clubs.

WROTE FOR COMMUNIST ORGAN

But whether Anna M. Rosenberg, Assistant Secretary of Defense, did or did not belong to the John Reed Clubs and/or the Communist Party, much of her record is well known. Her own son told Jewish newspaper reporters that she had long worked with Zionist groups.

She has been for many years one of the extreme leftists of the leftist New Deal, advocating the Communist-inspired "civil rights measures," the Communist-inspired socialized medicine program, working in the Zionist operation to bring in more unassimilable immigrants, more immigrants of the minority groups who are so readily regimented against the Whites by Communist and Zionist leadership.

Among her accomplishments is an article which she wrote for the New Masses, issue of Dec. 8, 1942, page 11, part of a propaganda piece called "Women on the Job." Lest there be some question as to the identity of the Anna Rosenberg who contributed this article to the New Masses I have gone to the Los Angeles Public Library and got a photostat of the article and present it herewith. The "NM" at the bottom of the photostated page means New Masses. Notice that her title is given as "N.Y. Regional Director, War Manpower Commission." That was her job under Roosevelt the Red from 1942 to 1945. She had long worked with the Marxist Sidney Hillman machine.

Anna M. Rosenberg

N.Y. Regional Director, War Manpower Commission

TO ME, there is one essential difference between women's participation in this war and in the last one. I think that today women have a much deeper appreciation of what this war means to them. It strikes at the very heart of all a woman lives for—the home. I think that what our women have learned is that there are many practicalities which make women's participation in the war effort today much more valuable than it was twenty-five years ago. Women have become adept at handling machinery; they have earned for themselves a more secure and respected place in the labor market; they have broken down the skepticism and reluctance of employers.

But basically it is because the American woman today believes implicitly that she is helping to preserve the American family—its independence, its security, its hope of the future—that will make her contribution to eventual victory so tremendous.

NM December 8, 1942

As you doubtless remember, the New Masses was one of the best known Communist publications for many years. The California Un-American Activities Committee Report for 1947 speaks of "the New Masses, a Communist magazine" (page 183), and the 1948 Report of the same Committee cites the New Masses 46 times in connection with Communist operations. Mrs. Rosenberg could not possibly have failed to know that the New Masses for which she wrote the article was a Communist paper.

Why did the United States Senate confirm a contributor to the Communist organ as an Assistant Secretary of Defense at a time when we are in perhaps a fatal struggle against the secretive Communist power?

Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg is, or was, an active member of the New York State Committee for Equality in Education, a group of left wingers, including some of the most notorious Communist frontiers (Guy Emery Shipler of Harvard, Joseph Lash, many times memorialized by Westbrook Pegler for Red activities, the late Communist-serving Zionist, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam.)

This committee, among other things, protests the use of the New Testament in public schools on the grounds that the New Testament is anti-Semitic.

Readers of my publications may recall that I exposed part of Anna Rosenberg's Communist-aiding record in 1948 in my booklet "The Untold Story of State Medicine," page 13, showing that she was one of the board of directors of the notorious Committee for the Nation's Health, which has been the outstanding leader of the left wing in promoting socialization of medicine in America. This group has circulated the most preposterous lies about the state of "the nation's health," and spent or influenced the spending of many millions of dollars in the attempt to trick the American people into accepting political control of doctors, nurses, hospitals—and patients.

The importance of such a scheme to international Communism is shown in some detail in my booklet. It was stated in brief by Lenin who called it "the keystone to the arch of the Socialist state," and Manuisky, then head of the Communist International, told an international conference of Communist agents in Moscow in 1930:

"In the United States, for instance, the Communists must launch a powerful movement for social insurance."

I quote the following passages from Page 13 of my booklet on socialized medicine:

"The Committee for the Nation's Health lists some big names among its promoters:"

"The key position in the Committee for the Nation's Health is that of executive secretary. We find this seat of power filled by the Jew, V. Henry Rothschild, the Second."

"The board of directors is about half Jewish, Dr. Ernest P. Boas, Anna Rosenberg, V. Henry Rothschild, Second, Mrs. Gardner Cowles and Mrs. Albert D. Lasker (Warner)."

In this instance there is no denying that it is the Anna M. Rosenberg whom Truman recently appointed second in command of our defense establishment. No other Anna Rosenberg is a sufficiently influential propagandist to have been appointed to the Committee for the Nation's Health. Furthermore, Mrs. Rosenberg has listed herself in Who's Who as a member of the executive board of that subversive committee.

RALPH DE SOLA

It has been reported in the press that Mr. De Sola refused to take the lie detector test. The truth is that twice Mr. De Sola suggested he take the lie detector test along with Anna M. Rosenberg and Mr. John McGraw, who Mr. De Sola says brought him into the Communist party. Who was afraid to take the lie-detector test—and why?

"The Jewish religion is hostile to Christianity, in general and to the Catholic church in particular."

THE COMMUNIST THREAT TO AMERICA

REDS DEFEND ROSENBERG

By Major Robert H. Williams

The time has come when we must accept this kind of activity—the promotion of a vicious Communist front—for what it is a vital weapon in the Communist world revolution. The appointment of one of the principal personalities in this front to the position of Assistant Secretary of Defense knifes in the back every anti-Communist soldier in Korea.

Mrs. Rosenberg's Communist-aiding friends betray her by coming to her defense. One is Senator Herbert H. Lehman, of "the secret government of the United States," supporter of Marxist measures, international Jewish banker who defended Alger Hiss and arranged with his (Lehman's) niece, Mrs. Benjamin Bittenwieser, to shelter Mr. and Mrs. Hiss in her home during the second Hiss trial. Senator Lehman sat beside Mrs. Rosenberg as the Senate committee questioned her, his purpose presumably being to soften the questioning by his presence.

The New York Post, Communist-aiding "anti-anti-Communist" daily newspaper, bannered across page 2 of its Dec. 14 issue: ANTI-SEMITIC 'HATE SHEETS' SPAWN ROSENBERG RED LIE. Following the usual Communist tactics of trying to deny Americans the right to defend their country against Communism and Zionism by denouncing them as anti-Semitic, the article began: "The nation's anti-Semitic 'hate sheets' were revealed today as being behind the attempt to block Senate confirmation of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense by pinning a 'Communist' label on her." The Post ran a photograph of the front page headlines of Common Sense, anti-Communist paper of Union, N. J., and a photograph of the upper part of page 1 of my December issue exposing Mrs. Rosenberg, and devoted over half a column to quoting and maligning my article and me.

Among other things the Post libeled me by saying that the Anti-Defamation League described me as "one of the most vicious anti-Semites in the country" and further libeled me by repeating the false statement that my publication is listed by the American Legion in its "Exposure of Hate Groups."

DON'T DENY CHARGES

The "Exposure" leaflet which is circulated by Communist-aiding groups (the real hate groups) including the Anti-Defamation League, quotes from the Congressional Record which falsely attributes the material to the Americanism Commission of the Illinois Department, American Legion. I reported in my January, 1950, issue, page 4, that the material was only a smear article got up by left wingers to which Harry Hopkins. How did he first come to the White House? Here is how we understand it. A professor at Grinnell College in Iowa where Hopkins had graduated gave Hopkins a letter to Anna M. Rosenberg and she introduced him to Eleanor Roosevelt. Eleanor took Hopkins to F.D.R. and later Hopkins moved into the White House to live and direct for the Anna M. Rosenberg crowd.

It was through Harry Hopkins that most of the trickery was used to maneuver the U.S. in World War II. F.D.R. sent Hopkins to make the important contacts with Stalin which gave Communist Soviet Union eleven Billion dollars of our assets by lend lease which they still owe us. Hopkins was director of lend lease and it was he who said "Tax, Spend, and Elect." He also made the statement several times that "the people are too damn dumb to understand." It was Anna M. Rosenberg's pal, Harry Hopkins whom Major Racey Jordan exposed as giving orders during the war for clearance for the Communists to take top Atomic Secrets to Russia. Major Racey Jordan had confiscated 30 suit cases of secret papers taken from our government files. The Communist Col. Kotiko called Hopkins on the phone at the White House in Washington and spoke in Russian to Hopkins. Hopkins then ordered Major Racey Jordan to release the plane load of secret papers at Great Falls Montana and not to mention the incident to Jordan's superior officers.

Hopkins died during 1946 but now Anna M. Rosenberg is in complete charge of our Defense Department. WHEN WILL WE WAKE UP?

By The Honorable Martin Dies (Democrat)

(Editor's Note: The following condensation of a speech made by the former Member of Congress from Texas at Galveston, Texas, 1948, is being printed now because it so graphically shows the trap into which Roosevelt led us.)

Christian civilization is more gravely menaced throughout the world today than ever before in history. At long last, many of our people realize that fact. Unfortunately, however, they realize it imperfectly and incompletely. There are still millions of people in the United States who have no conception of the methods, tactics, and purposes of communism.

It has been a short time since World War II was over. You recall that when we asked our boys to serve in our armed forces that the President of the United States and other leaders assured them that this was a war to end all wars. We were told that if and when we defeated Adolph Hitler, we would establish a just and lasting peace.

Today the dictatorship of Joseph Stalin is a greater menace to our security and to our freedom than ever was the dictatorship of Adolph Hitler. Hitler occupied a country with 70 millions of people, limited in natural resources. Joseph Stalin has a country with a territory larger than the United States and Canada, with more natural resources than any country on earth, and 200 million people. He has succeeded, without firing a gun, acquiring 650 thousand square miles and 110 million subject people. Certainly there ought to be some people in America that are deeply interested in finding out what happened, because never in the history of the world has one country made such tremendous strides toward world domination as the Soviet Union.

Only a few years ago, Russia was looked upon as a third-rate power. Today, all of us must concede that Russia is the most powerful country on earth. How did that happen? I propose to answer that question. And in answering it, I am going to tell you some of the intimate details of conversations and conferences between me and President Roosevelt, Henry Wallace, Madam Perkins, Eleanor Roosevelt, John L. Lewis, and others.

It all began in 1938. I was a member of the Immigration Committee and also a member of the Committee on Rules of the House of Representatives. I became intensely interested in communist infiltration of labor unions, and in government service. I decided the time was appropriate to investigate and expose communists' activities in the United States. So I introduced a resolution and the Committee on Rules approved it and the House of Representatives, on May 26, 1938, established the Committee.

Immediately after the Committee was established, I encountered strenuous opposition. When I went to the Committee on Accounts to secure an appropriation to finance the work of the Committee, I found that the Democratic members were hostile to every suggestion that I made. They finally, upon instructions from the White House, reduced the requested budget from 100 thousand dollars to 25 thousand dollars. I began the work with the paltry sum of 25 thousand dollars.

I recall that my uncle, Jack Dies, who was then with the Humble Oil Refining Company, and is now dead, came to Washington and I discussed it with him. He said, "Martin, you know I hate to advise you to abandon this project, but I have seen enough to know that you are now preparing to antagonize powerful forces in this country and that you will be harassed as few men have been harassed in this country."

Well, I had started it and I cannot back up. I telephoned the Attorney General of the United States and said, "Mr. Attorney General, I want to secure the services of some competent and reliable investigators to assist me in this work." He sent me two men. I received a telephone call, however, an anonymous call, shortly before their arrival, telling me both men were members of the Communist Party. I never knew who gave me that valuable information, but I acted upon it.

When they arrived, I began to question them. I put them through the third degree, in the presence of the entire Committee, and finally they admitted that they were members of the Communist Party who worked for the Department of Justice and the Attorney General wanted to plant them on the Committee which I headed.

Immediately I knew what was in store for me. When a responsible cabinet officer was willing to plant two eagles of Moscow on my Committee to sabotage it, I knew that the Administration was under the control of Moscow propaganda.

Then I began to accumulate evidence before opening public hearings, and I got a lot of evidence about the infiltration of the C.I.O. by communist leadership. I was able to trace a number of communists, who went to Leningrad, at the expense of the Moscow government, and received special instructions in labor agitation and returned to the United States. When John L. Lewis broke from the American Federation of Labor, he turned to these well trained communist agitators to form the rank and file of his organizers throughout the industrial field. I got their names and the evidence, which was clear and convincing, showing that some 50 thousand of them had joined the labor unions to seize strategic positions in the union. They controlled 21 of the international unions affiliated with the C.I.O. Eighteen members of the Executive Board of the C.I.O., the governing board, the most powerful organization within the C.I.O., were members of the Communist Party.

Unions such as the Seaman's Union and the Maritime Union, which control the American shipping, unions that vitally affect our whole economy and security were under the control of men and women who had been trained and educated in Leningrad for the express purpose of returning to the United States, obtaining positions of importance, so that they could promote the ideology and revolutionary program of Joseph Stalin.

When I got that information, I telephoned John L. Lewis and told him I wanted to talk with him. I went to his office the following day at ten o'clock. I walked in and Lee Pressman stood to his right with some of the lieutenants of John L. Lewis in attendance. I knew that Pressman personally was a member of the Communist Party. He was the Chief Attorney for John L. Lewis. I said, "Mr. Lewis, I have received considerable information from reliable sources that many communists have entered your union. They are shop stewards, presidents of local unions, organizers, and so forth. It is our duty to investigate and expose them. I have come to you to find out if you, as an American citizen and labor leader, will be willing to cooperate with the Committee without publicity to the end that these agents and stooges of a foreign dictator can be expelled from their positions of leadership."

Mr. Lewis became very angry. His face was flushed. He struck the desk with his fist and said to me, "Mr. Congressman, the C.I.O. does not need you to tell us how to run it. Yes, we have communists in the C.I.O. We have Baptists, we have Methodists, and have Democrats and Republicans, but we don't need a Committee of Congress to tell us who we are to hire and fire."

I said to Mr. Lewis and his lieutenants, "Mr. Lewis, you have evidently overlooked the vast distinction between ordinary members of political groups and communist eagles of a foreign power. All of the evidence, without exception, shows that communists are disciplined to be servants of Moscow. They have no independence; they sacrifice their citizenship when they become members of the Communist Party, and surely you will not compel us to openly and publicly expose these people when you could get rid of them. We have their names and you can get them out."

The conversation grew hot and furious and finally Mr. Lewis invited me to leave the office, which I cheerfully did. I announced through the press that I intended next morning to open hearings and give the American people the truth.

I received a telephone call from President Roosevelt who asked me to come to the White House at ten o'clock the next morning. I went to the White House. Senator Sheppard was there. Evidently the President thought Senator Sheppard might influence me. The President then began in his magnificent way to undertake to persuade me to abandon my resolution to expose communism in the C.I.O. He said to me, "You know, Martin, I have been watching you for a long time. You have a promising future. You are an able speaker and a young man and I want vigorous able, young men in the New Deal, and you can go a long way working with me." He continued "You have got to be loyal to me. I can't work with men that I can't depend upon. You can't go through with this investigation." And I said "Why can't I go through with it, Mr. President?" Of course, I was somewhat weakened, to tell the truth. It sounded awfully good to me, what he was telling me, and being human, I am not going to represent myself as any hero because I wasn't. I was just plain scared.

He said, "Well, if you expose the communists in the C.I.O., the C.I.O. will turn against the Democratic Party. If we lose the C.I.O. support in the eastern states we cannot win." "Well," I said, "Mr. President, do you mean to imply that the communists have so completely taken over the C.I.O. that exposure of them will result in antagonism to the Democratic Party?" He said, "Yes."

Well, one thing led to another, and finally the President became somewhat impatient and angry with me. He turned to Senator Sheppard and said "Senator, what are we going to do with Martin?" Senator Sheppard was a very genial, pleasant man and a good friend of mine. He said, "I don't know. I knew his dad, and when one of these Dies makes up his mind to do something, he usually does it. I am afraid you are going to have trouble in persuading him not to do it."

The interview lasted about 45 or 50 minutes. Finally, I looked at the watch and said, "Mr. President, I have to go because the Committee meets and I have to be there to open." And I began the hearing, exposing the C.I.O., and showing very clearly that a majority of the unions were dominated and controlled by Moscow. Then began the fight.

I recall for instance, that a man by the name of General Sevinsky, a very able young man who had served with Stalin for a long time, had become disgusted with the brutality of the communist practice and had fled to the United States. I discovered his whereabouts and went to see him. He told me an amazing story of what Stalin had told him a long time ago, about the plan to infiltrate the Balkan states, to build secret armies in every country, to spend millions of dollars for propaganda purposes. He told me the ultimate goal of Stalin was the conquest of Europe and then the conquest of the Americas.

I said to him, "Why don't you come to Washington and testify? The American people ought to have that information." He said, "Mr. Congressman, if I were to come to Washington and testify and if they discovered my identity, the OGPU which is now the NKVD, the secret army of the Politico Bureau, would assassinate me in two days."

I said, "Surely they are not that powerful in the United States." I was very skeptical about it. He said, "Mr. Congressman, I was chief of the Western Division of the Soviet Intelligence and I know that there isn't a country, there isn't a town of industrial importance that members of the OGPU are not there listening, getting and using information and transmitting it to the Soviet Union. They have their agents in the Embassies—even the ambassadors do not know the members of the OGPU."

I talked to him at some length and finally, upon the promise that I would protect him and conceal his identity, he agreed to testify.

I called up the Secret Service and I said, "I am undertaking a rather perilous thing. This man is fearful of his life." I undertook to get a commitment from the government that they would help me protect him, but the government didn't want him to testify. He did testify. His name was not given then to the press. Within two weeks after his startling revelations, which predicted almost one hundred percent accurately the progress the Kremlin has made within the last two years, within two weeks after his testimony, he was found shot in his hotel room in Washington, D.C. Not one arm was raised by the Federal Government to discover, and apprehend the man or men responsible for his death.

Another former agent of the Soviet Union, in New York, was persuaded to testify. Shortly after his testimony, he was found dead. They said it was a heart attack. I demanded another examination and discovered that he had been shot with a fine steel bullet through the eye which had entered his brain and brought about his death.

Still another man who testified before our Committee in Chicago was mysteriously run down by a hit-and-run driver.

I say these things to show you what happened in the United States and which resulted in the sacrifice of the fruits of victory won by our boys on the battlefields. I am at a loss to understand why men in public affairs are not now clamoring for publication of the secret agreements made with Joseph Stalin by our government. I have been amazed that people have received with such indifference and unconcern the startling revelation that ALL OF THE MEN FOUGHT AND DIED IN VAIN BECAUSE THEY WERE BETRAYED.

They were betrayed because the Soviet Union built up in this country the greatest propaganda machine the world has ever seen. They spent millions of dollars to entertain congressmen and senators and cabinet officers. The brother-in-law of Molotov, operating a chain of filling stations in New Jersey, was investigated by our Committee. We trailed him for a long time. We discovered he visited a certain banker in New York and that after each visit to that bank, he was able to bribe some official. Finally, we met him there one day when he opened a safety deposit box and we discovered 250 thousand dollars in thousand-dollar and hundred-dollar bills in his box. We brought him before the Committee. He admitted that his brother-in-law, Molotov, had given him a credit of 200 million dollars to be spent in the United States, in order to obtain information about the construction of battleships. The government of the United States never raised a finger against him although he admitted that five national committeemen of the Democratic Party had been paid cash by him. That was a matter of record, and they did not deny it or contest it, but said it represented legal fees.

Think of it! Think of the stupidity and indifference of a country when a foreign power can spend American money to bribe our own officials. The facts are admitted, and no one has any interest in it.

Yes, they spent money and they spent it lavishly in the United States. The Soviet Embassy in Washington operated on a 24-hour schedule, and they were able to dupe, to completely dupe such nitwits as Henry Wallace and Claude Pepper.

I shall not give you anything which is the result of surmise or opinion, but information that I know to be correct. I had agents watching the Soviet Embassy day in and day out, and I noted the presence of so-called liberal New Dealers who were present there day in and day out, completely duped by Stalin and his machine. Yes, you know how it is—the caviar and champagne that flowed in the Soviet embassy had a profound effect on some of our budding statesmen.

Whenever Henry Wallace spoke in Madison Square Garden, the communists packed it. When I spoke in Madison Square Garden, they booed and jeered and it required almost the entire police force of New York to maintain order. The communists work at their business of revolutionizing the world, of spreading their ideology while we sit idly by.

One World Resolution Repudiated

TO FELLOW AMERICAN PATRIOTS
IN OTHER PENDING STATES:

Whether your job is to have your legislature rescind any previously passed world-government resolution or to oppose any proposed new ones, THIS LADY IN TENNESSEE AND HER 3000 PATRIOTIC WOMEN demonstrate how IT CAN BE DONE.

This writer doubted this success in Tennessee—it has been so infested with ONE WORLDERS on a national level. (Read Joseph Kamp's book "We Must Abolish The United States") This makes eight states to rescind and others coming.

For your information I am attaching hereto a copy of the resolution presented by Mrs. Carter. It is the most warming expression of AMERICANISM, sincere and straightforward common sense thinking of any resolution I have seen. If you are involved in one-worldism in your state—use it and if not, absorb it—it's factual and so patriotically expressive.

Sincerely,

"My dear Mr. Case:

Certainly you should know (perhaps do) that we tore Tennessee from her shackles and she's safely home—however we are informed "the boys will keep working."

Am enclosing the name of the Senator from my home town (John R. Long, Jr.) whom I chose to present our bill; only one negative vote in the Senate by roll call.

The House had "no and I" vote. We think four nos—but — professor and their friends had paid workers—but the D.A.R. stepped out alone; only my letter resolution and your pamphlet placed on the desk of each senator and representative—33 & 99, a few hours before presentation, prayer and planned work did the job. I'm going to Florida for a rest now—thank you for your great help.

"MRS. CARTER OPPOSES FEDERATION"

"While the General Assembly was plowing through a heavy order of local bills, Senator Long introduced a resolution calling for repudiation of a 1945 resolution approving the principles of World Federation. It passed the Senate by a vote of 27 to 1.

"The resolution which called for opposition to the bills of World Federation was guided through by Mrs. Ferd M. Carter of Springfield, chairman of national defense for the Daughters of the American Revolution. Her resolution read to the Senate:

"The enclosed resolution was adopted by the Tennessee Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution at their annual state conference, March 17, 1950. There is, as you know, fantastic schemes of a World Government being forced upon us by the same elements which have supported communism and other ideologies. These skilled intellectuals know that the magical word Peace is in the heart of every true American. Wearing a cloak of peace, they tell us the only avenue for peace is a Federated or World Government. There are more than 30 groups propagandising Americans through this alluring term. Peace—but the echo comes—there is no peace.

Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men burst forth on the Judean hills long ago, but the peace offered is not Good Will Toward Men, nor is it Americanism. Unmasked it is communism, merciless, militant and un-Christian.

In 1945 their scheme led the General Assembly of Tennessee to ask Congress for a form of World Government. If 36 states call for World Government, then Congress is thereby mandated to call a Constitutional Convention for the purpose of involving (turning over our affairs and all) this nation in a world government which will be dominated by representatives of other nations, thus causing this nation to lose its sovereignty and freedom. How will we thus account to the sons and daughters who fought and died to preserve this freedom?

Are you willing to scrap our Navy and Air Force for a world army commanded by foreigners? They would be supreme over our affairs with authority to touch each individual. Are you willing to compete with cheap foreign labor and lose your standard of living? Would you substitute Russian slavery for America's freedom?

Is this the freedom that we bought, to live, be ruled and spurred to hate and fear by peoples that cower, kill and rage?

America has been a light for Christian religion. Do you want that light extinguished? When the light goes out in America it will go out all over the world.

Six states that had petitions for World Government have rescinded their resolutions. More than three thousand Tennessee Daughters of the American Revolution beg you to rescind those resolutions, and place Tennessee back home on her pillow of Freedom that her sons and daughters may be rocked to sleep in Peace in her arms. I appeal to your citizenship—Keep the light of Liberty ablaze on our own hearth stone."

Gratefully,

AN OPEN LETTER

Senator Richard B. Russell,
Senate Office Building,
Washington, D. C.
Dear Senator Russell:

From the reports that we have been getting through the radio and newspapers regarding perjury charges against those testifying in the case of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg, we would suggest that the Senate be very cautious to be drawn into the matter of perjury charges against citizens who participated in giving information to the Senate Committee they thought might help the Senate to uncover the red background of Anna Rosenberg. We hope that you will be wise in your decision because such a move would detract you from your important duties in the Senate. This is an old Commie game—to take the heat off the enemy and the important issue. For example. Several members of our organization witnessed the hearings on the David Lillienthal Atomic Energy Committee case. When Mr. Lillienthal appeared before the Committee, the cameramen kept flashing the cameras with blinding lights at the listeners to detract their minds from what Lillienthal was saying.

We hope what is being set up in Washington will not be another case of confusion like the so-called Sedition Trials which was an act of infamy against American citizens who were critical of the New Deal exploitation of America. While Nero fiddled, Rome burned and that while you are busy prosecuting American citizens, the Reds will take us over here.

The fact that Mrs. Rosenberg was confirmed on her record as a New Deal appointee, are we to conclude that these are to be the future qualifications for anyone seeking office in the employ of the United States Government? Will anyone who has become suspect for their red affiliation be recommended as being 100% American? We are inquiring citizens, my dear Senator, and any information that you can give us along these lines will enable us to see the problem more clearly. We have been working in the field of anti-Communism for over twenty years and every day for the last fifteen of those twenty years, we have been more firmly convinced that Communism is 100% a JEWISH INSPIRED MOVEMENT. Let the chips fall where they may!

May we hear from you?

Cordially,
NATIONAL BLUE STAR MOTHERS OF AMERICA,

GREECE TO RELEASE 20 COMMUNIST JEWS

Twenty Greek Jewish Communists who were convicted two years ago on charges of treason, are to be released by the Greek government on condition that they leave the country it was reported recently in the London Jewish Chronicle.

Three women are included in the group which was originally sentenced to death by a Greek military court. Visas for the twenty have been issued by the Israel consulate in Athens.

OF THIS YOU CAN BE SURE!

"Israel will not lend its hand to any active aggression under any pretext whatsoever," declared Prime Minister David Ben Gurion in a major policy speech to the Knesset in Jerusalem.

The above appeared under the heading "Israel Will Shun Political Ties That May Lead To War" in the Jewish Examiner January 12, 1951. Yes, my friends, you can be sure Israel will not become involved in any war. They will continue, as they have done through the ages, to instigate, promote, and finance wars of Christian nations all over the world until every last drop of Christian blood is spent. They will direct the wars from the background, and like Nero, will fiddle, while Christianity destroys itself.

PATRIOT'S PLEDGE

I Believe that my personal liberty is in danger.

I believe that the time has come for a personal rededication to unselfish citizenship.

I believe that as citizens we are being bought and seduced by federal government funds and favors.

I believe the politicians who promise the people doles for votes are false prophets and enemies of freedom.

I believe that those who corrupt self-reliance with government gifts are our most dangerous friends.

I believe that opportunity is more important than security.

I believe that the "welfare state" will lead us into socialism, and maybe communism.

I believe that the nation's first line of defense is a sound, solvent economy at home.

I believe that federal government spending, if continued at the present rate, will bring political chaos through bankruptcy.

I believe that you cannot accept government money without government dictation.

I believe that accepting government aid is like taking drugs — pleasant at first, habit-forming later, damning at last.

I believe that the expression "It's going to be spent, so I might as well get mine," is unpatriotic.

I believe that the only way to stop government extravagance is for each one of us to give up his own pet project for government aid.

I believe that it is my personal duty to oppose any man who tries to prostitute patriotism with government gifts.

I believe that I owe it to myself to determine the effect of each new government proposal upon my personal freedom.

"We Jews, we, the destroyers, will remain the destroyers forever. Nothing that you do will meet our needs and demands. We will destroy because we need a world of our own." —The Jew, Maurice Samuel, in his book "You Gentiles," page 155.

Abraham Lincoln said:

"There is one important sense in which the Government is distinct from the Administration. One is perpetual; the other temporary and changeable. A man may be loyal to his Government and yet oppose the peculiar principles and methods of the Administration."

a left wing infiltrator, Elliodor Libonati, who had managed to become chairman of the Illinois Department Americanism Commission, lent his title without authorization. The smear article, far from having been indorsed by any American Legion Body, has been denounced and repudiated by many of my fellow Legionnaires.

It is significant, and typical of the Communist and the fellow-traveler press, that the New York Post made not a single attempt to deny the charges we made against Mrs. Rosenberg, but instead, attacked and attempted to discredit those of us who made the charges. Not once in the page-long article did the editors so much as bring up the question of Mrs. Rosenberg's guilt or innocence.

The principal owner of the New York Post which thus rushed to the defense of Mrs. Rosenberg is Dorothy Schiff, granddaughter of the late Jacob Schiff of New York. Mr. Schiff was head of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. He was the international Jewish banker who financed (to the extent of some $20,000,000) the Bolshevik revolutionaries including Lenin, Trotsky and Stalin, to power over the Russian people.

We would like to know how Dorothy Schiff will square her position with loyalty to the United States when the hour of reckoning comes. But more immediately, we would like to ask why her New York Post and other Communist-aiding papers have fought so bitterly to protect Anna M. Rosenberg in the new position of power over our people? Think that through.

Mrs. Rosenberg, in her new job, is virtually a dictator over civilian personnel and labor for the defense establishment.

Already it is reported that some of the personnel Mrs. Rosenberg is planting in important positions in the Pentagon and elsewhere are of questionable background or known left wingers. And already we see, too, the beginning of the expected demand that the President establish another war-time FEPC to force employers to hire so many Negroes, so many Jews, so many of the various minority races. The National Negro Council was inspired to demand, Dec. 30, 1950, that the President establish a committee of governors in the industrial states for the implementation of a plan for the integration of Negroes in mobilization industries . . . Purpose of the plan is to make available to war industries some 1,500,000 Negroes. "This is nothing less than a renewal of the Communist-Zionist inspired movement to shift millions of Negroes from the farms of the Old South, where they cannot be regimented, into the industrial cities, where they immediately fall under a Communist propaganda whip and are to be used as shock troops to help capture our cities for the Reds—a move which means only disaster to both the misguided Negroes and the unsuspecting, tolerant Whites.

Anna Rosenberg, with Sidney Hillman, was an inspirer and supporter of the same kind of operation during the recent world war, and her record leaves us no room to doubt that she has plans for greater use of the dark races this time, in advancing the revolution.

Mrs. Rosenberg told the Senate committee she was anti-Communist. We will be the first to welcome her to the columns of anti-Communists if she means what she says. She can prove it without the slightest difficulty, and this publication will be most happy to allow her adequate space in which to prove her anti-Communism.

She has only to take a firm stand for pro-American policies and against Communist policies. We will be satisfied with her anti-Communist statements if she will:

1. Demand immediate and full scale co-operation with the two great anti-Communist leaders, Franco of Spain and Chiang Kai Shek of Nationalist China.

2. The outlawing of the Communist Party and the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and the arrest of all its principal agents, including the rooting out of all Frankfurter agents from government offices.

It is up to Mrs. Rosenberg. I invite her to make use of these pages to leave no slight doubt whatsoever that she—the second highest defense officer in the United States—is pro-American and anti-Communist.

It does seem, meanwhile, that the Senate acted rashly in approving the appointment of one whose whole known career has been devoted to Zionist and related left wing operations.

Why confirm a woman who advocates the policies for which we must impeach the President? Hasn't the Senate committee yet seen that the New Deal itself is a Communist front, a "peoples government," all but ready for final seizure by the Reds planted everywhere in key positions? We may forget about the John Reed Clubs and Communist Party membership if we look for the Red inside the individual. All who advocate the policies which have led us to the verge of a Communist state must be swept out of positions of influence, or we lose.

Examine Your Conscience

"All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing."

— Edmund Burke

What have you done to help expose and stop the traitors who are conspiring, wittingly or unwittingly, to abolish our constitution, our congress, and our liberties?

Five years ago, when we started this paper, many people remarked that there was "nothing to get excited about." Marxism or Communism would never be a threat to America. Today, some of those same people say: "It has gone too far. We can never save ourselves from Communism."

What do they mean . . . we? They have never done anything to support the few of us who had looked ahead, closed our businesses, and put all money we had and full time into the task of trying to educate the people. Had they helped, Communism would have been ended in the U.S. and Common Sense disbanded.

During the five years Common Sense has been published at least 15 other small, patriotic publications have been started in the U.S. to keep people informed; practically all of them have been forced to quit. Common Sense has held on, growing steadily in the number of readers, but always curtailing our work for lack of funds. Of the ten who give all or most of their time only three are paid anything at all. Some of us have sacrificed beyond reason.

With 18 years of research behind us we can say, without the least fear of successful contradiction, that opposing Communism without exposing the Zionists who direct Communism, is energy almost completely wasted. Zionists themselves are willing to mildly condemn "Communism" if it will divert suspicion from the Marxist Jews.

The U.S. today is under Zionist rule with Christians as fronts where it suits the Zionist purpose.

They work the same plan in the corruption and bribery of basketball, baseball, boxing and smuggling gold and diamonds. Look into every case during the past ten years and, in every one, it is the Jew at the bottom.

The recent case of bribery in the New York Police Department, in which several hundred police and high officers are involved (and the Chief of Police resigned) was engineered by two Yiddish Marxists.

The decent Jew who holds only allegiance for America should speak up quickly against these international, political Zionist Jews.

Zionists believe that nearly every Christian can be bought, or framed, into fronting for them and this system, operated by International Zionists, has brought our Country to the critical situation it now faces.

Even at this late date the tide could be turned, but it takes knowledge, courage, and money.

In 1952, when it is fully realized there will be no presidential election and the Hudson River is red from slaughter, only then will wealthy people wake up to the fact that their money is worthless. Then they will regret that they did not spend half their money to save the other half, and their freedom. This is what some of the best informed believe will be the situation if the Marxist crowd is not removed from Washington before we are all regimented and shackled.

Our advice to those who are not now helping in any way to save the U.S. from complete regimentation by Communism is This: Help in some way.

If you have already decided to help with a certain amount of money during 1951, put it all in during the next three months. It is not likely that any anti-Communist movement will be able to use your money after that time.

Is it that bad? If you don't know, we suggest that you drop everything and find out the facts from those who really know. During the last ten years the editor has been wrong on only one major, Marxist-inspired move in the world.

Reds Plot New War Against Catholic Church

Karl H. Von Wiegand, Dean of American Foreign Correspondents, who writes expressly for the Hearst newspapers, states in his January 27th column from Madrid that Moscow is declaring a new church war.

Von Wiegand writes: "A new Red war against the Catholic Church is forecast in a declaration drawn up at a recent Cominform conference in Moscow. This statement is alleged to say, in part:

The Catholic Church is the greatest danger to Communism. The Vatican controls the most dangerous network of spies who receive annually $5,000,000 from the United States for their espionage in eastern territories. If it were possible to seize central nucleus of the Catholic organization—the Pope and the Cardinals—the greatest service would be done to Communism."

Rabbi David Kimchi has written as follows in Obadiah:

"What the Prophets foretold about the destruction Edom in the last days was intended for Rome, as Isaiah explains (ch. 34,1): Come near, ye nations, to hear . . . For when Rome is destroyed, Israel shall be redeemed."

Rabbi Abraham also, in his book Tseror Hammer, section Schoftim, says the same: "Immediately after Rome is destroyed we shall be redeemed."

"One of the finest things ever done by the mob was the crucifixion of Christ. Intellectually it was a splendid gesture. But trust the mob to bungle. If I'd had charge of executing Christ I'd have handled it differently. You see, what I'd have done was had him shipped to Rome and fed to the lions. They never could have made a saviour out of mincemeat."

—Ben Hecht, Zionist Writer in Hollywood. p. 20 "A Jew in Love."

N. J. MOVES TO KILL WORLD GOVERNMENT

Defense Dept. Punishes Maj. Williams For Exposing Anna M. Rosenberg

The new Senate sub-committee to investigate Communism was asked today to probe recent moves by the Administration "to silence Reserve and Retired military personnel against criticizing presidential blunders and Communist-aiding policies."

The request was made by Robert H. Williams, Santa Ana lecturer and writer, who was discharged from Military Intelligence Reserve on the day the Senate confirmed Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense in charge of personnel.

Though his discharge was "honorable" and no reason was given for the discharge, Williams claims it was because he had exposed "Communist-aiding activities" of Mrs. Rosenberg and had characterized George C. Marshall as "a doddering old man" and "a political tool of fast-thinking strategists favorable to Moscow."

Williams pointed out that members of the Organized Reserve, while not on active duty, are civilians and entitled to freedom of speech. He charged that discharging him for criticizing the Administration serves notice on the hundreds of thousands of Reserve officers and enlisted men not on active duty that they will be punished if they "defend their country against administration policies, even if they have evidence that such policies are subversive."

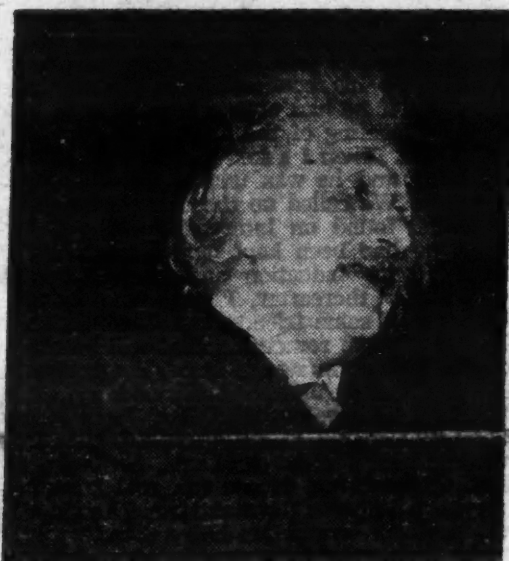

In the December issue of his news letter he had charged that Mrs. Rosenberg had written for the Communist "New Masses." He cited an article by her in the Dec. 8, 1942, issue of that publication, a copy of which is available in the Los Angeles public library. He claimed there was no doubt about the identity of the present Assistant Secretary of Defense as the author, for the article carried her then title as "NY Reginal Director, War Manpower Commission."

Williams pointed out also that Mrs. Rosenberg, the now Assistant Secretary of Defense, is listed in the 1950 edition of Who's Who in America as a member of the executive board of the Committee for the Nation's Health, which he described as "a powerful force for Communism, carrying out a policy laid down in Moscow in 1930 for the socialization of American medicine."

The former Intelligence Officer said he was not given a hearing or even any notice that he was to be discharged, and that he did not even know he was discharged till the papers reached him, coming down channels, on Jan. 13, 1951.

Since then his attorney, Nathan Boone Williams of Washington, D. C., and Congressman John Phillips have been unable to get from the Adjutant General's office a copy of the report which must be filed whenever an officer is discharged from the Reserve. He claimed there was no possible reason for his discharge other than

OUR INSANE FOREIGN POLICY

Our foreign policy is so contradictory that every thinking American should pause and reflect.

Eisenhower went to Europe to line up the nations in a combined allied offensive against Communism. He visited many countries including Marxist-controlled countries such as Yugoslavia. Our foreign policy makers carefully instructed Eisenhower not to visit Spain or to include her in the North Atlantic alliance, Spain the one and only country that has successfully defeated Communism. Spain has twenty divisions of real fighters who know what Communism is. They should know as one and a half million were killed in the Communist attempt to take over Spain during 1936 and 1937.

Many American boys will be sent to Europe to die, so says the President regardless of opposition from Congress, but the one nation equipped, ready, experienced, and only too willing to fight the Reds is not allowed to join the Eisenhower army. Thus says Harry Truman speaking for the Zionist power that rules him.

In Korea American boys and Chinese boys are killing each other. This situation was maneuvered by the Zionists in the United States and other members of the international Zionist conspiracy, just as the same group maneuvered American and German boys to kill each other so that Zionists now rule all so-called Communist countries. We are informed the Politbureau made an agreement with Mao Tse-tung, Chinese ruler of Communist China, to kill one hundred million Chinese in combat with our boys because the Marxists want to reduce the population of China! We understand the Marxists who guide our State Department and our Defense Department are part Eight States Have Rescinded; Will New Jersey Be The Ninth?

The campaign to rescind the traitorous ACR 17 Resolution, which put New Jersey on record in favor of a World Federal Government, and which was railroaded through an unsuspecting State Legislature by a handful of Marxists, is well underway. Using every type of fraud and deceit—including fake names, fake letters, and fake telegrams—World Federalists were able to pressure 22 State Legislatures into passing a concurrent resolution in favor of a world government. However, when the legislatures realized after exposure of World Federalist tactics by patriotic Americans, how they had been duped and swindled, EIGHT OF THOSE 22 STATES PASSED RESCINDING RESOLUTIONS, and THREW THE WORLD GOVERNMENT RESOLUTION INTO THE INCINERATOR, WHERE IT BELONGS. When the full impact of the unpatriotic act they have committed dawns upon them, the members of the New Jersey State Legislature will not be able to live with themselves until they have reversed themselves on this Un-American proposal.

Organized opposition to the World Government Resolution has mounted greatly in recent weeks. The VFW, American Legion, the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, Pro-America, the DAR, and the Catholic Daughters of America are actively campaigning against Resolution ACR 17. American Coalition (an inter-state organization representing some of the nation's leading patriotic groups) has enhanced the above list of real patriots. They have just opened a branch in Newark and are getting into the thick of this fight.

ACR 9, the rescinding resolution, upon which the State Legislature will vote soon, was introduced by Assemblyman T. James Tumulty of Jersey City. Other members of the Assembly are reported to be in favor of Mr. Tumulty's resolution to abandon any plans for New Jersey's participation in a world government scheme.

The state of New Jersey faces a critical decision. COMMON SENSE has been saying for five years that "world government" means WORLD SLAVERY, and that it is a Marxist move. WE URGE ALL THOSE WHO HAVEN'T AS YET DONE SO TO WRITE, PHONE, WIRE OR—IF POSSIBLE—VISIT THE MEMBERS OF THEIR STATE LEGISLATURE AND URGE THE IMMEDIATE PASSAGE OF ACR 9, AND THUS ABOLISH THIS WORLD GOVERNMENT THREAT IN NEW JERSEY.

It is still not too late for the proponents of "world government" (particularly the United World Federalists) to meet their opponents on the public platform and debate this issue. What better time than now, when the voters of New Jersey are being asked to decide the matter.

COMMON SENSE makes the following charges, and challenges any top, national figure in the United World Federalists (preferably Alan Cranston or James Warburg) to meet us on a platform, in public debate, and refute them:

1. That World Government is a creation of anti-Christian Marxists such as Alger Hiss, the first General Secretary of United Nations.

2. That the primary aim of World Government, Communism, or Zionism, is to set up a Jewish State. (Israel is the first

By The Honorable Martin Dies (Democrat)

Our Committee struggled on. Then we began to investigate the reporters who reported our proceedings, because they wrote so many false stories and sent them out on the wire, to the AP, the UP, the INS, that it became necessary that we investigate the very men charged with responsibility of reporting the proceedings. You know what we discovered?—The New York Chapter of the Newspaper Guild was completely communist controlled. Our Committee was assigned communist reporters, and they garbled the accounts to make the Committee appear ridiculous and to discredit and undermine it, because they were working hand and foot with the Administration in power.

We continued giving the American people the truth. Finally, we discovered that some 25 hundred communists, agents and stooges and servants and minions of a foreign dictator, were on the government pay roll, occupying in many instances key positions in the State Department, in the Justice Department, and in the Interior Department. So, I wrote to President Roosevelt and told him I wanted to see him about it, and he said, "All right."

I went to the White House. I said, "Mr. President, we have got to do something about this. Here is a list of these people. We have raided the organization and we have their membership records. There can't be any doubt about it. If you understand the communists as I understand them, you will know they are in the government for one purpose alone, and that is to steal the important governmental secrets to transmit them to Moscow."

The President was furious. I was amazed at his anger. He said to me—he got to calling me Mr. Congressman—he had called me Martin before—he said, "Mr. Congressman, you must see a bugaboo under every bed." I said, "No, I never look under the bed, Mr. President." "Well," he said, "I have never seen a man that had such ideas about this thing. There is nothing wrong with the communists, some of the best friends I have got are communists." Mind you, that is a truthful account. He made that statement.

I made that statement before the House soon after President Roosevelt made it and he did not deny it. Everything I tell you, I told to the Congress, and no one to this day has ever denied any statement I ever made, and no one has sued me for libel, though I published a book in 1940 and revealed the activities of leading government agencies in behalf of Joseph Stalin.

The President refused to discharge the communists and finally I went before the House and induced Congress to withhold appropriations to pay their salaries. The Executive Department then defied Congress and refused still to fire them. They were kept on the government pay. Yes, they were on the government pay roll when we were working on the secret of the atomic bomb. And still there are people in America so dumb as to believe Stalin doesn't have the secret of the atomic bomb. How could he have kept from getting it with men in every Department of the government, influential men who wouldn't hesitate a moment to give that information to Stalin. They got it in Canada, didn't they, and Canada wasn't one-twentieth as well organized by communists as the United States. We were taken in, lock, stock and barrel, by communist propaganda. You may not realize it, but in the White House itself, one of the secretaries of the President was a communist.

There was a little fellow by the name of Joseph Lash who was head of the American Youth Congress. Joseph Lash had been very active in communism and we exposed him. One day I got a telephone call from Mrs. Roosevelt asking me to have dinner with her. I knew something was up and I had heard that Mrs. Roosevelt was undertaking to persuade the Naval Intelligence to give an appointment to Joseph Lash. He had never been inducted into the armed services. Well, I went to the White House and there seated in the ante-room, were six or eight well known communist youth leaders waiting for Mrs. Roosevelt. They sat at the table and ate with me and Mrs. Roosevelt.

At the table, she said to me, "Mr. Congressman, I presume you know why I asked you to eat dinner with me." I said: "Well, I have got sort of an idea about it. Is it about Joseph Lash?" And she said, "Yes." I said, "Mrs. Roosevelt, here is the record of Joseph Lash. I have brought it with me. He perjured himself before our Committee." She said, "Yes, he told me he did, but he is very sorry." "Well," I said, "did he tell you he was a member of the communist party?" She said, "Yes, he was just an idealistic, venturesome youth and he hastily embraced communism, but now he wants to repent." I said, "Mrs. Roosevelt, how do you know he has repented? How can you afford to ask to put him in the Naval Intelligence?"

We sat around there and discussed it pro and con, and I went back to the office and ordered the Committee to meet and brought Joseph Lash and some of the New Dealers who appeared as his counsel before it, and there asked him if he had not perjured himself before a former meeting of the Committee, and he admitted had. Then I asked him why he wasn't in the army and he was unable to give any explanation. We called up the draft board in New York and found on intervention of the White House he had been kept out of the army. We demanded his induction and he was inducted. And shortly thereafter, I saw Gene Tunney at the home of some friends, and Gene said to me, "Martin, I have something that will be amusing to you. Do you know out at our camp they have a fellow named Joseph Lash, and a few days ago the boys were out marching. Here came the White House car, and out stepped Mrs. Roosevelt and sent for Joseph Lash. He broke rank, went to the White House car, and Mrs. Roosevelt carried him to town and there he stayed for two or three days before he reported."

A member of the Secret Service who worked in the White House gave me reports every week on what happened in the White House. I knew that leading communist agents had access to the White House were going there and were using their influence to affect our domestic and foreign policy. Now, I know this is difficult for you to believe, but every bit of it is the truth. I am telling you these incidents so that you may have some faint idea of how thoroughly Stalin was able to dupe the United States of America.

Now did it pay a dividend? I ask you. He got 13 billions of your money—not your money because you will never earn it. He got it from your great grandchildren. He got your great, great grandchildren's 13 billions of dollars. By the time it is paid off, it will probably be 50 billions, if you count the interest. And that wasn't all he got. He had built such a clever machine in this country that he controlled the C.I.O. for a long time. Some of the leading strikes were called by communists for communist purposes. Now, the C.I.O. can't deny that. If they deny it, why is it they are now expelling the communist leaders we exposed in 1938? Why did they wait ten years to expel them? Can they deny we were right when I can show you they are now currently engaged in a campaign of expelling from the C.I.O. all of the leaders, the communist leaders we exposed in '38 and '39? And what is the answer of the Administration, if it is necessary to make an answer? You know the truth of it is politicians are getting by with murder, and the reason they get by with murder is because you and I are not interested. Talk to me about government of a country—if you showed one-tenth of the interest in your government you do in your business, you wouldn't send weaklings to Washington.

When you get ready to hire a president of a gas company you are most careful to secure the services of a competent man, and you do get competent men, for the most part. But when you come to elect a politician, you and I and the majority of us are indifferent and we think anybody can govern a country, even Harry Truman.

So, my fellow citizens, here was Moscow in full swing in the United States. They were influencing our domestic policy by preaching public ownership. They formed innumerable organizations which were lobbying actively in Washington for this purpose. They didn't say this was communism. They didn't say these organizations were controlled by communists, like the American League for Peace and Democracy. There was an organization—seven million, gullible Americans, completely controlled by communism. Every officer in it was a communist leader. And yet, seven million of our great, heart-bleeding idealistic public joined it and contributed their money and influence to the support of it. These organizations were making inroads on the economic system of America, acquiring land, acquiring business, narrowing the field of competition, building up the monopoly of public power, which is as dangerous as monopoly in business, if not more dangerous. And Stalin was working on the foreign policy.

Do you remember before the World War, People were parading, shouting that we intervene to defeat Germany? There wasn't a day that they weren't lobbying with members of Congress to stop Hitler. Why stop Hitler? Because he had taken these little innocent countries. The newspapers were shouting it and the radio commentators were shouting it. That is all we heard, we members of the Congress. Why? They wanted us to get in it two years before we did, to stop aggression. They said, "Why, America cannot sit idly by and permit Hitler to expand his empire."

Perhaps they were right. But where are they now? Why have they become so silent when Stalin has absorbed far more territory than Hitler ever absorbed? What has brought about the change of Henry Wallace and Pepper and all that group? They were shouting for war to stop Hitler, but are they shouting for war to stop Stalin? It was bad for Hitler to seize Czechoslovakia and Rumania, but it is perfectly permissible for Stalin? It was bad for Hitler to seize Czechoslovakia and Rumania, but it is perfectly permissible for Stalin to seize them. Why? I will tell you the difference. For ten years, communist agents were working on Henry Wallace and Pepper and numerous other men in the New Deal Administration entertaining them, flattering them, working shrewdly, cleverly, even to the Supreme Court.

One day I got an urgent call to go to the home of a friend of mine in Washington because Justice Murphy had to see me instantly. My wife was present when we went to the home. Murphy was prancing up and down in a high state of emotional excitement, and I was at a loss to know what he wanted with me. Finally, he opened up and said, "Mr. Congressman, I have sent for you to tell you that the communists are going to take over this country. They are in our government; they are all about us." He was highly agitated.

I thought, well perhaps we have a convert here, and I said, "Justice Murphy, I am acquainted with that situation and any help or any information you can give us I will deeply appreciate and will keep it confidential." He talked like an insane man. My wife will tell you, he would walk up and down the floor. His face broke into sweat, and all the time I saw him I thought, "What is America coming to when that kind of a man can occupy a seat on the highest judiciary tribunal in the land?"

Yes, I want to bring you pictures, to show you how completely you have been duped, because you must pay the bill. Of course, some of you will say that is "spilt milk," "water over the dam." Well, maybe so, but if you are going to fight another war, you must know how to preserve the fruits of victory. And you lost this war. You think you won it, don't you? But you didn't win it. Oh you whipped Hitler, but you didn't whip the idea of a powerful central government controlling and dominating your lives and your business and your religious and political thought, did you? Now why didn't you win it? Why is it when General Patton advanced to the borders of Czechoslovakia, he received an order from the White House telling him to hold his army, and why did his army stand there cooling their heels for three weeks, waiting for the Russian army to advance and take over Czechoslovakia and to be hailed as the liberators of Czechoslovakia? Why was it that we sat in conference in Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam and entered into secret agreements delivering to Stalin the great breadbasket of Europe? Why? Why did we agree to a clause in the Potsdam agreement that gave to Stalin all of the industries in the occupied area that belonged to the Nazi government without investigating the fact that when the Nazis had taken over those countries by official decree, they had seized all property. By our own solemn agreement, this agreement that Truman is ashamed to be made public today, by that agreement, we gave to Stalin all of the properties of the peoples of these countries, and now we must feed them.

The time has come for frank discussions, and I tell you from my personal information and knowledge that I know that our government was completely duped by Stalin, that Stalin governed and controlled our foreign policy and wrote everything that he wanted to write.

There are some nitwits that tell you we can whip Russia in three weeks by using the atomic bomb. You may believe that. The Northern boys said they were going to whip the South in three weeks. It took them four years. I remember we had an Assistant Secretary of the Navy who said we could whip Japan in three weeks. Well, my boy served all through the Pacific and he can tell you that we didn't whip the Japs in three weeks. And I am here to tell you we can't whip Russia in three weeks or in three years; and I will tell you why you can't. Napoleon thought he could, and he had a great military machine. He was the greatest military leader the world had ever seen, up to that day. Well, he didn't take Russia. The Russians retreated and he froze his troops—the carcasses of horses and the corpses of human beings literally strewed the retreat of the French army.

Hitler tried to take them. You know Hitler wanted to do business with Stalin, and for three years they were working together. At the very time that Roosevelt thought that he was doing business with Stalin, Stalin was doing business with Hitler.

To show you how completely the President was deceived—and I say that not in exultation—the President for his first two terms was a magnificent leader: I sat close to him when he made that memorable speech in which he said, "We have nothing to fear but fear." And as a young legislator, I looked upon his face and said, "God has given to America a great leader." But the President loved power. He clung to his office, clung to it with a desperation born of vanity. And he held it in the third term, and all he had to do was to dish out these smooth words to you and me and we swallowed them, because we are easily duped in America.

When he got through Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam, he was not the man he had been when he took the oath of office in his first term. There he was completely duped, and you and I must now pay the price. It is important that you and I understand that if we fight Russia, we have a long war which will leave America exhausted. Oh, we have the idea that we can spend indefinitely. I know, we throw money away so much in this country that there are actually respectable people who think you can just keep on issuing spurious paper money and get by with it. Well, I have known young men that thought they could get by, by getting drunk every night, and they did get by for ten years. They finally ended up with cirrhosis of the liver, the palsy and the DT's. You will come out of the next war exhausted, and furthermore, my fellow citizens, this government is going to regiment you up to the hilt next time.

You think you knew what war was last time. Why, that was a panic for you and me who stayed at home, if it wasn't for our sons. We made a lot of money out of it, didn't we? Of course, we did. Well, I will tell you it won't be that way again. It is going to require sacrifice and unselfish citizenship and courageous leadership. Americans everywhere must begin to emulate the enthusiasm and zeal which the communists manifest throughout the whole world.

You cannot defeat this flaming ideology, this new religion based on atheism and materialism with an indifferent and selfish citizenship. The communists mean business, and they are prepared to make every sacrifice to extend their ideological religion through the world.

Not since the days when the Mohammedans threatened Christianity have we been confronted with so great a menace. Our America can only survive in this age and time when you and I revitalize democracy, rededicate ourselves to the fundamental principles that made our country great.

You think we can buy peace and security. We are to the point where we think whenever an emergency arises in America, all we have to do is to appropriate 10 billion dollars of our great, great grandchildren's money. We are down now to about the tenth generation to be born. I say to you that you will never defeat Russia by those tactics.

For instance, Russia will avoid open warfare as long as possible. Her strategy is to win nations without firing a gun, and she has done a good job. If you think for one moment that this clever, shrewd Joseph Stalin and his lieutenants intend to commit the issue to a trial of arms, you are mistaken. He will take every country he wants to take without firing a gun—he takes them from within. He takes them with people like Henry Wallace. They are the kind of people who betrayed their countries to him. He's got his Henry Wallaces and Claude Peppers all over the world. Why, he only got 16 percent of the votes in Bulgaria, but within a few months, he took Bulgaria. He only got 37 percent of the votes in the free election of Czechoslovakia, but within two months, he took Czechoslovakia. No, he doesn't need to use guns. He is too smart; his propagandists are too smart. He can infiltrate our government; he can influence our foreign policy; he can dupe and deceive our leadership.

The only answer is for you and all America to awake. You have been asleep, my fellow citizens. You must drop the scales from your eyes and realize that no one can be happy or prosperous or secure under a bad government. The first business of every citizen is the business of government, we will have miserably failed. You and I must become zealous, fanatical citizens of America. Let us arise, my fellow citizens, and shake off sloth. Let us say that no longer will we tolerate open treason against our country—the idea of permitting 200 thousand so-called Americans to enjoy the protection of our flag when we know that there are traitors to that flag. Since when have we come to the time that we cannot deal with known traitors in America? Every man whose primary allegiance is to Russia or any other power ought to have his citizenship revoked and he should be branded for what he is.

That, my friends, is the challenge to you, a real challenge. No longer can you sit idly by. You, as American citizens must come to love your country with all your heart and all your mind. You, as American citizens, must put aside the selfishness that holds to your business, day in and day out. You must realize that the gas industry wouldn't be worth a dime to you under totalitarian government. Your industry can only survive and serve humanity under a free economy.

Your business is government, my friends. Are you carrying out that business? Do you ever speak out against the frauds that hold public office throughout our land, or are you afraid to do it? Are you afraid that if you get active in a campaign that it will hurt your industry in Austin or Washington? If you are afraid, then you are not a good citizen of these United States. I say to you we must fight. We Americans who value this great heritage won by the blood of brave men and the tears of devout women, we want this America preserved for our children.

"The patriotism of the Jew is simply a cloak he assumes to please the Englishman. Jews who pretend that they can at once be patriotic Englishmen and good Jews are simply living lies."

—B. Fells, in a letter to the "Jewish Chronicle," Dec. 8, 1911.

"The 'American Hebrew,' the Nation's most outstanding Jewish weekly, said on September 10, 1920:

"The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains; of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a new order in the world. What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, thanks to Jewish brains, and because of Jewish dissatisfaction, and by Jewish planning, shall also, through the same Jewish mental and physical forces, become a reality all over the world."

that he had been critical of the Administration and Mrs. Rosenberg, for, he said, his record while on active duty as an Intelligence Officer was at all times either Excellent or Superior, and for 15 consecutive months it had been Superior.

He said that after he became "over age in grade" in 1949 and asked for an extension in the Active Reserve, that Army Intelligence investigated charges made by a powerful secret subversive organization, and after four months of investigation found nothing wrong with his record and granted the requested extension.

Citing the fact that his discharge was dated Dec. 21, the very day on which the Senate confirmed the Rosenberg appointment, Williams said he believed it was Anna Rosenberg who had him discharged, and feared that she would similarly silence any other Reserve officer or enlisted man who dared criticize her or the Administration. Williams said a report was widespread in Washington that Mrs. Rosenberg had boasted that she was going to "get" those who had opposed her confirmation.

"This is only one of a number of moves," Williams said, "by which the Administration and radical infiltrates are attempting to silence all military and Reserve and Retired personnel. Last May 5 a provision was inserted in the Uniform Code of Military Justice which gives the Department of Defense power to recall to active duty and court martial anyone retired from military service who uses 'contemptuous words against the President, Vice President, Congress, Secretary of Defense or a Governor or a Legislature of any State, Territory or other possessor of the United States in which he is on duty or present.'"

"There is not the remotest excuse for clamping this lid of censorship on retired military persons. I am strongly suspicious that this provision was cooked up by persons who are afraid of what Douglas MacArthur will tell about blunders, Communist activities and corruption inside the Administration, when he retires.

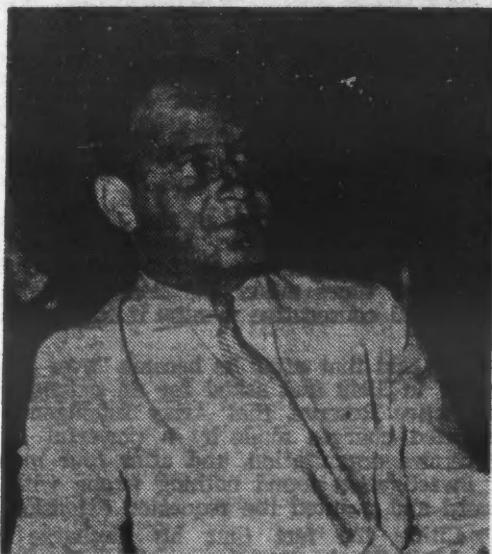

"As we build a mighty defense force we will soon have millions of the most vigorous leaders of the nation in uniform or in the Reserve or on the retired list. They will include many of the best informed persons in the nation. It will be a powerful blow to freedom if the Administration is allowed to continue its efforts to silence criticism by this influential element of the population."

In his letter to the Senate investigative committee Williams expressed the belief that the threat to brand opponents of Mrs. Rosenberg as "anti-Semites" and "bigots" was used "in the most dastardly way" by Communists and their aides in the recent battle over her confirmation. He asked the committee to bring to the attention of the American people the fact that these "cheap smear words" have become the most effective and vicious weapons in the Communist arsenal, often used against persons who are not at all anti-Semitic.

"I believe the fear of being branded anti-Semitic by a powerful undercover organization, the Anti-Defamation League, using the most famous or infamous voices on the networks," Williams wrote the committee, "has become the principal influence protecting Communists and fellow travelers. Unless the people come to understand that all opponents of Communism are branded as anti-Semitic, we will continue to fight a losing fight against subversive forces inside our borders.

"I urge you to expose the misuse and abuse of this word, reasserting the right of Congress and private citizens to criticize the guilty, of whatever race or creed."

As we remember the slogan during the Hoover administration was "a chicken in every pot." Apparently the slogan for the Marxist New Deal is "an American military grave in every country." We have left thousands of white crosses in many islands and countries during the past ten years; however, these will appear insignificant compared to the number which will cover the globe after the Zionists get through with our Christian youth. Such will be the result of a Zionist inspired World War III directed by such as Bernard Baruch, Felix Frankfurter, and Anna M. Rosenberg.

James P. Warburg, Zionist who told the U.S. Senate we were going to have World Government whether we wanted it or not. He represents the real power behind the United World Federalists. The Warburg family control Kuhn Loeb & Company who specialize in financing wars and whose former President, Jacob Schiff, financed the Communist revolution in Russia during 1917.

installment of that plan, and will be the world capitol under the new order. See the Protocols of Zion.)

3. That under World Government there will be one language, one religion (BA'HAI) and no nationalities. Christianity will be outlawed.

4. The same hidden forces which promote World Government are the same forces which direct the Chinese "Communists," the same hidden power which causes Truman to prevent 400 thousand Anti-Communist Chinese from attacking the Chinese "Communists." The same hidden leadership gives orders to General Eisenhower, demanding that he NOT visit Anti-Communist Spain.

5. That 178 leaders in the World Government crusade have a total of 1696 Communist front affiliations.

THE STORY OF THE SECRET WAR

Those who are interested in knowing more about the mystery of Pearl Harbor should read "PEARL HARBOR: THE STORY OF THE SECRET WAR," by George Morgenstern. The thesis of this book is that Roosevelt wanted war with Germany or Japan, or both; that he knew some 80% of the people did not want war and that he deliberately refrained from alerting our Pacific outposts though knowing Japan would soon attack, so that our men would be caught asleep and he (Roosevelt) could easily fan up a war fever and smother all his critics with the howl that this nation had been treacherously attacked. Look forward to another Pearl Harbor in the near future for the New Deal crowd must have an "emergency" — that is the only thing that will prevent them from being removed from Washington. These Marxists have made up their minds that they will never relinquish control of our country.

RED HIGHLIGHTS

The Marxist New Deal government is playing with the idea of starting another Sedition trial, the purpose of which is to stop the ever-increasing American anti-Communist campaign, and indict all powerful anti-Communists under some trumped-up charge. But while millions wait for them to produce the other Anna Rosenberg, or have the Anna M. Rosenberg take the lie detector test along with Ralph De Sola who suggests it, the New Deal Marxists gang of crooks remain silent. Maybe they are too busy selling political jobs in Mississippi, or lending millions to their friends through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

..... British Socialist Party considers General Douglas MacArthur its main enemy and the political adversary of President Truman and the State Department. ATTENTION CITIZENS OF BALTIMORE! The infamous radio and TV Red propaganda "Tex and Jinx" program is coming to Baltimore. Tex McCrary and Jinx Falkenburg, two of the most prominent persons on the air today for introducing Zionists, Reds, and Marxists are opening up their new TV program on station WAAM, Channel 13, in Baltimore this week. In the past such Reds and Marxists as O. John Rogge, Alan Cranston, Pearl Buck and many others have been promoted on the "Tex and Jinx" program. Dean Acheson while he was under Secretary of State and responsible for final decisions on all foreign loans arranged for a $90,000,000 loan to Communist Poland. Acheson's own law firm, Covington, Burlington, Rublee, Acheson and Shorb, was given the job of seeing that the loan went through. The question the American people should ask is: how many of our boys died in Korea from hand-grenades and weapons which were made and purchased by this $90,000,000 which we supplied? The United Synagogue of America on Nov. 20th urged the repeal of the McCarron Anti-Subversive Act because "many of its provisions flagrantly depart from American democratic principles and long established practice." The resolution was adopted at the biennial national meeting attended by representatives of 400 Jewish organizations throughout the country. Who do these people thinking they are fooling?

..... General George C. Marshall, former Secretary of State and Ambassador to China when China was sold down the river, has just been revealed as the trustee of one of the most prominent Communist Fronts in America. We have always wondered why Marshall has been so intent upon performing un-American acts and why he has been going along with the Marxists. Now we know. He is the trustee of the Institute of Pacific Relations, a Communist Front. Bernard Baruch, advisor to five presidents, was one of the individuals who put up $10,000 to repatriate the Abraham Lincoln Brigade. The Lincoln Brigade, a part of a world conspiracy to eliminate Christianity, in 1936 and 1937 in Spain slaughtered 400,000 Christians, 20,000 Catholic priests, and burned over 25,000 religious institutions. Sunday, February 18th, on Eleanor Roosevelt's T.V. program there was to be a question decided as to Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg's innocence or guilt. When the program was over every body admitted they did not hear Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg mentioned. Instead they heard the Zionist under-study to General Marshall, Marx Leva. So on this program Mrs. Roosevelt who has championed the cause of Marxism for years is supporting the Rosenberg crowd, but who got cold feet at the last minute? What is the matter Mrs. Roosevelt? Are the American people getting wise to your whole un-American scheme? And is it also true, Mrs. Roosevelt, that the top military leaders are getting wise to your Rosenberg, Lehman, Frankfurter crowd? Bruno Pontecorvo and Leopold Infeld, the two atomic scientists who fled "behind the Iron Curtain," are also both Zionist Jews. Norman Cousins, Vice President of the United World Federalists is lecturing in India, Pakistan and Ceylon for the State Department. It is obvious that Mr. Cousins is not selling Americanism but rather Internationalism. General Eisenhower is going along with the New Deal Internationalists for another World War to level off American manhood and socialize the United States through bankruptcy. The fastest way to get socialism is to spend your way into it by wars and "give-away" programs.

of this agreement. We must remember that General Marshall, Ambassador to China for thirteen months, forced Communism on China. This same Marshall who was Secretary of State and is now Secretary of Defense, is still a trustee of the Marxist front, Institute of Pacific Relations.

The Chinese Nationalists under Chiang Kai Shek have 400,000 trained Chinese soldiers on Formosa ready to attack the Chinese Communists on the mainland. In addition, Chiang has one million guerillas in China ready to fight; still, Mr. Truman, backed by our State and Defense Departments, says no loyal Chinese soldiers may fight for their homeland, and Mr. Truman has stationed the 7th Fleet at Formosa to make sure they do not fight, but our American boys can go 5000 miles to fight the Chinese Communists!

Mr. and Mrs. America, who is kidding who? Do we really want to win in Europe and Korea? If so, why does Truman and his Marxists advisors prevent America from having the aid of the most effective and logical help?

WRITE YOUR SENATOR AND CONGRESSMAN AND URGE THEM TO PROTEST AGAINST THIS INSANE FOREIGN POLICY.

DAILY WORKER PROMOTES TREASON

Philip Bart, born in Warsaw Poland, Yiddish Zionist, (refused to give his real name to the Un-American Activities Committee) is General Manager of the Daily Worker.

John Gates, born Isriel Ragenstrich, Yiddish Zionist, Editor of the Daily Worker of New York City—official Communist newspaper.

The Daily Worker of New York, official Communist paper, capitalizes on every dissatisfaction of the colored race in order to bring it into the Communist party. When a prominent Negro criminal case develops, the Communist Party frequently furnishes attorneys and provides bond for the principals securing their release so as to use them on the platform in the various cities to popularize the idea that the Communist Party is a friend of the Negro. Actually all they are interested in is to use the Negro vote in their plans to seize the United States for the Communist Party. The Daily Worker of February 6th featured an article concerning 200 prominent Marxists who attended a dinner in honor of Dr. W. E. B. DuBois on his 83rd birthday. Dr. DuBois is a Negro, indicted as the head of the Peace Information Center, which was a Communist front and was dissolved after Federal indictment. Dr. DuBois, along with other reds has now formed another Communist front, The American Peace Crusade, located at 1186 Broadway, New York. Attending this dinner were such prominent Zionists as Ben Gold, Rabbi Abba Hiler Silver, Albert Einstein and Howard Fast, chairman of the Peekskill demonstration, who shortly after the Peekskill affair stated "When 15,000,000 Negroes and 5,000,000 Jews join with the working classes, there is no danger of fascism in America."

"There Have Been No Errors"

An Interview With A Seeing Business Man
Feb. 23rd 1951

(Editor's Note: A few days ago we chanced to talk to an alert business man who has just returned from an extensive trip which brought him into close contact with top-most executives of large business in many American cities. Because this man was one of those who saw clearly the trend of events and prophesied correctly as far back as the 1930's the bolshevist outcome of an Allied military victory under the internationalist management we attach special significance to his diagnosis now. We quote his exact words as nearly as possible.)

It is our business friend speaking:

"From talking to scores of large corporation presidents and listening to thousands of miles of Pullman politics, the stupidity that I heard oftenest and found most discouraging is the charge that Washington policies result from the doings of crackpots and aimless blunderers.

"In the face of the facts nothing could be more senseless. I should be indeed a happy man if I thought we had merely a flock of fools and blunderers and foggy theorists to contend with in Washington. Instead we deal with the most ably managed political machine in world history. It is all the more effective because on its outer fringes it presents and has always presented a galaxy of chattermouths and goofs. It has been outwardly distinguished by sideshow characters such as Harold Ickes, Henry (Guru) Wallace, senile old Cordell Hull, society-minded inconsequentialists like Sumner Welles and William Bullitt, and a flock of others equally lacking in real weight. Reasonably intelligent Americans long ago dismissed all these as too shallow-witted to be dangerous.

"Those I've just mentioned aren't dangerous. They and dozens more of the same stripe are by all indications simply the dopes and dupes and limelight-loving fellow-travelers of a political machine whose destination they have not had the sense to detect and whose methods they have not had the moral principle to oppose. There is not the slightest reason to suppose that Harry Truman himself, any more than men of the sort we have named, figures intellectually in the carefully plotted policies evolved for him and subtly insinuated into the program of his

D. A. R. OPPOSES UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS

In an article appearing in the Daughters of American Revolution Magazine Rear Admiral Harold C. Train, U.S.N. Retired, makes the following comments regarding the falacy of a "super-government":

"I feel that the great majority of those favoring a super-government have done so because they have been told in speeches and in literature that only by such a system can we attain real peace and security in this world of ours. . . . But you will not get peace in the world by a super-government. On the contrary I believe that such a government would have a tendency to cause wars. The World Federalists state in their principles that for this super-government there is required: A world legislature to enact laws; a world court to interpret laws; and a world executive agency to administer and enforce laws. They also state that the world law should be enforced directly upon the individuals and that the world federal government should have authority to raise dependable revenue, under a carefully defined and limited, but direct taxing power, independent of national taxation.

They also propose a surrender or partial surrender, of power to raise and maintain national armed forces; the right to tax; the control of immigration, trade, tariff, currency, monetary values and fiscal policy; the power to regulate national industry and agriculture. In other words, states joining a super-government would lose sovereignty and independence. Will we in the United States give up all that we have so dearly won, maintained and cherished since the beginning of this nation? I think not. We have all of the freedoms now and to give up everything we stand for to a visionary dream of a World Government, that the World Federalists claim will keep peace in the world is, to my mind unthinkable.

One proponent proposes to set the votes to each member nation by population. To mention a few examples: On the basis of present population, China would have 480 votes, the USSR over 200, India 200 and the United States 148. Where do we stand? Since we have less than one-tenth of the world population, we would be outvoted on all occasions and what then could we do to prevent the World Government from voting itself more power?

The World Federalists propose prohibiting, by any nation, of armaments and forces beyond an approved level, required for international policing. This is done to make it possible for the World Government's armed forces to overpower any one nation. Over thirty years ago, in 1928, at Geneva, during the conference on the reduction and limitation of armaments under the old League of Nations, Litvinoff, representing the USSR, made a proposal that all armaments be done away with, except the necessary small arms for an internal Police Force. That proposal is almost identical with what is now being proposed by the World Federalists.

Most of the nations of the world are very proud of their independence, for which they fought at great cost in lives and money, and I just do not believe that many of them would agree to give up their sovereignty to a visionary World Government. Witness our own hemisphere and the Latin American countries. Would any nation agree to relinquish the right to maintain what armed forces it considers necessary to defend itself against aggression for the possible defense by a World Government's armed forces made up of all nationalities? It would just be playing into the hands of a totalitarian power seeking to rule the world. The armed forces that are provided for in the charter of the United Nations, to be furnished the Security Council for enforcement action, are national contingents simply sent when requested and are only used when the necessity arises. Such armed forces always retain their nationality. On the other hand, World Government armed forces would lose their nationality and soon become a source of danger to the peace of

As the story goes, two men were discussing Communists and Communist-followers. The first man said: "How do you know that so-and-so is a Communist?" The second man answered: "Well, when I was a boy, down on my pappy's farm, I once asked pappy how he knew a duck was a duck. My pappy looked at me and said, 'Son, when you see something which walks like a duck, quacks like a duck, and associates with ducks, you can be sure it is a duck.'

Anna M. Rosenberg, Assistant Secretary of Defense, has denied any affiliation with the John Reed Clubs. She has sworn under oath that the Anna Rosenberg, listed as a member of that club, is another individual; "a writer." That may be. While it is important to note that membership in the John Reed Clubs was not restricted to writers alone, Communist Michael Gold, describing the formation of the New York branch, wrote in the January (1930) issue of New Masses: "At the next meeting I shall propose the following: That every writer in the group attach himself to one of the industries. That he spend the next few years in and out of this industry, studying it from every angle, making himself an expert in it..."

Not only has Anna M. Rosenberg written numerous memoranda, reports, and articles (as listed in her recorded information presented to the Armed Services Committee) but she is an "expert" in her field; the latter despite a woeful lack of formal education.

Eleven years old when she arrived from Budapest, Hungary, in 1912, Mrs. Rosenberg married while still in high school and did not begin work until 1924 when her husband became ill. Then, according to her testimony, she took part-time jobs.

"I really began to work full time in 1928," Mrs. Rosenberg said. "I had jobs with fund-raising campaigns. Then from 1934 to 1936 I was with the National Recovery Administration." (According to the recorded list, as printed in the Hearing of November 29, 1950, she was Regional Director.)

After two years with NRA, Mrs. Rosenberg states that she went back to "private business." Obviously, the "private business" was of short duration. That same year she began service with the Social Security Board, as a "consultant," and was made Regional Director, the title she claims to have held from 1936 until 1943. Her appointment as Regional Director of the War Manpower Commission is listed as covering the period 1942-45.

It was in 1946 that the Committee for the Nation's Health was founded. Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg was a charter member and on the board of directors for three years, resigning about a year ago. On the back of a Committee for the Nation's Health letterhead, dated April 12, 1946, appears a list of 166 names of which Anna M. Rosenberg's is one. SIXTY-FOUR (64) persons, of the remaining 165 named, have a total of more than 625 Communist-front affiliations. They include:

Louis Adamic	Mary McLeod Bethune
Thomas Addis	Ernest P. Boas
Benjamin Algase	Alban M. Butler M.D.
Roger N. Baldwin (WG)	Stuart Chase
William R. Benet (WG)	Edward Chodorov
Leonard Bernstein

Thomas Mann (WG)	F. D. Patterson
Lowell Mellett (WG)	Ralph Barton Perry

C. Fayette Taylor	Philip R. White
Carl Van Doren (WG)	Gertrude F. Zimand
Orson Welles

(Note: The symbol WG indicates a member of United World Federalists, Federal Union, or some other "world government" organization.)

Not included in the above list, but on the Board of Directors of Committee for the Nation's Health is Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, with ten Communist-front citations; (he is also a member of Federal Union and the Atlantic Union Committee) and Ralph Newbold Morris, of the Communist-dominated American Labor Party.

Evidence that ducks often quack together is further revealed by Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg in her recorded list to the Senate Armed Services Committee where she mentions that she "Gave courses on collective bargaining at New School for Social Research 1940." The Report of the Joint Legislative Committee of the State of New York Investigating Seditious Activities, commonly called "the Lusk report," states on page 1121 that the New School for Social Research was "established by men who belong to the ranks of near-Bolshevik Intelligentsia, some of them being too radical in their views to remain on the faculty of Columbia University."

As of October 10, 1947, Dr. Alvin Johnson was President Emeritus of New School for Social Research. He was also Chairman of the New York State Committee for Equality in Education an organization to which Mrs. Rosenberg belonged.

On the New York State Committee for Equality in Education document, which is being reproduced here, Doctor Johnson's and Mrs. Rosenberg's names are in bold type. Indicated by stars are the more prominent Communist-followers; the 23 of them have a total of 183 Communist-front affiliations. Careful study of the document reveals other Red-liners for the League of Women Shoppers has been cited as a Communist-front, as has the American Veterans' Committee, and Progressive Citizens of America.

The Reverend Henry Atkinson is affiliated with the World Citizenship Movement; Roger N. Baldwin, Citizens Committee for United Nations Reform; Reverend Henry S. Leiper, Federal Union; Rev. Guy E. Shipley, Federal Union and World Citizenship Movement.

Of further interest, relative to the Rosenberg appointment, are some of the letters published by the Senate Armed Services Committee, in the Hearings of December 5-14, 1950.
Averring that they have known her many years, worked with her in various agencies, or in "private" undertakings, the following were among those urging Mrs. Rosenberg's placement as Assistant Secretary of Defense.

DAVID DUBINSKY, President, International Ladies' Garment Workers Union. Dubinsky, a Russian revolutionist served 18 months in one Russian prison, was exiled to Siberia, escaped after five months, and then came to the U. S. (American Labor's Who's Who, 1925)

FANNIE HURST, long time sponsor of Socialist-Communist activities, including the American Youth Congress and the National Council of Freedom from Censorship of the American Civil Liberties Union.

JACOB S. POTOFISKY, General President of Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, who has been affiliated with the Communist-front, Committee for a Democratic Eastern Policy along with such other Reds as Norman Corwin, Edward Chodorov and Paul Robeson.

MICHAEL J. QUILL, radical, Red-liner president of New York City, CIO Council.

M. LINCOLN SCHUSTER, an Initiating
Sponsor of the Communist-front, Independent Citizens' Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, in which organization one also finds:
Dr. Ernest P. Boas, Paul Robeson, William Rose
Benet, Norman Corwin and Mary McLeod Bethune.

ROBERT K. STRAUSS, who has been affilated with the Communist-front, National Emergency Conference for Democratic Rights. The veteran Communist party-liners Louis Adamic, Mary McLeod Bethune and Freda Kirchway also helped fill that front.

(Note: Of the above, all are Zionists, except Quill and Mary McLeod Bethune. Quill is a front for Zionists, and Mary McLeod Bethune is a Negress.)

ROBERT M. HUTCHINS, the radical Chancellor of University of Chicago. He signed the published appeal for the red murderers, Sacco and Vanzetti, who died screaming "Long live anarchy." Hutchins also served (summer session, 1935) on the Advisory Council of the Moscow State University which trains Americans in Communism. (University of Chicago is a hot-bed for Communism.)

L. M. BIRKHEAD, who, as National Director of Friends of Democracy, has specialized in character assassination of Christian leaders and anti-Communist movements. On the National Committee of Birkhead's Friends of Democracy have been such notorious Red-liners as Mary McLeod Bethune and Frank P. Graham, each of whom have been affiliated with ten, or more,
Communist-front organizations.

MARION B. SULZBERGER, another pro-
Rosenberg letter writer, has also served on the National Committee of Friends of Democracy.

Worthy of consideration is the fact that, of the two organizations covered in this article, associates of Anna M. Rosenberg have been, or are, affiliated with a TOTAL OF 808 Communist-front organizations. This figure is exclusive of the John Reed Clubs (with which Mrs.
Rosenberg has denied any affiliation) or any other Communist-front organization Mrs. Rosenberg may have been connected with.

But, speaking of connections, where IS the "other" Anna Rosenberg? Who is she? Why has she never stepped forward, allowing herself to be photographed? Must we go down to the farm? Will we find her there among the ducks, too?

To The Senators Who Helped Confirm The Nomination of Anna M. Rosenberg

A few weeks ago there occurred in Columbus an atrocious murder. A highly respected woman was killed in front of her own home. The officials immediately started an investigation.
Every policeman and detective was asked to work on the case. They interviewed her friends and every one else they thought might throw light on the case. They followed EVERY clue and bit of evidence that was furnished them.

Through the newspapers the officials asked the public that if any one had the least bit of evidence, or clue, that they wanted it and would investigate fully. They considered no clue or evidence was too small or inconsequential for a complete investigation. So far the crime has not been solved, but the officials are using the right method and perhaps some day some one will give them a bit of evidence that will enable them to solve this murder.

I am wondering if those in the United States Senate, who had the task of investigating Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, before she was confirmed as Assistant Secretary of Defense, used the above method to its fullest extent.

Yes, I know that Senator Byrd, on page 17053 of the Con. Record of December 21, and several others have stated that the Committee investigated EVERY BIT of evidence. I am WONDERING. (I can WONDER, can I not without impugning the motives of the good senators?)

The committee did not have to investigate concerning the racial background of Mrs.
Rosenberg. EVERYBODY including the committee knows that, Mrs. Rosenberg is a Jewess.

Dr. George E. Sullivan, (deceased) wrote a book during the war that he called "The Road to Victory." At the beginning of this book he pointed out one stupendous fact. He states that in the introduction to the "Talmud," one Eugene Darmesteeter, (I am writing from memory now) stated there was a "CLIQUE" of Jews who were enslaving all the other JEWS, through and by "incomparable subtlety and acumen" then through and by this GROUP they intend to ENSLAVE the whole human race. Now have you investigated THAT clue? If you haven't are you going to?

What was stated in the introduction to the Talmud, was that IT IS A CONSPIRACY, and it is being carried on on a world-wide scale.

I am NOT saying that ALL Jews belong to this conspiracy, no indeed, but I am saying there are enough of them who DO belong to it to manipulate international matters for their own BENEFIT. Isn't THIS clue worth investigating?

The second clue to our present day problem, is the fact that this group of "international brigands," as Dr. Sullivan calls them are using COMMUNISM to gain their objective.

America is in a life-and-death struggle with COMMUNISM all over the world, and still its authors, its promulgators, its promoters and financiers are NOT INVESTIGATED. HOW AB-SURD.

Didn't Kuhn-Loeb and Company give Trot-sky money to finance the Communist Revolution in Russia, in '17, and '18? This is only ONE little fact concerning the whole sad affair. How much investigation has the committee done along that line?

Is it any wonder that our economy is shot through; our schools and churches are saturated with communistic doctrine; our radio, movies and the press spurring out red doctrine constantly, when the LEADERS in our government and elsewhere absolutely REFUSE to CONSIDER or to INVESTIGATE the REAL ENEMIES WITH-IN OUR GATES.

The following is what they, themselves say:
"This is a HIGH-POWERED educational program geared to reach EVERY MAN, WOM-AN AND CHILD EVERY DAY OF THE YEAR —through the press—over the radio—through advertising—comic books—schools—speakers—information—community service—movies—churches—labor—and special groups."

party by the ruling hierarchy. Nothing in his background would suggest that he participates in the coolly analytical long range ideological planning that has been necessary to achieve what the reds have achieved by implementing America for their global and domestic objectives.

"A simple and hearty front like Truman, personally very likable, surrounded by a drove of men whom the public spots as theorists and incompetents, conceals very effectually the real processes of politics in Washington. To get at the source of policies we must look beyond them. We must see what the protecting propagandists and hired publicity diversionists do not want us to see. We must look not at the men outwardly and visibly running the machine but at its point to point progression and apparent destination. For by its direction we may determine the aims of those who secretly steer it. With the direction of the machine clearly established, and the consistency of its progress toward the same destination manifest, we know that the machine is being innerly guided. We know, too, that it is being guided by men far abler than the third-raters openly visible as office-holders. We know furthermore that this guiding hierarchy must be composed of individuals who command vast connections in the press, radio, organized labor, moving pictures, and finance. Since none of the outwardly recognized office-holders meets this prescription, plain logic compels us to look for the mysterious guidance of the machine in the ranks of more or less unofficial so called 'advisors,' 'White House consultants,' and so on.

"There, gentlemen, we may fix the responsibility for both the steering and the destination. Considering that whatever America does or does not do under this management, bolshevism wins, an inquiry would seem to be in order if we don't want to go completely bolshevist at home or find ourselves mysteriously defeated by bolshevism in another unwanted war. We want to know more about this new twentieth century type of government by a fraternally united gang of internationalists who are not hovering over the White House by election or choice of the American people, but are there because they wield mysterious powers which has prompted Presidents to latterly install and obey them.

"Blunders? I know of none. That America, a nation capitalist to the core, has been twice in a row the implement for bolshevist expansion in two successive world wars represents the ablest precision job in all the history of politics.

"Let us examine what we know about this gang of White House hierarchy advisors. Let us remember, for example, published reports of how Bernard Baruch gave $10,000 to the Communist-organized and led Abraham Lincoln Brigade in Spain. If we apply similar litmus paper identifications of Frankfurter, and the fact that top Advisor Morgenthau surrounded himself with such assistants as the Soviet spy Harry Dexter White and the New Masses writer Joseph Gaer, there is nothing puzzling about America's redward course of recent years.

"Yes, to see the realities of the steering we must look beyond the goofs and nitwits of the outer fringe. They would have been incapable of the mobilization of America for aims totally alien to the hearts of 90 percent of our people. The goofs and nitwits have not the necessary coordinated power in all branches of public sentiment-building and marginal minorities. But in the advisory hierarchy this power is very plain. "Talk of blunders helps to conceal precisely what we most need to expose. It is disheartening to see this foolish error so widespread. Will you try Mr. Kister, to correct it?"

the world. It certainly would not be a force that would maintain international peace and security. . . Let us keep what we have, and not go into any visionary field. If the United Nations falls, I doubt that agreement could ever be reached again on another organization. The earth would then be divided into two worlds—one dominated by the United States and the other by the USSR. War would certainly be much nearer.

A nation with a strong national policy, backed up by adequate armed forces, prevents aggression, while a nation with a weak and vacillating national policy and inadequate armed forces invites aggression."

Resolution A.C.R.-9, which proposes the repeal of the resolution for World Government, passed by the 173rd New Jersey State Legislature, is to be acted upon shortly by the New Jersey Legislature groups. Write immediately to your Senator and Assembly Delegation to vote "YES" for a A.C.R.-9, to repeal the World Government resolution passed by the 173rd New Jersey State Legislature.

TO THE SENATORS

HOW LONG CAN AMERICA STAND UP BEFORE A GROUP—ANY GROUP—THAT CAN INFLUENCE EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD IN OUR COUNTRY . . . EVERY DAY?

Answer that question, and you have answered the most important one. I have pointed out several clues to the situation, what are you going to do about them?

1st. There is a JEWISH conspiracy to conquer the whole world;

2nd. This conspiracy is being carried on and out by a CLIQUE of international brigands.

3rd. This clique is using COMMUNISM to accomplish their purpose.

Am I right or wrong? WHICH? Let me know, for if I am on the WRONG track I would like to be placed on the RIGHT one.

I am sending you a little booklet that I wrote about six years ago. Don't try to understand ALL that's in it, because you cannot. But you CAN understand those things that are along the same line that is being presented here.

If you were called upon to KILL a boa constrictor that had crawled into your backyard, you wouldn't rush out with a butcher knife and cut its tail off inch by inch, would you?

Well, in dealing with communism, why don't you use just a LITTLE of the common sense that you would use to get rid of a boa constrictor.

Yours sincerely,

C. L.
Columbus, Ohio.

HOW TO SEIZE A COUNTRY

A very significant article, "How to Seize a Country," appeared on page 63 of the June, 1948, Reader's Digest. Written by the French scholar, Bertrand de Jouvenel, the article gives the "step-by-step technique of Communism." Two paragraphs are quoted below:

"Of capital importance in the whole procedure of conquest is Operation SMEAR, which is designed to cripple resistance to the Communist seizure of power well in advance. During the Operation Unanimity, the Communists show a most generous disposition to get on well with all and sundry. But gradually it begins to be noised about that So-and-So is a fascist sympathizer, or anti-Semitic, or pro-German, or "Isolationist"—or something. The rumor never openly originates with the Communists, but their accomplices take it up. The smear is aimed at anyone who, while he may not even be an enemy of the Communists, is regarded by them as a possible element of strong resistance. The whole point of Operation Smear is that, if you can taint a few courageous people, then the taint can easily be extended to their less courageous friends, and to the friends of their friends. Thus Operation Smear eats up the bones of the resistance to Communism."

COUDERT URGES PLAN TO LET CONGRESS FIRE THE PRESIDENT

Representative Frederic R. Coudert Jr. (R-N.Y.) has announced that he will introduce a constitutional amendment giving Congress the power by a two-thirds vote to compel either the resignation of a President or a new national election of President, Vice President and Congress. He stated that the move was "made necessary by the enormous growth of power of the Presidency over recent years and the corresponding decline of the Congress."

Patriotic Americans should write their Senators and Congressmen asking that Representative Coudert be supported on this amendment before the New Deal usurps all power of Congress.

She weighs only 104 pounds

... but after spending seven years undercover for the F.B.I., she has knocked the Communist Party for a loop in this new sensational best-seller.

In the appendix of this book are listed 178 leaders in the World Government crusade, along with 196 Communist fronts with which they are affiliated. SLAVERY - BY DEFAULT?

By Merwin K. Hart,
President, National Economical Council
from Council Letter No. 258

We Americans must try to see recent and current happenings as a whole. For they all constitute a whole. They all stem from the teachings of Karl Marx—from the principles of the Second International, which is Socialism, or the Third International, which is Communism. British Socialism and the Soviet system are not so far apart as some may think.

Unless we realize the twin threat of both Socialism and Communism, it will be impossible to understand what is going on in America today.

To put it another way, the Socialists, and particularly the Communists, are far better organized than those who believe in the American system. Even though there has been in the past year a measurable awakening to the dangers of Communism, there has been much less awakening to the dangers of Socialism.

Recently an experienced Representative in Congress said to us "Congress doesn't lead in making laws; Congress follows." He meant that to an important extent Congress follows what the people say they want. But the people have to say.

It is not too late to save the United States from both Socialism and Communism. We don't have to go broke, we Americans. We don't have to be forced into slavery. It is now very late—but not too late to stop all this leftwing trend. It can be stopped by citizens themselves, if they care to take the trouble.

The job of the National Economic Council is to bring facts to the attention of citizens so that they may take appropriate and timely action.

But before citizens can act they must understand the measures that are being pushed by the New-Deal-Fair-Deal-Socialist-Communist crowd, in the light of the general over-all Plan, which is first to socialize, and then to communize the United States.

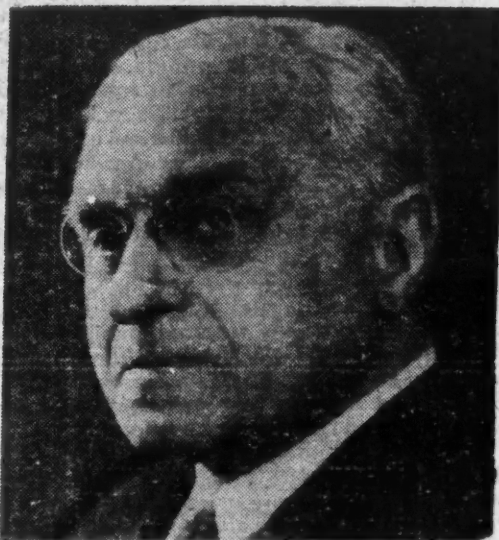

Borrowed Tools

These left-wingers—a convenient name for the New-Deal - Fair-Deal - Socialist - Communist crowd—have consciously or unconsciously borrowed some of the tools they use direct from the Communists. They have learned, for instance, the power of slogans. They have used certain slogans over and over again, ad nauseam, until they have been widely accepted. And they are still using them.

There is, for instance, the word "democracy" which since 1935, at the time of the big Communist conference in Moscow, has been used by our left-wingers as the name of our own form of government. Throughout our history before that (except for a brief time when Woodrow Wilson talked about "making the world safe for democracy") the United States was called by its right name—a Republic. In the Constitutional Convention of 1787 various forms of government were considered and discarded. The idea of a monarchy was one of these. When the Convention came to consider a democracy, it was rejected on the ground that throughout history a democracy had always failed.

The Convention adopted a Republic as our form of government. Even Jefferson, the founder of the Democratic Party, rarely if ever spoke of the United States as anything but "The Republic." In Council Letter 166, May 1, 1947, we gave a fairly complete history of the meaning of republic.

Felix Frankfurter, Yiddish Zionist, born in Vienna, Austria, member of the Supreme Court, is regarded as the Marxist who cracks the whip over the State Department. He has been a friend of anarchists, Sacco and Vanzetti down to the 1951 Communists. Frankfurter came down off the Supreme Court to testify to the good character of Alger Hiss arch traitor and Communist. In doing this, Frankfurter really proved himself a jackass. Frankfurter, who is regarded as one of the top dogs in the Invisible Government is expected to rule the United States with an iron hand if the New Deal is replaced with Communism as the Kerensky government was replaced with Communism in Russia.

Frankfurter's uncle, Louis D. Brandies, was also on the Supreme Court and also supported Communism. Sworn testimony has been made in Washington to the effect that Louis D. Brandies, as well as his wife and daughter, were very active in raising funds for the Communist Commonwealth College in Arkansas which was closed by the State of Arkansas. Men and Women lived together without marriage and the Hammer and Sickle flag flew over the college. Brandies was also an aggressive Zionist.

U.S. ARMY AND J.D.C. PRINT TALMUD

According to a news dispatch printed in the New York Post on January 24 1951, copies of a new 19-volume edition of the Talmud were printed in Heidelberg, Germany, by the Joint Distribution Committee and the U. S. Army. The new volumes were presented, on that date, to the New York Public Library and Yeshiva University.

Just why the Army and J.D.C. should print the Talmud is a mystery, unless orders have been received from the Invisible Government, for that collection of works violates the criminal code of every nation. Why does our Army print anti-Christian books? Anna M. Rosenberg works fast.

The Talmud ridicules Jesus Christ, Christian churches and Christians. Some of its milder passages include:

"Why are the Goim unclean? Because they eat abominable things and animals that crawl on their belly."—Schabbath, (145b)

"When Jewish women come out of a bath they must take care to meet a friend first, and not something unclean or a Christian. For if so, a woman, if she wants to keep holy, should go back and bathe again."—Iore Dea, (198 48) Hagah.

The State Department

By Chas. W. Phillips

(Ed. Note: While this article appeared in the Feb. 5, 1949 issue of "The Individualist" we publish it now because it is most timely.)

The appointment of Dean Gooderham Acheson as Secretary of State may be one of the keys in the answer to the question, "Where do we go from here?" When Fulton Lewis, Jr. telephoned Arthur Bliss Lane who was our Ambassador to Poland after the war, for his comment on the appointment, Mr. Lane answered, "God save the United States."

Mr. Lane had been in a strategic position to observe Mr. Acheson's basic position in State Department affairs where Russia was concerned because when Mr. Lane was Ambassador to Poland, it had come under communist domination and was trying to wheedle a $50,000,000 loan from the United States.

Mr. Lane and Acheson clashed because, while Mr. Lane was opposed to the loan, Acheson insisted that it go through. The loan did go through and Mr. Lane immediately resigned.

There is a very interesting thing in connection with this loan and that is that it was handled by Mr. Edward Burling and Mr. Donald Hiss. Mr. Burling is a member of a law firm in Washington, D. C. known as Covington, Burling, Rublee, Acheson and Shorb. Mr. Donald Hiss, as most of you undoubtedly know, is a brother of Alger Hiss and joined that particular law firm after leaving the State Department. These same two persons were registered as being employed by and representing communist Poland's Purchasing Commission from 1945 into 1947.

Choreboy for the International New Dealers

Mr. Acheson is one of the choreboys for the International New Dealers. He is what has been referred to in Washington many times in the past as one of the "hot dogs" which was a term applied to the many proteges of Justice Frankfurter. Mr. Frankfurter has been known as the personnel director of the New Deal when it was setting up shop and before it revealed its intentions to go international. In fact, Acheson has been and still is, very close to Justice Frankfurter who is the spiritual head of the Fabians in our country, having served as his attorney when Mr. Frankfurter thought he needed legal counsel and representation when appearing before the Senate Committee that was considering the ratification of his appointment as Supreme Court Justice. As Westbrook Pegler pointed out, Mr. Frankfurter is the only man in the history of our country who, when appointed to the Supreme Court, was in need of a "mouthpiece," Dean Acheson filled the bill.

A Frankfurter Protege

When he graduated from Harvard Law School, Mr. Acheson went direct to Washington to become private secretary to Supreme Court Justice Brandies. After working with and for Justice Brandies for two years, Acheson joined the Washington law firm of Covington, Burling and Rublee. In May of 1933 he was recommended by Justice Felix Frankfurter for a State Department post in Roosevelt's administration but he was instead assigned to the Treasury Devs. democracy. The continued false use of "democracy" has deceived even some of our good writers who forget that the word does not once appear in the Declaration of Independence or the Constitution of the United States—but that in fact the Constitution expressly guarantees a "republican form of government" to the States.

Another term that is mouthed by left-wing orators and commentators is "the freedom-loving nations" of the world. During World War II, these authors actually classed Soviet Russia as one of the "freedom-loving nations." All those nations that failed to become "allies" of the United States, Britain and France were supposedly not freedom-loving. The former group styled themselves the "peace-loving nations." The corollary was that those who did not join in, such as Switzerland, Ireland, Spain and others, were not peace-loving nations!

A third tool of the communistic-socialistic group is the extravagant advantages given by statute to what has come to be known as "Labor." These organized minority groups include in the United States the CIO, the AFL, the United Mine Workers and the Railroad "Brotherhoods," one of which recently engineered or permitted the disastrous strike of trainmen at a time when American boys are dying in Korea.

Few people would deny the right of any group to organize to better their economic condition. But Karl Marx made this "right" the implement of revolution, and American left-wingers have made it a facile instrument for ruthless men, some of them Communists, and many of them gangsters, to "organize" millions of men and women and subject the rank and file members of labor unions to virtual slavery.

There is widespread rebellion among wage-earning people against this kind of tyranny. Evidence of this rebellion became outstanding in the re-election campaign of Senator Taft. In spite of the bitterest opposition of all the bosses who called themselves "Labor," he was re-elected by a larger majority than any candidate ever received in the State of Ohio—roughly 450,000.

The right to organize has been further extended to include a vested "right" in an employee's job, a "right" to strike and to prevent by force and violence any other person from doing a striker's work. Also the "right" to fix a minimum 40-hour week—and then require employers who are the consumers and taxpayers, to pay time and a half for overtime. This practice in World War II cost the taxpayers billions of dollars. It will cost them billions of dollars in this "emergency."

Our boys in Korea don't get overtime. And their working conditions are hardly as good as the Labor Bosses are exacting at home.

Things That Are Driving Us Toward Communism

What are some of the factors that today are driving the United States toward Socialism and Communism?

Well, first of all there is the United Nations. This statement may surprise some. But the United Nations in its very nature is collectivism. To the extent that it succeeds, the independence of the United States will be undermined. This will mean that the political independence of the United States and the economic independence of its citizens will be destroyed; because the effect if not the plan of the United Nations and its subordinate is to siphon off the savings of the American people for the benefit of the peoples of other countries.

This spells no good to America, and little good to other countries, for what they get will be on the something-for-nothing basis. And something-for-nothing seldom enriches anybody.

Close examination of the United Nations discloses that practically all the staff are internationalists. Many of them have close sympathy with Communism. The Secretary-General, Mr. Trygve Lie, was a radical Norwegian labor union leader who had worked closely with communistic unions in other countries. He was even picked by Soviet Russia and put over on the American government by Soviet Russia.

The confidence of multitudes of persons who formerly had faith in the United Nations has disappeared. It is a rather common remark by such persons that they have given up any hope that collective action from the UN can ever establish peace.

But not so many people realize yet what a stumbling block the very existence of the United Nations is to vital American interests. Those who have followed things rather closely know that the UN has been a positive hindrance to the American forces in Korea. Because the Administration in Washington will not shake itself loose from its UN complex, we have actually been letting our American boys be sacrificed by the thousands because UN does not want to back Chiang Kai-shek.

Chiang Kai-shek, in answer to the call by UN for troops from other countries, offered the largest number of troops that any nation has yet offered. American common sense and ordinary regard for preserving American lives clearly dictate acceptance of the services of experienced anti-Communist Chinese troops to withstand the attacks of the Chinese Communists. Communist influence in the UN is clearly responsible for refusing. In fact, present American policy in this and other respects is consistent only with the Soviet desire to weaken America, both in manpower and money.

The same common sense would indicate the advisability of letting General MacArthur bomb the military installations in Manchuria. But the UN says "No." And so our Government acquiesces.

The loosely enforced immigration policy of the United States has played an important part in building up Socialism and Communism in the United States and in undermining the American Republic. We published in Council Letter No. 189 figures showing that during an 18-year period ending in 1948 the population of the United States, as estimated by the Bureau of the Census, was nearly two million greater than could be accounted for by the officially reported immigration plus the excess of births over deaths. These two million came into the United States in an illegal way. It is even possible that the number that entered the United States illegally during this period was as high as three or four million.

On February 19, 1951, the Census Bureau gave out an official estimate of the population of the United States as 153 million, an increase of nearly two million over the official Census figures as of nine months before. The Congress in the early 1920's passed a series of laws which greatly restricted immigration. Under the pressure of a highly financed lobby, the Congress in 1950 again let down the bars and allowed entry into the United States of an additional 201,000, over and above the originally authorized 200,000. These (unless the law is amended) will come in legally. But the Census estimate for 1951 suggests that there has been continued large unlawful immigration. Many who have entered illegally, and some who have entered legally, are undesirables who will bring their alien ideologies and further undermine the America that used to be strong.

World Government

But nowhere can socialist-communist influence be seen more clearly than in the various groups organized within the United States to promote "World Government."

The United Nations, of course is a kind of World Government. Indeed, if we went no further than the United Nations—if we ratified no more of the international alphabetical agency agreements such as the ITO, the Genocide Convention and the International Bill of Rights, we would have already built the foundation destined to take away the sovereignty of the United States, causing the 150-odd million American people to be ruled, not by their own representatives in Washington and in the several states, but by an international polyglot group in which the United States would have but a single vote.

We base this statement partly on the decision in the Fujii case in which a California court held that under Article VI, Section 2, of the Constitution of the United States, the United Nations Charter, even without implementation (that is, the passage of laws to carry the provisions of the Charter into effect), has become the Supreme Law of California.

Without doubt many Americans, who without giving great thought to it, accepted the United Nations at face value and supported it, have lost faith in it. Nevertheless, a determined effort is today being made to "strengthen" the United Nations by making it in effect a world ruling body. There is grave danger, even at this moment when the United Nations has reached its lowest point yet in public esteem, that the ever-zealous persons that constitute the backbone of the demand for the surrender of our sovereignty may be successful.

These persons, many of them of high character and reputation, seem to have turned their backs completely on the lessons of history.

United-World Federalists

Perhaps the most vociferous group demanding World Government is the organization known as the "United World Federalists." We have written one or more times of this group, notably in Letter 231 of January 15, 1950. Local groups of these One Worlders in many sections of the country are agitating constantly and fanatically for their project. They have succeeded in many cities in enlisting the smart social set of younger people, who seem to want something to interest themselves in. Elaborate cocktail parties are given and huge sums are raised. At one such cocktail party in a leading New York City night club the proprietors donated the $600 or $800 of liquor consumed, and some $20,000 or $25,000 was raised.

And what for? What is the purpose of all this agitation?

Simply to give away the sovereignty of the United States. To sell ourselves into subjection to an international outfit to which America would contribute most of the needed funds but in the governing body of which she would be, and would always remain, a minority. A more unintelligent, senseless, unwarranted objective would be hard to find!

Herbert Hoover stated: "Do not the advocates of a Super-State realize that if this country joined such a World Federation our voting strength would be only 6% of the total? . . . The idea of a World Government is fantastic."

Anyone who wishes to see the extent to which prominent citizens, bankers, business men and others have been deceived and used by the Communists and other totalitarians, will do well to read Mr. Louis Budenz's recent book, "Men Without Faces." He is now on the faculty of Fordham University. But, having been ten years an active Communist and several of those years editor of the Daily Worker, he should know what suckers some of those people have been.

The rank and file of Americans can stop all this—and we think they will. We say this because, when the matter first came up three or four years ago, 22 state legislatures adopted resolutions favoring the world government scheme. But since the Economic Council and other groups began drawing attention to the real meaning of it all, Georgia, California, Rhode Island, Alabama, Louisiana, Tennessee, Missouri and Colorado have rescinded their resolutions. The citizens of Oklahoma defeated a world government resolution four to one. We know of no state that has passed an affirmative world government resolution for nearly two years. It shows what citizens can do when scheming politicians and dreamy "liberals" forget that the leading exponent of world government is Joseph Stalin!

Atlantic Union

*Another movement of more restricted nature is the so-called Atlantic Union—a federal government consisting of the 12 signatories to the so-called Atlantic Pact. Among the most prominent men working for the Atlantic Union is a former Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, Mr. Owen Roberts of Philadelphia. How one who has risen to such high position can decide that America should surrender her sovereignty is hard to understand. It is such men as Mr. Roberts who are the real danger in this fanatical agitation for "World Government."

But the internationalists never do anything by halves. They are now agitating several projects, any one of which would give them what they want—namely, surrender of the United States to an internationalist body which they, the internationalists, would control. It would be one quick jump into international Socialism.

We have mentioned these other activities a number of times, but as long as the danger lasts they cannot too often be mentioned.

International Trade Organization

There is the International Trade Organization to which, if the United States should ratify it as a treaty, we would surrender control over our foreign and our domestic production; in short, surrender control over our whole economic life. While a few businessmen who have substantial foreign trade can be found among the group working to ratify the ITO, yet the real forces that thought the thing up were economic and political internationalists—men and women who do not believe in the United States and are quite willing to see it absorbed by world government. Communists do the heavy thinking.

partment as its Under Secretary under William H. Woodin.

Remember that President Roosevelt had promised to "drive the money changers from the temple." Even though this promise was short lived, he nevertheless did give the boys a bit of a scare temporarily when he announced the suspension of gold payments in mid-April of 1933. Roosevelt had thus committed the unpardonable sin of having his own ideas on foreign trade and incurred the wrath of those who were then planning the International New Deal. As we pointed out in these bulletins some nine years ago, the shock to the gold bloc crowd was serious enough to cause Montagu C. Norman, Governor of the Bank of England, to change ships in mid-ocean when he heard the news on his way to India, and hurry back to England. Over in this country James P. Warburg felt it necessary to bestir himself and write "Hell Bent for Election" to be followed somewhat later by "Still Hell-Bent."

During those first few years Mr. Roosevelt was feeling his oats and had the temerity to believe that the Democratic landslide by which he was first elected was enough of a mandate to allow him to take the bit in his teeth and defy the forces that were then laying the final plans. Mr. Acheson's allegiance was evidently elsewhere because he resigned in November after serving only a few months. He went back to his international law firm.

By coincidence, when Mr. Acheson did finally wind up in the State Department in 1941 where Mr. Frankfurter had been wanting him all the time, so-called Republican liberal spokesmen were just beginning to describe the possibility of the emergence of a "young and rising International party" which was supposed to be a brand new political development.

Mr. Acheson took over a post which, during the war years, was very strategic from the standpoint of the economic program of the International New Dealers. He was supervisor of all United States economic foreign policy. The Lend-Lease agreements were, to a large extent his responsibility. He was the State Department's representative in the Office of Economic Warfare. Even though it had been claimed that neither the United Nations Hot Springs Food Conference nor the UNRRA were his ideas—and of course we know that they were steps in a program antedating Acheson's entry into the State Department—he was nevertheless entrusted with the responsibility of drawing up the plans for these undertakings. It hardly needs to be pointed out that such chores would not have been assigned to anyone who was not in perfect agreement with their objectives. In other words, Acheson was close to the development and growth of the International New Deal.

It may seem that we are going far afield to discuss such things as Mr. Davenport's ideas on economic world order when Mr. Acheson and his activities and background are announced as the main subject. But unless we recall or at least have made a casual acquaintance with the methods used to bring the traditional Republican Party under the control and direction of International New Dealers, we will never know why it was that Mr. Acheson's and similar appointments are so readily confirmed by congressional leaders who wear the Republican label. Incidentally, such background goes far in explaining such Republican presidential candidates as Mr. Willkie and Mr. Dewey.

Mr. Acheson's appointment is no mystery. It should have been expected. If there is any mystery at all, it is to be found in its ready confirmation and in its whole-hearted endorsement by some Republican spokesmen.

After all, it has long ceased to be a mystery as to what happened to the Democratic Party but there still appears to be quite a bit of confusion concerning the change in the official Republican attitude towards questions or issues touching on foreign policy. Mr. Acheson's story is as good a place to start as any.

It was many years before there was any general realization that the Democratic Party underwent a change in 1933 and that a group of social reformers were able, in the 1932 landslide, to take over the Party, lock, stock and barrel.

In like manner, but more adroitly, the International New Dealers have been taking over the Republican Party and its leaders. They vocally maintained categorical opposition to Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Truman and the Democratic machine. But they endorsed the main objectives of the International New Dealers and never turned down a chance to belittle those Republicans who are still anti-collectivist even though the collectivism is on the agenda of the United Nations Organization.

To properly appreciate the significance of the ease with which the endorsement of men like Senators Vandenberg, Austin et al, was obtained, one must go back to the era of Mr. Willkie; one must go back to the "young and rising International party" described by Mr. Russell W. Davenport of the TIME-LIFE-FORTUNE axis and to the Ball and Fulbright Resolutions of 1943. He must re-examine Lend-Lease and the UNRRA and the entire development of the trend towards the international welfare state which is to be financed by the American taxpayer. He will then be able to understand the success of what is described in such glowing generalities as "unity" and bi-partisan foreign policy." He will be able to understand how it is that Mr. John Foster Dulles, the adviser on international affairs to our last Republican presidential candidate, recommended Mr. Alger Hiss for the presidency of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

The "Young and Rising International Party"

The May, 1941 issue of "Fortune" carried an article by Mr. Russell W. Davenport who was the chairman of its Board of Editors. The title of the article was "The Future of U.S. Foreign Policy" and it should be dug out and read from time to time as the International New Deal continues to develop.

Mr. Davenport's editorial was purported to have been inspired by Mr. Wendell Willkie whom the article claimed to have put forward "the idea of an 'area of Freedom'—a concept that is certainly veering toward a new international philosophy," by President Roosevelt's advocacy of the "four freedoms," and by an article written by Henry R. Luce and published in the February 17, 1941 issue of "Life." Also by the fact that these three, along with other unidentified minds, seem "to reach for a similar solution" and because the "same basic concept is latent in what each had to say."

Three months later, in the August, 1941 issue, while referring to Mr. Roosevelt's post-war ideas, Mr. Davenport went on to write:

"The backing that Mr. Roosevelt has won for this policy is, to say the least, heterogeneous. It does not include large elements of American labor, which otherwise give him their confidence. On the other hand, it does include the recent Republican candidate and millions of his followers."

Since then the International New Dealers seem to have been joined by many others whose party affiliations are with the Republican Party in name only. They comprise a group who seem to see eye to eye with the International New Dealers in the Democratic Party.

When we come to that part of the August, 1941 "Fortune" article that gives notice of the possibility of a new kind of international political party, we find that Mr. Davenport wrote that: "... it is certainly a fair guess that there exists in America, as also in England, the raw material of a new party: a kind of amorphous and temporarily homeless hodgepodge, groping across party lines—and groping blindly, because, if it turned out at all, it would turn out to be a revolutionary party."

"... In short, as we look toward the future we can draw from the objects in the foreground this powerful intimation: that there may be forming, among the peoples who are fighting a new kind of political group, reaching beyond nationalities toward a set of principles without which free men cannot live; that there exists, potentially, a young and rising International party, preparing to do political battle for a future world."

This was written during the days of Lend-Lease. Five months later the United Nations Declaration was signed. From then on the program began to be unfolded more rapidly to the American people. Mr. Acheson was working on the project, too.

The Ball Resolution and the Republican Postwar Policy Association

In April of 1943 the State Department announced that the United Nations Food Conference was to convene May 18, 1943 at Hot Springs, Virginia. Mr. Eden's arrival in Washington a month before had set the ball rolling. On March 14th, just two days after his arrival, two Republican Senators and four Democratic Senators held a long conference with Roosevelt at which

Harry L. Hopkins and James Byrnes were also present. The Republicans were Ball and Burton and the Democrats were Connolly, Wagner, Hatch and Hill. The Resolution which was discussed and later known as the Ball Resolution advocated "that the United States take the initiative in calling meetings of representatives of the United Nations for the purpose of forming an organization of the United Nations" to accomplish various purposes one of which was:

"(3) To administer relief and assistance in economic rehabilitation in territories of member nations needing such aid and in Axis territory occupied by United Nations forces."

The Ball Resolution was the purported inspiration for the organization of the Republican Postwar Policy Association which was one of the first major steps toward obtaining Republican sanction for the then current phases of the foreign policy desired by the International New Dealers.

The Hot Springs United Nations Food Conference which has been discussed many times in these bulletins, furnished the plans for international agencies to do the things which were set out in the "Fortune" blueprint and the UNRRA established the precedence. Mr. Dean Acheson played an important part in all of these negotiations. An important figure in the State Department, he was later selected as the American member of the General Council of the American Section of the UNRRA which in turn elected Governor Lehman as Director General.

eral but hardly less important. The theory of it is that the destruction of an entire racial or religious group is a crime. No one will disagree. But the Genocide Convention goes so far that even threat of bodily or mental harm to any single member of any race would enable the International Genocide committee, by whatever name known, to take jurisdiction over American citizens to the exclusion of our own courts. A person of any race could claim he had been refused the right to occupy a certain apartment or join a certain social club, and had thereby suffered mental harm; and this would be authority for the international body to step in and assume jurisdiction.

Many men in the Senate think exactly as we do about the Genocide Convention. But plausible arguments have been brought up to the effect that while in exactly its present form it would not be acceptable, yet certain changes or reservations might make it acceptable. Why fool around with the thing at all? Why should any United States Senator favor ratifying this ridiculous proposal? How can any American tolerate even the thought of such bureaucratic interference?

International Bill of Rights

Finally, there is the so-called International Bill of Rights—an instrument developed through several years of "discussion" by an international commission in which the United States has but a single member—Mrs. Eleanor D. Roosevelt.

Some of its provisions are similar to those in our own Bill of Rights. But beyond these, this fantastic scheme sets up certain economic "rights" such as the right to work for fair wages, the right to be supported in one's old age, etc., etc. These, of course, are not rights in the American sense. They are rather guarantees of the installation of a socialist regime, for they could not be enforced except by the expropriation of all property and rigid bureaucratic control of every citizen.

The International Bill of Rights is, if possible, more dangerous than any of the other pending measures which have been cooked up by the internationalists.

And with respect to this International Bill of Rights this same question arises — Why in Heaven's name should the American people or the American Congress waste any time whatever considering it,

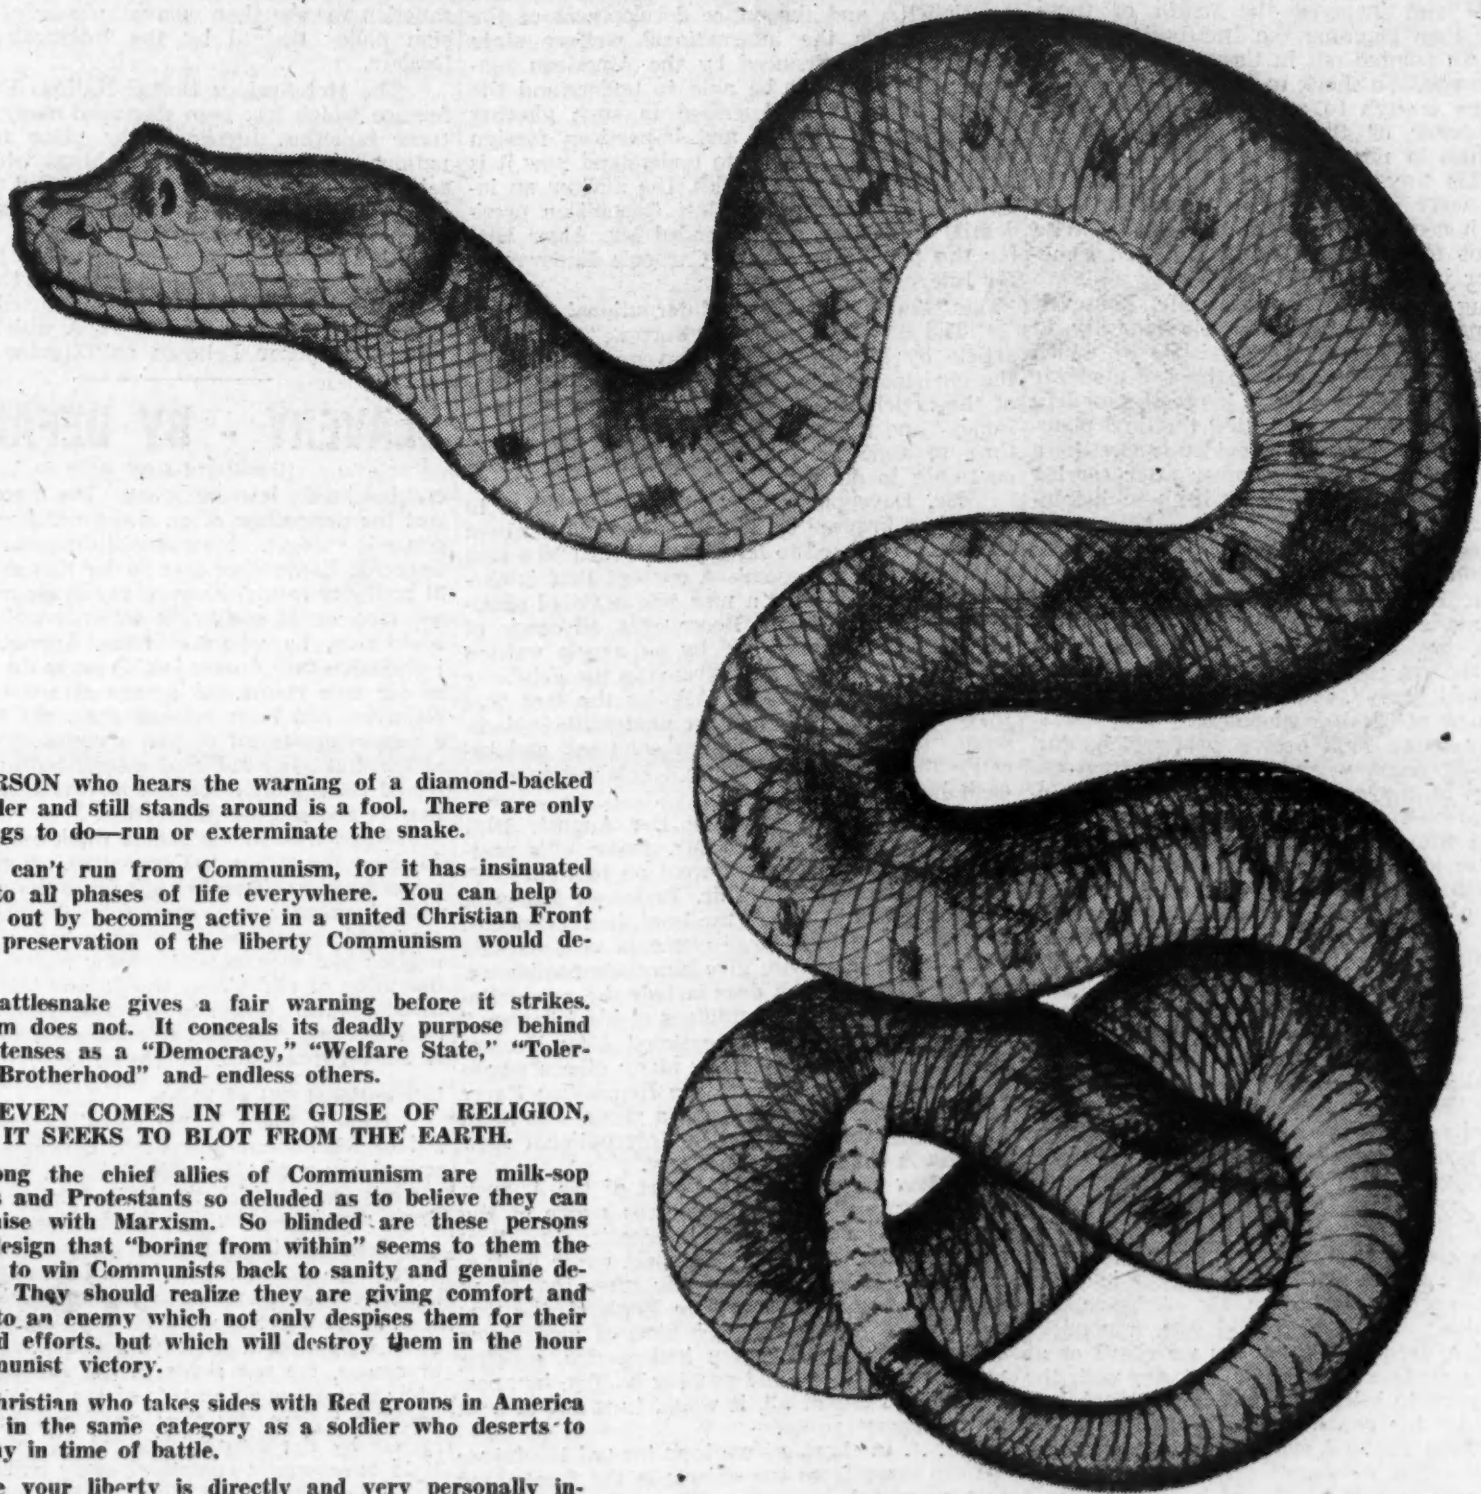

What interest has the American people in trying to raise the standard, economic, social, etc., of other nations—by tearing down its own admirable and well functioning structure?

Problems like these deserve the attention of every American citizen—of every man and woman, of every boy or girl of high school age and over. If they don't watch out, their liberty will be gone.

If you are willing to lose your liberty and to sacrifice that of your children, then do nothing. Ignore all this.

But if you wish to save America and all it means, write your Senators and Congressmen not to favor any measure that detracts one iota from American sovereignty.

YOU CAN'T COMPROMISE WITH A RATTLESNAKE

A PERSON who hears the warning of a diamond-backed rattler and still stands around is a fool. There are only two things to do—run or exterminate the snake.

You can't run from Communism, for it has insinuated itself into all phases of life everywhere. You can help to stamp it out by becoming active in a united Christian Front for the preservation of the liberty Communism would destroy.

A rattlesnake gives a fair warning before it strikes. Communism does not. It conceals its deadly purpose behind such pretenses as a "Democracy," "Welfare State," "Tolerance," "Brotherhood" and endless others.

IT EVEN COMES IN THE GUISE OF RELIGION, WHICH IT SEEKS TO BLOT FROM THE EARTH.

Among the chief allies of Communism are milk-sop Catholics and Protestants so deluded as to believe they can compromise with Marxism. So blinded are these persons to Red design that "boring from within" seems to them the best way to win Communists back to sanity and genuine democracy. They should realize they are giving comfort and support to an enemy which not only despises them for their misguided efforts, but which will destroy them in the hour of Communist victory.

A Christian who takes sides with Red groups in America today is in the same category as a soldier who deserts to the enemy in time of battle.

Since your liberty is directly and very personally involved, it is your DUTY to yourself to help save the system of Christian society that has preserved that liberty. A person who places no value on freedom does not deserve to enjoy it.

Will you not take your part in the fight to save America from the stark tragedy of Communism? Will you, through apathy and indifference, withhold your help in the hour of America's greatest need?

You can hear the rattle of the serpent. You can SEE it coiled before you.

Remember—you can't run. You MUST stay—and fight.

Help COMMON SENSE to combat the serpent of Communism in America.

ANTI-SEMITISM AND CRITICISM OF JEWS

Those Who Criticize Instead of Admire Jewish Power Are Anti-Semitic

Why Was He Imprisoned?

Cardinal Mindszenty, Christian leader and loyal citizen of Hungary until the Zionist-Communists gained control of his country. Then, he was arrested, tortured, drugged, and forced to confess as a traitor. Of nine million people in Hungary, seven million were Catholics, the majority of the remaining two million were good Protestant Christians who did not want Communism. But a Marxist minority forced it on them, just as the minority will force it upon the U.S. if we Christians allow them; today's American patriots will be the "traitors." Gerson, a Zionist Jew, directed the team which tortured the Cardinal.

BY WILLIAM ZUCKERMAN EDITOR OF JEWISH NEWSLETTER, NEW YORK

A recent minor literary incident in London has raised a question of considerable importance to Jewish people not only in the literary world and has started reverberations in the Jewish press of England and this country. The incident occurred at a poetry reading organized by the Institute for Contemporary Art at which a Jewish poet, Emanuel Litvinoff, read a poem "To T. S. Eliot" in which he accused the famous modern poet and dramatist of anti-Semitism. Mr. Eliot was present at the gathering and another modern English poet, Stephen Spender, protested on the spot against the reading of the poem and explained his objection on the following grounds: "I objected to Mr. Litvinoff's poem because he was classing Mr. Eliot with people who committed atrocities on the Jews, whereas I believe that anything Mr. Eliot has written about Jews comes under the heading of criticism."

I objected to it, not so much for the harm that its spirit of attack does to Mr. Eliot, as for the harm it does to the Jews, because I do not think that Jews should allow a situation to arise in which all attacks on Jews, even jokes about them, are regarded as anti-Semitic." The incident has already called forth a number of articles in the Jewish press of London and New York as to whether Mr. Eliot is anti-Semitic or not. (Liberal Jewish London says "no;" nationalistic Jewish New York, as usual, says "yes")

But there is a much larger and more important issue involved in the discussion which is not mentioned by name, but is very much implied. This is: is any person, be he a poet of international fame as is Mr. Eliot, or an unknown individual, non-Jew, to be described as anti-Semitic because he has said something uncomplimentary about Jews or has criticised some Jewish action or even if he happens not to like Jews as a group? The question is extremely delicate and there is an understandable reluctance to speak about it by decent non-Jewish people, and there is an actual tabu on its discussion in Jewish circles. Yet nothing needs more clarification and frank talk than this subject.

What is anti-Semitism? And who can properly be described as anti-Semitic? These questions have been discussed for years among Jews and some fantastic answers have been given to them, most of them dictated by emotional reactions and the well-known super-sensitiveness of the Jew to anything pertaining to anti-Semitism. But, occasionally, some rational and logical answer would be advanced even by a Jewish writer on the subject. One attempt at such a rational reply was recently made by Joseph Leftwich, a well-known Jewish writer and journalist in England in a series of interesting articles on the subject in the Jewish Times of Johannesburg (February 2 and 9.)

Leftwich, who is himself a rare specimen of a modern person who is a sincere Orthodox religious Jew whose religion has not been tainted

CARDINAL MINDSZENTY:

A PRINCE OF CHRIST

Locked in a prison cell somewhere in Soviet Union today—if he still lives today—is the beaten, drugged, starved body of what was the man, Cardinal Mindszenty. Convicted of "currency offenses," after a faked trial, the former Roman Catholic Primate of Hungary is serving a term of life imprisonment. The entire world knows the story. But, does it know the truth?

Cardinal Mindszenty's real "crime" was anti-Semitism.

No less an authority than the Zionist author, Peter Furst, says so in his article "Anti-Semitism is Outlawed, Offenders Are Sent to Prison," which appeared in the February 4, 1951, Communistic Sunday Compass of New York. Stating that there "is no truth in reports that anti-Semitism is practiced in Eastern Europe today," Furst outlines articles of the Czechoslovakian, Bulgarian, and Hungarian constitutions which make "religious hatred" a crime "punishable by law."

"It was well known in Budapest that Cardinal Mindszenty was anti-Semitic," Furst continues. "I was shown anti-Semitic statements signed by him and printed in prewar publications which are now in possession of the Jewish Center in Budapest. During the Mindszenty trial I was asked by several Jewish leaders how it was possible that some Jewish organizations in the west came to the Cardinal's defense as a 'friend of the Jews.'"

"One of my colleagues, Bertha Gaster of the London News Chronicle, had her own experience with Cardinal Mindszenty along these lines. During an interview at his palace, she was amazed to hear the Cardinal suddenly launch into a long attack on Hungarian Jews in terms reminiscent of the former days.

"At the end of the interview, Miss Gaster rose and thanked the Cardinal for his statements, at the same time informing him that she herself was Jewish and her father a well-known religious figure in London. From then on, the Cardinal insisted on British or American Legation clearance on any correspondent asking for interviews with him."

Further proof of Cardinal Mindszenty's "currency offenses," has recently been revealed in a booklet compiled by Lieut. Hilary Cotter, R.N., in which he mentions the following:
The "British" JEWISH CLARION of February, 1949, stated:

"Which part of the world has been 'shocked'—Mr. Herbert Morrison's expression—by the arrest of Cardinal Mindszenty in Hungary? Cardinal Mindszenty, who is being hailed by 'Western democracy' as a champion of liberty and a fighter against oppression is a notorious anti-Semite. After the anti-Jewish riot at Kunmadaras in 1946, Mindszenty refused to condemn the rioters. He did, however, suggest amnesty for fascist war criminals."

The "British" JEWISH CHRONICLE of February 4th, 1949, stated:

"Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic Primate of Hungary, who was arrested on December 27th, has been accused by four leading Jewish organizations in Hungary of being an anti-Semite. They allege that he supported the Nazi persecutions of the Jews and planned to restore war-time anti-Jewish laws in Hungary. This charge was contained in a message sent to Jewish communities and organizations abroad by the Hungarian Section of the World Jewish Congress, the Hungarian Zionist organization, the Central Council of Jews in Hungary, and the managing Committee of the autonomous Orthodox religious bodies in Hungary. The message said that Hungarian Jews had learned 'with great dismay' that some Jewish organizations abroad had come to the defense of Cardinal Mindszenty, whom the message described as Matyas Rakosi (Rosenweig) Zionist Jew between two guards in a Budapest court room during his trial, January 23, 1935, as a "Mass Murderer." He was accused of 21 murders and more than 500 other crimes, the torture and death of nuns and priests, some of which were committed while he was Commissar under Hungary's short Communist Regime under Bela Kun, March 22 to July 31, 1919. He escaped to Soviet Russia in 1940 and returned to Hungary in 1945 with the Red Army. Appointed Vice President of the Communist Regime in 1946 and in 1950 this Khazar-Zionist became Dictator of Hungary.

'the arch-enemy of Jews in Hungary and Eastern Europe'. It urged Jewish organizations abroad not to 'mistakenly accept any solidarity with the enemies of our people'." The official Communist HUNGARIAN BULLETIN of January 24th, 1949, gives the above message, but with the following addition:

"We are convinced that these organizations and their leaders are not sufficiently aware of Mindszenty's activities in the last four years, his anti-Semitic past, his anti-Jewish plots and also of the fact that among the documents seized were his projects to restore anti-Jewish laws in Hungary." Tortured and torn, the imprisoned Christian, the Cardinal, cannot now explain to an uninformed world just why the so-called "Communist" Hungarian government persecuted him. But, the world shall know the truth. The rulers of Hungary are the Zionists:

Matyas Rakosi (Rosenweig)—Deputy Prime Minister (Zionist).
Peter Gabor (Beno Auspitz)—Chief of Political Police (Zionist).
Erno Gero (Singer)—Minister of Finance (Zionist).
Zoltan Vas (Weinberger)—Chief of Planning (Zionist).
Joseph Revai (Roth)—Minister of Education (Zionist).
Miholy Farkas (real name unknown)—Minister of Defense (Zionist).

The only non-Jew in the Hungarian "Communist" government, at the time Cardinal Mindszenty was persecuted, was Lasio Rajk. Rajk when his work as dupe was finished, was also charged with "anti-Semitism." He was hung. His wife, according to last report, was sentenced to a term in Siberia. (Ed. note: This is also death).

In a rank little cubicle is the emaciated form of what was Cardinal Mindszenty. If the weary body could gather strength enough to shout a warning to the Christian people, would it be this?

"Tell them that the whole Communist mess is nothing but a Yiddish scheme for world domination. Communism is the plan of anti-Christians who intend to subdue all Gentiles, and all teachings of Christ. Stripped of all pretense, Communism is the name by which the centuries-old non-believers now call their hatred of Jesus Christ."

Slap him down! The anti-Semitic Cardinal! It is a crime in "Communist" Hungary to say such a thing! But, where is the crime in being anti-Christian? This is what the Yiddish Morning Freiheit (the United States' largest Communist daily printed in Yiddish) said in its issue of January 10, 1937:

"According to the Jewish religion, the Pope is an enemy of the Jewish people by the very fact that he is the head of the Catholic Church. Jewish religion, let it be remembered, is opposed to Christianity in general, to the Catholic Church in particular."

The Jew, Bernard Lazare, on page 350 of his book L'Anti-Semitisme stated:

"The Jew is not satisfied with de-Christianizing; he Judaizes; he destroys Catholic or Protestant faith, he provokes indifference, but he imposes his idea of the world, of morals

HEADS OUT OF THE SAND!

Matyas Rakosi (Rosenweig) Yiddish Zionist who is boss in Hungary. On March 2, 1950 he was re-elected Secretary-General of Hungary's Communist Party. He is also Deputy Premier. Rakosi was trained in Moscow. The people of Hungary are at the mercy of this murderer just as the citizens of the U. S. will be at the mercy of international revolutionists if we do not put an end to Marxism in the U. S. while we still have time to do so.

and of life upon those whose faith he ruins; he works at his age-old task, the annihilation of the religion of Christ."

On page 10 of "The Republic of Israel," (published in 1950) the Zionist, Joseph Dunner has written:

"To Christians of all denominations Jesus is the symbol of all that is pure, sacred, and lovely. To Jews from the fourth century, Jesus became the symbol of anti-Semitism, of libel, of cruelty, of violent death."

Bruised and battered though the body of the Cardinal may be, he is not alone. There is a body of Christians with him in spirit. Like him, they know the truth; that he is "guilty" only of defense of Jesus Christ.

He remains a Prince of Christ!

CHRIST THE REDEEMER AND SAVIOUR OF MAN

Man's original state was that of unlimited happiness. Surrounded by the loving care of his God and creator, he could live in a state of continued bliss. His sin against God changed all this fundamentally. He became an outcast; he forfeited whatever title he might have had to the love of God. More still, his was such an enormous indebtedness to God that all mankind in all time would have been unable to redeem itself. Christ, in His divine willingness, accepted from His heavenly Father the mandate to take the place of man and make restitution to the eternal God, rehabilitate man as a child of God. "Christ died once for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God." I Peter 3:18. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law, becoming a curse for us. Gal. 3:13.

REDS INFILTRATING ARMED SERVICES

The press of March 12 carried a statement released by Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) to the effect that Communists in the U. S. are giving top priority to infiltration of America's defense department.

Naturally, after maneuvering Hungarian-born Zionist, Anna M. Rosenberg, into the Defense Department the gate will be held "wide open" while more than 20 thousand civilian employees are brought in each week. How many of the key posts are occupied by Marxists?

Speaking of investigations, here is the most important—to learn who is taking over America's Defense Department. Anna M. Rosenberg has authority over hiring of manpower for 115 government departments. More people are now employed by the government than at any peak period during World War II, and the number is increasing at startling speed.

America is supposed to be preparing to fight Communism. Has Mrs. Rosenberg ever condemned the brutal, Jewish Communist regime in her native Hungary? Has she ever condemned the imprisonment of Cardinal Mindszenty? She did support the Abraham Lincoln Brigade who slaughtered Christians in Spain.

While Zionist-Communists rule Hungary and prohibit Christianity there, Anna M. Rosenberg sits in Washington as Assistant Secretary of Defense and the most aggressive Communist union leaders in the U. S. (a large number of them from Hungary) continue to prepare for the revolution.

DESECRATION AND DESTRUCTION OF HOLY PLACES

Mr. Yusif El Bandak, Mayor of Bethlehem, now in the U. S., states that the Zionist Jews are working systematically to destroy all signs of Christianity in the Holy Land. In this connection, Common Sense publishes the following excerpt from a report by the Arab Higher Committee Delegation for Palestine:

"It appears clearly that the condition of the Christians in the Holy Land has not been bettered, but worsened. The Christian name has been degraded for the benefit of the Jews. We see with sorrow the Christian Holy Places being secularized and transformed into houses of worldly pleasure, inviting men to bodily voluptuousness which, condemnable everywhere, are especially condemnable on the spots where rise the august monuments of our religion."

When Pope Benedict XV made the above statement on June 13, 1921, little did the Christian world realize the full implication of His Holiness' condemnation. His Holiness' words were prophetic.

In 1920 the Anglican Bishop of Jerusalem gave the world a similar warning when he exposed the malicious intentions of the Zionists. In an address to the Church House, London, the Bishop stated:

"In ordinary conversation among Zionists at Jerusalem it had been asked, 'What shall be done with the Church of the Holy Sepulchre? Shall it be burned or razed to the ground?'"

(See Parliamentary Debates House of Lords 29 June 1920, Hansard Vol. 40, No. 52)

Since hostilities started in Palestine in November 1947, the Zionists have deliberately desecrated, damaged and destroyed many of the sacred Christian and Moslem Holy Places, shrines and institutions.

The commission of these sacrilegious crimes by the Zionists was confirmed in a manifesto issued by the Union of Christian Churches in Palestine, as stated in an Associated Press cable published in the New York Times of June 1, 1948. The Union of Christian Churches consists of the following:

- Orthodox Patriarchate
- Latin Patriarchate
- Armenian Orthodox Patriarchate
- Custodian de Terra Sancta
- Coptic Patriarchate
- Vicar of the Melkite (Catholic) Patriarchate
- Metropolitan of the Syriac Orthodox Community
- Vicar of the Armenian Catholic Patriarchate
- Arab Evangelical Episcopal Community
- Vicar of the Syriac Catholic Patriarchate
- Arab Lutheran Community in Palestine

This reliable and impartial body, representing all Christian churches and denominations in Palestine, complained that the Jewish forces had used ten Christian religious and humanitarian institutions in Jerusalem as military bases and that fourteen institutions in the Holy City were destroyed or damaged by shellfire. Three priests were killed two wounded and more than 10 women and children and other non-combatants have become casualties inside Jerusalem since the Jews began the attack. The manifesto avers:

"We can state that the largest part of the shells falling on the Holy Sepulchre and on churches, convents and Christian institutions (as listed by the committee) are of Jewish origin. . . .

"We declare it the truth, and an objective fact, when we add: The Arabs have stated they respected holy places, the churches, the convents and the Red Cross institutions."

The statement, addressed to religious and political authorities throughout the world, added:

"From what has taken place it appears:

"I. That it was the Jews who began on the morning of Saturday, May 15, to occupy by armed force the Convent of Notre Dame de France, the Redemptionist Sisters and the French Hospital, which they fortified and from which they began to fire on the Holy City.

"II. That they occupied likewise, on Mount Zion, the Monastery of the German Benedictine Fathers and two convents of the Holy Trinity and Saint George, belonging to the Greek Orthodox Church, which served for military operations and from which they fired on the City of Jerusalem. They occupy today buildings which fly flags of the Holy See, of France, of the Holy Sepulchre and of the International Red Cross.

The manifesto included the following list of institutions "from which Jews directed their fire on the Holy City:"

"1. The Orthodox Greek Convent of St. George, as well as part of the Armenian Convent, occupied by Jews May 14.

"2. The Convent of Notre Dame de France, occupied May 15, fortified and made a principal base of attack on the Holy City.

"3. The Convent of the Redemptionist Sisters occupied May 15 and employed in the same manner as Notre Dame.

"4. The French Hospital, which the Jews occupied militarily in spite of the presence of the Sisters of St. Joseph and their patients and regardless of the Red Cross flag flying from its staff.

"5. The Italian Hospital, which the International Red Cross placed under its protection May 15. A force of armed Jews occupied the hospital, took down the Red Cross flag and raised their own flag in spite of protests of the Italian Consul. They used terraces as gun emplacements.

"6. The apostolic delegation building, protected by the flag of the Holy See.

"7. The Monastery of the German Benedictine Fathers, occupied May 18 and used by Jews as a strategic position and one of their principal bases for firing against the Holy City.

"8. The English School of Mount Zion, and the Greek Orthodox Convent of St. John, occupied May 15.

"The manifesto charged that some Israeli fighters fired shells from the Hebrew University and Hadassah Hospital on Mount Scopus and also from two large synagogues in the Old City, which Arab forces eventually demolished.

"It said that the following institutions had been hit by shellfire and that these seized by Jews had been shelled subsequently by Arab forces:

"1. The Convent of Notre Dame, a large part of which was destroyed following the occupation by Jews.

"2. The Redemptionist Convent, which Jews destroyed and partly burned.

"3. The German Benedictine Monastery, of which the tower and church had been damaged following the Jewish occupation.

"4. The Seminary of St. Anne (inside Arab lines of the Old City), which received two shells, one May 17 and the second May 19, destroying walls and wounding refugees.

"5. The Church of Sts. Constantine and Helena, near the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, which were damaged by a shell, the blast striking the dome of the Holy Sepulchre, May 17.

"6. The court of the Orthodox Syrian Church of St. Mark, which received a shell May 16 that killed Father Pierre Sorni, secretary to the Bishop, and wounded two persons.

"7. The Orthodox Greek Convent of St. George, next to the Greek Catholic Cathedral, which May 18 received a shell which broke the convent roof tiles and damaged windows of the cathedral.

"(Point 8 was missing in transmission.)"

"9. The Convent of the Archangel of the Orthodox Copts, located over the Grotto of the Holy Cross, which is part of the Holy Sepulchre. It was struck by a shell and damaged May 23.

"10. The Convent of the Orthodox Copts received a shell May 24 which wounded some refugees.

"11. The large Monastery of the Franciscan Fathers, situated near the Holy Sepulchre was hit by shells May 19, 23 and 24. The orphanage, convent court and general secretariat were damaged. Many children were killed or wounded.

"12. The Latin patriarchate received shells May 23, 26, 27 and 28. The environs were damaged and many were wounded.

"13. The Greek Catholic Patriarchate received shells at its entrance May 16 and 29. Buildings were damaged and people wounded.

"14. The Orthodox Armenian Convent was hit by over 100 shells fired by Jews from the Benedictine Monastery on Mount Zion. Eight of the refugees in the convent were killed and about 120 wounded."

by the political nationalism of the age, comes to the defense of Mr. H. G. Wells who, like Mr. Eliot now, was for years attacked by Jewish nationalists as an anti-Semite. Leftwich shows that Wells was the innocent victim of a stupid and vicious campaign against him only because he criticized some extreme forms of Jewish tribalism and especially the theory of the "Chosen Race" which he hated equally in the Germans as well as in the Jews.

Leftwich shows convincingly that Wells, far from having been an anti-Semite, did more to protest against the Nazi treatment against the Jews and he did more to help individual Jewish writers and scientists to escape from Nazi Germany than any individual Englishmen of his times. But Wells sincerely believed that "Mankind is one brother, that God is the universal and impartial Father of mankind, and that only in that universal service can mankind find peace, or can peace be found for the troubles of the individual."

According to Leftwich, this led Wells to a dislike of what he called Jewish "exclusiveness" which he considered to be the basis of Jewish Orthodoxy. He was just as hostile to German "Aryanism," to Irish nationalism, to British Imperialism. "Wells had no more use for Christianity than for Judaism. He was obsessed by a hatred of all kinds of particularism especially when they involved observances of obsolete traditions. He believed with his scientific bias that the old creeds and the disciplines of time-honored cults, the old scheme of salvation had become outworn and stood in the way of progress," said Leftwich.

One may, or may not agree with Wells, but to say that he was anti-Semitic is unjust, stupid and preposterous, Leftwich concludes. He rightly points out that "anti-Semitism" of this kind which has been ascribed to Wells, could be found also in George Brandes, Israel Zangwill, Sigmund Freud, Albert Einstein, Arthur Koestler and many other Jews of genius in all ages, and he quotes a typical outburst of Wells as an illustration of the impatience and the occasional loss of temper which this constant nagging about "anti-Semitism" called forth in Wells, causing him to write on one occasion: "What can we do with the Shramms and Gelmans and Riskeys?" in reply to the accusations made by the Jewish gentlemen of those names who had written some stupid letters to the press denouncing Wells as an anti-Semite.

Wells wrote: "ARE WE GENTILES NEVER TO BE ALLOWED TO UTTER ANY IMPRESSION OF THIS ANCIENT NARROW AND RACIALLY EGOTISTICAL JEWISH CULTURE EXCEPT IN TERMS OF CRINGING ADMIRATION?"

Anyone who knows anything about Jewish reactions to anti-Semitism in this country knows that the same attitude exists here and to a much greater extent than in England. Who has not been called "anti-Semitic" by the nationalistic Zionists in the United States? Dorothy Thompson who did more for the spread of the early humanitarian aspect of Zionism than any living American, was denounced officially as an anti-Semite because she expressed some doubt about the need of Jewish nationalism in this country after the establishment of Israel. Dean Virginia Gildersleeve was dubbed anti-Semitic because she expressed sympathy with the Arab Refugees. The late Sinclair Lewis was at one time denounced as an anti-Semite because of a critical remark of his about Jewish publishers.

Here, too, the term "anti-Semite" is applied not only to the great and gifted among non-Jews but even to Jewish individuals and organized Jewish groups which deviate from the official totalitarian nationalistic or religious line on Zionism, Jewish Orthodoxy, Israel, the UJA, the UPA and other sacred cows of Jewry. The Jewish Labor Bund, the Freeland movement and, of course, the American Council for Judaism, all are "anti-Semitic" and are in all seriousness referred to as such in the press and on the platform.

Even so humble a scribe as this columnist has been recently relegated to that distinguished company because he drew attention to some theocratic tendencies in Israel. The Clericalist-Mizrachi monthly, Jewish Horizon (March issue), and the extreme nationalistic National Jewish Post (Feb. 23) thus describe the writer of these lines: "This man should not be answered. He should once and for all, as the anti-Semite, be exposed."

This sentiment is the real issue behind the Eliot incident in London. The question is not whether Mr. Eliot, or any individual, is or is not anti-Semitic, but is every criticism of Jews to be classed as anti-Semitism? Are Jews to be exempt from criticism and self-criticism only because they happen to have been, and in some places still are, a persecuted minority? Is a critical attitude towards Zionism, Israelism, Orthodoxy or any other aspect of Jewry to be described and treated as anti-Semitic? Above all, is it even incumbent upon people to love, or even to like Jews because they are Jews?

Are Jews so perfect that there is nothing to criticize in them? Are the Jewish nationalistic and religious zealots who stew in their own hate and venom to be liked, admired and even loved because they happen to be members of a persecuted group? And if they are not liked, is it anti-Semitic to tell the truth and to say that they are as hateful and abominable as other fanatics?

ASSEMBLY REJECTS WORLD GOVERNMENT

The N. J. Assembly rejected World Government this week by voting 54 to 2 to rescind the World Government resolution previously passed. World Government was rejected despite the supreme efforts of Senator Hendrickson, Governor Driscoll and the Newark Evening News to the contrary.

MacARTHUR VICTIM OF INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT

Rosenberg - Lehman - Frankfurter Gang Are Behind Dismissal Of Greatest American Patriot;
Truman Is Just A Stooge

A Real American

GENERAL DOUGLAS MacARTHUR

Gen. MacArthur shares the fate of such Americans as Hurley, Lindbergh, Dies, Nye, Denfield, Wheeler, and Johnson. Who will be next?

General Douglas MacArthur, the greatest American General since George Washington, has just been fired by Truman, i.e., the Rosenberg, Marshall, Lehman, Frankfurter and Acheson crowd.

Americans should at once awaken to the Marxist menace that is functioning in their beloved Country or they will be governed by the most brutal horde of atheistic Marxists that the world has ever known. Despite his handicaps there, General MacArthur's most treacherous enemies were not in Korea or China, but in our State Department and Defense Department.

There should be little doubt in American minds as to whom is responsible for the dismissal of General MacArthur. Anna M. Rosenberg, Assistant Secretary of Defense, took over the job as boss of Army and Navy with the express purpose in mind to enslave American citizens and abolish General MacArthur.

Who was clearing the way for Anna M. Rosenberg to knife MacArthur?

Senator Lehman, Zionist from New York, was in on all official sessions and behind the scenes strategy; Felix Frankfurter, Supreme Court Justice, packed the government departments with his Harvard, Marxist-trained crews and influenced Washington politicians; David K. Niles, (Neyhus - Zionist) receives all of President Truman's mail and advises the President on most matters coming into the White House.

The Lehman-Frankfurter-Niles-Rosenberg clique has been working with every available dollar and with every ounce of effort to complete the betrayal of the entire Christian world to the atheistic Communists. The one person who has prevented their scheme from reaching fulfillment has been General Douglas MacArthur. Up to this time it has been an ANTI-MacArthur campaign, while denying the General the right to fight a successful campaign and refusing him permission to use the 500,000 trained Chinese Nationalist troops against the Soviet Army.

Since Anna M. Rosenberg went into the Defense Department the plan against MacArthur has been intensified. Every means has been used to intimidate MacArthur, or to "jockey" him into a position which would allow for his being fired. He has, of course, refused to carry on the

WHO IS THE INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT B PEOPLE WHO COULD NOT BE ELECTED

HERBERT LEHMAN — ZIONIST

Herbert Lehman, Senator from New York, was a strong backer of Alger Hiss, convicted traitor, and leader of the opposition to the McCarran Anti-Communist bill. He has greatly influenced the campaign against MacArthur. Lehman, as head of the UNRRA before LaGuardia, backed Communism with UNRRA funds. As governor of the Communist-inspired UNRRA, Lehman sent untold millions of dollars worth of American goods to Soviet-dominated countries, including $400,000,000. to Yugoslavia at a time when a Red Army General was in complete control of that Communist satellite.

Lehman is vice-president of the Communist-aiding Anti-Defamation League, the real power behind the Red revolution in the West. Lehman was also active on the Gerhart Eisler defense committee (Eisler was top Communist in U. S.; escaped on Polish ship).

BERNARD BARUCH — ZIONIST

Bernard Baruch, mastermind behind the scenes, has advised five presidents starting with Woodrow Wilson. In Wilson's time our national debt was one billion; Baruch has been such a good advisor that our debt is now THREE HUNDRED BILLION and we are in our third war. But, the Jewish International bankers, such as Kuhn, Loeb and Co., and Lehman Brothers have increased their wealth by many billions.

Bernard Baruch gave $10,000. to the Communist, church-burning Abraham Lincoln Brigade which killed thousands of Christians in Spain. In Anna Rosenberg's office a large photograph of Bernard Baruch hangs on the wall.

HENRY MORGENTHAU — ZIONIST

It was Mr. Morgenthau who, inspired by his assistant in the Treasury Department (the late Harry Dexter White - Zionist, born Weiss) sold the Morgenthau Plan to Roosevelt and Eisenhower. That plan was to keep on destroying Germans, principally by the starvation method, after World War II ceased. It is obvious now that Mr. White (Weiss) and Mr. Morgenthau wanted to make the German people hate America so much that they would side with Communist Russia.

Morgenthau, it should be remembered, gave the master set of U. S. currency plates to the Red Army in 1944, after which the U. S. Treasury had to redeem hundreds of millions of dollars worth of occupational marks, indistinguishable from our own, which Russia had printed and given to Russian soldiers and civilians.

Who Are The Marxist Tools?

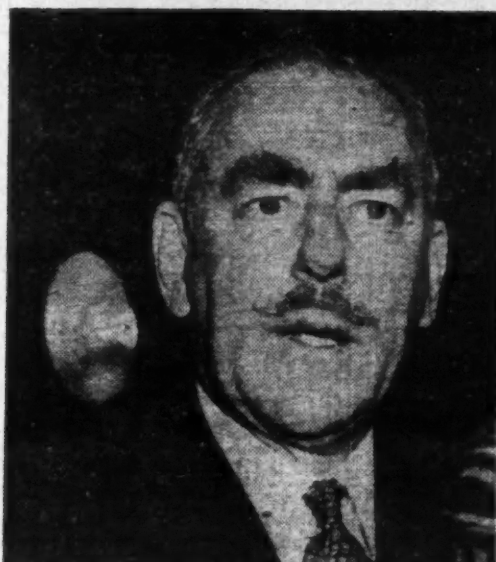

HARRY S. TRUMAN

Harry S. (olomon) Truman cannot be completely blamed for what is taking place in Washington although it is through him that the most un-American principles have evolved since the discovery of America. There is little doubt left that he is just a figurehead and a tool in the hands of a cleverly organized group of international-minded Marxists. His betrayal of the Chinese people, the order signed by him at 1 A. M. to the 7th Fleet to prevent Chiang Kai-Shek from attacking the Communists in China, and his refusal to allow MacArthur to use the 500,000 Chinese troops against the Communists is evidence enough that he is knowingly, or unknowingly, working to turn the whole of Asia over to the Communist forces. After we have conquered Japan, Truman now wants (as does Acheson) to turn Japan over to the Communists.

Mr. Truman, who is known for calling Marxist traitors "red herrings" has taken his final step to give away our bases in the Far East. It was this same Mr. Truman who recently wrote

DEAN ACHESON

Dean Acheson, the man who has headed our State Department for years, along with George C. Marshall, is largely to blame for the surrender of 400 million Chinese to the Communists. Acheson hates General Chiang Kai-Shek and has a "soft spot" in his heart for Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia, the Communist dictator. Throughout Mr. Acheson's service in the State Department he has shown a peculiar fondness for allowing Communists, and their sympathizers, to obtain policy-making, diplomatic positions. Alger Hiss was only one of those characters and it will be remembered that Acheson stated that he "would not turn his back on Hiss." He has made it plain that he is not in favor of protecting either Formosa or Korea.

Dean Acheson is fronting for Jewish Marxists who are determined to turn Japan Communist as they did in China. It has been reliably reported that every morning Acheson walks to the State Department with Marxist Felix Frankfurter, member of the Supreme Court who rules the State Department.

Secretary of Defense, George C. Marshall, is the man who, as Ambassador to China, spent 13 months setting up Communism there for our Marxist-dominated State Department. He is one of the most important tools the Marxists have. Marshall knew, on November 25, 1941, that we were going to have war with Japan, as Henry L. Stimson states in his diary: "Then at 12 o'clock we went to the White House. At the meeting were Hull, Knox, Marshall, Stark, and myself, Stimson. There the President... brought up the event that we were likely to be attacked perhaps as soon as next Monday for the Japanese are notorious for making an attack without warning, and the question was what we should do. The question was how we should maneuver them into the position of firing the first shot without allowing too much danger to ourselves. It was a difficult proposition."

It was Marshall who appointed Anna M. Rosenberg and stated that he would resign if she was not appointed. It was Marshall who was

BEHIND THE MARXIST ASIATIC POLICY?

RED DOG CATCHER RULE OUR COUNTRY

FELIX FRANKFURTER — ZIONIST

Felix Frankfurter, next to Bernard Baruch and the Warburgs of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., is the most powerful Marxist-Zionist in the U. S. He holds Truman and the administration in a straight-jacket. For 25 years he has been prominent in advising Anarchists and Communists. He was advisor to Sacco & Vanzetti, the anarchists hung in Massachusetts — he was counsel for Tom Mooney, the Communist who served a long term in California for bombing. Frankfurter was a leader in American Civil Liberties Union, which has given legal aid to Communists for years, and testified for Alger Hiss, the traitor.

An Austrian-born Zionist, Frankfurter has placed many Marxists (mostly former students of his at Harvard) in government key positions. Among them are Alger Hiss — Lee Pressman — Donald Hiss — Nathan Witt and Judge Jerome Frank. At the time Frankfurter forced F.D.R. to appoint him as Supreme Court Justice, some Congressmen charged that Frankfurter was a Communist. His attorney before the Senate Judiciary Committee was Dean Acheson, at that time Frankfurter was accused of being a Red.

HERMAN FELDMAN — ZIONIST

Major General Feldman suspended Quarter Master General as he appeared before the Senate Investigating Committee. August 23, 1949.

The editor of a country newspaper retired with a fortune. When asked the secret of his success he replied:

"I attribute my ability to retire with a $100,000 bank balance after 30 years in the newspaper field to close application to duty, pursuing a policy of strict honesty, always practicing rigorous rules of economy and to the recent death of my uncle who left me $98,500."

ANNA M. ROSENBERG — ZIONIST

Anna M. Rosenberg is the person giving orders in Washington to all Army and Navy personnel. She is one, if not the main factor, of those responsible for the dismissal of General MacArthur. Mrs. Rosenberg was on the Committee of the "New York State Committee for Equality in Education." That group protests the use of the New Testament in our school system. Mrs. Rosenberg wrote articles for NEW MASS-ES, a Communist publication. The name of Anna M. Rosenberg was listed as a financial contributor to SOCIAL WORK TODAY, a Communist publication. In a report of the Un-American Activities Committee it shows that an Anna Rosenberg signed a protest sponsored by the Communist John Reed Clubs, and on three other occasions had affiliations with the Consumers National Federation, a Communist front. With the help of other characters shown on this spread, Mrs. Rosenberg managed to slide out from under a Senate investigation. She denied allegations and evidence and then took her place over the manpower of this country. She has stated that the Communist Anna Rosenberg is another person. However, that woman has never been made known to the public. It remains an undeniable fact that Anna M. Rosenberg has co-operated with Communist forces which went to Spain and slaughtered Christians.

WHICH ROSENBERG IS THIS?

In the Hearings before the Senate Committee on Armed Services, Dr. Marjorie Shearon presented the following testimony:

"Mrs. Rosenberg has made a great point of mistaken identity, and she has based it on the ground that some of the citations are to Anna Rosenberg without the M.

"In the New York Times of January 21, 1936, page 25, column 2, reference is made to Anna Rosenberg without the M. She is identified as coming from the Social Security regional office. She spoke before the Consumers League of New York. I wish to make two points.

"One is that the New York Times referred to her as Anna Rosenberg without the M and the second point is that speaking along with her was Mrs. Russell Bowie. At any rate, the woman who spoke along with her had 16 subversive citations. I think it is significant. I don't appear on a platform and I don't think that most of you appear on platforms with persons of long subversive records."

A photostat of the article referred to by Dr. Shearon is in the files of COMMON SENSE. This publication, too, thinks "it is significant." Senators, however, need more convincing before appointing an Assistant Secretary of Defense ... Anna M., or just plain Anna Rosenberg.

In Berlin it was reported that Russia makes an annual profit of $500,000,000 from the cold war in Germany while the United States loses more than $700,000,000.

"The strictest loyalty to the ideas of Communism must be combined with the ability to make all necessary practical compromises, to maneuver, to make agreements, zig-zags, retreats and so on, so as to accelerate the coming to power ... " ("Left-Wing Communism, An Infantile Disorder" pp. 75-76, V.I. Lenin, International Publishers Co., Inc. 1940)

DAVID K. NILES (NEYHUS) — ZIONIST

Niles (Neyhus), Administrative Assistant to F.D.R. holds the same position with President Truman. Niles, a Zionist, has — through the power of the Anti-Defamation League — been kept close to the White House to direct and report important moves to Zionist rulers. As long as his reports are favorable, showing that Truman does not reject orders from Felix Frankfurter, the administration and Truman will have the support of World Zionism. Several moves have been made by private citizens to remove Niles, who has often used his influence in the State Department on behalf of Communists having difficulty in entering the U. S. It is rumored that when the Departments receive a request from Niles he is considered as the President's mouthpiece. With Red Jews like Niles in Truman's office, and Anna Rosenberg and Marx Leva running the defense system, General MacArthur was certain to be cut down from behind.

GEO. C. MARSHALL

photographed with Albert Einstein (member of more than 20 Communist fronts) and Dorothy Schiff, the publisher of the New York Post, at a New York birthday party honoring Chaim Weizmann, Lithuanian-born President of Israel.

George C. Marshall says he has many secrets which he cannot tell the American public because it would do irreparable harm, but there is one which we should definitely ascertain. That is: Who was responsible for the order given to Eisenhower to pull back our forces in Europe and allow the Communist hordes to sweep across the American blood-drenched European soil? Was it Marshall himself? If it was, from whom was he getting his orders and instructions? If Marshall himself gave that order then he is responsible for three blunders . . . the greatest blunders in American history: the Pearl Harbor slaughter, the sell-out of 400,000,000 Chinese to the Communists, and the Russian threat in Europe. HOW MUCH MORE CAN ONE MAN DO A-G-A-I-N-S-T HIS COUNTRY?

The following is an excerpt from John O'Donnell's column, March 1, 1951:

"Marshall, to this day, under solemn oath before Congress, swears he can't remember where he was on the most important night of his life — the eve of Pearl Harbor. Roosevelt jumped him to Chief of Staff over twenty senior major generals and fourteen senior brigadiers in 1949 when F. D. R. was eagerly brewing for war medicine!

TROHAN'S REPORT

"True to his promise, General Pershing (in 1930) called upon Douglas MacArthur, then Chief of Staff, and asked that his protege be made a general. MacArthur was ready to oblige but insisted that the promotion go through regular channels. Pershing agreed, confident that Marshall could clear the hurdles. Friendly examination of the Marshall record showed what his superiors regarded as insufficient time with troops.

"MacArthur proposed to remedy this by giving him command of the Eighth Regiment at Fort Screven, Georgia, one of the finest regiments in the Army.

"Marshall was moved up from Lt. Colonel to Colonel but his way to a general's stars appeared to be broken forever when the Inspector General of the Army reported that under one year of Marshall's command the Eighth Regiment had dropped from one of the best regiments in the Army to one of the worst.

"MacArthur regretfully informed Pershing that the report made promotion impossible. To this day Marshall is uneasy in the presence of MacArthur."

On Dec. 5, 1950 President Truman issued an order to all Government employees. "No speech, press release or other public statements concerning military policy should be released until it has been cleared by the Defense Department". Keep in mind the director of information for the Defense Department is A. Robert Ginsberg. THING.

Letter To The Editor

The following letter was written by one of our readers to the Newark News with copy to us; however to date it has not been published by the Newark News.

March 6, 1951

Editor
Newark News
Newark, New Jersey
Dear Sir:

You have made it very clear in the past few weeks that you are not only in favor of World Government but that you intend to force your readers to accept something that you yourself know nothing about.

"WE MUST HAUL DOWN THE AMERICAN FLAG, HAUL IT DOWN, STAMP ON IT AND SPIT ON IT." This treasonable utterance is accredited to Prof. Milton Mayer at a lecture given in Syracuse, New York February 17, 1947, advocating World Government. Mr. Mayer spoke for the "Campaign For World Government" which is affiliated with six other World Government groups to haul down the American Flag. None of the above mentioned groups repudiated the above statement made by Mr. Mayer.

Mr. Editor, did you know that Philip Randolph, a member of the National Executive Board of the United World Federalists said in one of his editorials some years ago "the capitalist system must go and its going must be hastened by the workers themselves . . . a bullet is sometimes more convincing than a hundred prayers, editorials, sermons, protests and petitions?"

Did you know that Dr. Frank P. Graham, a member of the National Advisory Board of the United World Federalists, was affiliated with six (6) Communist Fronts declared so by the Department of Justice?

Did you know that Alan Cranston president of the United World Federalists was appointed Chief of Foreign Language Division during the last war and that the F.B.I. investigated him and learned that "he moves in Communist circles," "his friends seemed to be fellow travelers," "with Communist sympathies?"

Did you know that Alger Hiss was General Counsel, director and member of another group called the "American Association for the United Nations?"

Did you know that Albert Einstein belongs to three World Government organizations and also over twenty (20) Communist Fronts, is Vice President of one World Government group and Chairman of the International Editorial Board of another?

Did you know that Thomas Mann, who is associated with sixteen (16) Communist Fronts, is also associated with six (6) World Government organizations?

Did you know that Dr. Stringfellow Barr holds membership in seven (7) World Government groups and two (2) Communist Fronts?

Did you know that there are one hundred and seventy eight (178) leaders in the various World Government movements who are or have been associated with one thousand six hundred and ninety six (1696) Communist Fronts?

Mr. Editor, if you do know the above documented statements of fact then you are as guilty of un-Americanism as the above named pro-Communists and Reds. If you do not know the above facts then you should refrain from promoting international Marxism in your paper.

Hoping that you become better educated on World Government and use the facilities at your disposal for a better America, I remain

Sincerely,
W. J. O'Brien

(Editor's Note: Recently the New Jersey Assembly voted 54 to 2 against World Government in spite of the tremendous campaign carried on by the Newark Evening News for weeks. It is quite evident that the people of the state of New Jersey do not have much confidence in the personal opinions expressed by the editorial staff of the Newark Evening News. Of course, it is understood that the forces that rule the Newark Evening News are the same that are ruling many other newspapers. If the editors do not comply with the wishes of the invisible forces, there would be no advertising, hence, no newspaper. In the future we sincerely hope that the editors will be able to identify a Marxist front before they start plugging for it.)

MacARTHUR IS VICTIM

battle in Asia the way the New Deal Commiecrats want. He has refused to give the Communists one inch!

The Marshall-Rosenberg crowd managed to sell out Chiang Kai-Shek, Korea, Formosa, and then Japan are scheduled — on the Communist plan — to fall in sequence. That is how the New Deal Commiecrats helped plan it; but, they did not fully estimate the resistance of the great strategist and military leader, General Douglas MacArthur. Thus, MacArthur had to be eliminated one way or another. LITTLE HAVE AMERICANS REALIZED THAT RUSSIAN AND HUNGARIAN MARXISTS COULD SO COMPLETELY INFILTRATE THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT THAT THOSE ALIEN-MINDED PEOPLE WOULD HAVE POWER ENOUGH TO ELIMINATE AMERICA'S GREATEST MILITARY LEADER AND CHAMPION OF FREEDOM.

Many Americans are willing to sit back and make the ridiculous statement that in 1952 we will "clean the traitors out of Washington." The sorry fact is that the New Deal Commiecrats have it so figured THAT THERE WILL BE NO ELECTION IN 1952. WITH EMERGENCY POWERS AND MacARTHUR OUT OF THE WAY, THE AMERICAN PEOPLE CAN BE HOG-TIED.

With General MacArthur out of leadership, Asia will fall behind the iron curtain. Russia can take Formosa and Japan and then chase all American forces from the Pacific area.

The Soviet Union can force us into war while all powers of our government are in the hands of New Deal Commiecrats. There will be no need of elections, for a Marxist dictatorship will have already been installed. People will be forced to abide by the emergency powers of the "government" or be imprisoned or liquidated. Free enterprise, the press, freedom of speech, personal property, real estate, religion, education, credit, transportation, communications, etc., will be controlled by the "government." All the "government" will be the subject to the whims of the Frankfurter-Lehman-Rosenberg crowd.

It is one minute before midnight. In this remaining minute, American patriots must decide where they stand. If we are to stop Anna M. Rosenberg, who has power to hire for 115 government departments and therein install her RED friends, we must do it NOW. If Washington is not cleaned out NOW it will never be cleaned out.

that the U. S. Marines were just a "Navy police force" with a propaganda machine "almost equal to Stalin's." In other words, Truman does not like the American Marines no matter how many die under the American flag, and no matter what they have done in the past. Now he has taken away the U. S. Armed Forces' most valuable asset . . . General Douglas MacArthur.

When Tom Pendergast, head of the Pendergast machine of which Truman was a part, died in the penitentiary it was "Red Herring" Harry who jumped into the plane "Sacred Cow" and went to the funeral. It was "Red Herring" Harry who refused to let our Congressional Committees have files on Reds in the government. It was "Red Herring" Harry who refused to talk to the National Commander of the American Legion. It was "Red Herring" Harry whom Senator Tobey states threatened him over the telephone regarding the R.F.C. It is "Red Herring" Harry who has refused to fire Dean Acheson, although the American people no longer trust Acheson. It was "Red Herring" Harry who approved of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense.

Recent polls show that Truman represents only 16% of the people and is ignoring 84% of the people by taking his orders from the Frankfurter-Lehman-Rosenberg-Acheson crowd. The time has come to clean out all un-Americans and their tools while we still have the chance.

ZIONISTS HIJACK U.S.A. GET $3 BILLIONS IN PLOT FOR COMMUNIST WORLD

U.S.A. $$$ for secret Soviet Union base in Palestine zone vital for U.S.A. defense BETRAY U.S.A. INTO SELF-DESTRUCTION

U.S. $$$ insure U.S.S.R. victory

At the time this paper goes to press, five separate assaults are being made upon the pocket-books of the people of the United States without their knowledge of the harm being done to them.

These five separate assaults will mean a gift of $3,000,000,000. of the American people's good money to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" (Israel). It is urgent to alert the American people to the critical consequences which are inseparable from these five assaults upon their shrinking pocketbooks.

The American people have never had their eyes opened to the dangerous impact which these assaults are having upon their welfare and security. It is vital to the survival of the American nation that the American people immediately concern themselves with the great threat now critically poised at their very existence as an independent sovereign nation.

It will soon be too late to reverse the trend which is now challenging civilization. NOW is the last opportunity to learn what is secretly taking place behind the "Gold Curtain". NOW is the last opportunity to take that proverbial "stitch in time". PLEASE GOD, IT MAY NOT NOW BE TOO LATE!

Zionists pay U.S. $$$ for loot

The first of these five assaults are the negotiations being conducted between representatives of the United States, the United Nations Organization, and the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" for a FIFTY-YEAR, NON-INTEREST BEARING $1,000,000,000. "loan" by the United States to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" propose to use the proceeds of this "loan" to pay for the loot they have stolen from the lawful inhabitants of Palestine whom they recently drove into exile with U.S. and U.S.S.R. arms. It will be remembered that in 1948 1,000,000 lawful native inhabitants of Palestine were forcibly ejected from their ancient homeland by the armed Zionist aggressors who invaded their country. These armed hordes of alien invaders swarmed into Palestine from their historic countries of origin in eastern Europe.

S.E.C. legalizes Zionist larceny

The second of these five assaults is the successful Zionist assault upon the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) of the United States. The invisible and invincible Zionist "state within a state" in the United States which has operated so successfully inside and outside our government obtained from the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) their approval to unload on Americans a $500,000,000. "bond issue" of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine".

This $500,000,000. "bond issue" is to be offered to the American investors commencing May 1, 1951. It will receive the support of the Administration under the direction of Lehman Brothers, Kuhn Loeb & Company, Goldman Sachs & Company, Bernard Baruch's Dillon Read and Company, and other leading financial masterminds here for the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". The scene is set to use unprecedented pressure upon every business firm and every individual in the United States to purchase these "bonds" at the time when United States bonds are going begging at less than their face value. A perfect demonstration of Zionist dual-allegiance and divided loyalty to the United States.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) was organized in 1934 to prevent the sale of worthless securities in the United States to the American people. The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) was duly delegated by Congress with the authority and the responsibility to compel full disclosure of the financial resources and the financial competence of prospective borrowers as protection for American investors against financial rape.

Any leading American enterprise seeking the approval of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for the sale of their securities to the American public on the basis upon which they approved the Zionist $500,000,000. "bond issue" would land somebody in jail. With the single exception of this Zionist $500,000,000. "bond issue" the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) has a record of twenty-seven years faithful service to American investors. What mysterious wonders do these unseen Zionist hands, OR MORE LIKELY FISTS, work?

Zionist Congressmen on the job

The third of these five assaults is upon the Congress of the United States. This assault is for a $500,000,000. "grant-in-aid" from the United States Treasury. A "grant-in-aid" is a $2. word used by the "striped-pants boys" for an international "hand-out". A "grant-in-aid" is a term used to camouflage an otherwise unobtainable gift sanctified by an unwarranted humanitarian implication. But by whatever name it is called it will be just another $500,- 000,000. "down the drain" for the American people. The "heat" was recently put on Congress by the Zionist "state within a state" for the first installment of this $500,000,000. "grant-in-aid".

On April 2, 1951 the Democratic leader of the House of Representatives, Congressman John McCormack, obliged his Zionist panderers by introducing into Congress on that day a bill immediately providing for the first $150,000,000. installment of the $500,000,000. "grant-in-aid" to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". Congressman John McCormack, like all candidates for election or re-election to public office, from Governors, Mayors, Senators, down to village dog catchers, trample each other underfoot in their mad scramble to become sponsors for this Zionist $500,000,000. "grant-in-aid". Candidates for public office in the United States have learned by sad experience, or the case histories of their retired colleagues, that the "O.K." of the Zionist political underground guarantees election to office, and that their "K.O." guarantees VICE VERSA!

Acheson feathers future nest

The fourth of these five assaults is based upon the "Point Four" agreement shortly to be executed in Tel Aviv by the new Ambassador from the United States to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". The recently appointed Ambassador from the United States, Monett Davis, carried with him in his briefcase a "Point Four" agreement. This "Point Four" agreement is to be signed upon his arrival in Tel Aviv as his "first official act" according to radio reports. President Truman's "Point Four" program calls for American "financial aid to underdeveloped areas" where NECESSITY for it clearly exists.

"Point Four" financial aid by the American people will donate another additional $500,000,000. to these "Zionist authorities in Palestine" with which they can eventually carry out their present program for a "Tennessee Valley Authority" and other extensive reclamation and power projects in Palestine. The first installment for this $500,000,000. program will probably consist of an innocent-looking "toe-in-the-door" donation of a small fraction of the total amount. The valid obligation will rest upon the American people to supply the balance of the $500,000,000. needed to nationalize these industries.

"Tax-deductible" U.S. war-chest

The fifth of these five assaults consists of the "fund-raising drives" now going on at top speed all over the United States. Zionists plan to raise a total of almost another $500,000,000. in the United States primarily for use by these "Zionist authorities in Palestine". The "tax deductible" income-tax feature of these so-called "contributions to charity" will divert approximately $425,000,000. of this $500,000,000. from the United States Treasury to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". This loss of $425,000,000. from income-tax revenues of the United States must be otherwise obtained by higher income-taxes collected from the American people at large. Zionists make it appear that these "contributions to charity" are used exclusively for humanitarian activities. The American public are not aware that these funds are primarily and predominantly used for political purposes. The Internal Revenue Bureau is well aware of this fact but cannot oppose Zionist influence at the highest levels. They have tried and have failed.

U.S. aid to Zionist aggression

With few exceptions, these funds will be used to transport "synthetic" immigrants from eastern Europe, Asia and Africa to Palestine and to establish their economic security there. In 1945 the fully-equipped, invading Zionist armed aggressors drove 1,000,000 defenseless lawful inhabitants of Palestine from their homeland for 1700 years to make room in Palestine for these "synthetic" immigrants. Transplanting segments of population from one nation into the territory of another nation by armed aggression against the wish, will, and desire of its lawful inhabitants violates the basic American principle of "self-determination". The American heritage rejects aggression in any form. It is most repugnant to American tradition when aggression of this type offers as its alibi a racial, religious or nationalist flimsy myth. Americans are now commencing to realize that the purported Zionist humanitarian activities have been principally a disguise for territorial aggression by an ex-Asiatic horde suffering from a nationalist psychosis based upon a suppressed fanatic pseudo-religious "Chosen People" mania.

Counterfeit Political Zionism

Wherever reference in this paper is made to "Zionists" or to "Zionism" it is intended to refer exclusively to Political Zionism and not to Spiritual Zionism. Spiritual Zionism and Political Zionism are as different and as far apart as Heaven and Hell. At one time in history Zionism had only a spiritual significance. Zionism at one time reflected only the spiritual aspirations of orthodox religious pilgrims to live the remainder of their lives, and die on the soil which was to them the cradle of their religious belief. For twenty centuries Palestine has welcomed from all parts of the world devout pilgrims of the three religious faiths which regard Palestine as the cradle of their particular form of religious worship.

Spiritual Zionism has always been an expression of the individual. Spiritual Zionism was never organized formally on a collective basis. Spiritual Zionism had neither a territorial, racial or nationalist implication. In recent years Political Zionists "borrowed" the term "Zionism" as the title with which to disguise their conspiracy. The historic religious background of Spiritual Zionism completely deceives the world concerning the true motives and program of the Political Zionists. Millions of misguided Americans of all religious faiths still believe that Spiritual and Political Zionism are one and the same thing. It is time they learned the facts.

Political Zionism was conceived and developed in eastern Europe to its present world-wide power by the original apostles of Karl Marx. Marxists have speeded their plans for creating a total Marxist world by camouflaging their aggression behind the word "Zionism". Within the Zionist movement Marxists have been using misguided Zionists to promote their Marxist program for world domination. The apostles of Marxism have used the good-will of Zionism to obtain the support of their otherwise non-cooperative co-religionists of miscellaneous nationalities and races throughout the world. In the minds of many millions of their co-religionists and others of different religious faiths Zionist propaganda has given the world the incorrect impression that Political Zionism expresses a spiritual implication.

Zionism camouflages Marxism

In their unsuspecting or indifferent ignorance on this subject many misguided millions throughout the world are giving aid and comfort to the Marxists. Many who hold high places in the governments and leading social groups dominating the culture of these countries do not suspect the truth. There are many however who collaborate with the Zionists for the financial gain and the political power which is offered to them for their submission to Zionist dictation. Intelligent analysis of what is going on in Palestine at the present time is proof that Zionism today is an integral part of the Marxist program for world control. ZIONISTS HAVE NEVER OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED THEIR OPPOSITION TO MARXISM IN

THE MANNER EXPRESSED BY THE AMERICAN LEGION, VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS, AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR, COMMITTEE FOR INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATIONS (CIO), THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND OTHER GROUPS WHICH HAVE PUBLICLY STATED THEIR STAND ON THIS ISSUE.

Zionists vote Communist

"Forewarned is forearmed" only if we have the intelligence to recognize the warning when it is put before our eyes. The Zionist "kept press" has carefully concealed from the American people the relationship between Zionism and Marxism. On the day the General Assembly of the United Nations opened its session here in September, 1950, Secretary of State Dean Acheson travelled from Washington to New York to address the Assembly. On the opening day of its session India introduced a resolution for the immediate admission of Communist China into the United Nations. Secretary of State Acheson hastened to address the General Assembly and pleaded with its members to defeat that resolution. Secretary of State Acheson not only begged the members of the United Nations to defeat the resolution but he pleaded with them to take the vote on it that very day. Secretary of State Acheson explained that delay was dangerous for many reasons. Pursuant to that plea the vote on the resolution of India was taken immediately. In spite of the impassioned plea of Secretary of State Acheson to members of the United Nations to vote against the resolution to admit Communist China to the United Nations the delegation of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" (Israel) VOTED WITH THE SOVIET UNION AND THE SOVIET UNION SATellites AGAINST THE UNITED STATES, VOTING IN FAVOR OF THE RESOLUTION TO ADMIT COMMUNIST CHINA INTO THE UNITED NATIONS AT ONCE, THE SAME CHINESE REDS WHO ARE NOW MURDERING OUR SONS AND BROTHERS IN KOREA!!!

Zionists O.K. Chinese Reds

BUT there is more proof to follow. The armed forces of the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" after the armistice in Palestine proceeded to invade the city of Jerusalem contrary to the United Nations partition plan for Palestine. This partition plan called for the internationalization of Jerusalem under United Nations control. THE UNITED STATES and the SOVIET UNION voted IN FAVOR of that partition plan. The "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" not only ignored the partition plan but also a further United Nations resolution specifically calling upon them to vacate Jerusalem. In reply to this resolution their armed forces invaded additional areas of Jerusalem. At this time the Soviet Union was working to get as many nations as possible to extend recognition to the Communist Government of China. The Soviet Union rulers found it extremely easy to make a "deal" with their blood-brothers who had become the rulers in Palestine and U. N. members.

The Soviet Union offered the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" to WITHDRAW Soviet Union support of the United Nations resolution demanding the withdrawal of Zionist Armed Forces from Jerusalem and the internationalization of Jerusalem if the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" would immediately RECOGNIZE the Communist Government of China. In spite of all the efforts by the United States to prevent that "deal" the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" immediately extended RECOGNITION to the Communist Government of China. IN A MATTER OF A FEW DAYS THE SOVIET UNION NOTIFIED THE UNITED NATIONS THAT IT WAS WITHDRAWING ITS APPROVAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS RESOLUTION DEMANDING WITHDRAWAL OF ZIONIST ARMED FORCES FROM JERUSALEM AND THE INTERNATIONALIZATION OF THAT CITY UNDER UNITED NATIONS CONTROL!

Zionists on Communist team

It does not require a big stretch of the imagination to understand on whose "team" the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" are playing. What can the American people expect from a population which was transplanted to Palestine from the Soviet Union and Soviet Union Satellites? How many World Wars will the American people have to fight before they learn the rudiments of international double-cross intrigue?

As a witness before the Kefauver Crime Committee would say, "The American people are being taken for a $3,000,000,000. ride". From all appearances it will be a "one-way ride" from which neither the $3,000,000,000. nor many other priceless possessions of the American people will return. While this "ride" will cost the American people $3,000,000,000. in cash, the actual cost to the American people will be far in excess of that amount and will have to be reckoned in altogether different values than money. Responsible authorities have great fear that these "rides" will eventually end in the defeat of the United States by the Soviet Union in the seemingly inevitable, and somewhat imminent, third Marxist-engineered World War in our generation. They are aware of the fact that control of the strategic eastern Mediterranean and its important natural resources will determine the outcome of that war when it comes. WRITE THAT IN YOUR LITTLE BOOK!

Three Marxist-World Wars

Two recent Marxist-engineered World Wars have left indelible marks upon the American heritage which even the blood of a third war cannot erase. Nor is there wealth enough in the world to ransom the blessings which these two gargantuan struggles have already robbed the American people. The "real and present danger" to civilization is the existing threat of a third Marxist-engineered World War. It presents the horrifying prospects of the population of the entire world engaged in a grim struggle with the most modern mass-production methods for dealing out death. It paralyzes the imagination? A U.S. JURY JUST FOUND THREE ZIONISTS GUILTY OF DELIVERING OUR ATOM-BOMB SECRETS TO THEIR MARXIST BLOOD-BROTHERS IN THE SOVIET UNION! HAVE AMERICANS YET REALIZED HOW MANY MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN WILL BE ROASTED TO CINDERS BY THEIR TREASON?

The outcome of that struggle must inevitably result in the loss of our independence as a sovereign nation and the loss of the freedom and liberty we now enjoy under our present form of government. The surviving remnants of humanity will lose forever those "unalienable rights" of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness" for which our ancestors will have shed their blood in vain. The systems of government now blossoming throughout the world based upon government "of the people, by the people, and for the people" will disappear forever from the face of the earth to be replaced by universal slavery under totalitarian Marxist police-state dictatorships. Marxists give little choice to liberty-loving mankind. Many prefer to die standing on their feet fighting in defense of human rights rather than to live on their bended knees as slaves under a totalitarian Marxist police-state dictatorship, THANK GOD!

Sucidal U.S. foreign policy

The Zionist-dictated foreign policy of the United States is literally and figuratively digging a grave for this nation in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area. The irony of this lies in the fact that this nation's grave is being dug with funds provided by the American people. When the deluded Americans wake up to this fact it may be too late to do anything about it. There will be no escape from the fate which international Marxists have decreed for the American nation. THEY MAKE NO SECRET OF IT.

The helpful hand of the United States, outstretched to a world in want, was first "bitten" by the Lend-Lease nations, and it survived, was then "bitten" by the UNRRA nations, and it survived, was then "bitten" by the Marshall Plan nations (ECA), and is surviving, and is now being "bitten" by the North Atlantic Treaty nations, and with God's help, will survive that also. But how long can this "luck of the Irish" hold out? It seems already to be wearing itself thin in places. THE SAD PART OF IT IS THAT WE DO NOT TAKE ANY NOTICE OF IT!

U.S. will win with Moslems

The United States stands as much chance as a snow-ball in Hell of winning a war with the Soviet Union without the good-will and cooperation of the 400,000,000 Moslem population in Europe, Asia and Africa. Nobody, BUT NOBODY, is more aware of that fact than the master minds in Moscow. When the Zionist-dominated Administration has drained off the last remaining dregs of friendship of our few remaining friends among Moslem peoples, the Soviet Union will be able to take on and whip the United States blindfolded and with both hands tied behind her back. Recognition of that fact is why the Soviet Union since 1945 has concentrated every effort to destroy the traditional friendship of the Moslems of the world for the American people. The Zionist-dictated foreign policy of the United States in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area has succeeded in accomplishing that result. To convert this traditional friendship for the American people into an intense hatred did not require very much extra effort on the part of the Soviet Union.

400,000,000 Anti-Communists

For more than a century the 400,000,000 Moslems of the world had only the greatest respect, confidence, and friendship for the American people. That friendship was a very precious possession of the American people and far beyond any possibility of evaluation. Now that we are losing it, its tremendous value is appreciated. The 400,000,000 Moslems of the world inhabit the territory extending across North Africa from Casablanca on the Atlantic the Suez Canal area, they inhabit Turkey and the Balkan States, part of the Soviet Union in Europe, all of Asia Minor and the continent of Asia from Iran (Persia) to China on the Pacific, including also Indonesia and the Philippines. About 35,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit the Soviet Union. About 50,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit China. About 85,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit Pakistan, directly to the south of the Soviet Union. About 50,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit India, directly to the south of Communist China. About 70,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit the Arab League states in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area which contains 77% of the world's known oil reserves. More than 50,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit Indonesia. More than 12,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit the Philippine area. This broad belt of territory extending along the underbelly of the Soviet Union is inhabited altogether by about 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems. The religious faith of these Moslems makes them MORE ANTI-COMMUNIST than the Christian population of the world.

Moslems and A-bomb security

In any war between the Soviet Union and the United States victory will be determined in the final analysis by the attitude of these 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems towards the American people. If these Moslems are forced by the Zionist-dictated foreign policy of the United States to throw in their lot with the Soviet Union, it will become impossible for the United States to win the war. The United States might be able to put up a good fight. But without the friendship of these 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems victory is highly improbable, if not entirely beyond the realm of possibility. The strategic importance of the areas they occupy, their huge man-power reserves, and the inexhaustible supply of their critical natural resources will prove the deciding factors in any war between the Soviet Union and the United States. Their importance exceeds that of the atom-bomb. The use of the atom-bomb is a "two-way" street. The United States will suffer more from atom-bombing by the Soviet Union than the compensating damage which we can inflict upon the Soviet Union with our atom-bombs. If the 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems become the full-fledged allies of the United States there is nothing the Soviet Union can possibly produce to offset that tremendous advantage to the United States.

Moslems can win out in Asia

As an illustration of the great contribution which can be made by the 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems of the world, the Egyptian Government has recently announced that it will place an army of 2,000,000 Egyptians at the disposal of the United Nations if the United States will supply the necessary equipment. The presence of an Egyptian army of highly-trained and well-equipped soldiers will reduce the obligation of the United States to send that many American boys to that area. During World War II the United States had an armed force of about 14,000,000 which represented about 10% of the total population. An Egyptian army of 2,000,000 soldiers represents about 10% of the total population of Egypt. On this basis the 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems can supply about 40,000,000 soldiers. In addition to 40,000,000 soldiers the good-will of the native populations offers another contribution which cannot easily be computed. This good-will relieves the United States of sending additional man-power to the combat area. Under these circumstances it seems utterly out of the question that the Soviet Union would dare to risk a war in Asia, Europe or Africa without any possible hope for a victory.

Moslem friendship for U.S.A.

The Zionist-dictated foreign policy of the United States in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area drove the opening wedge between the Americans and Moslems. The Zionists have continued to exercise this control over the Administration for the purpose of driving that wedge deeper and deeper. The Zionist-dictated policy of the delegation of the United States to the United Nations has virtually destroyed the last hope for preserving the friendship of the 400,000,000 Moslems of the world for the American people. As a result of the United States-sponsored Zionist aggression in Palestine, for which the United States must accept full responsibility, the Moslem population of the world has lost its confidence in the integrity of the American people. The Moslems have no way to learn that the fault lies with the Zionist-controlled Administration and not with the integrity of the American people. The Zionist "kept-press" in the United States has never permitted the truth regarding this condition to appear in its columns. The Moslems of the world cannot learn the attitude of the American people by reading the newspapers published in the United States. The Moslems of the world judge the American people by the promises and performances of their Zionist-controlled Administration. They have abundant material upon which to base their attitude towards the American people and they are not to be criticized for it.

Nothing can destroy confidence more completely than to preach one gospel and to practice the extreme opposite. How can the United States earn the respect and confidence of the Moslem people unless it practices what it preaches? The Administration is not doing that. It is doing the exact opposite. The Administration is rubbing salt into the open wounds of the Moslem peoples by continuing to allow the Zionists to exercise control over the foreign policy of the United States in the eastern Mediterranean area. The Moslem peoples of the world understand that the $3,000,000,000, which is being made available to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" will be used as a war-chest for further aggression in Palestine and elsewhere against the Moslem people there and in the Near and Middle East. The Moslems of the world realize that the third Marxist-engineered World War will be the "green light" for the Zionists to put into operation their plans for further aggression and conquest in that area.

Zionist-U.S.S.R. war allies

The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are secretly and successfully converting the territory under their control in Palestine into an impregnable Marxist arsenal. The secrets for manufacture of the most modern weapons have been obtained by the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" through their highly-placed spies in governments and industries of the United States and other leading countries. The billions of American dollars which are flowing into the treasury of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are primarily employed for creating a Zionist war-machine for future aggression. Before the conquest of Palestine by the alien Zionist invaders, in 1948, Palestine was supporting a population in excess of 1,500,000 persons in addition to a British Army of Occupation of an additional 100,000 soldiers. Through the centuries the population of Palestine has flourished without the necessity for any financial assistance from foreign sources. Without any foreign financial assistance the native Palestinians have developed in 1700 years a territory smaller than the State of Vermont to a status where the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are now proposing to pay them $1,000,000,000, which represents only a small fraction of the fair value under normal conditions of what they have stolen.

The alien Zionist invaders in 1948 drove into exile about 1,000,000 unarmed and defenseless native Palestinians. Since that time the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" have brought about 600,000 Zionist immigrants into Palestine. It becomes apparent that at the present time Palestine has about 500,000 less inhabitants than at the time of the Zionist aggression in 1948. At no cost to themselves the Zionist aggressors expropriated all land and other property legally belonging to the 1,000,000 native Palestinians whom the Zionists had driven out of their homeland. These "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are now attempting to pay these rightful owners for the land and other properties which they have stolen from them the $1,000,000,000, which they plan to obtain from the United States as a "loan" for FIFTY YEARS, AND BEARING NO INTEREST!!!!

Faked poverty Marxist disguise

It seems reasonable to expect that the present reduced population in Palestine should be able to support itself without contributions of billions of American dollars. Millions of penniless immigrants from the identical territory in eastern Europe from which the Zionist invaders of Palestine have come, during the past fifty years have immigrated to other countries throughout the world, notably to the United States, and have become men of great wealth by their own initiative. These millions of penniless immigrants to the United States from this territory in eastern Europe were able to establish themselves in the United States without assistance and become very wealthy. Under the free enterprise system in the United States this was possible without the assistance of billions of dollars to underwrite their capabilities. But a free enterprise system does not exist in Palestine. The economy in Palestine is organized on Marxist principles. State socialism is the basis of the economy in Palestine. Consequently, billions of dollars of American money must be dumped into Palestine to support the Marxist system there. Billions of American money were dumped into England each year since 1945 to support the experiment in State Socialism there which would have collapsed long ago without this assistance. Billions of American money are now being dumped into Palestine to support another experiment in Marxist Socialism. The entire economy in Palestine is based upon Marxist doctrines. Without a free enterprise system there the American people will be called upon continually to contribute billions to keep this Marxist state in existence. Under various pretenses the Zionist-controlled "state within a state" in this country will see that the American people supply all these billions of dollars to this Soviet Union satellite.

United Nations a Marxist front

A United Nations resolution in 1948 placed an embargo upon the shipment of arms into Palestine for the defenseless native Palestinians. It was an air-tight embargo. But this embargo was only effective against the defenseless native Palestinians and not against the alien Zionist invaders. Throughout the period of this one-sided embargo a fleet of the largest freight-carrying planes was secretly shuttling day and night between Kharkov in the Soviet Union and the Zionist armed forces in Palestine ferrying to them enormous quantities of Soviet Union tanks, heavy artillery and other modern military equipment. At the same time another fleet of the largest freight-carrying planes was also secretly shuttling day and night between Czechoslovakia and the Zionist armed forces in Palestine ferrying enormous quantities of the most deadly weapons produced in the Skoda arsenal, the greatest manufacturing plant in the world of the most up-to-date military equipment. For this equipment the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" were paying the Soviet Union and her satellites the American "tax-exempt" dollars raised in the United States for "humanitarian" use among the "DPs". The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" have officially complained that "only $125,000,000" of the total $500,000,000 cost of these military supplies "came from the American people".

The additional $3,000,000,000, which the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are now engaged in extracting from the American people will be used to create a Marxist "Gibraltar" in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area. This Marxist "Gibraltar" will be an ally of the Soviet Union in any future conflict. As an ally of the Soviet Union this Marxist "Gibraltar" will become one of the most important military bastions in the world. The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" rely upon the cooperation and support of the Soviet Union for their future aggression. The Soviet Union relies upon the Zionists to obtain control of the oil and chemicals in that area. This alliance is the result of long-range planning which goes back more than twenty-five years. WAKE UP U.S.A.!

Zionists, Marxists, blood-brothers

The "people" who form the "hard-core" of the Soviet Union dictatorship are the blood-brothers of the "people" who form the "hard-core" of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". That fact is a matter of public record. There is no attempt made to conceal it. It has never been contradicted when it has been publicly alleged. The rulers of the Soviet Union actually are the blood-brothers of the Zionist rulers in Palestine. The Zionist "kept-press" has never permitted the American people to be informed on this subject. The Zionist "kept-press" does not wish to educate the American people to the fact that the rulers of the Soviet Union and the rulers in Palestine have common racial characteristics, political ideologies and have pledged allegiance to each other!

The blood tie between the rulers in Palestine and the rulers of the Soviet Union is as strong for their country of origin as the attachment of immigrants of all origins. It is not to be overlooked that 92% of the population in Palestine today consists of people who were either born or who have lived most of their lives in the Soviet Union or in a Soviet Union satellite. The political ideologies which these aggressors carried with them to Palestine are no less Marxist than the political ideologies of their fathers, brothers, sons and kin-folk who remained behind in the Soviet Union and her satellites, AND RULE THEM TODAY. Zionist invaders have converted Palestine today into a colony of the Soviet Union. When trouble comes they will stick together. The American people will get the surprise of their lives if they think the Zionists in Palestine will join the United States as an ally when war comes. But it was the Government of the United States and the money of the American people which were solely responsible for the successful aggression of the armed Zionist invasion and conquest of Palestine. That is an unchallengeable historic fact which no Zionist will dare to deny. The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" will not be the first country responsible for its existence to the United States to turn today violently against it. Other examples of this ingratitude are the Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, China, and other nations in Europe and Asia.

The people in Zionist Palestine today are transplanted segments of the populations of the Communist countries of eastern Europe. It is not realistic to anticipate that these transplanted Communist populations will take up arms against their blood-brothers in their former homelands behind the Iron Curtain. They are attempting at the present time to carry water on both shoulders. They hope to extract $3,000,000,000 from the American people without tipping off their allegiance to the Soviet Union. When the third Marxist-engineered World War breaks out the American people will be rudely awakened from their dream. The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" have not miscalculated or underestimated how dumb the American people can be in matters of this kind based on past performances.

Sauce for goose, sauce for gander

The North Atlantic treaty is the subject of much debate at this moment. The North Atlantic Treaty is an agreement between twelve members of the United Nations under the provisions of the Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter. The Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter provides for mutual military assistance by the parties to any Regional Arrangement Treaty. The Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter provides that all matters which can be determined by local action shall be determined by the parties to the Regional Arrangements Treaty. The Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter specifically provides that if any member becomes the victim of aggression that it shall become the responsibility of all other parties to the Regional Arrangements Treaty to regard an act of aggression against any one party as an act of aggression against all parties to it.

The North Atlantic Treaty provides that if any signatory to that treaty becomes the victim of an act of aggression that all other signatories to the treaty shall consider it as an act of aggression against all signatories. Under this provision it is obligatory upon the United States to declare war against the Soviet Union in the event that the Soviet Union commits an act of aggression against any nation of Western Europe which is a signatory of the North Atlantic Treaty. The United States has the identical treaty arrangement with the 21 Republics of the Western Hemisphere under the same Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter. It is known as the Pan-American Union. However, the first Regional Arrangements Treaty registered with the United Nations was the Regional Arrangements Treaty between the eight countries in the Near East which make up the Arab League. The Regional Arrangements Treaty between Palestine, Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Trans-Jordan and Yemen was registered with United Nations in 1946. Under the terms of that Regional Arrangements Treaty these eight states of the Arab League put the world on notice that an act of aggression against any one of its signatories will be regarded by each member as an act of aggression against all members of the Arab League, Palestine included.

British honor hits low of lows

The alien Zionist armed invaders committed their act of aggression against the lawful inhabitants of Palestine upon the withdrawal of the British in 1948. The armed forces of the other members of the Arab League immediately came to the assistance of the people in Palestine under their Regional Arrangements Treaty OBLIGATIONS and RESPONSIBILITIES. It was the fulfillment of a United Nations obligation. It was not an "invasion" of Palestine by all the other members of the Arab League. The small, poorly-equipped armed forces of these other members of the Arab League were no match for the forces of the alien Zionist invaders who had been supplied with unlimited quantities of the most modern means for conducting blitz warfare by the United States, the Soviet Union and others. The armed Zionist invaders were a well-trained army which had obtained its training and also all its equipment in the United States, the Soviet Union and other Zionist-dominated countries. The rest is history. The conscience of the world will never be able to erase the blemish of that "double-cross" of the peaceful, innocent and defenseless 1,000,000 native Palestinians who were slaughtered or driven into exile as paupers.

Ralph Bunche disgraces Negro race

The alien Zionist invading juggernaut slaughtered these practically defenseless defenders of their homeland in Palestine on a scale comparable to the slaughter of the atom-bomb dropped on Hiroshima. The defenders of Palestine were literally and figuratively fighting with pitch-forks against Sherman tanks. After the armed Zionist invaders had slaughtered or driven into exile approximately 1,000,000 defenseless native Palestinians and occupied their homeland, the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" CONSENTED to an "armistice" arranged by the United Nations. By the terms of the proposed "armistice" of Count Bernadotte, acting on behalf of the United Nations, the exiled Palestinians were to be returned to their homes in Palestine and their property restored to them. For daring to make that proposal the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" murdered Count Bernadotte. After the murder of Count Bernadotte the United Nations appointed Ralph Bunche as his successor. Ralph Bunche proved to be very "acceptable" to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine." For the terms of the "peace" arranged by him for the Zionists he was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. To satisfy his Zionist masters Ralph Bunche arranged a "peace" whereby the 1,000,000 lawful native Palestinians who had been driven out of their homeland by the Zionist invaders were "sentenced to life" by him as exiled paupers. The alien Zionist armed aggressors were permitted to retain as "loot" the territory and property of these exiled Palestinians. That "peace" plan earned for Ralph Bunche the coveted Nobel Peace Prize and the "respect" of the world. We wonder whether Ralph Bunche would recommend such a "peace" plan in the United States if the armed forces of the Northern states invaded the Southern states and drove the entire Negro population into exile in Mexico? That is exactly the kind of "peace" Ralph Bunche established in Palestine. If there is any doubt left in anyone's mind regarding who controls the United Nations all doubt about it should be settled by the "peace" plan imposed upon the 1,000,000 lawful native Palestinians. It is any wonder that the Zionist "kept-press" and Zionist-controlled organizations continue to heap "honors" upon Ralph Bunche? And he accepts them!

U.S. high-treason to Almighty God

The desire by the original Thirteen Colonies for "self-determination" gave birth to the United States of America. Since its creation in 1776, the United States has been a devout apostle for "self-determination" for all peoples throughout the world. Many leading countries throughout the world owe their existence to the support received by them from the Government of the United States and the American people in their struggle for "self-determination". The principle of "self-determination" FOR ALL PEOPLES OF THE WORLD was made the foundation of the United Nations Charter. The solemn pronouncements of Presidents of the United States, including recent pronouncements of President Truman to aid all peoples "in Europe, Asia and Africa" in their struggle for "self-determination", emphasizes this basic American ideology. "Self-determination" denotes the democratic process by which the lawful inhabitants of a country decide for themselves under what form of government they choose to exist as a sovereign nation.

Zionists prostitute U.N. Charter

The application of "self-determination" is effected now by the democratic process known as a "plebiscite". A "plebiscite" is an election by secret ballot by which the majority of the population determines their form of government. The United Nations has called for "plebiscites" in Korea, in Kashmir, in Indonesia, in Libya, in Indo-China and other countries where the principle of "self-determination" is to be applied for the first time. When the British Army of Occupation in Palestine withdrew, Zionist-controlled United Nations used all its power to PREVENT the holding of a "plebiscite" in Palestine. The United Nations thereby prostituted the very purpose for which it was brought into existence. The United Nations had ordered many "plebiscites" for the populations of backward nations to select the form of government they desired by the process of "self-determination". The Zionist-controlled United Nations exerted every effort to PREVENT the people in Palestine from holding a "plebiscite" despite the fact that the ancestors of the Palestinians were the most highly civilized people in the world when the populations of Western Europe were living in tree-tops like monkeys.

Zionists pervert purposes of U.N.

Zionist control of the United Nations has been used to abort the very purpose for which the United Nations was brought into existence. The Zionists had a reason for exercising their control over many United Nations delegations. When the British Army of Occupation first moved into Palestine in 1919 only 7% of the population were potential Zionists. In the period between 1919 and the withdrawal of the British in 1948 the Zionist population in Palestine increased to 30% of the total population as the result of illegal Zionist immigration. A "plebiscite" under United Nations supervision would not have resulted in the creation of a Zionist-controlled government upon the withdrawal of the British from Palestine in 1948. For this reason the Zionists PREVENTED the United Nations from holding a plebiscite in Palestine. After the 100,000 British soldiers withdrew from Palestine in 1948, the armed Zionist invaders drove 1,000,000 native Palestinians into exile. They had formed 70% of the total population in Palestine in 1948. The remaining 600,000 Zionists then made up 99% of the population. A plebiscite then became purely academic, entirely unnecessary, and was never held.

(Mr. Churchill made the above remark in his speech at the American Independence Day dinner at the Dorchester Hotel July 4, 1950. And unless he has quite forgotten his responsibility in the matter, he must surely have been either boasting or apologizing.)

World Government has been the cry of Marxian socialists for 20 years — we are promised a vague Utopia for which we are asked to give up our NATIONAL sovereignty, independence, CONTROL OF CURRENCY, immigration laws, taxing powers and our political freedom.

James Warburg says, "that WORLD GOVERNMENT" would come whether we liked it or not.

Scott Nearing, listed as a very prominent communist, said, "UNITED STATES must take the lead in forming a FEDERAL WORLD GOVERNMENT, for the UNITED STATES is a threat to the peace and security of its neighbors."

INVISIBLE GOV'T LEADS AMERICA TO DESTRUCTION

STATEMENT OF SEN. WM. E. JENNER
IN THE U. S. SENATE APRIL 11, 1951

SENATOR WILLIAM E. JENNER

The only question is whether we were fighting in Korea to win. MacArthur told us the only way we could win — with more manpower. That was a military issue. Our government was planning to send additional troops to Europe, where there was no fighting, and leave the men in Korea to fight a war of attrition with no hope of victory.

The Administration refused even to work with the two million fighting men from South Korea and Free China, who begged to fight against the Communists.

The American people have the right to know what are the military issues. Congress has the right to know what are the military issues. Statements of fact on the question of American security are entirely proper communications from a General in the field, to the American people.

Who wants to hide the facts? Who wants us NOT to win in Korea? Who wants a long drawn out war of attrition in which thousands more of American soldiers are killed to no purpose?

That is the question which Congress must answer.

This is another Pearl Harbor. Once again the military situation is used to cover up the political chicanery of the palace guard. They are planning something devious, we don't know what. Our "allies" know — but Congress does not. The Administration kow-towed to our allies. England announces that Red China must be represented in the Japanese peace settlement, and must be given Formosa. Are we going along in a phoney peace move in which we will surrender to the Communists everything for which our men have died? Meanwhile the men in the Politburo are watching every move we make. We dare not make the smallest mistake.

Congress cannot wait until years have passed to find out what is hidden beneath the confusion. Congress must find out NOW.

This is no Republican victory. Republicans cannot rejoice at a political advantage which means our country is in danger.

This issue is not for the Republicans in Congress but for all true Americans in Congress. We are not being governed by the Democratic party. We are not being governed by the Fair Deal. I charge that this country today is in the hands of a secret inner coterie which is directed by agents of the Soviet Union. They have formed a popular front government like that in France in the thirties and we know how France was taken from within.

We have asked the President to dismiss Secretary Acheson, who would not turn his back on Communist agents in the State Department. We have asked the President to dismiss General Marshall who was the tool of Soviet Agents in his betrayal of China and loss of our allies in Asia.

A Move To Kill Freedom

(Reprinted from DENVER POST)

If responsible Jewish leaders in the United States are wise, they will put a stop to the threats of boycott and discrimination that are being hurled by various Jews and Jewish organizations against the radio commentator, Upton Close. Perhaps the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith believes Mr. Close to be anti-semitic. Perhaps Mr. Close is anti-semitic. No matter what is the case, no good can come for the Jewish cause through this kind of uproar.

It wasn't so very long ago that a local labor newspaper chortled when Fulton Lewis, Jr. was temporarily knocked off the air in Denver for lack of a sponsor.

At that time the Denver Post took the position that no newspaper should be happy when any legitimate opinion is suppressed. It is apparent that organized Jewry is a pressure group when it takes action such as was taken in New York, where a Jewish judge called a press conference, to discuss Jewish action against this individual.

Freedom in this country is still best defined as freedom for the thought we hate. If the Jews are successful in persecuting Mr. Close and getting him knocked off the air waves, they will have accomplished no good. If one pressure group can accomplish such a thing as that, who knows, somebody might take similar action against a whole segment of our population such as the Jewish segment.

Sokolsky Shows His True Colors In Recent Attack

Mr. Sokolsky:

When you devoted two pages in the Freeman magazine of April 9 to an attack on me and my publication, Common Sense, the Nation's Anti-Communist Newspaper, you undoubtedly hoped to draw me into debate for the purpose of discrediting me and destroying Common Sense.

Until this attack by you, we were trying to believe that you were a real American, with the welfare of America uppermost in mind. We were led to believe that you were sincere and honest in your writing because of your articles opposing the United Nations. During five years of publication, the only time we mentioned your name was in February when we included you among ten Jews, or former Jews, whom we rated as American citizens of undivided, unhyphenated loyalty.

We did not believe that the Jewish B'nai B'rith and Jewish Anti-Defamation League could force you to be their agent. You almost had us fooled. And, after your brutal attack upon us, we feel we can be excused for the investigation of your history which reveals that you are not what you have made the public believe.

First of all, it now appears that you, son of a long line of Russian-born orthodox rabbis (named Volpe, Wolper, and/or Volpi — until your grandfather purchased birthrights in Russia, thereby becoming "Sokolsky") are a Zionist. We refer to the book "We Jews", which you wrote in 1934, and in which is this interesting bit, which explains your defense of Zionism:

"In fact, during the fourteen years that I lived in the Far East, Judaism meant to me little more than a responsibility for refugee Jews from Soviet Russia and an occasional utterance for Zionism which retained my interest."

The "Zionism which retained my interest" is unquestionably at the root of the Freeman magazine attack you authored and, while you stated that assertions in Common Sense are completely false "and can be so established", you did not disprove them. Why?

You made a futile attempt to show that Zionism is not Communism by writing: "Zionism, in the tradition of the Jews is 4000 years old," then followed with the statement that political Zionism "was introduced into Jewish life by Theodor Herzl."

Herzl, it must be remembered, directed the

First world Zionist Congress at Basle in 1897. That last date is important because you, Sokolsky, also wrote: "Communism came into practical existence in 1848 with the publication of the Communist Manifesto by Karl Marx and Frederick Engels. It was not seeded down until 1917 when Lenin seized power in Russia."

Now, Sokolsky, we would like to recommend a book to you: "Zionism and World Politics" (1921) written by Horace M. Kallen. Chosen by world Jewry as one of the 120 leading Jews, Kallen not only wrote of Herzl's Zionist Congress as "an irrefutable demonstration of national solidarity," but says of Jewry: "Members of the race are particularly conspicuous in the Polish and Hungarian rebellions. . . Even more conspicuous were they in the new internationalism. . . This internationalism is a conclusion from the philosophy of Socialism. Its strongest authoritative voice was that of the Jew, Karl Marx. . ."

Insofar as Lenin's "seeding down" of Communism is concerned, how do you, Sokolsky, account for the sworn testimony which Dr. George A. Simons, former superintendent of Methodist Missions in Russia, presented to the U. S. Senate, 65th Congress, in 1919. Before that group, Dr. Simons stated, concerning the Russian Revolution:

"I have a firm conviction that this thing is Yiddish; and that one of its bases is found in the East side of New York."

He then gave a partial list of the names of prominent leaders of the Russian Revolution — Gutmann (Chernoff); Braunstein (Trotzky); Zerbaum (Martoff); Katz (Kamkoff); Goldenberg (Meshkoff); Krochmal (Zagorsky); Gimmer (Suchanoff); Gelfund (Parvuss); Sabelson (Kradek); Apfelbaum (Zinovieff); Nachkamkes (Stekloff); Luyre (Larin); Goldenbach (Ryanoff); Josse (Brogdanoff); Goldmann (Goryeff); Wanstein (Zwedzdin); Goldman (Lieber); Fuerstenberg (Ganezky); Solomon (Roshal); Litvinoff (Finklestein).

Testimony in the Senate Overman Report of 1919 also stated that of the 388 members of the first central government, based in St. Petersburg, 371 were Jews. This brings to mind that on March 28, 1917, Trotsky embarked for Europe with a gang of 276 East Side anarchists, many of them Jewish-Russian in origin. It is also worthy of note that the "Jewish Communal Register" of 1917-18, published by the "Kehillah (Jewish Community) of New York," 356 Second Avenue, N. Y. (p. 1019) praised Jacob Schiff, Zionist head of Kuhn Loeb & Co., for financing the Russian Red revolution.

Will you disprove those facts, Sokolsky? With the powerful pen you wield, will you contradict our published statements that the rulers of all presently "Communist-controlled" territories are Zionists — political, or otherwise?

It was the January 15th issue of Common Sense which you selected to "analyze" and attack. In that edition we named the Zionists ruling the defense systems of England, France, Hungary, Poland, Yugoslavia, the Soviet Union, Bulgaria, Rumania, Ukraine, China, and the U. S. If those so designated are NOT Zionists, why did you not deny it in print? Surely, you must know that they are Zionists. If you dare not acknowledge the fact, is it because the B'nai B'rith and the Anti-Defamation League would immediately "slaughter" you?

Common Sense makes every effort to obtain the facts behind the news. We do not conceal information. It appears that you do. As an example, the following is quoted from your "These Days" in the November 28, 1947 (page 15) Washington Times-Herald:

"I can testify, from personal knowledge and experience, that this Chinese Communist group was organized by Michael Borodin, who, with Marshal Bluecher, then called General Galens, and about 100 Russian and civilian military advisers, came to China in 1924 and remained until 1927, when they were dismissed by Chiang . . . The top command of the present Chinese Communist group consists of men who were then in the Third International, some of whom studied in Red Army schools, attended conferences at Baku and Moscow, and whose relationship to the Third International was recorded in the official minutes of this body as released in several languages in its official organ called the International Press Correspondence."

From your "personal knowledge and experience" Mr. Sokolsky, do you or do you not know that both Bluecher and Borodin are Zionists? We will tell you that they are Zionists. GRUSENBERG IS THE RIGHT NAME OF THE BORODIN YOU MENTION. THE TRUE NAME OF MARSHAL BLUECHER (nicknamed Galens) IS CHESIN.

Leaders of Israel Are Yiddish

"What is a Yiddish President?" you ask, complaining of our use of that term in connection with Chaim Weizmann. Must we tell you even that? Has Weizmann's Lithuanian birth escaped your attention? Are you also unaware of the incontestable fact that few, if any, of the present Israeli leaders are natives of Israel, and have no legitimate claim to the territory now under their control?

Of the Israeli government, David Ben Gurion, Prime Minister of Defense; Mordechi Bentov, Minister of Labor; Isaac Guernbaum, Minister of Interior; Itche Meier Levin Minister; Moshe Shapira, Minister of Immigration — ALL WERE BORN IN POLAND. David Remez, Minister of Transportation and Communication; Ahron Zisling, Minister of Agriculture; Eliezer Kaplan, Minister of Finance; Moshe Shertok, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Rabbi Judah Leib Fishman, Minister of Education and Religion — ALL WERE BORN IN RUSSIA.

Those men are not Israelites! They are not any more Semitic than you are! Neither they, nor their ancestors, were from the biblical Holy Land. They, as you, are of Eastern European Yiddish extraction.

Authorities agree that persons of the Jewish faith in eastern Europe (Polish, Lithuanian, Russian, Ukrainian, etc.) are descendants largely of a NON-Semitic Turkish-Finnish race which came into Europe from Asia about the 1st century A.D. by a land route north of the Caspian Sea. Those people were known as Khazars. The Khazars had been a pagan people. They settled in Europe and founded the Khazar kingdom. It was a Khazar king who accepted Judaism as a religion, in preference to Christianity or Mohammedanism, near the end of the 7th century A.D.

The first Khazar king who was converted to Judaism adopted the Hebrew alphabet for the language used by the Khazars. Yiddish is the language they used. It is a jargon of many languages, and not a language in itself. While the Yiddish and Hebrew use the same alphabet, the languages, as such, are as different as English and Chinese.

It is not, as you say, a "perverted sense of humor" which makes us use the term Yiddish. You, yourself, Sokolsky, can find the facts in reliable Jewish Encyclopedias.

Rosenberg Investigation A Farce

Concerning the appointment of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense, you, Sokolsky, say that Mrs. Rosenberg "was investigated by a Senate Committee under very severe charges. Yet those charges were not proved, and those who made them were discredited."

They were severe charges; but, they would have been more severe, and more convincing, if the Senate Armed Services Committee had not rushed, intimidated, and constantly attacked the patriotic Americans who tried to render a service to their Country.

Further, a heretofore reliable informant tells us that Zionist Senator Lehman and two Anti-Defamation League men, none of whom had any business in the Committee room, were present to be certain that the Committee carried out the orders of the Invisible Government by protecting Anna Rosenberg. The Armed Services Committee itself proved its lack of careful investigation when it accepted, without question, Mrs. Rosenberg's presented statement that she gave courses at the Red "New School for Social Research" in 1940. This is the same Marxist dominated Committee which is now whitewashing Truman, front for the Invisible Government!

Now, Sokolsky, how dumb is it possible for a person to be? You say the patriots who made charges against the Rosenberg woman were discredited. Do you actually believe that the Anna Rosenberg . . . the Red Anna Rosenberg, supposedly found . . . exists? Is it not your opinion that, when the going got "hot" for the to-be Assistant Secretary of Defense, a phantom Anna Rosenberg was made to appear. If you, or others, can fully discredit charges made against the present defense boss, why has not Red, phantom Anna's picture appeared in every major newspaper?

You did, however, give consolation to Mrs. Rosenberg's Red associates by inferring that the finances of Common Sense are nil. That is true, for the writer has put every dollar he had and over five years, full time, at no salary or remuneration, into the work necessary to publish Common Sense. There has been no thought of making money from the publication; our sole aim has been to bring concealed truths to our readers.

Communist "Anti-Semitism" Is Propaganda

Quoted at the end of your attack on Common Sense was a "piece of evidence" from the Jewish Labor Committee in which that Committee called for a UN probe because "anti-Semitism" has not died in Rumania, nor has the Communist government considered it necessary to fight against it. We possess other samples of such Marxist propaganda; all of it written in reference to Communist-dominated countries. Its object is to give Christians the idea that Jews are being persecuted in those countries, and to convince Christians that Communism is not Jewish. In brief, it is like saying that Catholics are being persecuted in Vatican City.

The ruler of Rumania is Jewish Anna Pauker, Zionist daughter of one Zvi Rabinsohn, a shocet (slaughterer of cattle in accordance with orthodox Jewish ritual). She has a reputation as a ruthless murderer, but no sane-thinking person believes that she destroys her own kind.

Sokolsky . . . Shekel-gathering Sham?

It may be bad for your business, but we intend to tear away the veil which has surrounded you, Sokolsky. You can go back to your Anti-Defamation League allies and weep in their slush funds. The Anti-Defamation League will understand how things sometime boomerang. We know them, and they know us. They have been attacking us for years while at the same time (so we are informed) some of their best lawyers continue to read the paper. But you . . . well, that is different. While we have been looking for one printer after another to replace those intimidated by the Anti-Defamation League, you have been playing the "good" little man.

You have been speaking at Rotary Clubs and — especially — Catholic institutions. You have been a good salesman for the "tolerance" racket; some said you were Catholic, others thought you were taking instructions. "Brotherly love" has been your motto.

This is where we open the book! Your book. The "We Jews", you penned in 1934, and had published in 1935. There, speaking of anti-Semitism, you say:

"As long as such a book as Charles Dickens' The Life of Our Lord is read by children, as long as in the Sunday schools the Jew is accused of having murdered Jesus, as long as the clergy utilize a religion of love to instigate hatred, so long will anti-Semitism be prevalent throughout the world."

That little gem was on page 28. Going deeper into the book, we found you writing on discrimination and, once again, the proverbial cat jumped out of the bag. You mentioned that the Jew has never gained anything by attempting "to pass or by cringing or begging . . . his destiny seems to be to wear a heavy yoke." Then you quote the following from an article by Professor Horace Kallen ("The Roots of Anti-Semitism," Nation, Feb. 28, 1923) for, you say, Professor Kallen "so succinctly put it":

"The answer lies in the Christian religion itself, in the status which Christianity assigns to the Jews. . . The answer lies in the role which Christian teaching plays in the make-up of the Western mind. . . From the crucifixion to the time of the Second Coming they (the Jews) were doomed to live outside the fellowship of the saved. If you can end this teaching . . . you will strike anti-Semitism at its foundation."

running along the same line followed by that of Joseph Dunner, the Zionist who wrote "The Republic of Israel" published in 1950 and in which is found the statement that "To Christians of all denominations Jesus is the symbol of all that is pure, sacred, and lovely. To Jews from the fourth century, Jesus became the symbol of anti-Semitism, of libel, of cruelty, of violent death."

Still, the most glaring factor in your "Common Sense is anti-Semitic" blast is that your material has all the earmarks of the Anti-Defamation League's "publicity." The Anti-Defamation League has not only been attacking us for years, but they have tried to influence Christians in the American Legion, V. F. W., Catholic War Veterans, and other organizations to pass resolutions against us. IF THE A.D.L. CAN PUT US OUT OF BUSINESS THE ZIONIST-CONTROLLED PAID PRESS CAN PUBLISH THEIR DRIVE UNHINDERED, AND CHRISTIANS WILL NEVER KNOW THE TRUTH BEHIND COMMUNISM.

We say that the A.D.L. is the backbone of Marxism in the United States. They are anti-Christian and are working with the same Red forces which are trying to abolish our government. With their seven-million-dollar a year budget, the Anti-Defamation League pays for "publicity" to "expose" all true fighters against Communism, and endeavors to kill any effective legislation which would control Communism. Their Zionist-owned mouthpieces are notorious for implying that Senator McCarthy is so much fertilizer.

It is our averment that the Zionist-Jewish Anti-Defamation League knows full well that the seed of Communism lies in the hatred of Jesus Christ, and a world-wide movement to eradicate His teachings.

If the Anti-Defamation League is your master, we request you, Sokolsky, to have it meet us in the open. We would like to settle the "Jewish question" which, in our opinion, is the most important matter before the world today. There is no point in the A.D.L. spending enormous sums of money fighting "anti-Semitism" (WHILE IT CONCEALS THE TRUTH) when it can, so they infer, prove our statements false.

Common Sense stands ready, at all times, to debate this all-important "Jewish question" in public. We will prove, from their own writings and their own mouths, that the Zionist Jews, nurtured on the filthy Talmud, make up the only group in the world which teaches hate. We will show that those people today teach the destruction of Christianity, and the overthrow of established, free governments.

Why is it wrong to be anti-Semitic and not wrong to be anti-Christian? What about the persecution of Christians by Marxists in Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Poland and other countries?

Your defense of Zionism — Anna Rosenberg and Kuhn, Loeb & Co. — gives food for thought. You do not dare defend any of those on the platform, or in Common Sense. We asked the Freeman for permission to answer your two-page attack on us; they made it impossible by restrictions. We open our columns to you.

Refute our statements, if you can! But don't give up, Mr. Sokolsky, Mark Twain said "If you can't answer a man's arguments, don't be discouraged, you can still call him names".

I am one of those who will devote my energies to the last in defending Christianity.

BOOKS YOU SHOULD READ

THIRD ZIONIST WAR $5.00

By Judge George W. Armstrong. With his usual clarity and punch, Judge Armstrong tells why the Korean "police action" is a trap to further Zionist plans for world domination. He mentions also the humility of General Douglas MacArthur who, in Korea, called for recitation of the Lord's prayer by the people of Seoul.

SOMEWHERE SOUTH OF SUEZ $3.75

By Douglas Reed. Taking up where his "From Smoke to Smother" left off, Mr. Reed, the brilliant English journalist, concludes that the third world war, when it comes, will sustain a giant political pincers movement in which Soviet Communism and political Zionism will make a determined effort to "reduce the Christian area to slave status."

the bond racket. Arthur Lehman went free and Dewey went up.

It is believed that when Dewey ran for governor and Lehman for senator, at the last election, the New York Marxist crowd gave the word for the "loyal" to support Dewey in New York State and Lehman in Washington.

The heart of the Republican and Democratic party has been eaten out by Zionists who reward any politician serving them. When Dewey was maneuvering for the President's office, the Invisible Government arranged for Dulles to act as Dewey's adviser on foreign affairs.

Now that protests against Dean Acheson indicate to the Invisible Government and Truman that it may be necessary to appoint a new Marxist stooge to carry on the Acheson program, John Foster Dulles is being groomed to possibly replace him. Dulles was in Seoul, Korea the night before the Communist outbreak. John Foster Dulles and his brother Allen are part of the Marxist front Institute of Pacific Relations, along with Owen Lattimore, Phillip Jessup and John Carter Vincent.

The Invisible Government now realizes that the public is ready to follow a new leader, General MacArthur, and the Marxists do not want to miss the train. Following instructions, Tom Dewey now comes out for MacArthur. All informed people know that during his entire public life he has been a servant to those Marxists who directed the shameful dismissal of General MacArthur.

Recently, John Foster Dulles spent an hour with General MacArthur. All that is needed to complete the destruction of the U. S. is to let Dulles succeed Acheson and Tom Dewey lead the Republicans to slaughter. Dewey would have been just as willing a stooge as Truman had been for the Invisible Government. Dulles would also have to continue the policies of Acheson who is directed by Felix Frankfurter, lead horse of the Invisible Government.

Rabbi Condemns Zionists For Fomenting Fears

Jews in the United States have no basis for fear of oppression as a minority and they should not demand "Jewish rights" Rabbi Elmer Berger, executive director of American Council of Judaism, said recently. Speaking before a panel discussion in the Drake Hotel, Chicago, Rabbi Berger stated that Zionists have campaigned to inspire loyalty to the Jewish state of Israel by fomenting fears of Jewish insecurity.

"We want freedom from fear," the rabbi said, "... fear inspired by those disciples of Jewish nationalism who graft onto the history of America ... a composite history of Poland, Germany and Israel because they fail to find insufficient grounds for insecurity of Jews in America."

"The nub of the problem is the misconception that Jewish rights as such can or should exist in the United States. We have a right to be Jews here because we are Americans. We have no rights in America just because we are Jews."

Separation of charity from politics in the United Jewish Appeal for 10 million dollars was demanded during the panel discussion which was led by Lessing Rosenwald, president of the council.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor — COMMON SENSE:

You are sticking your nose into business which does not concern YOU. Don't you know the Jews now control almost everything, and as soon as we get full control YOU will be shot? Your work is only that of a narrow-minded American Firster!

Dear Conde McGinley:

Accept this check in appreciation of your work. If all Americans thought and worked as you, we would not today be in the international mess we are in. God speed you, and good wishes.

Dear Sir:

You will be interested in the motives which resulted in my decision to subscribe to your paper. Ever since my first impression of political happenings in the world, I have gotten a nebulous notion that the history of mankind is not so simple as the official historians have been trying to describe it. I have always had a conviction that behind the historical stage there must be a conspiracy. Especially today it is clear to me. Due to my personal conviction that your paper is close to the truth, I subscribe to COMMON SENSE.

Dear Mac:

Enclosed $5.00. Send out copies wherever you think they'll do some good. Americans MUST KNOW THE TRUTH about the Rosenberg woman.

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Have distributed all the papers you sent me and hope they will do some good. Are you getting any subscriptions from Maryland?

Just saw on television Sen. Malone with Mrs. Roosevelt and some left-wing historian from Columbia U. Think his name was Prof. Commiger (sounded like that). Well, Sen. Malone told them off and of course Mrs. R. and the Prof. were for Eisenhower's idea of 3 1/2 million troops in Europe, with Congress having no say. Last week Mrs. R. had as her guest Frieda Hermonck you wrote about, the Zionist woman on Federal Communications Commission. Don't suppose any of the Senators or Congressmen would know an intelligent Christian woman if they saw one!

RED HIGHLIGHTS

General Douglas MacArthur's picture is missing from the wall at West Point. Why, because he had the highest marks of any cadet ever trained there? Fifty-four State Department employees resigned last year while under investigation for sexual perversion. Is blackmail the reason for massing perverts in Washington, or is it another method used by Marxists to force people to serve them? A UN report says European countries that are receiving Marshall Plan aid have doubled deliveries of heavy engineering products to the Soviet bloc from 1948 to 1950. In other words, the New Deal Administration has been building up Communism all over Europe with American taxpayers' money. Our taxes get bigger while Communism gets stronger. Common Sense is getting plenty of publicity these days on such programs as Luncheon at Sardi's and Barry Grey's hour. Watch out for Republicans Dewey, Warren, Saltonstall, Duff, Dulles and Eisenhower when 1952 nominations for presidential election roll around. They are controlled by the same people who control those in power since 1932. Herbert Lehman wants to make a holiday of FDR's birthday. The man who sold America out lock, stock, and barrel. Ben Hecht, who belongs to at least five Communist fronts, is banned in Britain and Ireland. Noted for his anti-Christian philosophy, he's now contemplating an "anti-Communist" play. Watch Americans swallow this phony's act. Anna M. Rosenberg is packing her Department with you-know-what. She hires thousands each week. Fifteen percent of the officers in the French Army are said to be Communists, and thirty percent of the electorate of France vote Communist. A recent "U. S. News Report and World Report" carried the following: "Thomas Dewey, New York Governor, is very determined to fill a 'stop Taft' role in the political maneuvering within the Republican Party which lies ahead." Dewey is the top "Fair Deal" Republican in the country being backed by the FDR clique in case the Democrats lose in '52. The Kefauver investigation grabbed the headlines in all papers while the greatest trial in history was going on. If you looked hard you could find the Rosenberg atom bomb spy trial "buried" in the papers. Was it planned that way? The New Deal is bubbling-over with graft, corruption, and treason. Why shouldn't American people have a TV program of the real issues? The Costello crowd is guilty of gambling, but there was no evidence of treason or sabotage. The same Zionist that was behind the "mink coat" in the White House is behind the Casey tanker sale case. Bishop Peter Legge of Meissen, last Catholic Bishop in the Soviet Zone of Germany, died recently. There is but one Catholic Church open in Soviet Russia, where there used to be 3000, and that is for "visitors". Martha Dean who broadcasts on W.O.R. at 10:15 a. m. had on her program a debate between Retired Admiral Cole and James Warburg on the World Government question. Warburg constantly interrupted Admiral Cole during the debate and would not let the Admiral put his arguments against World Government across. At the end of the debate Martha Dean said, "Now we have heard both sides of this question. Let that be an end of criticism". In a recent poll taken in Florida 2% of the people are in favor of Harry S. Truman. Senator McCarthy was asked why he was still trying to oust the New Deal traitors from the government when the American people were going to clean them out in '52. McCarthy stated that the way things were going in Washington there would be no 1952 election unless we cleaned them out now. Lehman invited all Jewish groups and individuals to wage an anti-McCarthy campaign in America at a $10 plate dinner. At 4 a. m. one morning a short time back Mr. Truman signed an order to the 7th Fleet patrolling the waters off China which included two commands: (1) To protect the 1/4 million Chinese Communist troops in lower China from Chiang Kai-Shek's troops. (2) To prevent Chiang Kai-Shek from invading the mainland. Bob Hope laid an egg on his program Sunday, April 8, 1951 when he made a crack about Senator McCarthy. It was not a derogatory remark but apparently the audience did not think it was funny. The fact that Bob Hope had Frank Sinatra, Eddie Cantor, and Tex and Jinx on his program did not make him any more popular with real Americans. The underhand gestapo method used by the Marxist New Dealers at Wake Island didn't do them much good when they produced notes taken by a plant at the conference. The "Red" Ambassador Philip Jessup with the cooperation of Zionist Anna Rosenberg thought they were going to trap General MacArthur by something the General might say while the spy from the State Department was "just automatically taking notes".

Reader Writes On Sokolsky

Editor, Common Sense

Dear Sir:

Columnist George Sokolsky has rapped you in Freeman magazine. Did you see it?

I am sure you know Sokolsky was born in Utica, N. Y. What interests me is how he happened to be made editor of the "Russia Daily News" in Petrograd, Russia, in 1917. He had just graduated from college! Columbia!

In 1918 he was Assistant Editor of "North China Star" in Tientsin. During 1920-1930 he served as political correspondent for "North China Daily News."

Wasn't Earl Browder in China during the mid-twenties? As I recall, Browder fled from China when things got rough ... his fellow Communies were left to die and some were stuffed into fireboxes of locomotives. It was the "abortive Canton Commune."

Is it possible that Sokolsky fits into that picture somewhere?

Personally, I will never buy another Freeman. There is something screwy about them and Sokolsky.

Here's hoping that you get to the bottom of this.

Sincerely,

....., New York.

(Ed. note: We have not, as yet, gotten to the very bottom of this. However, Sokolsky's birthplace and assignments, as shown by our reader, are accurate).

DON'T QUIT

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're treading seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit —
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a fellow turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out.
Don't give up though the pace seems slow —
You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man;
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup;
And he learned too late when the night came down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out —
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit —
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

—Rt. Rev. Bishop Cushing, D.D.

IF THE WORLD HATES YOU

"If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before you. If you were of the world, the world would love what is its own. But because you are not of the world ... therefore the world hates you. Remember the word that I have spoken to you: No servant is greater than his master. If they have persecuted me, they will persecute you also; if they have kept my word, they will keep yours also. But all these things they will do to you for my name's sake, because they do not know him who sent me."

(St. John, 15th Chapter, verses 18 to 25).

Morgenthau Sr. Says Zionism Is A Stupendous Fallacy

(Editor's Note: Do not confuse Henry Morgenthau Sr. with his blockhead son, author of the Morgenthau Starvation Plan for Germany).

What is this business of "We Jews"? Many, with three generations behind them, refer to themselves as "We Jews."

Our kind of Jew is one like Henry Morgenthau, Sr. He made a positive statement: "I am not a Zionist. I am an American." Lessing Rosenwald, President of American Council for Judaism, Rabbi Elmer Berger, Benjamin H. Freedman, consider themselves Americans. They are not ranting about "anti-Semitism." They know that under the American way of life they are in no danger of persecution because of a religion.

Actually, Henry Morgenthau, Sr., writing in his book, "All in a Life-Time," states:

"Zionism is the most stupendous fallacy in Jewish history. I assert that it is wrong in principle and impossible of realization; that it is unsound in its economics, fantastical in its politics, and sterile in its spiritual ideals. ... Zionism is a surrender, not a solution. It is a retrogression into the blackest error, and not progress toward the light. I will go further, and say it is an eastern European proposal, fathered in this country by American Jews, which, if it were to succeed, would cost the Jews of America most that they have gained of liberty, equality, and fraternity."

"I claim to speak with knowledge on this subject. I have had occasion to know the Jew intimately in all lands ... and to study his problems on his own ground. I was born among the Jews of Germany, and by natural association with German Jews in New York, and by repeated visits to Germany, am familiar with their life and problems."

"First, let me trace briefly the origins of Zionism. ... Zionism is based upon a literal acceptance of the promises made to the Jews by their prophets in the Old Testament, that Zion should be restored to them, and that they should resume their once glorious place as a peculiar people, singled out by God for His especial favor, exercising dominion over their neighbors in His name, and enjoying all the freedom and blessing of a race under the unique protection of the Almighty."

"Of course, the prophets meant these things symbolically, and were dealing only with the spiritual life. They did not mean earthly power or materialistic blessings. But most Jews accepted them in the physical sense; and they fed upon this glowing dream of earthly grandeur. ... We Jews of America have found America to be our Zion. Therefore, I refuse to allow myself to be called a Zionist. I am an American."

INVISIBLE GOV'T LEADS

It is too late now for such minor remedies. We must cut this whole cancerous conspiracy out of our government at once. Our only choice is to impeach President Truman and find out who is the secret invisible government which has so cleverly led our country down the road to destruction.

The Vanishing Americans Untold Fact In Forrestal Case

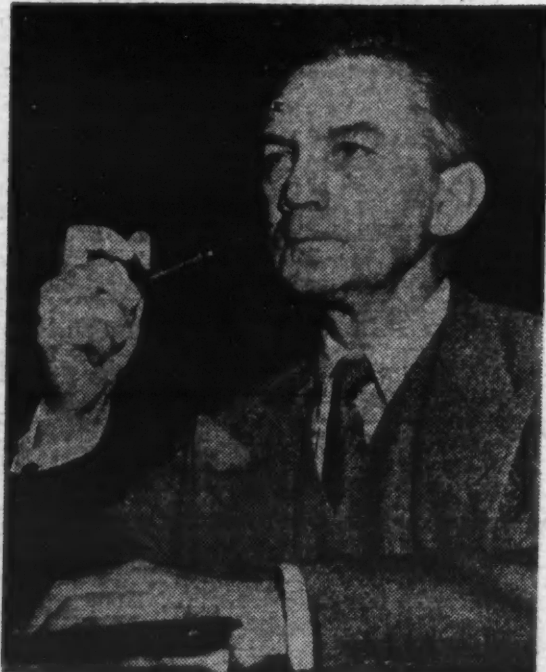

American leaders have been vanishing from the Washington scenes one by one since 1932 through various diabolical methods planned by the New Deal Commicrats and Zionists until today we are faced with the reality of having no leadership at all. Before General MacArthur was fired the invisible government managed to knock off every real American leader with little or no protest from the people. Through the control of the press, radio, T.V. and government controlled agencies the Zionists-Marxists maneuvered into key positions Pendergast men, Zionists, and Communists with a general plan of action to establish a Socialistic Welfare State through the means of bankruptcy, taxation and wars. The courageous leaders who have stood up to the representatives of the Invisible Government have been attacked so heavily and smeared so badly that only a few of them are left to talk about it. It is obvious to the writer that not all of these courageous men actually knew what they were fighting. They knew that there was coming to America an insidious movement alien to the freedoms which has made our country strong, but few of them knew that this movement was an Invisible Government conceived by the devil and fostered by the World Zionists. One of these brave leaders who failed to see the iron fist before the satin glove was removed was James V. Forrestal. We have reprinted the "Untold Facts in the Forrestal Case" from the American Mercury, Dec., 1950 to give the reader a concrete example of how the Invisible Government works in taking over a country.

"Untold Facts In Forrestal Case"

In the twenty months since the destruction of James Vincent Forrestal, there has been a creeping realization in this country that what happened was much more than a poignant personal tragedy—that it was an historic national disaster in which a patriot with vision was allowed to be done to death by lesser men.

The disaster is made apparent by events. Louis Johnson, for whose accommodation Forrestal was destroyed, has been loaded with sins and chased into the briar patch. We have suffered 64,000 now or more casualties in Korea who might have been spared had Forrestal's policies prevailed. Thoughtful Americans are, therefore, remembering that it was Forrestal who struggled to arm this nation for its commitments, and vs.

TO: THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES
The People of the UNITED STATES

HARRY S. TRUMAN, ET AL.
PETITION

Now comes Geo. W. Armstrong, and respectfully represents the following:

1. That President Harry S. Truman, Secretary of State Dean Acheson, and Justice of the Supreme Court Felix Frankfurter are traitors and should be impeached and prosecuted;
2. That the members of the firms of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and Lehman Bros. Co., and the members of the B'nai B'rith, Anti-Defamation League, Anti-Nazi League and American Jewish Committee are working with forces to overthrow this country and should be prosecuted.
3. That the Zionists are aliens and are citizens of the State of Israeli and that they are communists and should be banished;
4. That the purpose of said traitors and Zionists is to destroy our system of government, and create a Zionist super state; that in pursuance of said purpose they fraudulently established the United Nations and created the Atlantic Pact, and caused our government to intervene in the Korean war.

WHEREFORE, I pray you to impeach and prosecute the traitors and to cancel our membership in the United Nations and the Atlantic Pact. I respectfully submit the following brief and argument in support of these allegations.

Gen. MacArthur Understands The "Invisible Gov't"

By - Robert H. Williams

Editor of "Williams Intelligence Summary"

Whether MacArthur permits his name to be entered into the presidential campaign next year or tries to fade away into private life, he already has launched a long needed spiritual revival—a revival of personal honor and glorification of service to country characteristic of the Anglo-Saxon tradition.

Robert H. Williams

His appeal has been such as to awaken the old virtues—courage, love of country, integrity—and thus revives in the hearts of millions, the high regard for public service noteworthy in the example of George Washington. He has rallied a discouraged, confused and leaderless people in a revival of heroic Americanism which seems likely to sweep into oblivion the Democratic New Deal and Republic Me-Too internationalists.

The American people long had scanned the horizon for a savior. Most of them had not yet come to understand the alien character of the subversive invasion, but they knew that the White House and the State and Defense departments offended the nostrils. Mr. Truman could no longer hide the espionage, subversion and perversion of his Communist and Zionist backers behind his red herring. He no longer could pacify parents whose sons might be sacrificed in a needless and apparently endless "police action" in Korea.

COMMUNISTS SMEAR HIM

Representative Clarence Brown is an honest man. He stands for the principle—special privileges for none, equality of treatment for all. Accordingly, at the June 14th closed meeting of the Buchanan Committee he made what he considered to be a fair suggestion; he also may have signed his own political death warrant.

"I believe we should investigate the B'nai B'rith," Congressman Brown told his colleagues. "They are doing a lot of lobbying and are behind a lot of this stuff. They've been pretty active you know. I just can't conceive how you arrive at certain people and leave other people out."

"I am against anything like that," snapped Chairman Buchanan. "If we investigate one religious group, we'll have to investigate all the others." And that was the end of that.

Chairman Buchanan's argument was completely false. He knows better. The B'nai B'rith is not a religious group. It is a fraternal organization that is powerful in politics. It helped to elect Buchanan to Congress.

The Jewish Family Almanac says: B'nai B'rith does a great deal of important work in the political

THIRD ZIONIST WAR

Our present war with Russia and China is obviously our Third Zionist War. All three of them were for the same purpose, viz: to establish a Zionist World Empire. All of them were initiated by a shocking disaster to arouse us to war: the first one by the sinking of the passenger ship Lusitania; the second by the destruction of our Pacific fleet at Pearl Harbor; and the third by the Korean attack. The first resulted in the League of Nations, the second in the United Nations, and the third is obviously intended to convert it into a Zionist World Empire for the pretended purpose of preserving peace.

THE ZIONISTS OF NEW YORK AND MOSCOW INSTIGATED THE WAR

The North Koreans as well as the South Koreans are victims of the machinations of the Zionist communists. It is unfortunate that the Koreans must suffer. They have been betrayed into this fratricidal war by the Zionist communists of New York and Moscow. We should strike boldly to destroy the head of the snake and not its tails. Bomb Moscow with the atomic bomb and not the Chinese or the Koreans, and hang the New York and Washington Zionist traitors. There will never be peace on earth until Zionism is destroyed. Its mission is to destroy Christianity and to destroy and enslave Christians.

WHY THIS WAR?

The Zionists pretended that the Korean war was to establish free elections and a democratic government in Korea. They represented that the North Koreans are communists and the South Koreans are democrats. That is all we know about them. The North Koreans are savages and the South Koreans may be also. The North Koreans murder their prisoners and the South Koreans murder non-combatants, according to press reports. They fight to the death rather than surrender. It is at best a brutal savage war with savages, for the alleged purpose of compelling them to establish a democratic government. It is in fact a Zionist war for the purpose of establishing a Zionist Empire.

The armies of communist China joined the North Koreans and at this time (March 1, 1951) they are reported to be losing and retreating. Our casualties have been heavy and we appear to be in for a long destructive war. It may be a life and death struggle between Christians and communists, and between freedom and slavery.

While the President called our intervention "police action," his message to Congress and his press interviews and his conduct reveal it as war. It was necessary to color it as "police action" to give it the semblance of legality, for the President under our Constitution has no power to declare war; that is the exclusive province of Congress. It is in fact war, and a war initiated by the President and his advisers, Dean Acheson, Felix Frankfurter, David Niles, and other Zionist traitors.

We are a gullible, charitable, unsuspecting Christian people, and are easily deceived. We excuse Roosevelt because he was in poor health, and Truman because of his early training as a Pendergast ward heeler and because of his ignorance. But they both had sense enough to select their associates, and they both selected Hiss, Niles, Acheson, et al.

CHINESE NATIONALISTS

The Associated Press of Nov. 30, 1950 reported General Claire Chennault, retired, formerly of the Flying Tigers, as saying that the Chinese Nationalists are good soldiers and will fight with and for us; and that only 1% of the 450 million Chinese are communists. That is less than the percentage of traitors in our own country. He said also that Chiang Kai-Shek is a patriot of great integrity.

Chiang Kai-Shek offered to send 33,000 trained soldiers to Korea, which is more than all of the other 52 nations offered or contributed. Truman and Acheson not only rejected the offer but stationed a part of our Navy in the strait between China's mainland and Formosa on condition that the nationalists stay out of the war. In spite of it, the nationalists appear to be waging a successful guerilla war.

Truman and Acheson evidently plan to deliver Formosa and the Chinese nationalists to the communists through the United Nations or a four-or seven-power treaty. The British government is

DAVID NILES, ZIONIST, QUILTS

David K. Niles (Neyhus) was placed in the White House by the Zionists to see that F.D.R. carried out the Zionist plan. He stayed on to direct Truman in the plan to turn the entire world over to Zionist rule. From the White House he kept Felix Frankfurter informed on all important matters in which the Sanhedrin were interested. David Lilienthal, Louis Strauss, and Robert F. Bacher, Zionists, who fought to stay on the Atomic Energy Committee, also resigned after the Soviet Union secured the atomic secrets. Has Niles also completed his job? During the many years Niles has been advisor in the White House, it has been impossible to reach Truman with petitions or exposures affecting Communism. Truman has stated he does not read newspapers, listen to radio or television except when his daughter sings — apparently he has been a virtual prisoner hypnotized by Red Jewish advisors such as David Niles, Leon Keyserling, Presidential Economic Advisor, and Robert Nathan. Why is it that Zionist Jews are always the advisors and the government goes deeper and deeper in debt and makes blunder after blunder while Communism sweeps over the world.

a socialist, pro-Zionist government dominated by the Rothschild money trust, as is our own. It recognized communist China for the alleged purpose of protecting its interests in Hong Kong and Malaya. It would, no doubt, vote to deliver Formosa and the nationalists to the bolsheviks. France is at best an uncertain and unreliable member of the United Nations and the Atlantic Pact.

It is reported that the French have changed their government sixteen times since 1944. The government of France is now engaged in a losing war with the communists of Indonesia and want and need our help. The French and British governments are so indifferent to their own security as to oppose the re-armament of Germany, which is necessary for their protection. Both the French and British will agree to surrender Formosa to the communists if by doing so they can promote their commercial interests. They are not interested in protecting Formosa for the protection of the Chinese Nationalists or for our protection; nor are President Truman and Dean Acheson and Secretary of Defense George C. Marshall and the Zionists interested in doing so. They want to change our system of government and to establish a "welfare state."

Be it remembered that the Nationalist Government is in Formosa because of the treachery of our State Dept. We promised to furnish them munitions and supplies for waging their war against the communists on the mainland. They were compelled to go to Formosa because our State Department failed to carry out its agreement at a critical period of the war. It was cold-blooded treachery for the purpose of communizing China, for which no one has yet been punished.

It is the duty of the 82nd Congress to establish an impartial tribunal of competent men to ascertain the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth about the criminals who initiated the second world war and also the Korean war. They should be empowered to investigate the Zionists and their organizations, viz: the B'nai B'rith, Anti-Defamation League and Anti-Nazi League, et al. If they are found to be Communistic, their members should be banished.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE OF JULY 9, 1950

on July 19, 1950, requesting authority to mobilize the resources of the United States in support of the United Nations. In his message he said 52 of the 59 nations had pledged their support. He described our support of the South Koreans as "police action" to enforce the orders of the United Nations. On the request of President Truman the United Nations appointed General Douglas MacArthur commander of the United Nations Army. It is estimated that we supplied 150,000 combat troops, South Korea 100,000, all other countries 24,300; and that to date we have had about 50,000 casualties. This is more than twice the number of troops furnished by the other 52 nations of the United Nations that signed the resolution on Korea. It is estimated that we have furnished 95% of the supplies for the army. Less than a dozen nations have supplied anything.

The President, in his message to Congress of July 19th, said:

"Already aircraft of two nations: Australia and Great Britain, and naval vessels of five nations: Australia, Canada, Great Britain, the Netherlands and New Zealand, have been available, for operations in the Korean area."

He also said:

Roger N. Baldwin has been affiliated with 40 or more Communist-fronts in the United States, and it is only possible to guess at the status of ILRM.

The Vanishing Americans

Untold Fact In Forrestal Case

there is a growing inclination to look again at his crucifiers and their cloak-holders—at those whom Time Magazine identified as “disgruntled politicians, Communists, Zionists, and gossip columnists,” and whom The Saturday Evening Post labeled “an ill-assorted group of ideological libertarians.”

Much of the truth has thus far been suppressed, but the ghost of Jim Forrestal is not going to be laid until there are reasonable answers to such questions as these:

Why was the attack on Forrestal so reckless and sadistically savage?

Why have his papers been held secret?

Where is the report of those who investigated his death?

Why was the deposed Defense Secretary held a virtual prisoner at Bethesda Naval Hospital—a prisoner who could not be visited by his own priest?

The American people can expect some of the truth within the next few months. Unless the Administration can prevent it, there will be a Congressional investigation. There will be publication of such of the Forrestal papers as can be wrested from a Defense Department now headed by General George C. Marshall. Meanwhile, this most recent evidence gathered by The Mercury may be helpful.

The Communists, both American and European, had good reason to hate Jim Forrestal: he hated them. He emerged from the Second War dedicated to the destruction of Communism. He had opposed every concession to bring Russia into the war against Japan. He fought General Marshall's effort to force Chiang Kai-shek to coalesce with the Chinese Communists. He battled those men in the State Department who tried to give the Mediterranean to Russia. Forrestal sat up nights figuring ways to fight Communists. And he was not only willing to fight them fairly: he was willing to fight their way.

Such activities by the Defense Secretary were unknown to the American people, but they were well known to Communist agents in Washington. And these leaders hated and plotted against Forrestal because he hit them where they are weakest: in the venality of their own members. He showed them that two can play their game of justifying means with ends.

A complete report on this phase of Forrestal's tremendous activity will be instructive . . . and it will also explain some of the “sadistic savagery” of the attack on him.

While the Communists were plotting his political, if not his physical, death, Forrestal incurred the hatred of American Zionists. According to the Nation, the Zionists “deplored Forrestal's apparent willingness to place the oil of the Near East above the requirements of political justice in Palestine.”

Forrestal explained his position in a letter: “If we are to safeguard Western civilization in this crisis, the British and American fleets must have free access to Near Eastern oil. That is a fact, however unpleasant it may be. When there is a crisis aboard a submarine, we close bulkhead doors and drown a third of the crew in order to save the other two-thirds. I am interested in political justice in Palestine, but this interest must remain secondary to my primary interest, which is the protection of America and the West from the gravest threat we have ever faced. No minority has the right to jeopardize this nation for its own selfish interest.”

The Defense Secretary invited Leftist animosity when he opposed the “Morgenthau Plan” for the destruction of German industry. The plan is now almost universally acknowledged to have been ridiculous.

These twin positions caused a number of writers including Drew Pearson and Walter Winchell, to join in what The Saturday Evening Post described as “reckless and sadistically savage” attacks on Forrestal.

Despite the Zionist hatred of Forrestal, when the private money was being raised for the Italian and French crisis, Forrestal's Jewish friends contributed eagerly and generously.

In the fall of 1948, the rest of the United States was engaged in a political campaign, but Forrestal was engaged in a campaign against the Kremlin. It was the year of the Italian elections, the French strikes, the continuing unification battle, the Berlin blockade. Forrestal, with his incredible energy, worked night and day, including Sundays. In ten years in Washington he had three days vacation. He knew from intelligence reports that the Russians had ventured the Berlin blockade because the United States was in the turmoil of an election. He wanted desperately to keep the Defense Department out of the political campaign.

Forrestal was a Democrat. His father, an Irish Catholic contractor at Beacon, N. Y., had been a “Cleveland man.” Jim Forrestal, at Princeton, and during the years when he had made himself a millionaire in Wall Street, had remained a Democrat and a party contributor. At Roosevelt's invitation he had resigned his $180,000-a-year job in 1940 and plunged into public service with all his characteristic energy. He was admired by such diverse individuals as Harold Ickes and John D. Rockefeller Jr.

Forrestal's relations with Truman were friendly but not warm. Forrestal was no poker player, no political opportunist, no professional Legionnaire, no practitioner of the expedient: he was busy and serious. It is possible that he, with his first-rate brain and immense, world-wide experience, was somewhat contemptuous of Truman, but he never revealed it. Instead, even when the President flatly refused to support the $17-billion budget for the services, Forrestal did not resign but remained loyal.

However, as Defense Secretary in so dangerous a period, Forrestal was convinced that he should not take an active role in trying to re-elect Truman. This enraged the political gang around the White House. They reasoned in this manner: they needed money; Forrestal was the big shot in the Cabinet; he was a millionaire Wall Streeter; he had rich friends; he ought to raise money for Truman.

Thus began the slanders and libels that Forrestal was disloyal to Truman; that he had contributed nothing to the campaign; that he had made a deal with Dewey. All of these were lies. He was completely loyal. He contributed $6,000 of his own money to the campaign; he asked a number of his friends to contribute. Truman knew of his contribution; so did Louis Johnson. Two reputable Republicans can testify that he refused to discuss even the possibility of his remaining in a Dewey Cabinet. But dedicated as he was to the war against Communism, he did refuse to black-jack Defense Department suppliers for campaign funds.

One White House pseudo-military figure remarked: “Yeah, that rich s. o. b. has raised a million bucks to buy votes in Europe, but he's giving us chicken feed to buy votes for Truman.”

It would, perhaps, have been better for the country if Forrestal had called in his wealthy friends and explained that he had to raise a million dollars in order to safeguard his job. But he didn't; Louis Johnson did; so Johnson became the candidate of the Missouri Gang for Defense Secretary.

The day after Truman's inauguration in 1949, the campaign to “get Forrestal” was thrown into high gear. The country has seldom seen its like. The Communists, the “ideological libertarians,” the Missouri Gang and the columnists manned the mud buckets.

Forrestal was accused of having defrauded the Government in a tax case. He was, of course, a Fascist, a warmonger, a racist, a bedfellow of I. G. Farben and the German cartels, he bathed in oil—Near Eastern variety—and he smirked over the murder of Jewish babies by Arabs. He was a renegade Catholic; and, as a climax, Pearson reported that he was a personal coward, that he had once abandoned his wife to burglars and run out of the back of the house.

At the height of the campaign a New York publicity agent was heard reassuring a client: “Don't worry: that s. o. b. will crack up in thirty days. He can't take what we're dishing out to him.”

Why was it necessary for them to discredit Forrestal? He had tendered the customary resignation to Truman. Why didn't Truman just accept his resignation?

There are two explanations. In the first place, Truman had frightened Johnson by vacillating. When Forrestal had visited Truman after the inauguration, expecting to be fired, Truman had surprised him by saying: “Jim, I want you to stay with me. I know what you're doing, and I want you to stay on and complete the job. You have my complete support.”

Truman kept stalling Johnson during January and February, and there was one bitter night for Johnson in New York when he was convinced that Truman, like Roosevelt, had betrayed him and that he wouldn't get the job.

So, in the first place, Forrestal had to be discarded in order to safeguard the job for Johnson; and, in the second place, he had to be discredited in order to make it “politically safe” for Truman to fire him. In present-day politics you can't fire a man without first maligning him.

Under different circumstances Forrestal probably would not have been upset by vituperation. But he was now a dedicated man; he was emotionally involved in his crusade to make this country strong. He regarded Truman and Johnson as political opportunists, neither of whom would hesitate to trim sail in an adverse wind. He didn't believe that either Truman or Johnson understood the realities of the world conflict. He had dedicated himself to trying to increase this country's armed force; he had defied the pressure groups; and he felt, quite correctly, that Truman and Johnson would yield to the pressure groups and actually decrease the country's armed force.

This, of course, is exactly what Truman and Johnson did—once Forrestal was destroyed—and this is the essence of the Forrestal tragedy.

The conflict raged through January, February and March, for by the middle of January, Forrestal's friends had begun fighting back. They spent $35,000 trying to counteract the Winchell-Pearson campaign.

Forrestal's friends also tried to divide the pressure groups. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People had been brought in against Forrestal, with Walter White charging that the Defense Secretary had “delayed the end of segregation in the armed forces.” To counteract this, the Urban League, another organization aiding the cause of Negroes, came vigorously to Forrestal's defense. The Urban League had assisted Forrestal in combatting Communism among Negroes on our ships.

Responsible publishers tried to come to Forrestal's aid. Eugene Meyer dropped Pearson's anti-Forrestal columns from the Washington Post.

Because Forrestal had been reared in a Catholic home, then had drifted away from the church and married a divorcee, he was attacked as a “renegade Catholic.” The office of Cardinal Spellman, which perhaps had not been entirely unaware of Forrestal's efforts in Europe, rallied to his defense. To show that the church backed Forrestal, it was first planned to award him an honorary degree at Fordham, but this couldn't be done until May, and Forrestal needed help in March. So it was hastily arranged for him to address the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick in New York on St. Patrick's Day.

At the St. Patrick's Day dinner, Cardinal Spellman, lauding Forrestal, went to the unusual extent of endorsing universal military training. If the Defense Secretary, the Cardinal said in effect, believes that this measure is necessary in this grave hour, then he has my support.

Forrestal's address was a sad affair, for after ten weeks of such buffeting he was a fading man. Truman had demanded his resignation within forty-eight hours. He wanted the resignation to be as of April first, but he wanted it in hand within forty-eight hours. Forrestal's first decision was to state his case in a long letter and release it to the press, and he asked his advisors in New York to prepare such a letter. Then he changed his mind and dictated his own brief resignation.

During March Forrestal appeared dazed and depressed. His friends thought he might have been drugged. He talked sadly about how America was going the way of France; he predicted

THE KOREAN WAR WAS By Truman, Acheson, Marshall In

Their successful method has been "To talk one way, but do another." (Budenz testified that the secret formula agreed upon in Communist meetings with Lattimore was "That they would talk one way but do another.")

By this method of deception, they "talk against Communism, but act for it."

They have successfully deceived even their opponents, who have considered the Truman-Acheson-Marshall actions "bungling" whereas they have been "with design."

Truman-Acheson-Marshall have done everything to help Communism at home and abroad, namely:

1. Refused to discharge thousands of Communists on Government payrolls.
2. Refused to lock up a single Communist since passage of Communist Control Act (passed over veto) thereby allowing them to infiltrate our defense plants.
3. Hire to represent U.S. on United Nations, Gustavo Durand at $11,700 per year, who is a former head of a Russian Secret Police Society in Europe and who murdered Christians in Spain.

4. Refused to allow access to information in Government files in the trials of alleged Communists.
5. Tried to discredit the Hiss and Remington trials, calling them "red herrings."
6. Dumped into the sea 120,000 tons of ammunition (which we had stored in India after the last war) rather than give it to the Chinese Nationalists.
7. They gave China to the Communists in 1947 by sending Marshall there with the following instructions from Acheson, which Marshall carried out.
 - (a) Placed an embargo on American and British arms to Chinese Nationalists.
 - (b) Forced Chiang Kai-Shek to open the Kailashan Mountain Passes, through which Russian arms then flowed to the Chinese Communists.
 - (c) Forced Chiang Kai-Shek to reduce his army by one million men, most of whom then joined the Chinese Communist Army, to not be out of work.

(d) This resulted in victory for the Chinese Communists, and the retreat of the Chinese Nationalists to Formosa.

8. Truman-Acheson-Marshall made the Korean War as a "pretext" of fighting Communism, whereas they intend it to end in a Communist Asiatic victory over Korea, Indo-China, Thailand, Formosa, and finally over India and Japan.

(a) To bring on the Korean War, they purposely did not arm the South Koreans and withdrew our troops, altho they knew the Soviet Union armed the North Koreans.

(b) They would not heed Admiral Hillenkoetter's warning of invasion, but Acheson announced in Jan., 1950, that we would not defend Korea nor Formosa.

(c) They knew the Soviet Union would then attack via North Koreans, and Truman then put our troops there "without consent of Congress" in order to start the war as a "pretext" of fighting Communism, intending the Communists to win.

Third Zionist War

"This outright breach of the peace in violation of the United Nations Charter created a real and present danger to the security of every nation; . . . it was a clear challenge to the basic principles of the United Nations."

He also said:

"The speed, the scale and the co-ordination of the attack left no doubt that it had been plotted long in advance."

He said that the United States was "going to the aid of the nation (Korea) established and supported by the United Nations and unjustifiably attacked by an aggressor force."

He said further:

"For our part we shall continue to support the United Nations action to restore peace in the Korean area. . . We are determined to support the United Nations in its effort to restore peace and security. . . We have also taken action to bolster the military defenses of individual free nations, such as Greece, Turkey and Iran."

The President also said in this message:

"I will transmit to Congress specific requests for appropriations in the amount of ten billion dollars."

He asked Congress to enact legislation authorizing the government "to establish priorities and allocate such materials as necessary to promote the national security and the increase of taxes, as our basic weapon in offsetting the inflationary pressure exerted by enlarged government expenditures, and to control credit." He said further that "if a sharp rise in prices should make it necessary, I shall not hesitate to recommend the more drastic measures of price control and rationing."

These are the powers of a dictator which the President proposes to invoke to enforce the "police action" of the United Nations. If granted they will not end soon. Certainly not until the "police action" is ended. He obviously aspires to be our dictator.

The President's message was received with acclaim by Congress and the press. They approved the defiance of Russia and the apparent repudiation of the Asiatic program of the Secretary of State and the appointment of General MacArthur as Commander-in-Chief.

The President's message plainly implied that the Korean invasion has been and is being prosecuted and directed by the Kremlin. If so, it means a long and costly war. It may mean the death of millions of men and the probable destruction of our government.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Enclosed find $2.00 — one for a year's subscription for the name and address given, the other for one dollar's worth of issues on Anna Rosenberg. Your expose on both these traitors has been outstanding.

C. H. B., Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sid:

A friend has given me copies of your paper. Too bad every home in America can't be receiving it. Please enter my subscription and send special 12-page issue of October 15, 1950.

N. E., California

Dear Sir:

I have enjoyed reading COMMON SENSE, and feel that it is a blessing to many, as it has been to me. I would appreciate your permission to use certain articles in the small paper I publish.

B. B. B., Tennessee

Dear Mr. McGinley:

I received the 30 copies of COMMON SENSE and have mailed them out. Before I mailed them I wrote across the top: "Please do not destroy this. Give it, or mail it to someone. Be a worker in the fight against Communism. Make a list of names and addresses from a good directory and mail this copy to someone. Buy EXTRA COPIES and mail them out. The Communists have thousands of workers and we need thousands to defeat them."

W. McN., Ohio

Dear Mr. McGinley:

The situation grows worse with every hour. How can we expect to win this war with all the enemies in key positions in our government? Please send me copies of the January 1st issue; like to send it to Senators, etc. If women would rally together and organize the mothers and wives of servicemen they would do the job of cleaning house in Washington.

M. H., Fonda, New York

James W. Gerard, a former United States Ambassador to Germany, said on October 8, 1934:

"As a friend of the Jewish race, I want to state that, if ever the American nation gets the idea that the Jewish race and Communism are synonymous, there is the possibility of a pogrom in the United States that will make those of the Czars look like a small parade."

"We have exterminated the capitalists and property owners in Russia. We are going to do the same to the intelligentsia of Europe and America."

—Zinovief, Chairman of the Communist Third International (Congressional Record, Dec. 19, 1925)

Colonel Charles Lindbergh

Is our Lord using General MacArthur to give Christians an opportunity to save themselves from wholesale slaughter and brutal slavery? The destiny of world civilization now depends on the United States for it is the only country with sufficient strength to oppose organized world atheism.

General MacArthur has all the qualifications of a good leader. However, if it develops that he does not run for President, we should not be so foolish as to trust America's survival to a mere politician. There must be a crusade led by a man who cannot be bought or bluffed. Col. Charles Lindbergh and General MacArthur are made of the same kind of steel. The intelligence, character and backbone possessed by General MacArthur is fresh in the minds of all. Another good brain, combined with patriotic wisdom, honesty and courage, is that of Col. Lindbergh. Each of these men has many enemies — the same enemies, the enemies of freedom.

Marxism tolerates only those leaders who carry out its plan. World Zionism, backed by such powerful Jewish bankers as Kuhn, Loeb &

Secret Cooperation With Zionism

- (d) In order to arrange a Communist victory, they
- (1) Do not allow us to bomb Manchurian Communist Sanctuary.
- (2) Do not allow us air reconnaissance over Chinese coastal cities.
- (3) Do not allow our 7th Fleet to blockade Red China coast, which would stop the war by shutting off Red China's oil supply.
- (4) Do not allow 1,000,000 South Koreans of military age to have arms to fight, altho they are in training. Decree Americans must die instead.
- (5) Do not allow 600,000 Chinese Nationalists on Formosa to invade China.
- (6) Lattimore said "We must let South Korea fall, but don't ever let them know we pushed it."
- (7) When Asia has fallen to the Communists, Europe is next to fall.
9. Truman-Acheson-Marshall intend to make the European War as a "pretext" of fighting Communist victory in Europe.

- (a) Truman insists on his claim to the right to put troops in Europe without consent of Congress, just as he did in Korea, for purpose of starting the war.
- (b) That is why Truman-Acheson will not admit 1½ million willing Spaniards to a European Defense Army. They do not want us to win against Communism.
- (c) That is why they want us to be involved in a hopeless "Land War" in Europe, where the Soviet Union with 300 Divisions will wipe out 40 Allied Divisions.

To anyone but an idiot, it should be clear that "By talking one way but doing another" the Truman-Acheson-Marshall friends of Marxism, are turning over the world to Zionism in their long range plan, which started with the sell-out of China to the Communists in 1947. Their every action helps Communism, hurts our country. How long does it take you to see the real truth? Wake up, America, and put the deceivers in the penitentiary, for treason.

Ninety-nine percent of the people are for MacArthur, because he is for our country. Democrats who side with the Administration are not Democrats but friends of atheistic Communism.

Will we have an election in 1952? Not unless the traitors are locked up.

The secret plan of the Truman-Acheson-Marshall plotters is to keep the Korean War going by restrictions which prevent our winning it, and to thus use up our American manpower against the inexhaustible hordes of China and when America's manpower and money are gone, then the revolution, bloody or bloodless will take over in the U.S. America! Awake! Can't you see their plan! If you can't you are done. Judge by the record and you can come to no other conclusion.

General Douglas MacArthur

Co., Lehman Bros., Goldman Sachs, have subsidized and enslaved such dupes as Truman, Dean Acheson, General Marshall, General Bradley and General Collins to the extent that our military is controlled by anti-Christian Marxists such as Baruch, Anna Rosenberg, and Felix Frankfurter. Systematic persecution and smear, for the past eighteen years, has driven from public life those who were capable of national leadership.

Today this country has need of fearless, honest leaders. Men of the calibre of General MacArthur and Col. Lindbergh. Either of these patriots could be elected as President by making only six speeches — one in Boston, New York, Washington, Chicago, and in California and Texas. Real Americans stand up and be counted! Let us go on with the crusade for America!

(Readers will wonder why a later photograph of Col. Lindbergh was not used. When Col. Lindbergh mentioned who was pushing us into World War II to break down Europe for Communism, the Anti-Defamation League forbid the press to give publicity to Col. Lindbergh. Hence the difficulty in securing late pictures).

field, especially through its Anti-Defamation League."

Only two months before this Buchanan Committee meeting, B'nai B'rith was given an editorial dressing down by a leading New York newspaper, the Jewish Daily Forward, for the "pro-communism" and "libels against America" which appeared in its monthly magazine.

Communist elements are in control of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. It does yeoman service for the Communist cause. It maintains a lecture bureau that features Communist Party-line speakers. Its literature is authored by a stable of Communist frontiers. It breeds intolerance. It fosters bigotry and race and religious prejudice. It persecutes pro-Americans. Its principal targets are anti-Communist. Its weapon is the smear terror.

It is a Nazi-like, un-American Gestapo. It is a Jewish Ku Klux Klan.

But it is not representative of the Jewish community. Respectable Jews are ashamed of it. Alert Americans of the Hebrew faith bitterly denounce it.

It is by far the most anti-Semitic of any group in the country, because its activities do the gravest injury to the Jewish people.

It is headed by former New York Supreme Court Justice Meier Steinbrink, and has other substantial window dressing, but its controlling clique consists largely of thieves, spies, racketeers and character assassins.

Its principal mouthpieces and hatchet men are Walter Winchell, who has financed the distribution of Communist propaganda attacking the House Committee on Un-American Activities, Drew Pearson, who was recently accused in the Senate of using his column and broadcast in the service of the Communist Party, Robert Allen, whose column is composed mainly of Red-tinged smears of good Americans, and Frederick Wolfman, a Scripps-Howard feature writer who was kicked off the faculty of the University of Pittsburgh for his Red activities, and who, like the others, hides his Communist Party-line propaganda behind a lot of phony "Anti-Communist" double-talk.

During an interview at the time of the Buchanan hearings, Westbrook Pegler asked Chairman Buchanan why he did not investigate the Anti-Defamation League. In an unguarded moment Buchanan blurted out the truth. He said he "didn't dare."

Buchanan was perfectly right. The consequences of any attempt to investigate the Anti-Defamation League would have been devastating.

So the Buchanan Committee investigation ended without so much as a questionnaire's being sent to this super-lobby—with its annual budget of $7,000,000.

The Anti-Defamation League is the most powerful lobby—the most powerful and dangerous influence in the country. It is more powerful than the Congress of the United States.

On October 19, 1949 Representative John E. Rankin proposed an investigation of the ADL and offered a bill that would make it a criminal offense to belong to this organization under penalty of $500 fine and a year in jail. The bill died in committee.

Investigate the Communist-aiding Anti-Defamation League which was the real power behind the Buchanan Committee?

UN NEST OF SPIES

The U. S. Should Get Out of U. N. and Get the U. N. Out of U. S.

The U. N. was inspired and set up by Marxist plotters and traitors like Alger Hiss to level down all governments and establish a Marxist "world government" — World Slavery.

Trygve Lie, Secretary General (and in that capacity boss of the U. N.) is Stalin's errand boy. Although classified as a Norwegian, he has been placed in the position he holds by the Soviet Union.

It is reported that 83 percent of the U. N. Secretarial Staff are Yiddish Zionists.

The U. S. taxpayers have been tricked into paying almost the whole cost necessary to support the U.N. nest of traitors. The U.N. has not benefitted the U. S. in the least, but is constantly hatching new plans to spend America's money through the world. The U.N. has tricked American mothers into furnishing nearly all the boys now dying in Korea, 7000 miles away from home, while the U.N. keeps our hands tied in fighting Communist forces.

George Marshall, the political General who fronts for the Zionists, now reveals that it was the U.N. which voted to forbid General MacArthur's planned bombing of 200,000 Communist troops concentrated two miles behind the 38th parallel in Korea. That vast army of Communist forces, protected by the U.N., safely prepared to attack American sons who died by the thousands through the treachery of Dean Acheson, General Marshall and "Red Herring" Harry, with the cooperation of the U.N.

General MacArthur calls the war in Korea "the accordion war." It could also be called the "Traitor's accordion war."

The U.N. building should be locked up, and its traitors sent home. It is time to give America back to Americans!

The Vanishing Americans Untold Facts In Forrestal Case

that American troops would be fighting within a year.

He showed interest when friends discussed with him the proposed purchase of the New York Sun. It was their plan to make him editor of the Sun so that he could continue his fight against the Soviet threat. When he went to Florida it was with the understanding that he would become editor of the Sun after his recuperation.

On April first Forrestal attended the mammoth swearing-in ceremonies for Johnson. He wept openly. The President insisted on decorating him—and Forrestal wept while the President was pinning on the medal, for he considered the gesture an insult. He walked back with Admiral Denfeld, weeping, and he told the Admiral that he was going down to Florida to play some golf.

On April fifth, there was a telephone call from Ferdinand Eberstadt in Washington to Robert A. Lovett in Hobe Sound, Florida. Mr. Eberstadt reported that Forrestal was ill.

"Is he very ill?" Mr. Lovett inquired.

"He is very, very ill," Mr. Eberstadt replied.

Four hours later, just at dusk, the big Air Force Constellation the Dew Drop, circled and landed at a small, deserted field near Hobe Sound. Waiting was a single automobile in which were Mr. and Mrs. Lovett and Mrs. Forrestal. The door of the airplane was opened, the small ladder dropped.

"I looked up there and saw him standing in the door," Mr. Lovett recalls, "and he looked so pitiful. He was alone. And he didn't look like the man I had known at all. He looked like a little, old Irishman. His eyes were sunk, and I couldn't see his upper lip. As he came stumbling down that ladder I reached up and caught him under the arms."

After he had greeted the two women, Forrestal stood under the tail of the airplane and told Mr. Lovett that "they had gotten him, that he was being followed, that his telephones were tapped, and he broke into tears as he said: 'They're going to catch us unprepared, Bob; America is going the way of France.'"

During the evening he was quiet, but next day he was worse. Mr. Lovett telephoned Washington and Forrestal's personal attorney, John Cahill, of New York, arrived with Dr. William Menninger and Dr. George Raines. The illness was diagnosed as "occupational fatigue," and Forrestal was returned to Bethesda Naval Hospital.

Just what happened during the seven weeks Forrestal was at Bethesda may never be known, but here are a few of the strange, human, and tragic developments.

Forrestal, in his 16th floor suite, spent most of his time entirely alone. Mrs. Forrestal sailed for Europe on April 12th.

Two of the persons who visited the hospital and who were most interested in Forrestal were his older brother, Henry Forrestal, of Beacon, N.Y., and Monsignor Maurice S. Sheehy, of Catholic University, Washington. Henry Forrestal lives at the Forrestal home place and is a highly respected citizen. Father Sheehy, a Navy chaplain, was one of Jim Forrestal's closest friends.

Early in 1949, Forrestal had asked Father Sheehy, along with Henry Forrestal, to help him return to the Catholic Church. To facilitate this return, some investigation had to be made into Mrs. Forrestal's previous divorce, and this investigation was conducted by Henry Forrestal.

Forrestal was admitted to the hospital by Captain B. W. Hogan, and Captain Hogan noted that Forrestal insisted on being listed as a Catholic. His first request was to see Father Sheehy, for reasons not yet explained, Captain Raines, the psychiatrist in charge, refused this request.

On April 12th, Henry Forrestal visited the hospital and talked with his brother as well as with Captain Hogan and Raines.

"Jim looked much better than I expected," Henry Forrestal recalls. "His eyes seemed clear; he was sharp and incisive. He told me: 'I'll be all right. We'll pull out of this.'"

What worried Henry Forrestal was the confinement in Bethesda. He told Captains Hogan and Raines: "What my brother needs is not to be cooped up there on the 16th floor. He needs to be on an estate somewhere, among friends, where he can walk around in the sun. He has been an exceedingly active man."

Mr. Forrestal asked Captain Raines: "Is my brother fundamentally okay?" Captain Raines answered: "Yes."

Henry Forrestal also told the doctors that his brother wished to talk with Father Sheehy. Captain Hogan replied, according to Mr. Forrestal: "Yes, he has asked to see the Father several times. And, of course, he will."

On May 10th, 11th and 12th Henry Forrestal again visited the hospital. Meanwhile Father Sheehy had visited the hospital six times, each time asking to be allowed to see Forrestal and each time being denied permission by Captain Raines.

Henry Forrestal confronted Captain Raines and requested an explanation. Captain Raines, according to Mr. Forrestal, admitted that Forrestal had asked to see the priest. But Captain Raines wanted the priest to wait.

"How long do you want to wait, doctor?" Mr. Forrestal asked. "We have waited five weeks. Delays in such cases can be dangerous. Have you ever heard of a case where being visited by a clergyman has hurt a man?"

Father Sheehy, who is built along the lines of a Notre Dame fullback, is no man to be put off easily. After arguments with Captain Raines, Father Sheehy got the impression that Raines was under some sort of orders in the case, so he went to John L. Sullivan, Secretary of the Navy. Sullivan called Dr. Raines and was assured that Father Sheehy could see the patient "in time."

Henry Forrestal was also determined to obtain his brother's release from Bethesda. He felt that if he could get Forrestal out in the sun, on some estate, and allow Father Sheehy to talk with him, that he would recover quickly.

Father Sheehy, in opposing Dr. Raines, recalled statements by Dr. Jung to the effect that "out of hundreds of patients there was not one whose problem in the last resort was not that of finding a religious outlook on life. And again: 'No patient has been really healed who did not regain his religious outlook.'"

For Sunday, May twenty-second, Henry Forrestal had a travel reservation to Washington. He was going to make another effort to obtain his brother's release from Bethesda.

But it was too late. At 1:45 a.m. on Sunday, May twenty-second, Jim Forrestal escaped from his sixteenth floor prison to his death.

When he was buried in Arlington, Truman declared: "This great American was as truly a casualty of the war as if he had died on the firing line."

Father Sheehy declares: "Had I been allowed to see my friend, Jim Forrestal, receive him back in the Church, and put his mind at ease with the oldest and most reliable medicine known to mankind, he would be alive today. His blood is on the heads of those who kept me from seeing him."

Dr. Raines has nothing to say, though a formal demand has been made on the Navy by members of Congress for an explanation as to why Forrestal was denied the comfort of his friend and spiritual adviser.

Meanwhile, the people of the United States have paid in blood for the political opportunism which destroyed Forrestal. In a few years perhaps a monument may be erected to him, and a suitable inscription might be:

"Here lies a patriot who also possessed vision. In a period of crisis for his nation, when mediocrity was enthroned in Washington, he stood forth as a first-rate mind, a dedicated spirit, an inspiring Renaissance man who understood the realities of the world in which he lived, and who, scorning the opportunism, gave his energy, his mind and his life."

—William Bradford Huie.

General Dwight Eisenhower

General Dwight Eisenhower, the politician who has been tamed and harnessed by the Zionist Invisible Government, — they own him. During World War II Eisenhower gave the order for our army in Germany to back up from Berlin and wait until the ape-men from the Soviet Union could rape the German women, carry off valuables, machinery, etc. in the thousands of lend-lease trucks Harry Hopkins and other traitors in our government had maneuvered to Communist U.S.S.R. He was an important factor in imposing insane "unconditional surrender" on Germany — now he wants the German people to trust him. This is the Ike who, while President of Columbia University, turned the Polish language department over to Communism causing Professor Coleman to resign. The Zionist masterminds are cleverly building up Eisenhower for President; it makes little difference to them whether he runs as a Democrat or a Republican. Eisenhower himself does not know which he is. He is a Marxist stooge and would make a more dangerous president than "grasshopper" Truman.

Mr. Gunther: Your Pink Is Showing!

Gunther is an individual who writes books such as "Inside Latin America," "Inside Europe," "Inside Asia," and "The Riddle of MacArthur." He should write one on "Inside Zionism."

In a very clever way, Gunther slants his books towards Communism—he criticizes Communism 10% and praises the Communist program 90% without openly admiring Communism.

It is always interesting to know the background connections of the bright fellows who manage to keep on the popular side while slyly plugging for world Marxism. It helps complete the picture, and show what group really launches the Marxist plans and "brotherhood" propaganda to keep Christians tolerant, quiet, and naive.

While the Gunthers lived in Russia, Mrs. Gunther told a very reliable source that her husband is part Jewish. Of course, she meant Yiddish, for those natives of Russia, who call themselves Jews are actually Khazars, or Yiddish.

It is the Yiddish-Khazar group (working under the pretention that they are true Jews) which created Bolshevism—now called Communism.

John Gunther, of course, like many other Marxists, has made much money injecting poison into the minds of people who do little thinking of their own. It should be enough for most Americans that Gunther's books have been praised by the Communist British Jew, Harold J. Laski, and the American Jewish radical, Clifton Fadiman.

become the recognized leader of the opposition but for Truman's myopic and vengeful firing of him. Both Roosevelt and Truman had followed a policy of allowing the potential memesis a comparatively free hand in the Far East to keep him from resigning and coming home. They seemed to recognize that there was not room for a MacArthur-at-large and the internationalist New Deal inside the same United States.

Some of us thought in 1948 that MacArthur was the man to save the Republic. It was privilege to be one of the volunteer lecturers urging his nomination for President and my wife was secretary of the MacArthur-for-President Club (of which the gracious and eloquent Louise Ward Watkins of Pasadena was president). President or not, MacArthur already is the leader we need.

No other man in our time has been the target of such a long and intense smear campaign. A former Communist named Pate, now anti-Communist, about two years ago revealed the origin of the smear. Pate said that in 1932 he was one of the Communist organizers of the Bonus Marchers, their original purpose being to discredit President Hoover (and thus make way for a candidate friendly to Communism).

You may recall that the Bonus Marchers got out of hand and finally some Washington, D. C., police fired on them. Four hours later President Hoover ordered the Chief of the Army Staff, Douglas MacArthur, to move them off the unsanitary Anacostia flats and out of the nation's capital.

MacArthur went among the Communist-incited vets, unarmed and without a guard. He found some who had served under him in the first world war and struck up a conversation with them. He emptied his pockets to buy food for their wives and children. And his troops moved them without firing a shot, despite frantic incitation to violence by vet leaders not then known to be Communists.

Pate said that he and comrades, taking orders by telephone from an "invisible" superior named Levine, launched a flock of deliberate fabrications to cut down the man who had shown such leadership. They and the infiltrated press said it was MacArthur who had ordered the firing on the veterans. They ridiculed his immaculate dress, though it is a point of pride with any good soldier to be immaculate. The tales spread and grew, and never were allowed to die.

During the recent war, though MacArthur was needed by the Communists and their New Deal front to save them, he was personally vilified because he was recognized as a potential rival of Roosevelt. All over the scattered islands of the Southwest Pacific, American soldiers suddenly broke out in a chorus of anti-MacArthur blurbs. They called him Dugout Doug. They recited a jingle ridiculing his inspiring promise, "I shall return." They said he ran away from his command at Bataan, though actually he had refused to leave till Roosevelt ordered him out and sent a PT boat to get him. They said he and Mrs. MacArthur had taken a cargo of luxuries aboard with them instead of using the space to evacuate personnel, but the fact is, they took hardly a change of clothing.

It was no accident that tens of thousands of soldiers on scores of islands scattered over a wide ocean suddenly began rhyming the same rhymes at the same time. Such campaigns originated largely in New York City, whence Communist wives and molls sent their letters to their soldiers on the islands. As the Counter Intelligence officer for a B-29 wing on Guam, I saw a similar stream of letters from Communist women in New York to their men in our unit, keeping them posted on the Communist "line."

The Hearst newspapers of April 23, 1951, quoted Prof. Louis Budenz, ex-Communist, in revealing how the Communist Party conducted the smear-MacArthur campaign from 1945 on. Budenz was editor of the Daily Worker in 1945 and thus was the central figure, or figurehead, in the smear operation.

The Hearst papers recently revealed also that President Truman now has put the Pentagon to work digging into every minute detail of the private and professional life of MacArthur for mater-

Scouting Around

By - F. L. Britton

John Garfield

It's an ironic fact that while anti-Communist sentiment is on the increase throughout the country, the House Committee on un-American Activities—which did so much to expose Communism in former years—is now falling down on the job. Although it has not been noticed by the national press, the present Committee is obviously an emasculated shadow of its former self.

Actually, recent hearings have uncovered little new about Communist activity, contrary to what the headlines would indicate. The rather impressive appearing list of Communist-fronters, released for publication in March of this year, is a re-hash of a list first published by the Committee in April 1949—almost two years ago.

Strangely, the Committee seems more anxious to clear suspected Commies of the now unprofitable Red taint than in digging up new evidence against them. All this supports the belief that the New Deal faction is using the Committee and its enormous prestige to undo some of the damage inflicted on the Reds in former years. Best example of this is the way the Committee handled the Larry Parks case.

Parks (star of The Jolson Story) admitted before the Committee that he had been a party member for four years, but disclaimed any sympathy for Communism since 1945. This is in line with present party strategy. Posing as a young man with liberal ideas who had been taken in by the Reds, Parks pitifully begged the Committee: "Don't make me crawl in the mud." This, while thousands of G.I.'s were dying in the mud of Korea!

The sickening part of it all came when the Committee's Congressman Velde actually praised Parks for his "cooperation" and expressed the hope that his career would not suffer from the investigation. It was later brought out (but not by the Committee) that this Yiddish actor had engaged in pro-Communist activity as late as 1947 by campaigning to raise funds for the defense of the "Hollywood Ten"; nine of whom, incidentally, are Jewish.

The John Garfield incident is another example of the Committee's peculiar behavior. Garfield (JULIUS GARFINKLE) was given the opportunity to use the Committee as a platform from which to broadcast his "innocence." To hear Garfield tell it, he has no love for Communism, never did, thinks it is un-American, etc., etc. But the record shows he has belonged to no less than 11 Communist-front organizations; a fact which the Committee apparently ignored.

Communism is bad news at the box office these days. Obviously, both Larry Parks and John Garfield are aching in the pocketbook, but just why the Committee feels impelled to relieve their agony is hard to understand.

Now Louella Parsons has come up with the brilliant suggestion that the Committee clear Edward G. Robinson (EM-MANUEL GOLDENBERG) of the Red taint. Robinson has belonged to 15 Communist-front organizations by the last count. Our Culture Jewish Controlled

It isn't generally known, but the fact is that America's culture (as well as her cultural outlets) has fallen almost completely under Jewish domination. For example, RCA Victor, subsidiary of the Jew-owned Radio Corporation of America, recently published a 76-page booklet for America's music lovers entitled "Words and Music."

They list the following soloists as the five prominent violinists in the country: Fritz Kreisler, Mischa Elman, Jascha Heifetz, Yehudi Menuhin, Nathan Milstein—all Jews. Not a single Gentile violinist is named in the booklet. Mentioned also are 19 outstanding harpsichordists and pianists—Alexander Brailowsky, Vladimir Horowitz, Wanda Landowska, Artur Schnabel, etc. Of the 19 listed, 12 are known to be Jews.

Incidentally, of the 26 major symphony orchestras in the U.S., 13 have Jewish conductors. If the Boston Pops and the NBC Symphony are included (neither technically a major orchestra) the count is 15 out of 27. These Jews are not contributing to our culture, they are strangling it.

Two of the main cultural outlets, Columbia Broadcasting Company (CBS) and National Broadcasting Company (NBC) are Jew controlled. And, did you know that the Yiddish Shubert family has controlled the legitimate theatre in America for almost 5 years? Did you know that Jew-controlled corporations dominate the movie industry? More of that in another issue . . .

ial which can be used to discredit him. We suspect that this is the Anti-Defamation League's David K. Niles, adviser to Mr. Truman, who is using the presidential office to further the Communist campaign of "character assassination", and we see that Drew Pearson and Zionist Senator Lehman malign MacArthur, while nearly all the Jewish papers smear or give him the silent treatment.

The newest smear "line" is that MacArthur as President would be a "man on horseback" a military dictator.

MacArthur will survive this campaign, too. He is too big for the gutter-sniping enemy.

A good many people have asked whether or not MacArthur understands the nature of the Communist conspiracy. One of his letters, published by the Los Angeles Examiner in March, 1948, seems to answer their question. In that letter the potential presidential candidate challenged the power of "any segment of our society designed to impose upon us an invisible form of government" and committed himself to "seek an America rededicated to our traditional concept of majority rule."

Regarding the smear technique he wrote: "I have long understood the nature of the forces that would be unleashed against me were I to indicate my readiness to answer any call to duty. . . The American Communist Party through its leader on December 8, last, publicly named me the primary target of the Communist attack. . . This is the identical minority tactics of the Communist attack. . . This is the identical minority tactics before which men have yielded in eastern Europe and governments have fallen and freedom has perished. . . ."

"It was not for me to yield before such pressure, as to have done so would have been a shameful betrayal of the immutable concepts for which our country stands. . . Rather was it because of this very threatened pressure that my decision was reached to make unmistakably clear my continuous readiness for public service."

These are the fighting words of a general who understands the enemy and who knows that the best defense is to attack. The Korean problem is only a small part of the world problem. An aroused public likely will force Truman to allow Chiang-Kai Shek to fight for the liberation of his own country against the Communist imposters. That will immediately force Stalin to pull Chinese Communists out of Korea to defend the China mainland. This single reversal of policy by Truman would give us a victory almost immediately in Korea.

But MacArthur will not then fade away. He said at Chicago the thing we have wanted to hear him say: "I shall fight . . . Communism as long as God gives me the strength to fight."

God give him strength!

There died a hundred Yanks!

All hail Red Herring Harry,
A patriot (?) bold and brave,
A man who held to politics
As our son lay in his grave!

And forever shall we remember
That little man who failed,
As in his heart he quailed.

When, some day in the future,
We weep o'er our hero dead,
Mothers of America, remember
The man who played it Red!

Red Zionists Control Key Governmental Positions For Take Over As World War III Approaches

Recent news dispatches disclose that administration forces in Congress have rallied for an all-out drive to get through a tightened economic controls law, fortified by a letter from Bernard Baruch and a statement from President Truman. New York's Senator, Herbert Lehman, has also "warned" that controls over prices, credits, rents, wages, and materials must be enacted.

The invisible government has spoken. It now merely remains for the stooges to act.

Under the pretext of "war emergency," the Zionists are doing all they can to scare, confuse and regiment the American public. A full scale war is unnecessary if the controls can be clamped on unsuspecting citizens, for, by the time those citizens gain awareness, the American Republic will be fully Communized.

The first, and possibly the greatest, of the invisible government is undoubtedly the wiley Baruch. He went with Wilson to the Peace Conference of 1919 and has, since that time, remained "adviser" to five presidents—Harding, Coolidge, Hoover, Roosevelt and Truman. It should, by this time, begin to become obvious to the American public that something is amiss when an individual elected to no office, continually has a "hand in" the workings of a government. Repeatedly, there is seen this influence on United States' affairs by a non-elected, non-accountable, non supervisable individual. Why? Can it be that Americans are totally oblivious to the part Baruch has played in all the misfortunes which have beset the United States?

During World War I, Baruch was chairman of a War Industries Board which wielded great power. When, after the war, a Congressional Committee inquired into the use of the authority held by that Board, Baruch was asked if he determined what everybody could have. He answered: "There is no question about that. I assumed responsibility . . . the final determination rested with me."

The Committee also asked if it had been in Baruch's power to decide where supplies would go—to Russia, France, how many locomotives to each country—and if "all those different lines really, ultimately, centered in you, so far as power was concerned." Baruch answered: "Yes, sir, it did. I probably had more than perhaps any other man did in the war; doubtless that is true."

Following World War II, Baruch became head of the Atomic Development Authority. His plan was that ADA (a small committee, composed mostly of Zionists) should have a world monopoly of atom bombs, and supreme power to drop them on any "who violate the agreements reached by other nations." It was a devastating power, placed in the hands of a Zionist. Why?

Can it be that Americans are completely witless? Is it not within the comprehension of almost the most stupid that, during Baruch's "advisorship" the United States has been going downhill? While the Zionist press bally-hoos the "greatness" of Baruch and he is reported as the most wonderful of advisers, America has had war, depression, war, more war, the highest taxes in the

The United Nations is a sham and a fraud, designed and promoted by traitors and scalawags for the purpose of destroying our government and merging it into a Zionist World Empire and dictatorship. The annual cost of the United Nations is estimated at $100,000,000.00. The United States is assessed 40 per cent of it, Britain 11 per cent, Russia only 7 per cent, and the remaining 44 per cent is divided among all the other nations. We are underwriting the outfit and probably paying the greater part of its cost.

George W. Armstrong

We have financed the Korean War and supplied about 150,000 troops, the other countries of the U. N. an estimated 24,300. We have suffered about 50,000 casualties and they are increasing daily. There are no reported losses for any other country except about 200 to Great Britain. Our casualty and financial cost for this alleged "police action" are more than the casualty list and cost of our first three wars, viz: the American Revolution, the British War of 1812, and the War with Spain; the total casualties of these three wars are estimated at 28,000.

The United Nations was conceived by the traitor Roosevelt and his Zionist assistants and written by the traitors Pasvolsky, Hiss, and other Zionists of the State Department. It is "a snare and a delusion," and a very

We Have A Leader

During the last ten years, while we saw our country steadily passing into Socialism and slavery, the remarks have been made thousands of times: "We have no leader," "We need a leader," "There is no one to lead us". Now, the leader who was so badly needed has appeared, and we should be happy even though it is the twelfth hour for the United States. I do not have the words to express the greatness of General Douglas MacArthur. It is enough to say that I find myself almost worshipping him. Surely there has not been produced, in my lifetime, another American of his ability as a military strategist — a man of such courage, honesty and integrity.

Prior to the development of the international, world-wide revolutionary group, General MacArthur would have had full knowledge of how to defend and save our country. But something alien is abroad in the world which bypasses or defeats regular military strategy. This is an entirely different problem than that for which a military man has been trained.

To get the proper viewpoint, visualize Gen. MacArthur in his headquarters in the Pacific receiving the report that a scourge of rats had infested the quarters. He would not call for his Intelligence Service, or his top officers, or his Medical Department for they would face something for which they were not trained. He would call in a trained exterminator who had studied rats, and their habits, and knew how to exterminate them quickly and effectively.

General MacArthur, in his appearance before the Senate Armed Service Committee, stated that he believed that Korea and Red China could be defeated and we could still avoid the tragedy of World War III. Those few of us who have devoted many years to the study of the Asiatic group responsible for all revolutionary movements, efforts to overthrow governments, and created wars, knew from the time our forces entered the war in Korea that Red China would siphon troops into Korea. We knew that if the war developed to the point where Red China was forced to reveal its hand, and it seemed likely that the United States would defeat Red China, other forces—under orders from the Soviet Union and directed by world leaders in Marxism—would, if necessary, use their entire Communist-dominated recruits all over the world to support Red China.

If General MacArthur and his trusted advisers understood the following they would have full knowledge of the "hidden enemy" to be fought, and would be in a position to lead not only good Americans, but the entire anti-Communist world. It is necessary to know that the worldwide, atheistic Marxist set-up is composed mainly of Asiatics, known as Khazars, who originated in that part of Asia which has now been cut up into parts of Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, and the Soviet Union.

In the 7th century those Khazars adopted Judaism, established the Yiddish language, and followed the Talmud as their Bible. That group made efforts to force the Talmud on the Russian people over a period of several hundred years causing wars and pogroms in Russia. BE IT UNDERSTOOD THAT THE TALMUD VIOLATES THE MORAL AND CRIMINAL CODES OF ALL CIVILIZED COUNTRIES. IT TEACHES HATE OF CHRISTIAN GOVERNMENTS. European pogroms became so ruthless that, beginning about 1865, millions of Khazars moved into the United States and other sections of the world. Because of their adoption of the Jewish Talmud, those Asiatics were known as Jews.

In 1917, with the financial assistance of Jacob Schiff, president of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and others in America known as Jews, 276 Yiddish Khazars, under the supervision of Trotsky (Bronstein) left New York for Russia and organized the revolution which overthrew the provisional Russian government headed by Kerensky. The Overman Report, as presented to the U. S. Senate in 1919, stated that of the 388 members of the first central government in St. Petersburg, 371 were Jews; one was "a Negro from America who calls himself Professor Gordon," and only 16 were "real Russians."

The Yiddish Khazars, who use the Talmud as their Bible, are taught from childhood that the teachings of Jesus Christ must be wiped from the face of the earth before there can be peace, and that Jesus Christ is responsible for all their troubles. Those Yiddish Khazars, who call themselves Jews, felt that Russia with 180 million people and the large Yiddish population, which was used to overthrow the government, would be the nucleus for their drive for world-wide control and the elimination of Christianity. They created Communism as a front to be used to pyramid their strength, and thus bring in the laboring men of Unions, which the Yiddish primarily control. They then sent their emissaries into countries all over the world to bore into governments, labor organizations, church groups, schools, and colleges. They implanted Marxist teachings wherever they went.

About 1936 when those Communists, directed by the Yiddish in Russia, were ready to move out across their border to take over other countries, they found Germany alert to their plans and refusing them an opportunity to branch out. However, Communists in Russia began siphoning thousands of Yiddish, or so-called Jews, into Germany with the ultimate purpose of overthrowing Germany from the inside. The German government, believing that they were about to be forced into a war with the Soviet Union, and knowing their country was saturated with Yiddish Communists, fine-combed Germany and placed many of the disloyal persons in concentration camps in order to prepare a united front against their outside enemy... the Soviet Union. The Yiddish then began leaving Germany. They scattered into various countries screaming that they were persecuted because of their "religion." Thousands of Marxist Yiddishers, of whom Albert Einstein is one example, came into the United States, and at once began propagandizing and pushing us into war in order to crush Germany, thus permitting Communism to sweep across Europe.

Previous to this, in 1936, anti-Christian Communists in Spain had developed a revolution and taken over that country with the assistance of brigades sent from 51 other countries. General Franco, with assistance from Italy and Germany, defeated the Communists, and drove them from Spain.

Communist Jews in the United States, with F. D. R. as their principal stooge, secured control of our government and placed Henry Morgenthau, Jr., in charge of our Treasury Department. Felix Frankfurter placed his Marxist students in key posts in the government and, although a poll taken by the New York News indicated that only 17 per cent of the people of the U.S. favored war, the Zionist groups which controlled and pressured our government, screamed for war with Germany. Men, such as Col. Charles E. Lindbergh, who called attention to the fact that the Jews were shoving us into war, were smeared by the Communist Jews. Millions of Christian boys were loaded on ships and sent overseas to break down Europe. America spent 350 billion dollars, lost thousands of lives, bombed millions of innocent people, destroyed cities which had no war potential whatsoever, and then held out for unconditional surrender, along with installation of the Morgenthau slavery plan, disregarding completely all such wise counsel as that of Col. Lindbergh who advised a negotiated peace.

Through the efforts of characters like Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Felix Frankfurter (using stooges F. D. R., Gen. Marshall, and Dwight Eisenhower) our army was ordered back from Berlin, allowing the horde of ape-men in the Soviet Union army three weeks to rape, loot, and carry from Berlin everything valuable. The loot was loaded into thousands of trucks which the U. S. taxpayers had bought and paid for through "Lend Lease," and hauled into the Soviet Union. Zionist Henry Morgenthau, Jr., and his assistant, Zionist Dexter White (Weiss) turned the master plates for printing American money over to the Communists, allowing them to print unlimited quantities of currency for their soldiers to spend throughout occupied Germany. It was money which had to be redeemed by the U. S. government.

Today, Germany is crushed and at the mercy of Communism; the British Empire is nearly wrecked and trembling before atheistic Communism. Practically all of Europe has been subdued and is now ruled by Communist-Zionists. (The names of those Communist-Zionist rulers has been published many times in COMMON SENSE. Copies are available for the asking—request Issue No. 128)

Through the world network of Communists, such as the hundreds that have infiltrated America's State Department (which is ruled by Felix Frankfurter through his appointees) 500 million people in China have been turned over to Communism. The Zionist-Communism plan is to add the remaining Chinese under Chiang Kai-Shek in Formosa, then turn Japan over to Communism. They plan to steadily take one chunk of the world at a time while Marxists in the United States work to do the same thing in our country. They have almost succeeded!

General MacArthur, unlike Eisenhower, Marshall, and other Communist stooges, who allowed Europe to be taken over by the Communists, stood as stone against Red efforts to implant Communism in the Pacific. Japan, and the entire Pacific, could not be taken by Communists until General MacArthur was removed. (In the office of COMMON SENSE we have Jewish papers, dating back six years, which smeared MacArthur during all that time.) Louis Bundenz, in a recent article, told that seven years ago Alexander Bittleman, and other Jews, at a secret meeting of Communists, stated that orders were given to smear MacArthur out of the Pacific.

It is not reasonable to believe that this Communist plan of world conquest, after succeeding to this point, even if defeated in Korea or China by the United States, would cause the Marxists to drop their plans and admit defeat. Marxists have been trained to fight to the death; and Americans must keep in mind that the driving power behind Marxism is derived from the Talmud which is taught to the Yiddish (so-called Jews) from childhood.

Only those who have studied the Soncino edition of the Talmud can understand the Zionists' ruthless hatred for Christians and their determination to exterminate Christians, regardless of means used.

To defeat the Communists in Korea or China will probably cause the Marxists to order Communist forces to move in Europe, bringing on World War III. If that happens, millions of Eastern European and Asiatic Marxists brought into the United States during the last six years, for the purpose of revolution, will go into action immediately, touching off disaster here. If we withdraw from Korea, they will, of course, take over Formosa, Japan and the entire Pacific. Following Communist take-over of the Pacific, South America will be next. Here, it may be well to quote from "Unity in Dispersion" published by the World Jewish Congress in 1948. On page 377, that book states: "Quite different is the problem of the Jews from Germany. The majority of German Jews succeeded in leaving Germany before the war broke out and a substantial number of them settled in Latin American countries. These sections of our people have organized themselves with skill and discipline and built up new economic positions."

The eventual plan, of course, is to eliminate all Christian civilization.

It takes courage to even discuss what is necessary to save the United States at this late date. In some way our great Republic must be fine-combed and the millions of disloyal people, who have come into America legally or illegally, must be put behind barbed wire. The same treatment must be given those native-born Communists who have been indoctrinated and place the welfare of the U. S. S. R. over that of our United States. All government national, state, and city offices must be cleansed of the disloyal persons so that American can reorganize itself and present a united, American front to the enemy. Communists have infiltrated our Army, Navy, State Department, Justice Department, the Federal benches, and the Supreme Court. They virtually control all press, publications, and radio. They are paving the way for America's destruction and are working with an outside enemy.

Americans must cease shadow-boxing, and call a spade a spade. Innumerable Americans have died, here and abroad, to preserve this country. Are we going to allow a Fifth Column, working from the inside, to take over the United States just because we lack the courage to name—publicly—those making up that Fifth Column?

The Zionists are the brains behind Communism. Already their street fighters and saboteurs have been trained to work in America as they did in Spain and other countries of Europe.

Americans, what are you going to do? Wait until you are facing a rifle; or, get rid of America's enemies NOW?

Conde McGinley

BOASTING OR APOLOGIZING?

"Had it not been for Britain and America, Hitler would have destroyed Communism, or, at least, driven it back to the Ural Mountains" — Winston Churchill.

Mr. Churchill made the above remark in his speech at the American Independence Day dinner at the Dorchester Hotel July 4, 1950. And unless he has quite forgotten his responsibility in the matter, he must surely have been either boasting or apologizing.

Communism In The Churches

By - Verne P. Kaub

*Mr. Kaub is president of American Council of Christian Laymen, Madison 1, Wisconsin, and author of Collectivism Challenges Christianity.

Ever since our American government was established by adoption of the Constitution, which made effective the principles announced in the Declaration of Independence, American citizens have enjoyed freedom more fully than has been possible anywhere else in the world. At the same time America became the world's richest nation, with wealth more equally distributed than under any form of government.

America is free, wealthy, and strong, because constitutional free government protects citizens in the development of their abilities, their personalities and the natural resources at their disposal.

The basic principles of Americanism are these: men were created to be free; men are equal under the law and in the sight of their Creator; free men are important and dignified, hence no man may be set up as ruler over other men.

To preserve these principles, the Founders set up a government of law, not of men. Moreover the basis of our national law is the moral law written in the Ten Commandments and the New Testament.

America is the only nation founded on Christian principles, hence the only nation in which the individual is supreme and the state is no more than the creation of the citizen for their own protection.

America and Americans are tolerant of other religions, and even of persons who claim to have no religion. But basically America is a Christian nation, founded upon principles drawn from the Christian faith and not to be found in any other religion or in any non-Christian philosophy.

In view of the foregoing, it is natural that Christians love America and truly appreciate the blessings of American freedom.

Regrettably, we must admit that there are exceptions. Some men who call themselves Christians, and occupy positions of leadership in Protestant Churches of America, reject the idea of the supremacy of the individual. In their opinion, the state is supreme and should own, or at least completely control, all the wealth of the nation, and have complete dominion over all people "from cradle to grave."

When it became possible to bring about such a situation, these false leaders declare, they have established the "Kingdom of God." They use this phrase, "Kingdom of God," in an effort to make people believe their unholy scheme is Christian; they completely ignore the words of Our Lord, "My kingdom is not of this world."

Men holding these un-American, anti-Christian views have "worked themselves" into positions of leadership in the Federal Council of Churches and the constituent church bodies. They represent a minority of the clergy; perhaps they are in the minority even in the top management of the denominations, but the overall effect is as if none but men of this "stripe" occupied any position of authority.

If there are men in the church hierarchies who do not agree with the pro-Communist policies of the voluble leaders such as Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, Harry Emerson Fosdick, Allan Knight Chalmers, Ralph Sockman, Reinhold Niebuhr, William B. Spofford, Samuel McCrea Cavert and dozens of others who might be named, nobody knows who they are, for they never raise their voices in protest at the evil deeds of these men.

For example, the once-great Methodist Church "goes along" with the crass apostasy and groveling pro-Communist apologies of Bishop Oxnam.

When Bishop Oxnam served the Federal Council as president, his policies were laid open to criticism of leaders of other denominations, but he dominated the larger scene quite as effectively as he had lorded over the Methodist Church. Never was there a murmur from the high places, though thousands of the laity and a few of the "lower orders" of the clergy cried out in righteous wrath.

So, under the leadership of Bishop Oxnam and his like, all bent upon bringing to the world a completely godless "Kingdom of God," the Federal Council constantly parroted the words and phrases, the slogans and philosophy of the Communist-Socialist movement.

These false leaders intone praises of movements designed for "destruction . . . of economic institutions," they glibly recite phrases about "revolutionary social criticism," they declare their aim to be "promotion of human welfare" through inauguration of "public ownership," they demand that the profit motive be supplanted by "social planning" and "social reconstruction," and they mock their Creator with public prayers that he will lead them into a "cooperative commonwealth."

Capping these blasphemous rejections of the Christian way in favor of Communist-inspired political-economic measures, the Executive Committee of the Federal Council declared, in 1948, that "Communism . . . has points of contact with the social message of Christianity."

No falsehood greater or more vile ever was told: the principles and programs of Christianity and Communism are as far apart as Heaven and Hell—no point of contact exists anywhere at any time.

For more than a decade the Federal Council pursued its plan to copy Communist technique and "go underground," its leaders sensed the growing distrust and disgust that boded ill if something were not done.

The year 1949 came, and with it the "deluge." The American Council of Christian Churches seemed to be "coming of age;" the National Association of Evangelicals, too, was gaining in strength, numbers and prestige. These organizations of Christians and Christian Churches, hold fast to the "old time religion, unsullied by political maneuverings and Communist infiltration; both lash out vigorously at the Federal Council.

John T. Flynn's book, The Road Ahead, hit hard at the proponents of a political "Kingdom of God," and Stanley High, writing in Reader's Digest under the title "Methodism's Pink Fringe," tore the veil from the pro-Communist manipulations of Methodist bishops and other church dignitaries in the Methodist Federation for Social Action.

Reuben H. Markham, celebrated war correspondent and authority on Balkan affairs, privately published two editions of his little book, Let Us Protestants Awake! which scored the "collaborators" in the Churches. A new third edition now is being circulated by American Council of Christian Laymen, which entered the field in October 1949, widely distributing its "devastating" brochure, "How Red Is the Federal Council of Churches?"

The period of waiting and planning was over—it was time for action. So, Federal Council chieftans and leaders of a dozen other interdenominational agencies were called to meet at Cleveland, Ohio, in November, 1950, to complete the long-planned merger of all the agencies into one vast hierarchy to be named the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA.

Dr. Samuel McCrea Cavert, who had been the chief executive officer of the Federal Council for many years, was named general secretary of the new Council and assigned to the same duties. All members of the old Federal Council staff were given positions in the new Council equal to or superior to their Federal Council positions, and other jobs were parcelled out to trusted leaders of the other merging agencies.

By this maneuver the Federal Council got a new name and greatly increased power and authority over the other agencies, which heretofore had been affiliated or cooperating agencies. But it's the same old Federal Council, "doing business at the old stand," and in the same old way.

As the "new" Council was being lined up, the Planning Committee in charge of all arrangements issued a pamphlet extolling "Cooperative Christianity," and outlining the aims and purposes of the National Council. In nineteen numbered paragraphs the pamphlet tells how "The National Council Will Help You and Your Church." The first paragraph sets the pattern; it reads:

"By providing an authentic expression of the Christian conscience in matters of religious liberty, human rights, family life, social welfare, world peace, emergency relief needs, and great moral issues."

Here is frank admission that the aims and purposes of the National Council are primarily political, but more than that—it is a challenge.

Do the Christian people of America wish to listen to their own consciences in these political matters, and make their own decisions, or do they wish to be bound by pronouncements of men like Bishop Oxnam, whose apostasy and pro-Communism have been so completely exposed?

Letter To Truman

Honorable Harry S. Truman,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

In our morning paper, the Houston Post, you were quoted by the Associated Press as saying:

"This nation needs the wisdom of all its people."

God knows, you spoke the truth. And in response, without pretending to any wisdom, I wish respectfully to tell how one humble and deeply concerned citizen views the plight we are in.

You have asked Congress for powers which, if granted and exercised, would endanger the nation's welfare and security. You have led us into a terrible defeat in Korea; now you are sending our boys to another one in Europe.

You seek to shackle our domestic economy in a "national emergency" with controls calculated to detract the people's mind from the tragic bungling of our foreign affairs. Your entire record since inheriting the presidency brands you as totally unfit to assume the powers and responsibilities of a war-time dictator over us.

One of your early acts as President, as the press reported, was to pardon some members of the Pendergast gang, as well as members of the Al Capone mob. The American people, knowing of your record as one of Boss Pendergast's right-hand men, did not relish this. They deplored the rigged primary election that nominated your candidate for Congress in your home district in 1948.

You have stubbornly denied the nation-wide demand for the dismissal of Dean Acheson, who brewed the foreign policy that plunged the country into disaster. Acheson refused to turn his back on Alger Hiss, after Hiss was found guilty of treason and convicted. As far as the public knows Acheson still has his arm around Hiss; and you repeatedly declare you have yours around Acheson.

After the Hiss episode and the Korea debacle, the American people do not trust Acheson. They do not want to follow him into another slaughter, in Europe. They do not want to submit to domestic "emergency" dictation by a leader who follows Acheson.

On your own initiative, Mr. Truman, you have set yourself above and apart from Congress, surrounding yourself with such men as General Harry Vaughan, Charles F. Brannan, Leon Keyserling and Oscar Ewing. I am sure that 90% of the members of Congress are not in accord with the principles of these men.

You are out of tune with a majority of the members of Congress on legislation. You have vetoed many bills which they have passed; some have been passed over your veto by the combined votes of good Democrats and good Republicans. Since your philosophy of government and your way of thinking is so alien to that of the majority of Senators and Representatives, I do not think they should give you the great powers you ask, and I pray that in their wisdom they will not do so.

Sincerely yours,
H. R. Cullen

We Hate War

BY MARK TWAIN

"The loud little handful will shout for war. The pulpit will warily and cautiously protest at first . . . The great mass of the nation will rub its sleepy eyes and will try to make out why there should be a war, and will say, earnestly and indignantly: 'It is unjust and dishonorable, and there is no need for war.'"

"Then the few will shout even louder. A few fair men on the other side will argue and reason against the war with speech and pen, and at first, will get a hearing and will be applauded; but, it will not last long. The few who want war will outshout those who want peace; and presently, the anti-war audiences will thin out and peace will become unpopular."

"Before long, you will see a curious thing: platforms, and free speech will be strangled by hordes of furious men who still agree with the speakers, but, dare not admit it . . . The whole nation, pulpit and all, will take up the war cry and shout itself hoarse, and will mob any honest man who ventures to open his mouth for peace; then such mouths will cease to open."

"Next, the statesmen will invent cheap lies, putting the blame on the nation that is to be attacked; and each man will be glad of these lies, and will study them, because they soothe his conscience; and thus he will, by and by, convince himself that the war is just, and he will thank God for the better sleep he enjoys by his self-deception."

Mac Arthur or Truman

We had the coincidence a few nights ago of listening to radio speeches by General Douglas MacArthur followed immediately by President Truman. What a contrast! It was the difference between a giant and a pygmy; between a courageous patriot seeking to save his country, and a vain selfish politician seeking more power.

The one stood for defending our country against communism; the other for negotiating with communism. The one stood for our system of government and freedom; the other for a socialist state and slavery. The one boldly spoke the truth; the other falsehood, fear and deception. General MacArthur denounced excessive taxation and bureaucratic government and corruption; the President sought more taxes, more bureaucratic power, and an extension of the infamous War Production Act.

God has ordained General MacArthur to save us and our Christian religion and civilization. He will not "fade away" as the politicians hope. We should support his leadership.

costly one. There is nothing to be gained by our continued membership in it, and everything to be lost. We can protect the Americas without the help of our alleged allies and they can protect themselves without our help. We must return to our Constitution and our time-tested foreign policy of isolationism and the Monroe doctrine.

The Zionists seek to undermine and destroy our Constitution under Article VI of the Constitution which provides that "all treaties made under the authority of the United States shall be the supreme law of the land." The United Nations Charter (Chapter IX, Article 55) provides that "the United Nations shall promote . . . universal respect for and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms for all without distinction as to race, language or religion." Article 55 has been expressly adopted by the United Nations General Assembly. The District Court of Appeals in California held that the adoption of this declaration of "human rights" by the United Nations Assembly superseded our Bill of Rights and transferred jurisdiction over these subjects to the United Nations! Fugii vs. State, 217 Pacific 2nd, page 481.

The Zionists have submitted to the states and to Congress the "Genocide Convention;" and to Congress also treaties on the subjects of labor, known as I. L. O., and the tariff, known as I. T. O., which if adopted will, under the decision mentioned, transfer jurisdiction on these subjects from Congress to the United Nations Courts.

GENOCIDE

The "Genocide Convention" (or treaty) is particularly obnoxious for it makes anti-Zionism a felony, punishable in foreign courts. Under the terms of this convention I would, if charged with anti-Semitism, be subject to prosecution in a foreign country and in a foreign court, despite the fact that I have carefully sought to distinguish the Zionist communist Jew from the Christian Jew, who believes in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and our system of government. The Genocide Convention will become the supreme law of the land if adopted by 36 states. It was adopted by 22 states before its real purpose was known, and seven of them have since withdrawn. The campaign was promoted and financed by the Zionist James Warburg, of Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

The Zionists sought to suppress criticism of the Jews during the last war by the War Securities Act. The bill actually passed the House of Representatives. They will seek to do so again for that is one of the purposes of the present war. They have had similar laws adopted in several of our cities and states. If they are innocent, why do they object to criticism? No other race or class of people seeks such exemption.

President Truman appointed the socialist Eleanor Roosevelt as one of our delegates to the United Nations and she is at the head of its "Human Rights" branch.

"The right of social security;" "the right to just and favorable conditions of work;" "the right to protection against unemployment;" "the right to rest and leisure;" "the right to food, clothing, housing, and medical care and necessary social services;" "the right to security in the event of unemployment, sickness, disability, widowhood and old age;" and "the right to education."

These rights are, of course, to be enforced through the United Nations. No penalty for disobedience, or method of providing the money are stated, but they will be provided later.

There are three known communists on Mrs. Roosevelt's committee and the balance of them are socialists. The program is a socialist-communist program and for the purpose of promoting socialism and communism. That is in fact the purpose of the United Nations and not the prevention of war, as pretended. Trygve Lie, its manager, is a Norwegian socialist, and his subordinates are either socialists or communists.

It is time we quit sticking our nose into everybody's business all over the world, interfering with the governments of other nations, their affairs and policies, and rendering them unable to support themselves, then placing their welfare on the shoulders of the American taxpayers. First we tax our citizens billions to support our military in disorganizing or bombing other nations into helplessness; then, we tax ourselves to rebuild and feed those same nations which would have been much better off without our "help" in their affairs in the first place.

F.D.R., arch traitor and crackpot who gave away Manchuria, Korea, Poland, East Germany, and other countries to Communism, is dead. Let's also bury the Marxist plan to bankrupt America and follow George Washington's advice "Friendly relations with all, entangling alliances with none."

Believe it or not, Senator Herbert Lehman, on February 2, 1951, introduced a resolution in the Senate to designate January 30th, Franklin D. Roosevelt's birthday, as a legal holiday. This brass was to be expected from Lehman for F.D.R. turned nearly the whole world over to Lehman's Zionists. It was Roosevelt who made possible the Zionist U. N., the plan of which was written by the Russian Jew LEO PASVOLSKY. First Secretary of the California Conference (from which grew the U.N.) was the convicted traitor, Alger Hiss, and the present Secretary General of the U.N. is the Communist Trygve Lie.

Nation's history, and semi-Socialization. Is that what "advice" does?

The picture can be no plainer than it is. The ultimate aim of the Zionists, and their "advisers," is to assign each American citizen a number; control him, and tell him where, when, and how much he shall eat. If he does not follow the "Party line" (favor Zionist-Communism) and work as directed he will DIE OF STARVATION.

Powerful "advisers" use the world "war emergency" and "controls." They steer clear of the frightening, truthful designation—REGIMENTATION. Still, that is precisely what it is; a regimentation for a life-and-death check on all free Americans. It will be a series of "controls" to stop opposition to the Zionist minority while that minority — now dictating American policies — completes its plans for outright Communization of the United States.

That Lehman, who has opposed all legislation to outlaw Communists and Communism, seconds Baruch's demand for extended controls, only serves to highlight the gravity of the much-wanted law.

Salin himself, controlled as he is by Zionists, could not find a better way to enslave the citizens of America.

Anna M. Rosenberg Is To Be Congratulated

Anna M. Rosenberg is to be complimented on the cool, clever job she has done as Assistant Secretary of Defense. While she has covered up, some people in the country (and Washington) still believe she is on the up and up. Of course, those who have made a study of Marxism know her kind.

Confronted, face to face, by a former Communist, she denied that she had ever been a member of the Communistic John Reed Clubs. The heat was quickly taken off so she, as head of all Christian manpower in the United States, could carry out orders from Bernard Baruch, Herbert Lehman and Felix Frankfurter. The orders were that Anna M. Rosenberg do the thinking for Marshall, the aged, sickly Marshall who does not know where he was the night before Pearl Harbor, and does not know where he is now.

While Anna M. Rosenberg strenuously denied the RED Anna Rosenberg witnesses swore her to be, and the Armed Services Committee believed her, Common Sense did not. Since she has gone into power, she has overseen the hiring of approximately half a million people, and is still hiring over 50,000 per month.

It is believed by all really informed people that the greater part of those hired are Marxists or Communists, and many are newly-arrived "refugees".

Since Anna M. Rosenberg is so expert at brushing aside inquiries concerning her connections since she arrived in America in 1912 from Hungary, which is now Communist controlled, it might be wise to ask a few questions. Just questions, mind . . . people are inquisitive.

On the night of February 20, 1938, did you, Anna M. Rosenberg, attend a dinner at the Murray Hill Hotel in New York City? That dinner, given by the American Youth Congress (a Communist organization) was to honor the Abraham Lincoln Brigade (an-

Mr. George E. Sokolsky,
300 West End Ave., New York 23, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Sokolsky,

No matter what you would like to believe about "COMMON SENSE" can you deny that it vigorously, unselfishly and consistently opposes Communism, in its basic and implied doctrines? It seems to understand clearly that Communism is really camouflaged Marxism. Is that your view-point, also? If not, that may constitute the real difference between your way of fighting Communism and that of "Common Sense." Otherwise, how can there be any conflict between you and "Common Sense?" The Editor may not like to impersonate Don Quixote and fight wind-mills.

You have tried to persuade the public that you are fighting Communism. But, have you ever condemned Marxism? Has your personal ideology led you to evasion, on this subject and made you wary of this essential source and motivation of Communism? Thus far, the public may not have observed this important point.

But, now "Common Sense," in its successful opposition to Communism, has apparently excited your hate and provoked your abuse. And, is it not very significant that you are so ready to draw that vile weapon, the "smear," which has been spawned by Communism, itself? Many have been attracted by your pose of an enemy of Communism. Do you

DOUGLAS MacARTHUR. SOLDIER AND PATRIOT

From the Third Zionist War, by Judge G. Armstrong

George W. Armstrong

The Zionists made the mistake of permitting President Truman to recommend General Douglas MacArthur as commander in chief of the United Nations forces. They did not think that he could win, dis-armed as he was, and with them directing the campaign and in control of his supplies. They underestimated him.

He was, of course the logical man for the job. He was not only on the ground but he was the recognized military genius of the age. They sought to revive the decadent and useless United Nations and they thought they could rally its members and the American people to its support more effectively through him than the pro-Zionists Mark Clark or Ike Eisenhower. Moreover, they wanted to discredit him by defeat.

He said in his short address at Seoul to the people of Korea: "It is through the spirit that we must save the flesh. . . . In humble and devout manifestation of gratitude to Almighty God for bringing this decisive victory to us I ask that all present rise and join me in reciting the Lord's Prayer," which they did. We cannot imagine such humility in Mark Clark or Ike Eisenhower or Truman.

What a contrast between this great Christian American patriot and our vain little pro-Zionist President who seeks to be our dictator, cavorting around in his private yacht, "The Williamsburg", and his private plane, "The Enterprise", maintained at public expense. What a contrast between MacArthur and our real rulers the traitors Felix Frankfurter and Dean Acheson.*

Acheson evidently planned that we should lose the Korean War; and such was the scheme of the Zionists. They disarmed the South Koreans and armed the North Koreans. They selected General MacArthur as commander for the purpose of rallying the American people to the war, and if lost, of eliminating MacArthur as a probable presidential candidate on the republican ticket. If the demand in 1952 is for a military president, they want Eisenhower.

But MacArthur, the great soldier and patriot, refused to be crushed. What a pity he is not now our President. He will win the war if given a free hand. The only possible way to defeat him is by the treachery of Truman and Acheson and their Zionist assistants.

The President, at the instance of Acheson, endeavored to suppress an address of General MacArthur to his fellow Veterans of Foreign Wars at their annual convention in Chicago. In this speech General MacArthur said:

"Our line of defense is a natural one and can be maintained with a minimum of military effort and expense. It envisions no attack against anyone nor does it provide the bastions essential for offensive operations, but properly maintained would be an invincible defense against aggression. If we hold this line we may have peace,—lose it and war is inevitable."

He said also:

"To pursue any other course would be to turn over the fruits of our Pacific victory to a potential enemy. It would shift any future battle area 5,000 miles eastward to the coasts of the American continents, our own home coasts; it would completely expose our friends in the Philippines, Indonesia, our friends in Japan, and other areas, to the lustful thrusts of those who stand for slavery as against liberty, for atheism as against God."

It is reported that this is also the view of former Secretary of Defense Johnson and General Omar Bradley and the "high command." General MacArthur bowed to the command of his commander-in-chief and did not authorize the delivery of the address. Senator Wherry said of Truman's attempted gag:

"In the press and over the radio we hear reports of President Truman's order putting a gag on General Douglas MacArthur's message on Formosa to the meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Chicago yesterday. Such action is outrageous and will be resented by every American."

"Apparently there are fundamental differences over Far East American policy between Secretary of State Dean Acheson and General MacArthur, but General MacArthur as a good soldier, is obeying and carrying out the orders of the Commander in Chief as dished up to him by the bungling Acheson."

Senator Knowland said of it:

"Our moral leadership was undermined by the secret deals of Yalta, regarding which neither the Congress of the United States nor the American people had information until later years. The suppression of the Wedemeyer report on China for two years, and the report of General Wedemeyer on Korea, which has now been held in secrecy for three years, has allowed the State Department to lose for us in the Far East all that our fighting men had won in World War II at great sacrifice. . . . Now once again the administration is gagging a patriotic soldier, who sees the danger facing our Nation in the Far East, and want to warn our people before it is too late."

If this war was in fact only a "police action" to enforce the orders of the United Nations, as Truman proclaimed, then General MacArthur would be the commander and not President Truman, and his effort to gag MacArthur was sheer impertinence. General MacArthur is entitled to credit for accepting the job and obeying orders. But the Korean war is not now regarded as police action by the members of Congress, as revealed by their speeches, nor by the President, as revealed by his messages.

Truman said of the Marines that they were the "Navy's police force" and that they maintained a "propaganda machine that is almost equal to Stalin's." The Marines resented it and the President saw that it might cost votes for the democratic "fair deal" candidates for Congress. On the following day he wrote to General Clifton B. Cates, the Marine Corps Commander: "I sincerely regret my unfortunate choice of language," etc., and later appeared before the Marine convention and made an abject apology, which was featured pictorially in the daily press.

THE TRUMAN-MACARTHUR WAKE ISLAND CONFERENCE

There was much speculation as to President Truman's purpose in calling for the Wake Island conference with General MacArthur pending the war. The pro-communist columnist Drew Pearson wrote that it was Truman's purpose to tell Douglas MacArthur "who was boss." The commentator Fulton Lewis said that Truman's purpose was to prevail on General MacArthur not to resign his command. The President may have revealed his purpose in his San Francisco speech following the conference. If so, it was to dramatize his dictatorship and to promote the United Nations:

He said in substance:

"I, Harry Solomon Truman, hereby pledge the people of the world that the American people will preserve the peace of the world through the United Nations and that we will defend any and all countries against aggression."

He had no authority to make any such commitment, for that is a subject over which Congress has exclusive jurisdiction, and Congress had not spoken.

The 82nd Congress may not be willing to assume such a grave responsibility without submitting the issue to the people. It is true that a prior Congress subscribed to the United Nations, but it was without authority to subordinate our government to the United Nations. The Zionists and communists and socialists wish to do so, but the white Christians are the majority and can and should repudiate the membership. Congress did not then know that the United Nations charter was written by the traitor Alger Hiss and other traitors in the State Department. They did not understand that its effect would be to make our government a minority state in a world Zionist super-government ment and abolish our own government.

It now appears that this dramatic Wake Island conference was to use General MacArthur and his victories to promote the United Nations and the democratic party. The meeting was planned by the bunch of traitors who seek to destroy our government. On October 8, 1950 they announced their program to increase our army to three million men, according to the Associated Press and United Press of that date. It was reported that this program has the support of Chairman Vinson of the House Armed Services Committee. It means a military government and confiscatory taxation; it means bureaucracy, bankruptcy, and a dictatorship.

General MacArthur declined to comment on the conference with President Truman further than to assure the Asians that America would protect them against Russia, which was his mission.

General MacArthur performed a miracle in rescuing more than 100,000 of his men in sub-zero weather who were surrounded in mountain passes by an overwhelming number of well clothed and well equipped Chinese red bandits. The hands and feet of many of our men were frozen and had to be amputated. The United Nations was requested to denounce this treacherous Chinese attack. Some of its members objected and the decision was postponed. It is within our power to punish the depraved traitors who designed the trap, but no punishment is adequate; the most that we can do is to try them for treason and if convicted execute them in disgrace and confiscate their property.

Letter From Rev. Brophy

fear that "Common Sense" will dissipate the spell which your eloquence has woven about them? Will at least the intelligent among them, begin to question whether you have been fighting Communism or have been, all the while, a genuine Communist yourself, though a disguised one and, possibly, not a card-carrying one? Are you alarmed that "Common Sense" may have discovered cracks in your pedestal? Will the idol eventually topple over and crumble? Have you been walking on a tight-rope?

Apparently, your "expose" of Communism has brought you many opportunities for fraternal hand-shaking with Christians, whose frightening Nemesis Communism is. Have you been playing a dual role, like that of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde? And, while you were pleasing Christians, this would help you to save face with the Marxists and assure them that you were still in their corner. The Marxists are so fond of double roles. They would be happy to see you succeed in doing under-cover work, for Judaea, for B'nai B'rith and for the inventors of the "Smear," the anti-Defamation League. They would be delighted to see gullible readers and listeners, enacting the part of Little Red Riding Hood, assuring themselves that they would find you to be the sweet Grandmother and not a Wolf.

But, has the "Common Sense" exposure finally lifted the veil? Has it revealed someone's clay feet? Will your dupes now discard their incense-pots and forswear the Sokolsky cult? Will Christians be chagrined at having been inveigled into playing Little Red Riding Hood, only to confuse the public mind, on Communism and not to curb it? Will they be embarrassed at having been told, so frequently and, by those whom they respected, that you were really dear Grandmother and not a Wolf, at all? This would be a serious problem for you.

And, unless you enter the arena with "Common Sense," like an honest gladiator for the truth, with clean hands and with equal weapons, but not with the assistance of the "smearing" technique of the anti-Defamation League, your admirers may suspect that you never intended to fight Communism, but, have been merely a Trojan Horse.

I hope to see you face the issue, squarely, publicly and manfully. You are most eloquent about "democracy," "the American way of life," "Americanism," etc. Therefore, would you hesitate to trust a decision, between you and "Common Sense," to the fairness of the American public? And, for one, who has always been so articulate, of so ample a range and, usually, so stentorian, is your refusal to omit the double-talk, entirely and to make an intelligent and open reply to "Common Sense," expected or becoming?

Will your silence raise the question of your integrity? Should not that question be answered? Can it be answered, so as to clear you from the stigma of cheating, which "Common Sense" is trying to place upon you?

With best wishes.

Faithfully yours,

other Communist-sponsored group) which had just returned from Spain where it had aided in the killing of, and had killed, thousands of Christian Spaniards.

Was Eleanor Roosevelt the guest of honor and the main speaker? At the conclusion of her address to the RED Lincoln Brigade, and its friends, did she pound the table to emphasize her words: "We must organize, organize, organize in order to avoid the bloody revolution we had in Spain. Our revolution here must be — will be — a bloodless one, but only if we organize?"

Did Archibald MacLeish also make a talk? Did Mrs. Roosevelt predict that MacLeish would "go places?" He did go to Washington as the head of the Congressional Library shortly after — why not? Mrs. Roosevelt was the wife of the President and "friendly" to all — Communists included.

Did Joseph Lash, Eleanor's "protege" make a speech? Lash, it is undoubtedly known, is the Zionist who headed the Communist organization American Youth Congress.

Did Heywood Brown make a speech? There are those who say he did and that a certain party picked up, from the table, the written speech.

As the report is given, the Anna Rosenberg present at that Murray Hill Hotel meeting was prominent in the W. P. A. Was it Anna M., the woman now Assistant Secretary of Defense?

Was there a printed menu which listed on the back the names of sponsors — such as Mrs. Roosevelt, the Warburgs and Anna M. Rosenberg? Was that not an imposing list of sponsors for the meeting of two Communist organizations?

At that time the public was still blind as to whom the Communists were. It was all safe then. Further, the door was locked from the outside and two uniformed policemen stood before it as guards.

It is stated, by an individual who should know, that at such "parties" — given to celebrate the return of the Communist church burners — there were exhibited rosaries and crucifixes taken from those killed in Spain. Steve Nelson (MESAROSH) is reported to have said at one of those gatherings that he got a "kick" out of shooting Priests when he encountered them in the churches.

The Roosevelt-Rosenberg-Baruch-Zionist crowd should be very proud of supporting that league of Communist murderers — the Abraham Lincoln Brigade. That Brigade, along with other Communist fighting groups in Spain, killed five Bishops by drenching them with kerosene then setting them afire to burn alive. They scalped, assassinated, butchered and hung more than 3,000 Priests and Nuns (frequently subjecting the Sisters to before-death indignities) and massacred thousands of Spanish civilians because of their Christian Faith. Two hundred and thirty-seven Fathers of the Heart of Mary alone were slaughtered; of the Franciscan Fathers, some 200 were murdered.

And . . . while Henry Morgenthau, Jr. was Secretary of the United States Treasury, he gave two million dollars of taxpayers' money to those Communists in Spain.

Bernard Baruch gave those destroyers of Christianity (the Abraham Lincoln Brigade) $10,000.

Annie — the ROSEY Rosenberg? Well, according to a telegram Tex McCrary and Jinx Falkenburg sent to the Armed Services Committee, backing the appointment of Annie Rosenberg, they said "Equally important she learned all her loyalties and much of her common sense from Bernard Baruch." (Part 2, Hearings of December 5-14, 1950.)

Along with the Zionist combine already mentioned, it was the Ambassador from the SOVIET UNION, Moses Rosenberg, who took charge of the Communist Revolution in Spain immediately after it began.

People are inquisitive, Mrs. Rosenberg. Will YOU answer the questions for them? It has been suggested that you get OUT of the UNITED STATES Defense Department and write a book entitled, "How We Tried to Crush Christianity in Spain".

If the warm, lush climate of Spain is not to your liking, and you find it impossible to write on that country, perhaps you will do an article (you have already written for RED publications and are exper-

Who Originated Communism?

Republished from The Canadian Intelligence Service

We are asked from time to time why we devote so much space to dealing with the "Jewish Problem." A complete reply to this question will be found in the following letter (July, 1920) by the well-known Jewish writer, Dr. Oscar Levy, in reply to Mr. G. Pitt-Rivers, who had forwarded to him before publication his brochure, "The World Significance of the Russian Revolution."

"Dear Mr. Pitt-Rivers: When you first handed me your M.S. on The World Significance of the Russian Revolution, you expressed a doubt about the propriety of its title. After a perusal of your work, I can assure you, with the best of conscience, that your misgivings were entirely without foundation. No better title than The World Significance of the Russian Revolution could have been chosen, for no event in any age will finally have more significance for our world than this one. We are still too near to see clearly this Revolution, this portentous event, which was certainly one of the most intimate and, therefore, least obvious, aims of the world-conflagration, hidden as it was at first by the fire and smoke of national enthusiasms and patriotic antagonisms.

"It was certainly very plucky of you to try and throw some light upon an event which necessarily must still be enveloped in mist and mystery, and I was even somewhat anxious lest your audacity in treating such a dangerous subject would end in failure, or what is nearly the same, in ephemeral success. No age is so voracious of its printed offspring as ours. There was thus some reason to fear lest you have offered to this modern Kronos only another mouthful of his accustomed nourishment for his immediate consumption.

"You rightly recognize that there is an ideology behind it (the Russian Revolution), and you clearly diagnose it as an ancient ideology. There is nothing new under the sun, it is even nothing new that this sun rises in the East . . ."

Jews and Revolutions

"For Bolshevism is a religion and a faith. How could these half-converted believers even dream to vanquish the 'Truthful' and the 'Faithful' of their own creed, these holy crusaders, who had gathered round the Red Standard of the prophet Karl Marx, and who fought under the daring guidance of these experienced officers of all latter-day revolutions—the Jews?."

"There is no race in the world more enigmatic, more fatal, and therefore, more interesting than the Jews. Every writer, who, like yourself, is oppressed by the aspect of the present and embarrassed by his anxiety for the future, must try to elucidate the Jewish Question and its bearing upon our Age. For the question of the Jews and their influence on the world past and present, cuts to the root of all things, and should be discussed by every honest thinker, however bristling with difficulties it is, however complex the subject as well as the individuals of this Race may be. (Our emphasis).

"For the Jews, as you are aware, are a sensitive community, and thus very suspicious of any Gentile who tries to approach them with a critical mind. They are always inclined—and that on account of their terrible experiences—to denounce anyone who is not with them as against them, as tainted with 'medieval' prejudice, as intolerant antagonist of their faith and of their race.

"Nor would I deny that there is some evidence, some prima facie evidence of this antagonistic attitude in your pamphlet. You point out, and with fine indignation, the great danger that springs from the prevalence of Jews in finance and industry, and from the preponderance of Jews in rebellion and revolution. You reveal and with great fervour, the connection between the Collectivism of the immensely rich international Finance — the democracy of cash values, as you call it — and the international Collectivism of Karl Marx and Trotsky — that Democracy of any by decoy cries . . . And all this evil and misery, the economic and political, you trace back to one source, to one fons et rigo malorum—the Jews"

People are waiting, Mrs. Rosenberg. Will you speak for the Lord, Jesus Christ?

Jewish Influence in Europe

"Now other Jews may vilify and crucify you for these outspoken views of yours. I myself shall abstain from joining the chorus of condemnation! I shall try to understand your opinions and your feelings, and having once understood them . . . I can defend you from the unjust attacks of my often too impetuous race. But first of all, I have to say this: There is scarcely an event in modern Europe that cannot be traced back to the Jews. Take the Great War that appears to have come to an end, ask yourself what were its causes and its reasons: you will find them nationalism. You will at once answer that nationalism has nothing to do with the Jews, who as you have proved to us, are the inventors of the international idea. But by no less than Bolshevik Ecstasy and Financial Tyranny can National Bigotry (if I may call it so) be finally followed back to a Jewish source . . ."

"The great question, however, is whether the Jews are conscious or unconscious ones, but please do not think that I wish to exonerate them on that account . . . A conscious evildoer has my respect, for he knows at least what is good; an unconscious one — well he needs the charity of Christ—a charity which is not mine—to be forgiven for not knowing what he is doing. But there is in my firm conviction not the slightest doubt that these revolutionary Jews do not know what they are doing; that they are more unconscious sinners than voluntary evildoers.

"I am glad this is not an original observation of mine, but that you yourself have a strong foreboding about the Jews being the victims of their own theories and principles. On page 39 of your pamphlet you write: 'It may be that the Jews have always been instrumental in bringing about the events that they most heartily disapprove of; that maybe is the curse of the Wandering Jew.' If I had not the honour, as well as the pleasure of knowing you personally, if I were not strongly aware of your passionate desire for light and your intense loathing of unfairness, this sentence, and this sentence alone, which tells the truth, will absolve you in my eyes from the odious charge of being a vulgar anti-Semite.

"No, you are not vulgar, you are a very enlightened critic of our race. For there is an anti-Semitism, I hope and trust, which does the Jews more justice than any blind philo-Semitism, than does that merely sentimental 'Let-them-all-come Liberalism,' which in itself is nothing but the Semitic Ideology over again. And thus you can be just to the Jews without being 'romantic' about them.

"You have noticed with alarm that the Jewish elements provide the driving forces for both communism and capitalism for the material as well as the spiritual ruin of this world.

"But then you have at the same time the profound suspicion that the reason for all this extraordinary behaviour may be the intense, idealism of the Jew. In this you are perfectly right . . . From Moses to Marx, from Isaiah to Eisner, in practice and in theory, in idealism and in materialism, in philosophy and in politics, they are today what they have always been; passionately devoted to their aims and to their purposes, and ready, nay, eager, to shed their last drop of blood for the realization of their visions.

"But these visions are all wrong," you will reply . . . 'Look where you have led the world to. Think, that they have now had a fair trail of 3,000 years' standing. How much longer are you going to recommend them to us and to in-

2,000 AMERICANS SPYING HERE FOR U. S. S. R.

An officer of the Russian Secret Police reveals 2,000 WELL-KNOWN AMERICANS SPYING FOR MOSCOW. The secret network of 17 agents — Kremlin knows all the secrets of America's destructive weapons. — Canada also is in the grip of the Soviet espionage organization.

The recent conviction of the several American atom-bomb spies — Rosenberg, Greenfield, Gold and others — has created a great disturbance in the minds of the American people. They do not feel that the entire group of spies has been completely exposed. The silence of Alger Hiss, the advisor to the deceased President, Franklin D. Roosevelt and the friend of Acheson, is interpreted by Americans to indicate that there must be many more men working behind the scenes whose names are not being revealed to the public because it would implicate influential persons in a compromising manner.

It is not without reason that an American Senator recently spoke of the "cancerous tumor in Washington" which continues to grow because nobody there has the courage to perform the much needed operation.

In the face of these conditions an article which appeared in the Zurich newspaper "New Europe" on April 15th, 1951, deserves special consideration. Consequently we republish here the contents of that article without going into detailed discussion.

"The almost unbelievable revelations regarding the extent of Russian espionage were recently made by the former Soviet Secret Police Officer, Fedorowski in Rome. As an agent of the Secret Service network C.17 until December 1950, and as a former American citizen, he gave an insight into the great extent of information on the USSR.

"Fedorowski made a very important statement concerning coming developments, indicating the desperate fight for survival which faces the United States during the next ten years.

"Although Fedorowski considers himself now as belonging to the 'free world', fleeing from his mother country and now also from Division G-5 which has lately tried to kill him, he is of the opinion that the nations which are regarded as satellites of the United States have very little chance for survival in the coming general world conflict.

"Only naive and theoretical persons can still have any doubt that Russia is not well informed concerning all the very latest discoveries relating to atomic power in comparison with knowledge on this subject in the United States of America," said Fedorowski. "The USSR not only has more than 100 of the most modern laboratories and plants for producing the products of these laboratories but the West only has knowledge of three of these plants. The Soviet Union also has specialists from all over the world working in these plants. The Soviet Union is also very well informed concerning all top-secret information in the United States of America. Not a day passes on which America invents a new weapon of destruction or improves older ones but that a very few weeks later the 'Center' (Zentrale), C.17, in Moscow has in its possession all the photographs and blueprints."

Fedorowski asserts that Russia has knowledge of all events taking place in the United States of America bearing upon atomic research, especially in the atomic plants.

As an illustration, the experiment in atomic artillery recently conducted near Las Vegas in Nevada were well known to the "Center" (Zentrale) C.17 before the explosions were heard in America. Even the blue-prints for the American super-artillery had arrived in Moscow 14 days previously.

The C.17 Secret Service network cannot be successfully combatted in the United States of America. The C.17 Secret Service network has its agents sitting in strategic position in the leading industries and on the military committees, and they are even represented by two contacts in the United States Senate.

Three agents of the C.17 Secret Service network have continuous contact with President Truman. It often happens that Stalin knows what Truman intends to do before it is even officially announced. The entire apparatus of the C.17 Secret Service network embraces the entire United States of America and consists of 3,000 agents amongst whom are about 2,000 well-known Americans.

In continuing his description of this situation, Fedorowski states that Russia is in possession of the so-called "Continent Atom-bomb" which is exploded 10,000 meters before it reaches the ground, and has had it for the last six months. This bomb can destroy populated areas of the entire American continent in a single moment, converting the nation into a camp of death.

The apparent indifference of Moscow to the developments of present and future weapons of destruction is unparalleled, according to the most recent statements of the North Technic Agency (N. T. A.).

The atomic scientist of the atomic works at Uriepograd, Professor Oman Rumanski-Klagenfurth, calls the work being done by the C.17 Secret Service network as nothing less than masterly. "One can say that the United States of America is working along lines that is financing within its own borders research for the benefit of the USSR."

During the next two years the Soviet intends to extend the C.17 Secret Service network into Canada so they will be able to obtain the secrets accumulated there by their "invisible army".

flict them upon us? And how do you propose to get us out of the morass into which you have launched us, if you do change the path upon which you have led the world so disastrously astray?"

"Anti-Semitism" Justified

"To this question I have only one answer to give, and it is this: 'You are right.' This reproach of yours, which—I feel it for certain—is at the bottom of your anti-Semitism, is only too well justified, and upon this common ground I am quite willing to shake hands with you and defend you against any accusation of promoting race hatred: If you are an anti-Semite, I, the Semite, am an anti-Semite, too, and a much more fervent one than even you are . . . We (Jews) have erred, my friend, we have most grievously erred. And if there was truth in our error 3,000, 2,000, nay, 100 years ago, there is now nothing but falseness and madness, a madness that will produce an even greater misery and an even wider anarchy, I confess it to you, openly and sincerely, and with a sorrow, whose depth and pain an ancient Psalmist, and only he, could moan into this burning universe of ours . . . We who have posed as the saviours of the world, we who have even boasted of having given it 'the Saviour, we are today nothing else but the world's seducers, its destroyers, its incendiaries, its executioners . . . We who have promised to lead you to a new Heaven, we have finally succeeded in landing you in a new Hell . . . There has been no progress, least of all moral progress . . . And it is just our morality, which

URGENT BULLETIN!

Dear Fellow-American:

EMERGENCY CONTROLS NOW ASKED IN THE NAME OF HARRY TRUMAN, THE BANKRUPT HABERDASHER AND OIL STOCK SWINDLER, FORECASTS REGIMENTATION AND ENSLAVEMENT OF U. S. CITIZENS.

Those controls are wanted by the Invisible Government, directed by the Zionist Jews, who use Truman as the front. They want power to license every business so that the Zionists ruling the New Deal through stooges will have power to close any business whose owner complains of enslavement. They ask for dictatorship over all industry — rents — food — construction — travel — and other liberties of the American People.

Protocol No. 5 says: "We shall create an intensified centralization of government in order to grip in our hands all the forces of the community. We shall regulate mechanically all the actions of the political life of our subjects by new laws." Marxists say the Protocols are a forgery. We know of no authority in the world who does not recognize the Protocols as the plan for world domination. They have been proven so in Court.

We have been reliably informed the plan of the World Jewish Kehillah (Secret Government) is to use the scare of the Soviet Union, which they direct, to frighten us into giving control over our lives to the present Marxist Administration which they have set up and control.

This s-p-e-c-i-a-l letter is to inform you so that you may alert your friends. Ask them to demand of their Congressmen and Senators that they give NOT an inch in surrendering to the Marxists and their stooges.

Once our liberties are gone, they will never be regained.

Our information is that the Zionists first want these controls; then, the World Jewish Kehillah, using their advisers in the U.S.S.R. and England, will bring about world-wide war ending in invasion of the U. S.

These are bold statements. We are ready to present our case before an open hearing of Congress.

America's future today, as in the revolutionary time, depends on a small percentage of alert people who are patriotic and have sufficient energy to protest.

Let's flood our representatives with thousands of protests. Demand that Senators and Congressmen refuse to grant new controls and surrender our liberties.

has prohibited all real progress, and—what is worse—which even stands in the way of every future and natural reconstruction in this ruined world of ours . . . I look at this world, and I shudder at its ghastliness; I shudder all the more as I know the spiritual author of all this ghastliness . . . (our emphasis—Ed.)

"But its authors themselves, unconscious in this as in all they are doing, know nothing yet of this startling revelation. While Europe is aflame, while its victims scream, while its dogs howl in the conflagration, and while its very smoke descends in darker and even darker shades upon our continent, the Jews, or at least that part of them and by no means the most unworthy ones, endeavour to escape from the burning building, and wish to retire from Europe into Asia, from the sombre scene of our disaster into the sunny corner of their Palestine. Their eyes are closed to the miseries, their ears are deaf to the moanings, their heart is hardened to the anarchy of Europe; they only feel their own sorrows, they only bewail their own fate, they only sigh under their own burdens . . ."

Jew-Ridden Board Governed Atomic Energy For Three Years

Shortly after V-J Day Harry Truman turned America's atomic energy program over to a board of five men, three of whom were Jews. For the next three years this secret group exercised dictatorial control over the atom bomb. As a result our H-bomb program was completely sabotaged at the policy making level by Lilienthal, Bacher, Straus, Oppenheimer, and Einstein, while lesser and more numerous members of the Jew-Marxist crew (such as Gold, Greenglass, Rosenberg) were busily engaged in transmitting atomic information to Soviet Russia in whole-sale quantities. The latter task was considerably simplified by the fact that Russia's atomic program is also in the hands of a Jew (Beria) who is a Politburo member and head of the dread Russian Secret police, (MVD).

(Editor's note: England's "Sunday Express" of 10-29-50, listed fifteen atomic experts in that country. With the exception of one, whose racial identity is unknown, fourteen were Zionists. Those fourteen Zionists, in whose hands lie Britain's atomic research, are: Max Born, F. E. Simon, H. E. Peierls, O. R. Frisch, J. Rotblatt, L. Rosenfeld, E. Wolfarth, H. Frohlich, A. S. Bosicovitch, R. Furth, N. Kurti, B. Polanyi, O. Klemperer, R. E. Eisenscitz. And—the Editor of the U. S. "Bulletin of Atomic Scientists" is the Zionist, Eugene Rabinowitch.)

During the past few years, those who have taken the time to study the background and cause of the atheistic black plague sweeping the world have come to realize that the disintegration of Nationalism in all parts of the globe is directed by a well-disciplined minority determined to tear down all National governments and establish a minority-directed "world government."

That minority, taught from childhood to carry out the plan deceptively, is the backbone of the world conspiracy. It has been working so well that few Christians have discovered the overwhelming success that minority has achieved. The heart and hub of all the revolutionary schemes is a group known as Yiddish, most of whom prefer to be called Jews. They would have the public believe there is a Jewish race. There is no such thing, any more than there is a Lutheran or Catholic race. Judaism is certainly not a religion, but a cult—the seeds of which are in the Talmud.

The Talmud is the most filthy, treason-breeding, anti-American, anti-Christian book in existence. Jewish leaders boast that the Talmud has not been changed in the least during the past 2000 years, and that it has the strongest influence on Judaism of any book in existence. Anyone who studies it can see why it breeds spies such as Mrs. Ethel Rosenberg, Julius Rosenberg, Harry Gold, Morton Sobell, David Greenglass, Sidney Weinbaum, Judith Coplon, Abraham Brothman and Oppenheimer.

The Marxist Talmudic Jews who continually say "We Jews," would have the public believe, when Marxism is attacked, it is meant for all people known as Jews. They continually try to drive into the public's mind the thought of Jews being persecuted because of religious belief.

While that thought is being hammered, terrific power is already at work to completely enslave the United States. Kuhn, Loeb and Company, Lehman Brothers, Dillon Reed Company and other fabulously wealthy international concerns have been subsidizing the State Departments, as well as many individual Christians, to assist them in the world domination plan.

Obliging merchants who are busy making money are part of the plan for, without financial help from them each year, the Anti-Defamation League could not carry on its multi-million dollar program to smear and intimidate newspapers daring to mention the con-

PRAYER ALONE WILL NOT SAVE US

Recently Christian leaders announced that persecution of Christians behind the Iron Curtain countries "exceeds the most violent barbarism in history." Christians outside the Iron Curtain countries are thus warned of a fate which may befall them. Such persecution is not necessary and can certainly be avoided, IF we give notice to fight for Christianity and America.

Anti-Christian forces can be decisively defeated, and quickly, but not by half-way measures which serve to inform the enemy that Christians are prepared to submit to persecution without resistance. Why invite liquidation of Christianity?

Christ said: "Those who deny me on earth, I will also deny them in heaven."

Surely prayer is very essential; but, if we are to adopt the policy that prayer, and prayer alone, will save us, we eliminate the spirit of resistance. Possibly Christian leaders are so necessarily occupied with clerical duties they have no time left for sufficient study of the enemy. Admitting that many Christian leaders are willing to be tortured—and even murdered—by the atheistic Marxists, it should be born in mind that many millions of Christians are looking to their leaders for guidance and if they receive the advice that only prayers will save this Country, millions of people are NOT being alerted. Worse, they are lulled into a feeling of ease, and give no financial or physical strength to movements underway to combat the anti-Christian destroyers who will destroy everything we hold precious.

The philosophy of SOLE RELIANCE on PRAYER is a false Christian philosophy. Our Lord's words are: "Not every one that saith to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father, who is in Heaven." St. Paul said: "Faith without good works is dead," and St. Ignatius warned: "Pray as if everything depended on God; work as if everything depended on you."

Apparently, then, according to our Lord's own words, being a Christian is a very active matter, not just a mealy-mouthed whining of "Lord, help me."

Moreover, and this is a point Christian leaders either forget or ignore, one either becomes active for Christ, or—by default—becomes an agent of Satan and cooperates with Satan. How can this sole reliance on prayer, without aggressive action, possibly stand up? How can Christian leaders quiet their conscience in the face of the words of our Lord?

It is true that the powerful, organized force of atheistic murderers can be defeated only by a well united force which is led and advised by men who know the enemy and have the courage to face the enemy without faltering.

For example, if a large bank is in the process of being robbed, people on the street may stand around and say: "Oh, what a terrible thing it is! It should be stopped! Why doesn't somebody stop it?" But, surely, if no one has the courage, or a plan, the bank robbers will loot the bank and safely drive away, without opposition.

Somebody could stop the robbery if he wished to risk being hurt. It is a question of know-how and the courage to take a chance, if the thieves are to be halted.

Today the Christianity which was organized to save souls and lead people to Him, is confronted by a stupendous, organized world force which has spent at least 100 years planning to enslave the world and liquidate all who stand in their way.

As when a fire is raging, the important man is the trained fireman, so today—to check the black plague—the valuable men are those who have spent years in the exclusive study of the enemy and understands him, and is ready to defeat the enemy with a proven plan. Few people in the United States have devoted many years of study to the anti-Christian enemy. One man of this type is worth 10,000 of those who know nothing concerning the deceptions, intrigues, and underhanded "deals" of the enemy. Politicians know nothing about fighting this international revolution, but men who have given years of their lives to study the anti-Christian scourge know the strategy to use, and would have the courage to fight, while offering their services without pay. If people with means do not have the foresight to call the few trained men to advise them . . . then, we agree, Christians in the United States should prepare for persecution; a persecution resulting in death.

The few men who are not afraid to suffer unpopularity, or suffer loss of business, are ready to lead. They need only financial backing to carry on, on a larger scale.

Without this all is lost—money will have NO value.

Back men who pray and know how to fight!

JEWISH PRESS CALLS RABBI SENATOR TAFT'S BUDDY

When one of the leading Jewish publications makes a point of informing its readers that, should Taft be nominated and win the election on the Republican ticket, everything will be "okay," it is time for pro-Americans to sit up and take notice.

The following quote is from the April 6, 1951 column of Phineas J. Biron, who writes "Strictly Confidential" in the B'nai B'rith Messenger:

" . . . And by the way, did you know that the Yiddish Daily Forward is attacking Rabbi Silver as the 'darling of the Communists.' Is the Forward aware that Silver is Senator Taft's buddy and a staunch supporter of the conservative wing of the Republican Party . . ."

The same columnist, in the same paper, also said on April 20, 1951:

" . . . Those in the know among Israeli politicians, irrespective of their political party, know only too well that Rabbi Silver commands great influence in political and economic spheres of the United States. As a matter of fact it is a foregone conclusion that after 1952 Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver will be very close to the Administration, which is expected to be Republican . . . His staunch support of the Republican platform will make him the most influential leader in the country . . . Should Taft become President, Rabbi Silver will undoubtedly become his principal advisor on Jewish affairs . . . In 1953 Silver will have more to say about America's foreign policy in regard to Israel than any official spokesman of that country in Washington . . ."

What columnist Biron DID NOT tell his readers is that: the Lithuanian-born Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver has, for years, been on the national committee of the legal-aid and propaganda spearhead for the Red Revolutionary movement, the American Civil Liberties Union. Nor did he mention that Silver has been a member of the Central Conference of American Rabbis which called for establishment in the U. S. A. of a "thoroughly socialized democracy." (N. Y. Times, 9-13-36.) Rabbi Silver, of Cleveland, is the most powerful Zionist in the world since the death of the late Rabbi Stephen S. Wise.

spiracy. Some of that group even gives lip service to opposition to Stalin's Communism in order to confuse and divert attention from the Judaic-Marxist plan to enslave the world.

Gullible Christians who, without thinking, have rushed to the defense of the world plotters should—by now—begin to wonder why the Rabbis do not defend those they have taught. An unjustly accused group is usually willing to "lay the cards on the table," and correct a false impression—if it is false.

Over a period of years, many publications have printed thousands of statements showing that Talmudists are incubators of the trouble in the world; showing that they are dedicated to hatred of Christians whom they plan to enslave; showing that they infiltrate top positions in all governments so as to maneuver countries into war so that those governments can be ruled by Jews just as all so-called Communist countries are today.

If the facts are totally incorrect—if the minority has been unjustly accused, how simple it would be for three top Rabbis to challenge the statements in debate; prove the statements ridiculous either on a public platform or through a newspaper. COMMON SENSE gladly offers space to anyone wishing to debunk statements printed therein.

With the United States on the verge of the last war it will participate in, the war most likely to be lost before it is begun, is it not important to have a showdown? Should not everyone know which Satanic brains are behind the anti-Christian conspiracy?

Because the unholy Marxist plan is—at this moment—so very near completion, COMMON SENSE has compiled, and is publishing in this issue, a listing of the strategic positions now held by Jew-Marxists in many of the major countries. Readers must bear in mind that our list is not complete. Under those named there are, unquestionably, thousands of lesser positions held by Marxist-Jews. Important, also, are the non-Jews controlled from behind-the-scenes. They include Dean Acheson, General George Marshall, Averill Harriman, Thomas Dewey, John Foster Dulles, General Eisenhower and Brian McMahon.

It is the belief of COMMON SENSE that this issue contains irrefutable evidence which no sane-thinking person can lightly brush aside. Still, if COMMON SENSE can be proven to be wrong, an apology will be run on the front-page, and the paper will cease publication. If COMMON SENSE is correct, is it not essential that all alien-minded people be put out of federal and state offices so that our Republic can present a united front against an outside enemy? There must be courage to face facts and determine whether or not there is a Fifth Column numbering millions. If so, those making up that Fifth Column must be segregated while it is still possible to do so.

The above suggestion is the American way, the fair way, to ascertain facts. The wrong way is the manner in which the Anti-Defamation League and the American Jewish Congress (Marxist fronts) have threatened, and coerced, nine printers to discontinue printing COMMON SENSE within the past five and one-half years. The lives of those connected with COMMON SENSE have been threatened time and time again. Still, since publication began, no one has attempted to prove COMMON SENSE wrong.

COMMON SENSE would like the opportunity to prove, from their own statements, that:

1. Marxism is Jewish.
2. The Marxists pushed us into World War II.
3. The Talmud teaches the abolishment of Christianity.
4. The Protocols outline the Judaic-Marxist plan to enslave the world.

It is ridiculous to oppose a man merely because of his race, or religion. By Their Fruits You Shall Know Them.

Zionist Brains Rule U. S.

ANNA M. ROSENBERG

Assistant Secretary of Defense, Anna M. Rosenberg, is the Hungarian-born Jewess appointed as boss of the Pentagon and head of all American manpower. Although she has, by her own admission, given courses at the Red New School for Social Research, her appointment to a key government position was confirmed and she now has the power to hire thousands of people.

It is reported that she is now hiring more than 30,000 a month. Those in Washington, who have learned that Anna Rosenberg is packing the Defense Department with Zionist Jews are very much alarmed.

REUTHER FAVORS SOCIALISM

It isn't often that double-talking Walter P. Reuther lets down the guard and reveals his real intentions toward industry.

One such occasion was his statement to the press during the 1946 General Motors strike.

At that time, Reuther was justifying his wage demands on the grounds of industry's 'ability to pay,' regardless of other considerations.

One reporter asked Reuther, at the interview, what would happen to an industry which was economically unable to meet the CIO wage demands.

His answer was prompt:

"The United Auto Workers will not subsidize inefficient management."

The industry would have to die.

Interviewed by Reporter Luke P. Carroll of the New York Herald Tribune on March 14, 1949, Emil Mazey, secretary of the UAW and Reuther's No. 1 lieutenant, defined Reuther's attitude:

"What Walter Reuther said two years ago still goes," said Mazey. "He has said the same thing over and over again since, and I feel the same way."

"Any company that cannot cope with economic conditions and continue to meet the wage pattern is just a drag on the industry. We would be better off without that company in business."

Business records show that, under our American profit-and-loss system, most industries undergo lean years when they could not meet a Reutherized high wage pattern.

Reuther's answer to such a situation is to let the industry die.

Since this would be the first step toward socialization, it is easy to understand why the old Marxist Reuther favors such a ruthless course.

Baruch Adviser To Presidents

Baruch, press-agented "adviser" to Presidents, is, undoubtedly head of the Invisible Government.

When he began advising Woodrow Wilson the U. S. debt was one billion dollars. After 35 years as chief "adviser" the U. S. debt rose to 300 billion, with a 3rd war going on and a 4th war on its way. More than 800 billion in resources have been wasted throughout the world; hundreds of thousands of American boys killed and crippled. What an "adviser"! Later, before going to Paris to "confer" with Eisenhower, Baruch called on General Marshall at his home in Virginia. Obviously, he had to tell Marshall to listen to orders given through Anna Rosenberg.

Another war is plotted to render all America subject to Marxist Jews, just as World War II delivered Europe to them. While his press agents have him say one thing, his actual plans are totally different, as evidenced in the "Baruch Answers," published by Look Magazine, July 31, 1951. In that article, Baruch defines Communism as "the super-imposing of state on the individual," and states: "I have opposed centralized government." Past "advice" of the 'Prince' of the Invisible Government contradicts this, as the following article will prove.

BERNARD MANNES BARUCH

The situation in America has come to what can best be described as "one helluva mess."

In thousands of American homes there is an empty chair which will never again have its springs squashed by the able-bodied youth who went off, not so long ago, to something known as a Korean "police action." The folks back home now possess a somber, black-printed certificate to remind them that men must die to prove the efficiency of a new style war which begins and ends at a predawn line.

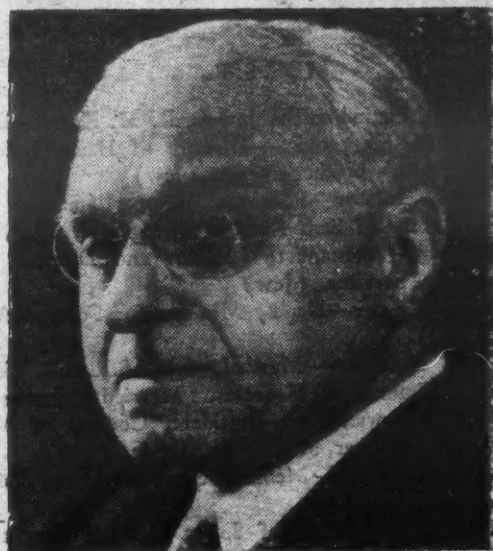

Taxes are the highest in the Nation's history. There are rent controls; restrictions on what farmers can grow, (and how much), while food is stockpiled to rot. There are savings deposit interest controls, price controls, and still the Zionist-controlled administration in Washington asks for MORE CONTROLS.

Why?

Ever since Bernard Mannes Baruch entered the American scene as "adviser" to Presidents, the citizens of the United States have been subjected to increasingly greater supervision by the federal government. Because most pictures show Baruch as a kindly old gent, sitting on a park bench generously feeding peanuts to the squirrels, few people realize that those same hands have been busy pulling political strings for the enactment of a REGIMENTATION program being fed to Americans in small, swallowable doses.

Whether it is called Communism, Socialism, or state collectivism, anything which tends to centralize power in the hands of a few destroys personal liberty. That Baruch is an ardent collectivist is adequately shown by the measures he advocates:

"Baruch Urges 'Total Plan' For Mobilization" (To include peace time draft, universal military training, (Continued on Page 6)

FELIX FRANKFURTER

Felix Frankfurter, Supreme Court Justice, is the man who "advises" Acheson on State Department policies. Frankfurter likes to be known as a "liberal". He is so "liberal", it's a lie! Before gaining his Justice-ship, Frankfurter was adviser to Sacco and Vanzetti, the anarchists electrocuted in Massachusetts; he was counsel for Tom Mooney, the Communist who served a long term in California for bombing. He has been affiliated with the American Civil Liberties Union which has, for years, given legal aid to Communists.

An Austrian-born Zionist, Frankfurter has placed many Marxists (mostly former students of his) in key government positions. Among them are Alger Hiss, Lee Pressman, Donald Hiss, Nathan Witt, and Judge Jerome Frank.

It was Frankfurter who stated, in an interview reported by the Chicago Daily Tribune of April 26, 1949: "The real rulers of a nation are undiscoverable."

HERBERT H. LEHMAN

Lehman, New York's "Marxist" gift to the Senate, is known for his opposition to legislation which would curb Communists and Communism. He has also compared that fighting, anti-Communist, Senator Joseph McCarthy, with Hitler, and said McCarthy's efforts are "black evil of McCarthyism."

Stalin's Daughter, Svetlana, Marries Jew, Kaganovich

Svetlana, daughter of Russia's Prime Minister Stalin, has married Mihail Kaganovich, son of Lazar Kaganovich, Politburo member, in a $900,000 blaze of splendor. The report, carried by Associated Press' London Bureau, stated that the ceremony was held on July 3, and definitely mentioned that the bridegroom is JEWISH.

Stalin is married to the sister of Lazar Kaganovich. It would seem that, to "keep things in the family," Svetlana has been married off to her cousin.

Vassily, Stalin's part Jewish son, is married to Molotov's half-Jewish daughter!

And . . . there would be anti-Semitism in the U. S. S. R. ????

and industrial mobilization.)—P. M., 3-30-48.

"World Government Based on Baruch Plan Proposed Here by Rabbi Liebman, Author" — New York Times, 7-2-47.

"Baruch's National Health Plan Offers Basis for Agreement."—P.M., 11-26-47.

"Control Wages and All Prices, Baruch Urges—Asks one man rule to halt inflation peril."—Chicago Tribune, 9-20-41.

"Baruch Foresees Shotless Victory — Proposes Mobilization of Industry."—Herald American, 3-12-41.

"Baruch Urges Centralization of Defense Power—Would give all to President."—New York Herald-Tribune, 1-18-41.

"Baruch Asks All Wear Same Kind of Shoes. A plan to standardize the production of such commodities as shoes, clothing, and houses was proposed to Congress today by Bernard Baruch."—Chicago Tribune, 11-20-41.

That Baruch, the kindly squirrel-feeder, is not reluctant to aid Red, anti-Christians is also evident. Time Magazine of January 2, 1939, reported the disbanding of the Abraham Lincoln Battalion, or Brigades, and the return of several hundred of the 4,000 mustered by the Communist Party in the U. S. A. to fight in Spain. To quote: "... AND ONE WHO PUT UP $10,000. TO HELP REPATRIATE LINCOLN BRIGADIERS WAS FINANCIER BERNARD MANNES BARUCH. . . . Typical of the brigades personnel was the roll of last week's homecomers. Among them: 25-year-old Brigade Commissar (political instructor) John Gates from Youngstown, Ohio. . . . The report does not add that Gates' real name is Israel Ragenstrich, alias Solregen Streif, whose passport, number 362763, was issued in January, 1937.

Gates (Ragenstrich) former editor of the Daily Worker, and one of the eleven top Communists convicted of conspiracy to seek forcible overthrow of the Government, recently went to jail under a five-year sentence.

Anna M. (the ROSEY) Rosenberg, now Assistant Secretary of Defense, is another of Baruch's "interests." When Mrs. Rosenberg was being investigated by the Senate Armed Services Committee, prior to final acceptance of her appointment, Baruch wired Committee member Senator Harry Byrd: "Am pleased to telegraph what I said to you personally that think Anne Rosenberg thoroughly capable and best possible choice. . . ." And, when Tex McCrary and Jinx Falkenburg urged the aforementioned Committee to approve the Rosenberg appointment, their wire read: "Equally important she learned all her loyalties and much of her common sense from Bernard Baruch." (Part 2, Hearings on Nomination of Anna M. Rosenberg, December 5-14, 1950).

How much longer are American citizens going to allow Baruch to bluff, bully and rule policies of the federal government? How much longer are Americans going to blindly accept the dictates of the Rosenberg-Frankfurter-Lehman combine, the Invisible Government, so obviously ruled by that sly manipulator—Bernard Baruch?

Are Americans going to let our once free Republic fall to the Zionist schemers?

Mac Knows Real Enemy

The real enemies, he said, are "insidious forces"—allied with the scourge of imperialistic communism, —which he said are working "from within"—gaining holds in the press, the radio, in American schools.

He said these forces already have "drastically altered the character of our free institutions" by means of what he called "cover manipulation."

THE UNITED NATIONS
For Our Own Good

Zionist Revolutionists Have Worked For Centuries To Wipe Out Christianity And Obtain World Domination. They Use Communism-Socialism-Fabianism-And "New Dealism" To Reach Their Goal. Here Is What They Themselves Say:

KARL MARX

The Jewish Encyclopedia, (Vol. 8), described Marx' arrest, exiles and Red revolutionary activities in only the most favorable, deferential way, and says: "the great work of Marx's life with which his fame is more enduringly identified is 'DAS KAPITAL'."

The "Encyclopedia of Jewish Knowledge" (Jacob DeHaas, editor, 1938) with equal deference describes Marx and his "great" works.

"Jewish Contributions to Civilization" issued by "Jewish Publication Society of America" (1920) eulogizes Karl Marx and blasphemously likens his Hell-inspired anti-God, venomous theories to "the exalted indignation of an Isiah." (pp. 45-6).

JACOB SCHIFF

The "Jewish Communal Register" of 1917-18, published by the "Kehillah" (Jewish Community) of New York, 356 Second Avenue, N. Y. (p. 1019) praises Jacob Schiff, head of Kuhn Loeb and Co., for financing the Russian Red Revolution.

"The Jew plays a part in revolutions, and he plays it inasmuch as he is a Jew, or rather inasmuch as he remains a Jew. The spirit of the Jew is essentially a revolutionary spirit, and consciously or otherwise, the Jew is a revolutionary." . . . The Jew, Bernard Lazare in his book "L'Antisemitisme," Paris, 1894.

"The Jewish religion is hostile to Christianity in general and to the Catholic church in particular."

—M. J. Oglin in "The Morning Freiheit" N. Y. daily, Jan. 10, 1937 (The California Joint Fact-Finding Committee report of 1948, p. 157, said: The "Morning Freiheit is the official Communist organ in the Jewish language.")

"Nationalities must disappear, religion must be suppressed. But Israel must not disappear for this little people is the Chosen of God."

—Adolphe Gremieux, president of L'Alliance Israelite Universelle, in "Les Archives Israelites," Paris No. 25—1861.

"The joy of Jewry at the events (Bolshevik revolution) was not merely the triumph over an oppressor; but was also gladness at the downfall of hostile religious and semi-religious institutions."

—H. Wickham Steed (half-Jew) in "Through Thirty Years".

"The American Hebrew," the Nation's most outstanding Jewish weekly, said on September 10, 1920:

"The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains, of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a new order in the world. What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, thanks to Jewish brains, and because of Jewish dissatisfaction, and by Jewish planning, shall also, through the same Jewish mental and physical forces, become a reality all over the world."

"We Jews, we, the destroyers, will remain the destroyers forever. Nothing that you do will meet our needs and demands. We will destroy because we need a world of our own."

—Th Jew, Maurice Samuel, in his book "You Gentiles," page 155.

"The world revolution which we will experience will be exclusively our affair and will rest in our hands. This revolution will tighten the Jewish domination over all other people."

—Paris Jewish magazine, "Peuple Juif," February 8, 1919.

"The Jew is a Communist"—Otto Winiger in his book, "Sex and Character," Vienna, 1921.

"The patriotism of the Jew is simply a cloak he assumes to please the Englishman. Jews who pretend that they can at once be patriotic Englishmen and good Jews are simply living lies."

—B. Fells, in a letter to the "Jewish Chronicle," Dec. 8, 1911.

"Without exaggeration it may be said that the great Russian Revolution was indeed accomplished by the hands of the Jews."

—Statement of the Jew, Mr. Cohen in "The Communist Charkov," April 12, 1919.

"The revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution, a crisis in Jewish history. It's a Jewish revolution because Russia is the home of about half the Jews of the world . . . but the revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution also because Jews are the most active revolutionists in the Czar's empire."

—From the Zionist organ, "The Maccabean," New York November 1905, pg. 250, headline "A Jewish Revolution."

"Our fight goes on, not only for our existence, but for the preservation and the development of our whole Jewish being—our All-World domination which was taken away from us 2000 years ago."

—The "Israelitische Wochenblatt," Leipsiz, January 15, 1926.

"We intend to remake the Gentile . . . what the communists are doing in Russia."

—Rabbi Lewis Browne in his book, "How Odd of God".

"Pale-Zionism goes on with its task in Russia, in Palestine and elsewhere. In this very hour it appears as the UNIQUE INTERNATIONAL PROLETARIAN PARTY. One of its factions joins the Communist Internationale, the other joins the Socialist Internationale."

Rabbi Stephen Wise said: "Some call it Communism; I call it Judaism."

"What we Jews must do is to set our faces as flint against Fascism, against any form of it whatsoever. Our next step to be taken as soon as ever it is possible, must be to seize, in the interest of the workers, ALL THE NATION'S INDUSTRIES, AND LET NOTHING WHATSOEVER STAND IN OUR WAY, EVEN SHOULD WE HAVE TO USE VIOLENCE."

—James Waterman Wise (Son of Rabbi S. Wise, N. Y.) speaking from the pulpit of the Free Synagogue, Jan. 28, 1934 on "The 'Rising Tide—Will It Overwhelm Us?'" (Note: James Waterman Wise is affiliated with 55 Communist fronts!)

"We feel, that this—the revolution—is a great triumph for Jews' cause. The anti-Jewish element in Russia has always been identified with the anti-revolutionary party. Jews having always sat high in the councils of the revolutionists, all of our race became inseparably linked with the opponents of the government in the official mind!" . . . "One of the finest things ever done by the mob was the crucifixion of Christ. Intellectually, it was a splendid gesture. But trust the mob to bungler. If I'd had charge of executing Christ I'd have handled it differently. You see, what I'd have done was had him shipped to Rome and fed to the lions. They never would have made a saviour out of mincemeat."

THINK THIS OVER

32 Presidents in 156 years spent $179,620,113,645. President Truman in less than five years spent $191,208,139,419.

From Fiscal year 1946 to Sept. 30, 1949.

The extraordinary expenditures of the war years from 1941 to 1945 have been excluded in these figures as per U. S. Treasury reports.

About 11 million urban families own the homes they occupy, valued at 30 billion dollars. This would not be enough to run the present government ten months.

And mind you we pay interest on this vast amount on money that we the people create on our printing presses. Are you ready for the poor house for all our people when the final crash does come.

A THOUGHTFUL PRAYER

For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power and love, and of a sound mind. Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partakers of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God." (II Timothy, Chap. I, verses 7 & 8—Paul's Epistle).

"Persecutions, afflictions . . . what persecutions I endured, but out of them all the Lord delivered me." (II Timothy 2:11).

So that we may say with Paul: "I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord—shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that that love His appearing." (II Tim. 4:7-8)

The following Zionists are of Asiatic Yiddish origin (Khazars). None of their ancestors ever set a foot in the Holy Land. Dr. Chaim Weizmann, First President, was BORN IN LITHUANIA. David Ben Gurion, Prime Minister of Defense, Mordechai Bentov, Minister of Labor; Isaac Gueirnbaum, Minister of Interior; Itche Meier Levin, Minister; Moshe Shapira, Minister of Immigration — ALL BORN IN POLAND. David Reinez, Minister of Transportation and Communication; Kaplan, Minister of Finance, Moshe Shertok, Minister, Minister of Education and Religion — ALL BORN IN RUSSIA.

Two-thirds of the oil supply of the world is located within the 500 miles of Israel. The late Secretary of Defense, Forrestal, was afraid that in the event of war Israel would see to it that the Soviet Union secured this oil.

ALBERT EINSTEIN

Albert Einstein who has been cited by the Un-American Activities Committee many times recently appeared at Princeton University and openly condemned Catholicism. Einstein has worked hand in hand with Communist groups for years and is recognized as an important factor in the coming war against Christian humanity. Is it an accident that Zionist Jews like Einstein are in key positions throughout the world? The Zionists have bragged for years that the end of Christianity will come in 1952. Does this appear possible to the average reader? Study closely the positions that these anti-Christians hold, printed on page four and five of this issue, and your hair will stand up on end.

A PRIEST REPLIES

Rev. and dear Father,

I am glad that you read about such issues as are written in "Common Sense" and that you reflect upon their grave significance. All Christian Americans should be intelligently and actively occupied with these vital topics. They should equip themselves with sufficient knowledge to be able to effectively inform others, upon ideas, which are so pertinent to the welfare of Christianity and of Americanism.

"Common Sense" is trying to awaken Christians and Americans to the nearness of grave danger to Christianity, from anti-Christianism and to Americanism, from anti-Americanism. It is battling against heresy, lack of enlightened Christianity and of Patriotism, its directness of presentation appals them.

You ask my "impression of the factualness and reliability" of "Common Sense." I believe that "Common Sense" possesses both, in a high degree. Otherwise, it would have to defend innumerable libel suits. If it were unable to document, substantially, the statements which it makes, the enemies of Christianity and those of Americanism, would hasten to point that out. But, no honest attempt has been made to confute the claims of "Common Sense," though it has been subjected to the modern anti-Christian and dishonorable technique, known as "Smearing." And, politically disposed persons, ecclesiastical and lay, either give "Common Sense" the "Silence Treatment" or studiously avoid to look it in the face. And, when it solicits their interest and help, for what is really their own cause, as well as that of "Common Sense," many, hypocritically and, like Uriah Heep, obsequiously condemn it. Christ, Himself, was treated in a similar way, by similar people.

The Editors of "Common Sense" are Christian patriots, who are endeavoring to defend Christianity against anti-Christianism and Patriotism against treachery and against treachery. But, many are terrified at the very thought of looking with two eyes, at the items referred to in "Common Sense." They would rather have a spade called something else. Due to a gross son. And, should not that ideal attract all Christian Americans, at least, with as much earnestness, as the opposite ideal, the destruction of Religion and of our Government, so easily gains the hearty allegiance of anti-Christians and traitors?

Such protagonists for orthodox Christianity, as the Angel of the Schools, as St. Augustine, St. Jerome, St. Athanasius and Bossuet, many consider out-moded or a source of embarrassment. In our time, many seem to prefer to be beguiled by eu-de-cologne preachers, lecturers, professors, and syndicated and special writers, who feed the people on veiled, though actual heresy and treason. And, to keep their stomachs from gagging, this toxic pabulum is usually made appetizing, with a pious distortion and silly emotionalism. When the people "ask for bread," they give them "a stone;" when they "ask for a fish," they give them "a serpent."

This method is favorable for making money on books, pamphlets, lectures, syndicated articles and for grist to one's own mill. It secures creature comforts, prestige, political jobs, hand-shaking friends, profitable publicity, reciprocal plugging and the general ease of life. And, some prefer to remain Judases, than to become St. Pauls.

It is said that the "way of the ameliorator is hard." The Editors of "Common Sense" have gloriously accepted that way. They have dedicated themselves to the defense of Christianity and of Americanism. And, they are uncomplainingly paying the price. They have endured actual suffering, for the two-fold cause, which is rightly not only theirs, but, also, that of all Christians and of all Americans. Because they desired to be free, they avoided the glittering shackles of the advertisers. They bore the brunt, themselves. They eschewed that covetousness, which has brought decay and death to many an otherwise good work. Their technique scorns the grand idea of getting along, merely in this world. And, should not their firmness against many obstacles, be taken as evidence that they strive for "factualness and reliability?"

"Common Sense" supports the Corps of Christendom and the well-being of the United States. It advocates Order, the Plan of God, which Christ came to establish and is against Disorder, the Plan of the World, which is sustained by all types of anti-Christians, Naturalists, Rationalists, Liberals, Messianic Era advocates, heretics and schismatics.

My "impression of the factualness and reliability" of "Common Sense" is a favorable one. May "Common Sense" continue to strengthen the Camp of Christ and drive out the Camp of Satan.

Sincerely yours,
(Rev.) EDWARD F. BROPHY.

HEY BUD! How about a contribution to Common Sense. With your money and our newspaper we can defeat the Commuists in this country fast.

What we need is a circulation of one million papers fanning out over the country every week. This can be done if you supply us with the money to buy the ammunition. This is your paper as well as ours so let's get on the job.

If for business, professional, social or political consideration, or any other personal reason, it is more desirable to make your contribution anonymously, just pin a $10. or $5. or $1. bill to this coupon and mail! It will be an added "straw" by which you help to "break the camel's back"!

THIRD ZIONIST WAR

By JUDGE GEORGE W. ARMSTRONG

With his usual clarity and truthful boldness, the author presents his arguments that the Korean "police action" is a planned trap to further promote a Zionist empire. "It is in fact war," Judge Armstrong writes, "and a war initiated by the President and his advisers, Dean Acheson, Felix Frankfurter, David Niles, and other Zionist traitors."

Mentioning General Douglas MacArthur as a "great Christian American patriot," THIRD ZIONIST WAR tells of the General's humility when he asked the people of Korea to join him in reciting the Lord's Prayer. It cites, also, the many efforts made to gag MacArthur, for "the Zionists never intended him to win the war."

THIRD ZIONIST WAR is a 70-page indictment against those who would destroy America. It is a booklet no American should be without.

MILITARY UNDER UN TO TAKE OVER U.S.

By Robert H. Williams, news analyst, lecturer and former Counter Intelligence Officer

In the July issue I reported what appeared to be a serious threat at seizure of power in an emergency by the infiltrated Civil Defense Agency.

It now appears that this agency probably will be subsidiary to and at the command of still another new force, the Military Government (Reserve) units now in training.

The Military Government units have sprung up apparently without Congressional authority, and they are issuing their training proclamations in the name of the United Nations, a thing half Communist and largely under the influence and direction of Zionist revolutionaries. They are being trained to govern us with absolute power if and when the President proclaims martial law.

It may be that martial law—rule by the army—would be necessary in time of emergency, to help police and the FBI cope with the millions of Communists, Zionists and willing "liberal" tools inside our borders. All good Americans would want to cooperate with the military. But martial law does not require specially selected and trained "Military Government" units—to rule over their own people. The Army would need merely to back the local police and the FBI in their operations. The new force is to be a complete government—stemming from Washington and the United Nations—sweeping aside our local self government.

During July Military Government units, trained at Fort MacArthur, seized several cities in Los Angeles county in "dry runs" for training, and in each instance they issued their proclamations as coming from the United Nations Security Council. They said they were being trained primarily to govern foreign territories captured by our armies, but they said also they would take over American territory if and when it has been occupied by any enemy and then liberated by our troops. There is much talk also that they will take over if the West Coast is threatened with attack.

We got a still stronger warning from a meeting of the Military Government Association in June at 210 West 7th Street, Los Angeles, in which a high public official, a member of the association, said "we are going to have military government whether we like it or not," and other association leaders spoke in a like vein. While the association is unofficial, evidently these association leaders expect to wield great influence in the MG dictatorship if and when it comes.

The personnel of the new Military Government units seem to be largely out of the old American Military Government (AMG) crowd which Roosevelt and Truman sent to rule conquered peoples as we took territory. Reporting

Americans For Democratic Action Promote Nation-wide Pro-Communist Plot

By Captain Douglas Musser Smith

(Common Sense is pleased to bring its readers this exclusive article by Captain Smith, a Chevalier of the French Legion d'Honneur and holder of the Croix de Guerre with two palms. Captain Smith, who joined the French Foreign Legion before the U. S. entered either war, served as a Lieutenant in World War I—Captain in World War II. His book, "American Guerrilla," was published by Bobbs-Merrill in 1943.)

The ADA—Americans for Democratic Action—and the labor bosses aided in the dastardly plot to establish a pro-Communist dictatorship in the United States and set up a permanent war spending program in order to stave off a financial depression, BUT at the expense of American lives in Korea.

VIVIEN KELLEMS

Connecticut industrialist Vivien Kellems, who battled the legal experts of Internal Revenue and refused to withhold income taxes from wages paid to employees of her cable grip manufacturing plant, blames men for the tyranny in government.

Commenting on the "brave women in Marshall, Texas," who have refused to withhold social security taxes from wages of their babysitters, part-time maids, etc., Miss Kellems, in a letter to John O'Donnell of the New York Daily News, stated:

"The women of this country couldn't vote when you brilliant, far-sighted men decided to dump our constitutional system of taxation overboard and adopt the major tenet of the Communist Manifesto, the graduated income tax, withholding tax, and the greatest snare and delusion of them all, the so-called social security racket. Every bit of the whole program stems right out of Russia. Suddenly you men come to and find yourselves so completely enmeshed you cannot extricate yourselves, and as usual you start shouting for women to come to your rescue."

"... The time has come for every real American to stand up and be counted. We need some old-time religion, faith, repentance and baptism, and I'd like to see a few of you great, big, strong men hit the sawdust trail along with the women down in Marshall, Texas."

The March, 1950, platform of that leftist organization calling itself the ADA stated: "We believe the recall of General MacArthur and the transfer of control from the Army to the State Department are necessary to this end."

Not satisfied to demand the withdrawal of General MacArthur, as is evidenced in the above resolution passed at their convention, the ADA also aimed to leave Japan unarmed so it would be easy prey for the Communists to take over by internal revolt and seizure of the government by Japanese Communists. Their platform on this vital point was: "... We reject the proposition in some quarters to concentrate upon rearming the Japanese and making them our allies."

Thus the ADA—Americans for Democratic Action—shows its pro-Communist feelings and aim. Its policy was to remove General MacArthur, the one great leader opposing their un-American activities in the Eastern theatre. By leaving Japan unarmed, recognizing Communist China, and turning Formosa over to the Chinese Communist faction would give them control of the Pacific and make the western coast of the U. S. more vulnerable to attack. ADA's actions and policies are so un-American as to be treasonable.

Another RED plank in the ADA platform was "Recent banning of Communist student organizations on college campuses forces us to affirm most strongly the right of Communist student organizations to organize on an equal basis with other student organizations and to hear any speaker of their choice."

Who controls the policy of the Americans for Democratic Action?

Francis Biddle—National Chairman. He was Attorney General during the great Amerasia spy scandal which was suppressed by the government, but which will shortly come to light again through the investigating, as a subversive, Soviet-financed organization, of the Institute of Pacific Relations by the U. S. Senate. (Defense Secretary, General George Marshall, is a trustee and should be immediately relieved of his command and investigated by the F. B. I.)

Zionist Discredits Chiang

JOHN GUNTHER

John Gunther, author of "Inside Europe," "Inside Asia," "Inside Latin America," and "The Riddle of MacArthur."

Gunther's books cleverly discredit the Nationalistic Governments and are so slanted to favor the Marxist plan of "World Government"—Communism. The uninformed do not know why.

The truth is Gunther is a Jew (Astatic Yiddish). He has lived for a considerable period in the Soviet Union, and knows plenty about Communist plans. He is not necessarily a card-carrying Communist. He is of the group which established Communism as a front to establish a "one world government" to be ruled by Jews. The Rhodes Scholarship plan is just as important a front for the Jews as Communism—Fabianism—Socialism—Zionism, and New Dealism.

John Gunther's mother was a Jewess named SCHOENINGER: he married a Jewess, FINEMAN.

DOPE

From the "EMANUEL AND JEWISH JOURNAL," 3/27/1942: ("PASSOVER EDITION"), article entitled: "JEWS IN THE FAR EAST," (pub. 251 Kearney St., San Francisco, Calif.): "Ten or so years ago it was easy for a Jewish immigrant to iron out his financial difficulties in international, teeming Shanghai. The rich Sephardic-Jewish Kehillah community went out of its way to extend helping hands to those brethren in need. This community was established in the fifties of the last century. The first Jew to settle in Shanghai was Elijah David Sassoon, one of the fabulously wealthy Sassoons of India (the so-called 'Rothschilds of the East'). He opened up a branch of the family's business house, attracting thereby Jews from Baghdad and India to come and pitch their tents in Shanghai. In the years following, Shanghai saw the advent of Jewish immigrants from Austria, Germany, Russia and Poland. . . .

"Names like Sassoon, Ezzam and Caduri gives testimony to the fact that the Sephardic-Jewish community is far from being pauperish. The generous inheritance that Caduri left to the schools of Eretz Israel also proves that Shanghai's Jews have their hearts, as a way of saying, in the right place. Opium and banking are the kehillah's two chief sources of wealth. . . . Hong Kong's Jewish community is about a century old, and here too a member of the Sassoon family was the first Jewish settler. . . . Saul Abdullah, born in Bagdad and brother-in-law of David Sassoon, founder of the business establishment, 'Sassoon, Sons & Partners,' resided in Hong Kong the greater part of his life, and won for himself the reputation of being a gifted Hebrew scholar and writer. . . . Originally from Baghdad and Calcutta, these Jews had succeeded in their undertakings in growing Singapore, and had at the same time remained loyal and true to their faith. They resided in spacious, tree-surrounded mansions. . . ."

Pro-Communist Plot

the "seizure" of Culver City the Los Angeles Committee. He is notorious as the defense attorney for Remington, recently convicted as a Communist spy. Judge Noonan was so angry at the tactics of Attorney Rauh that he ordered him to sit down and barred him from making any further remarks to the Court.

Walter P. Reuther—Labor Boss of the U.A.W. Union—Vice Chairman. Reuther's father was a Marxist Socialist in Europe. Reuther went to Communist Russia to study Communism in practice. During his 18 months' stay there, he wrote back to friends in Detroit: "Carry on the fight for a Soviet America." He helped raise money for the Communist cause in Spain. He is one of the most dangerous men in America. Do not be fooled by his polished manners; he is a foul-mouthed conniver if there ever was one.

James A. Weschler—Board Member. Weschler is the editor of the New York Post—certainly, by all standards, a very left-wing tabloid.

Other officers of Americans for Democratic Action include: Marvin Rosenberg, Treasurer (President of Cameo Curtains), A. J. Hayes; Senator Hubert H. Humphrey; W. P. Kennedy (President of Railroad Trainmen, the union which tied up freight scheduled for Korea in the recent "sick" strike); Senator Herbert H. Lehman, Murray D. Lincoln, Reinhold Niebuhr, Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr.; and Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr.

John J. Gunther, author of the "Inside" series of books, is ADA's Legislative Representative and James Loeb, Jr. is National Executive Secretary. Frank W. McCulloch, administrative assistant to Senator Paul Douglas, was chosen as the Board's Secretary.

Mrs. Ethel Epstein, David Ginsburg, Sidney Hollander, Sr., Leo A. Lerner, Chester Bowles, Mrs. Newman Levy, Rt. Rev. William Scarlett, Marshall Holleb, and Otto L. Spaeth are also listed as ADA officers.

Senator Lehman (ADA Board Member) is listed in the magazine, The National Wage Earner, as a labor stooge. His vicious attack on General MacArthur had all Washington agog, but it should have been expected since Lehman is known to have been on good terms with the convicted Communist spy, Alger Hiss. Lehman's sympathetic letter to Hiss stated: "I want you to know that I have complete confidence in your loyalty and that, in common with your many other friends, I know that under no conceivable circumstances could you fail to safeguard the interest of your Country." No doubt Lehman refers to Hiss' real country—the U. S. S. R.

Even after the conviction of that Communist spy, Hiss, Leftist Lehman's niece, Mrs. Benjamin Bittenweiser, according to Ruth Montgomery's April 13th column, "D. C. Wash," provided the "convicted-traitor with a hidaway in her New York City home and Mr. Bittenweiser, believe it or not, was then and still is our Deputy High Commissioner in Occupied Germany."

Bittenweiser should be immediately dismissed from his position of trust and his record checked by the F. B. I. United States Senator Lehman's activities should also be examined by the Un-American Activities Committee. Lehman should be asked to resign. America cannot afford to have a friend of a convicted Communist spy sitting in the United States Senate in time of war.

At this point, two other important policies of the Americans for Democratic Action should be noted. Both were written into their March, 1950, platform:

1. "We believe that sooner or later we will be compelled to establish diplomatic relations with the Mao Tse-tung regime as the effective government in China."
2. "While we recognize the right of Congress to conduct investigations, the House Committee on Un-American Activities has proved itself a threat to freedom of political opinion. We therefore call for its abolition."

The Un-American Activities Committee was beginning to show up Communism, so the ADA took it upon itself to "call for its abolition!"

One of the very, very few outright anti-Communist countries in Continental Europe is Spain. That the Americans for Democratic Action know this is a certainty. Still their platform read: "We unequivocally condemn the Fascist regime in Spain. We are opposed to the granting of any aid to Franco Spain in the United Nations or any of its subsidiary agencies, in the European Recovery Program or in the North Atlantic Pact."

Spain, without U. S. help of any kind, built up and maintains an armed force close to 500,000—all services included—and has offered to increase it to 1,000,000 men if the U. S. will help equip the larger force. There is no question that the ADA platform hopes to ruin those countries opposed to Communism and which would be of invaluable aid to the U. S. (NOT a burden, like most of Continental Europe) if war should come with the Soviet hordes.

The puzzled, the undecided, may still question the crimson hue of Americans for Democratic Action. Reinhold Niebuhr, another ADA Board Member, may help in settling the wavering mind. His address to the ADA convention at Cleveland in February, 1951, was in part:

"In all affairs of domestic and foreign policy, we were the undogmatic left. . . . The undogmatic left on the whole, I think, takes the position that the way to preserve freedom and justice is to bring all power both political and economic power, under social control. . . . A strong sense that both out of prudence and morals it is necessary that America relate itself responsibly and creatively to a world community. . . . We as liberals are the bearers of the foreign policy tradition as against American Conservatism."

That should very clearly prove that the Americans for Democratic Action group is an Un-American group—a collection of Red, pro-Communists desiring to destroy our Constitution and thus our form of government. America is a Republic—not a democracy. The word "democracy" was never used in the Constitution. Citizens of the United States want no "World Federation" to replace the American form of government.

It should be obvious to everyone that, after their March 1950 convention, the Americans for Democratic Action were ready to "clear the decks" so they could pull a crisis and set up a military dictatorship under their rotten, pro-Red control. That actually came about, and Truman now considers himself a dictator in fact. The firing of General Douglas MacArthur is part and parcel of a pro-Red plot to seize control of the United States by dominating the policies of the Truman machine and also the left-wing group of the Republican Party. . . . those international warmongers who are backing General Eisenhower. They include Governor Dewey, Governor Warren of California, Pennsylvania's Senator Duff, Harold Stassen, and a few New England left-wing, so-called Republicans like Lodge, Aiken, Margaret Chase Smith and Tobey. Maybe they do not realize the trap they fell into; perhaps their greed overcomes their scruples.

Americans should not allow a pro-Communist group like the ADA, which is the personal creation of the Roosevelt wing, to dominate both the Democratic and Republican Parties. All voters should write their Senators and Congressmen in Washington and demand a thorough investigation of the ADA group before it destroys our Republic.

MORE ABOUT STALIN

In "Le Nouveau Promethee" (Paris paper for National Cultural Defense) No. 7, May 1951, is a review of a book by a Soviet Army Officer under the pseudonym Ivan Krylov, called My Career on the Soviet General Staff. This review contains a quotation from the book, as follows: "The name of Stalin, Djugachvili, that is to say, in Georgian, 'son of an Israelite,' chvili—son: and Djuga—Israelite. The family of Djugachvili, of Christian orthodox religion, is descended from the Jewish mountain-dwellers of the Caucasus, converted at the beginning of the 19th century." —Reprinted from GOTHIC RIPPLES, England

Open Letter To Brewster

Dear Senator Brewster:

On October 15th, I congratulated you in my private letter for your speech on the "Town Hall Tonight" program, in which you tried to enlighten the American public about the futility, even the un-American aspect, of the VOICE OF AMERICA program.

With your permission, I am in a position to give you certain facts which will prove your points, concerning said program, beyond the shadow of a doubt.

I charge the following: Mr. Ferenc Nagy, ex-premier of Hungary, is considered justly by the Hungarian people as a hard boiled Communist collaborator who advocated close cooperation with Stalin and his ideas even before World War II. Mr. Ferenc Nagy and his friend, Mr. George Salata, through a forged document, framed the most bitterly anti-Communist leader, Mr. Kovacs, who was arrested and interned by the Russians. With this maneuver, the anti-Communist Smallholders Party was broken up, so the Communists grabbed power very easily. On Mr. Ferenc Nagy's orders, more anti-Communist, democratic-minded Hungarians were executed (without trial) than on the order of the Communist Party.

With the "Voice of America" and "Free Europe Radio" is Mr. Karl Peyer who, in 1919, signed the Communist manifesto and held a position in the Communist government as Commissar. After the Communist dictatorship was overthrown, Mr. Peyer helped Bela Kun and Matyas Rakosi to take out of Hungary more than twenty million dollars worth of gold, and helped them to escape to Russia where they used that money to organize a Central European Bolshevik Revolution. Only Mr. Ferenc Nagy's name is more hated by the Hungarians who are waiting for the time when they can punish the betrayers.

The "Voice of America" employs such questionable characters as Mr. Izzo Szekely whose indictment by the Hungarian court, for forgery and embezzlement, is still in force. His Communist sympathies are known facts.

Also with the "Voice of America" is Mr. Joe Sombor-Schweinitzer who, during the first months of the German occupation, with his boss and friend, Colonel Martin Himler (C. I. C. agent, Communist party member) shipped back to Hungary hundreds of innocent, democratic-minded Hungarians to be executed by the Communists. They received $400. for every person they sold to the Communists.

There is also Mr. Robert Gabor who, with a forged passport, which he bought from Mr. Andor Gellert (ex-newspaper reporter) was able to slip into America. His hands are still bloody from the blood of the innocent victims whom he, as secret police chief of Budapest, killed without trial or guilt.

The situation is even worse in the "Free Europe Radio, Inc." because the persons who are employed there by the Hungarian division are nearly all in the services of the Communists, even though they deny it.

Mr. Paul Vajda, a second-rate newspaper reporter, has been a Communist since the first Hungarian Communist dictatorship, for which he was convicted and served a jail term imposed by the duly authorized Hungarian court. There is also a life-time Communist, Mr. Laszlo Bekefy, a would-be artist, whose actions speak louder than his words. He is still collaborating with such Communists as Mr. Ferenc Condor (editor and publisher of "Az Ember," Hungarian pro-Communist paper) who in 1919 served as Commissar of the Hungarian Press Directorate. He and his co-villain, the world infamous Mr. Tibor Szamuely, Commissar of the Hungarian government, hung many innocent peasants in Csorna, Hungary, which I, myself, witnessed.

In the photograph above Britain's Prime Minister, Clement Attlee, is shown saluting with raised closed fist during an official ceremony held in Madrid during the Communist Revolution in Spain. It is accompanied by General Miaja and the Commissar of the Central Army Anton, leader of the Spanish Communist Party.

Attlee's message to the International Brigades was: "I should like to give my best wishes to all the Brigade and especially to the English company. We have been proud to hear of the high reputation which they have gained. I would assure them of our admiration for their courage and devotion for the cause of freedom and social justice. I shall try to tell our comrades at home of what I have seen. Workers of the world, unite!"

If people have any doubts as to the type of government Britain really has, they should remember that the clenched fist, as pictured, is the Communist salute.

During the Russian occupation in Hungary, I read many articles written by Mr. Condor in the Russian-sponsored, Hungarian newspaper. His words were very degrading towards America and, at the same time, glorified Russia and Communist ideas.

Also in "Free Europe Radio, Inc." service is Mr. Andor Gellert who, with his boss, Colonel Martin Himler, systematically robbed the better situated refugees in Germany and, for money consideration, shipped them back to Hungary for execution; 200 such cases are known against him and could be proven by reliable witnesses in Germany. Through his connections he was able to steal a stamp from the American authorities in Germany and, with that, was able to forge many passports, and help his friends reach American shores, where they can preach Communist propaganda. For that service, he received $500. per head from the Communist Party.

Do you think, Senator, that these persons are fit to be employed by the "Voice of America" and "Free Europe Radio, Inc."? Can they qualify as speakers for the Hungarian people and induce them to resist the Russians and the Communists? NO! A thousand times, NO! They are among the guilty persons who sold out the Hungarian people, and Hungary, to the international brigands now destroying Christianity and everything it stands for. During 1946-47, I travelled in Hungary . . . in every city, village and hamlet . . . but I did not find any sane person who had a good word for these Godless individuals, or any defense for their actions.

I willfully omitted the names of the Jewish so-called refugees who are employed by the radio stations because they claimed that my hatred is nothing but anti-Semitism. That is just another flimsy charge which they are unable to prove against me. My hatred against the low betrayers is understandable by every clear-thinking person who knows that, from my immediate family, over one hundred were killed, or interned to Russia as slaves, just because they did not believe in the ideas of the Communists. For this criminal deed I blame no one else but Mr. Ferenc Nagy, and his mentioned co-villains.

The funny part is that they cannot be exposed; thanks to the Red-minded State Department employees who, according to your former colleague, Senator Tydings, are not Communists or Communist sympathizers, but just victims of an "organized witch hunt."

For God's and Humanity's sake, please look into this Communist infiltrated syndicate, and use your power to disperse or deport the guilty ones before they are able to sell and betray our free land to their masters, the Kremlin world-spoilers!

Very sincerely yours,

Universities Get Talmuds

In a previous issue of Common Sense it was reported that the U. S. Army had cooperated in the printing of Talmuds. Now, according to a New York Daily News item of June 18, 1951, it is revealed that nineteen-volume sets of a new edition of the "Talmud of the Surviving Remnant," published in Germany by the Joint Distribution Committee, in cooperation with the U. S. Army, have been given to 45 American universities and seminaries.

Further, it is the responsibility of all the American public to protest such use of the taxpayers' money and services of the U. S. Army. If there is no greater work for our armed forces to do in Germany, other than running printing presses every last serviceman abroad should come home. They could be put to better use in this Nation draining swamplands!

Recipients of the set include Yale, Harvard, Chicago, Columbia and Brandeis universities. Institutions originated and supported by Christian Americans, on Christian funds, should make it their business to ascertain whether or not present-day students are obtaining a Christian education, or are being subjected to teachings which deny the divinity of our Lord, Jesus Christ, and shipping Talmuds to the American Republic.

'COMMON SENSE'

Intimidation Of 11 Printers By Un-American Patriots Urged To Take Heart, And Back $20,000 Press Appeal

While friends, both subscribers and volunteer workers, of Common Sense have lately been besieging the office with the repeated inquiry—"Why is my paper late in reaching me?"—the Editor and staff of this publication maintained a discreet silence. Presenting a brave front, grim smiles were used to hide a seemingly disastrous setback:

COMMON SENSE HAD LOST ITS ELEVENTH PRINTER, and dared not broadcast the fact for fear of scaring away potential printers.

At the very moment when things looked blackest—when there was every reason to believe that Common Sense had, at last, been forced out of pro-American, pro-Christian crusade—an extraordinary opportunity was found.

Common Sense can have its own press. The option, based primarily on our faith in American patriots who will join us and be partners in this Christian endeavor, has been signed.

But . . . $20,000 MUST BE RAISED IMMEDIATELY. That sum will pay for the press itself (capable of turning out 3500 eight-page papers an hour), a folder, a large supply of newspaper stock, and equipment needed for the mailing department. In short, it is the dream so long held by all crusading Americans who wished for an established patriotic press, free from advertising, and well-equipped to quickly expose the evil Communistic forces working to destroy America.

Securement of this press will mean a better paper—every week. A better paper, for the Editor and staff will be freed from the gnawing, sleep-breaking worry that any morning might bring a phone call from a printer:

"Sorry, we can't do your work any more . . . They've been in . . . Yes, threatened to cut off our supply of paper stock . . . We'd go bankrupt . . ."
"They?" Who are "they?"

THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE

Regular readers of Common Sense know the A.D.L. But, for the benefit of latecomers, an explanation is in order.

The Anti-Defamation League is one of the Jewish so-called "defense arms." It is undoubtedly the best known of those "defense arms" allied with, or under the control of, the B'nai B'rith. On its several-million-dollar yearly budget the major portion of which is obtained through Christian contributions to the United Jewish Appeal the Anti-Defamation League operates a powerful gestapo system which intimidates printers with threats of boycott; curtailment of advertising; "strikes" by Jewish members of the typesetters union; withholding of newspaper stock and—if necessary—purchase of printing establishments to stop them from printing patriotic literature.

Never does the A.D.L. threaten, molest, or intimidate the left-wing or Communist publications, although there are some 400 of them in the United States. The Communist "Daily Worker" goes about its subversive business to Communize America without any fear of an A.D.L. attack.

As an illustration of this fact, the radical "New Republic" hired the Red Henry Wallace at a fabulous salary to act as editor, and financed his campaign for President of the U. S. Has the Anti-Defamation League ever investigated the report that Nelson Rockefeller and Michael Straight are not only the financiers of "New Republic," but underwrote the Wallace presidential campaign? The "New Republic" is published by Westrim Ltd., a corporation financed by Mrs. Leonard Elmhirst, social leader of British Communism and widow of Willard Straight, former J. P. Morgan & Company partner, and mother of Michael Straight. Her son, Michael, was an "adviser on economics" for the U. S. State Department and a protégé of Zionist Felix Frankfurter. He is the same Michael Straight who boasted: "The New Deal is more dynamic than Fascism and more revolutionary than Communism."

Has the A.D.L. protested? Not that anyone knows of.

Associated with Wallace as a co-editor of "New Republic" we find a character named Malcolm Cowley. Cowley is also editor of "Soviet Russia Today," and a contributor to the radical "New Masses" and Communist "Daily Worker."

Has the B'nai Brith's Anti-Defamation League exposed these crimson individuals? No. Is it because such publications are controlled by the International Jewish Bankers and their financially prostituted "Christian" fronts? The history of every "Communist" Revolution proves the behind-the-scenes activities of the powerful International Jewish Bankers while patriotism for one's own Country has remained the poor man's burden. To cite a typical example of the financial support given by subversives in our midst to aid the alien destroyers of our Nation—The Red "Daily People's World" of California reported on August 10, 1951, the weekly total of $10,844.42, the result of their militant drive for a defense fund to assist its two editors, Al Richmond and Philip Connelly, jailed under the Smith Act. They raised $115,000 in three weeks.

Has the Anti-Defamation League demanded that "Daily People's World" stop printing a paper? Never!

TRUTH IS PENALIZED

The decision of Mr. McGinley, Editor and Publisher of Common Sense, to undertake the financially unprofitable task of patriotism was spurred by several things:

1. He realized that World War II's "crusade for 'four freedoms'" was the greatest criminal hoax of the 20th century. While priceless American lives were being lost in a battle for a will-o-the-wisp, freedom, abroad individual Americans at home were losing their liberties through centralization of the national government—"war emergency" restrictions and a crippling tax policy.
2. He had read "Rebuilding A Lost Faith" (the confessions of an American Agnostic) in which the well-known editorial writer, Phillip Francis, was quoted as branding the big American papers as "cowardly and controlled . . . who, whenever it is a question between mere coin and GOOD, HONEST, PATRIOTIC PUBLIC SERVICE, WILL TAKE THE COIN EVERY TIME." He also noted, in that same book, the quoted statement of New York Editor John Swinton who, decrying the loss of America's independent press, remarked: "Not a man among you dares to utter his honest opinion . . . It is the duty of the New York journalist to LIE, TO DISTORT, TO REVILE, TO TOADY AT THE FEET OF MAMMON, AND TO SELL HIS COUNTRY AND HIS RACE FOR HIS DAILY BREAD, or what amounts to the same thing, his SALARY."

3. He became aware of the fact that there was an abundance of left-wing, radical, and Communistic material all of which glorified "one worldism," "Socialism," and global "do-goodism," but the voice in behalf of AMERICA was little more than a mouse's squeak.

When investigation proved to Mr. McGinley that most of the American press was, actually, a prostituted press, he accepted the responsibility incumbent upon him as an American citizen whose ancestors were pioneers of the West and launched an all out crusade for truth.

Two lawyers and two deputies (all Jews) under directions from the A.D.L. find editor of COMMON SENSE alone in office, start a fight and arrest him for beating the two deputies. The Jury, however, found him "not guilty."

The first edition of Common Sense was issued in 1946. Despite persecution, threats of death, coercion of printers, slander, and even false arrest, Mr. McGinley never deviated from the foundation on which Common Sense was built: PRINT THE TRUTH.

It is a policy which has paid rich returns in this respect—Common Sense is no longer an echo in the wilderness, but a powerful voice for freedom, circulating from 25,000 to 50,000 copies bi-monthly and reaching into every religious, legislative, educational and civic strata. The enemies of America are now afraid of this power, for, while they do not refute the facts published in Common Sense, and there has never been a libel suit, every contemptible measure has been taken to silence the paper. They do not challenge the truth. They challenge our RIGHT TO PRINT IT.

None but the friendliest relations ever existed between the Editor of this paper and Grant Bauer, original owner of the "Union Register" where the first copies of Common Sense were printed. But, after a few Marxist Jews bought stock in his paper, Mr. Bauer was told to stop our work. When he refused to heed their request, the Jews worked to obtain controlling stock in the "Union Register." Successful, they forced Mr. Bauer out; took over the Common Sense account and demanded payment of $2700 for a total indebtedness of $1500. Refusing all officers of an amicable settlement, the Zionist owners' attorney, Mr. Dvorin, informed Common Sense's legal adviser that "COMMON SENSE IS A DIRT SHEET AND HAS TO BE STOPPED."

The publisher gets his orders from the Zionists.

When we obtained the services of Eben Kempson, a Linden, N. J., printer, the Jews could not let us have freedom of the press. They cursed Mr. Kempson openly on the streets and eventually, through control of the linotype union, informed Kempson that he could not have type set on a linotype machine in all of New Jersey if he persisted in printing Common Sense.

The printer has no choice; the Jews will boycott him out of business.

A large printing concern, 400 miles from New Jersey, printed an issue—only one—then that mysterious power stepped in.

This is a very large concern; prints newspapers for more than a hundred firms. These newspapers carry advertising. The Anti Defamation League will have all Jews remove their advertising from these papers if necessary to force them to quit this enter in event they continue to print COMMON SENSE.

Next, the Style Printing Company of Irving, N. J. called at our office to solicit our print. We warned them the Jews would boycott them, but they insisted such intimidation would only make them more determined. Two days later they changed their minds.

A large engraving company had been making picture cuts for a considerable time. Then they had a "Committee" call on them. Within hours, we were told "regrettably" they dared do our work no longer.

About February, 1949, a Jewish man, of Flemington, N. J. undertook to print the paper. Zionist pressure, however, soon forced him to "throw in the sponge."

Many things can happen to the printer's business if he decides that he is the boss of his own business.

It was a Jewish lawyer, who walked into the office of Mr. Ray Gill (publisher of the "Dover Advance") and, after identifying himself as representing the "Law and Social Division" of the American Jewish Congress, flatly stated that unless Mr. Gill stopped printing Common Sense, "I will have every bit of Jewish advertising removed from your paper." Since Mr. Gill, his family, and relatives were dependent upon their own paper for a living, there was not any choice. They dropped Common Sense.

Our next contact was with International Press, owned by Doctor Kosik, a real Christian and American patriot. For over a year and a half he stood fast in his resolve not to abandon work on Common Sense. It cost him thousands of dollars in business, but when the Jews could succeed in no other way they played their trump card: "You will not get one pound more of paper, if you do not drop Common Sense."

We were, again, without a printer!

This is a large plant that prints ten papers. The mysterious power caused Jewish advertisers to force four of these papers to quit doing business with this printer causing them to lose more than $15,000, but they continued to print COMMON SENSE. Finally, jobbers who handle the news stock in this section (Jews) cut off supply to this plant so as to bankrupt him or force him to give up COMMON SENSE.

From another printer, we ordered 100M papers. He was, apparently, pleased with the business. The press began to roll. Forty-three thousand copies were finished. Someone called. The press was stopped, all type melted down, and we were left with no way to have the balance printed.

The last printer gladly accepted our check for an issue he was to print at once. After delaying for three weeks, he returned the money to us. No work was done, of course.

That mysterious power by people who talk "tolerance"—yet are the only ones who preach hate—had intervened.

This editor had a paper of his own. He is told in no uncertain terms that his Jewish advertisers will take their advertising to his competitors unless he drops COMMON SENSE.

We do not owe one dollar to anyone who has printed Common Sense.

The American Jewish Congress does not dare challenge COMMON SENSE on their statements, but they will have none of free speech.

THE DAYS AHEAD

There should be no doubt in the minds of Americans that the present global crisis is not merely another struggle for political power, but a definite trend which will effect the lives of all men, women, and children of the United States. None will be able to escape the dire consequences of the plotted world-wide revolution. The International Zionists have laid their plans well and they intend to make slaves of all Christians in the not too distant future.

Even now, we must confess to our friends that, despite all we have already done to warn against the alien, anti-Christian plan presently unfolding, there are extremely important additional facts our readers should know. It is regrettable that so much valuable information has had to be withheld because of Common Sense's limited size and irregular publication.

The soul-stirring diary of a Christian Hungarian, who fought for freedom in his country, is in our possession. It should be widely read. Flourination of water, a plan whereby Americans are slowly dosed with poison, must be exposed. The almost complete Jewish control of the U.N.O. demands careful study if Americans are to fully understand the challenge of those who say: "Let us take the mask off. Let us play the Lion of Judah for a change. Away, away with false patriotism. A Jew can recognize only one fatherland—Palestine." (As quoted in the "Jewish World").

The present Common Sense group wants all such information widely known. It is a task we cannot handle alone. The Editor, who gave up a profitable business to crusade for the American Republic, the loyal staff and volunteers have already gone "all out" for several years. Every Christian patriot connected with Common Sense knows that, today, the paper's chief ailment is—"Growing Pains."

FINANCIAL MEDICINE—OR, DEATH?

Each reader of these pages must answer that question. It is a question pregnant with meaning because, if Common Sense is lost for the want of $20,000, America and Christians of every denomination are scheduled to die with it. It is not necessary that the Marxists crush each one individually—if the leaders are destroyed, all go down in slavery. More than a billion people now exist under this cruel rule. It will happen here if Mr. and Mrs. America does not pray, work, and sacrifice.

Already the clique directed by the Anti-Christ is planning World War III. When it comes, this great American Republic, founded on the principles of Christianity, will be reduced to the animal-like existence inflicted upon European nations. There, during the last war, millions of people trudged down the roads leaving behind fine homes, expensive works of art, keepsakes, and bank deposits. Today, those who survived, live in cellars—many are glad to be able to scrub floors. NOW they know that once liberty is gone, and Zionist-Communist masters take control, everything is gone.

We want your help in this fight against the subverters of Christianity. We want you to buy your share of freedom now.

The goal is $20,000.

Before you make any decision on this appeal, we ask you to look upon the faces of your sons, daughters and grandchildren. If the welfare of America means little to you, personally, ask yourself what heritage you want to leave for them. Ask yourself if, for their sakes, you can afford NOT to be a partner in the Crusade for America and Christ.

If you can send us $1000., $500., $100., $10., $5.00—or even $1.00—surely, our Lord will bless you in some way. Examine your conscience, then send every dollar you can spare and a little above that.

From some we wish only prayers for our protection and guidance. They, also, will have His blessings; He will know what is truly in their hearts.

Do not delay. Send your very best contribution immediately.

Checks, money orders, and bank drafts should be made payable to:

Every patriot answering this appeal at once will receive a copy of "The Great Idea," an illuminating exposure of the Rhodes Scholarships and their part in the "one world" plan, or a copy of Judge Armstrong's new book which will be out soon. (Requests for the last will be filled as soon as the book is off the press.)

The copy for this article has been prepared by the staff and volunteers associated with Conde McGinley, editor and publisher of Common Sense. It is our whole-hearted belief that "The Boss" has made every sacrifice humanly possible to put the welfare of America before his own needs. We, ourselves, have scraped the very bottom of the barrel. If we had more to give, other than our time and efforts, you would not now be reading this. In closing, we would like to quote Ephesians, III:20—"Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be the glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus unto all generations for ever and ever."—The Staff and Volunteers of Common Sense

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Please send me at once some of your June 1st issue of Common Sense. You are doing a fine piece of work. Do not hesitate to expose any traitors in the churches or out. Never forget that neither Roosevelt nor Truman could have come to power and wrecked our country but for the support of the Catholics, who have backed these Democrats which filled the administration with Communists.

You cannot talk against Communism today and politically support it without branding yourself a traitor to your country. Is not this a fact? This is what I want you to get over to the church people of all faiths.

—B. M. M., Ohio

Editor, Common Sense:

I have enjoyed your paper very much and admire the good work you are doing by informing the people about Communism. Hope the American people will wake up in time to stop this terrible thing.

E. B., Maryland

Editor, Common Sense:

I sent you a letter once before. I read your Christ-like paper, not because I like it, but because I know you hate God's chosen people. You and all your monks and crosses will be thrown into a pit to rot sooner than you expect.

—Unsigned letter, Washington, D. C.

Mr. Conde McGinley, Editor
Common Sense

Union, New Jersey

Dear Mr. McGinley:

I am enclosing you, herewith, our check for $1.00 for renewal of one year's subscription to your valuable publication.

I look forward to receiving your paper which gives a lot of pertinent facts concerning the operation of our governmental affairs in Washington, D. C.

I trust that the good Lord will give you grace and fortitude and strength to fight these buzzards in the future as you have done in the past.

With kindest personal regards, I beg to remain,

Very sincerely yours,
Santa Ana, Calif

Dear Mr. McGinley:

... Well, Mr. McGinley, you are doing a wonderful job and all true Americans should be proud of you, but do you think they are? No, a lot of them are so dumb they think you are stirring up race-hatred and that your papers should be burned! Who are the most ignorant and stupid ones? You may be surprised when I tell you it is the church people, both Protestants and Catholics! Strange, isn't it, when you are fighting for their Christ against Christ-hating Zionists, that they should take that attitude? Nevertheless, you will find many, many church people who think one should not say a word against a Jew.

Now, a Jew is human. He is not sacred, and if he is against Christ then he is the enemy of ALL CHRISTIANS and it is time we awakened to the fact. How is it that a supposedly Christian nation can support Anti-Christians; and give them the best jobs in the government?

May God Bless and prosper you, and your great work to save America.

—C. M., Arizona

Dear Sirs:

Please find one dollar for a year's subscription to Common Sense. I have read a few copies and find them very suitable and very truthful about the Anti-Christian Conspiracy staged by the Zionists all over the world. With regards to the U. S. A. we do well to pray every day: "From Morgenthau, Frankfurter and Lehmann, deliver us, O Lord." I have a clear perception of all the mischief that is done by the Marxists, Inc. I am a Catholic priest and know what the result of such machinations will be.

Yours In Christ

Editor, Common Sense:

Your paper is one of the best I have seen. Since I have been an anti-Communist worker for 15 years, I know that what you print is true.

Even Liberty magazine in its Canadian issue for January of this year predicted that the Jews would be forced to leave Canada because the population identifies the Jew with Communism.

Have you any other Canadian friends, or patriots in Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Rochester? Maybe they would like to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

H. WINTER

Christians Beware Of Your Leaders

By PIERCE HARRIS

While many Methodist leaders are disturbed—alarmed, to state the full truth—the threat of communism's creeping shadow is not peculiar to the Methodist Church alone.

The loyal members of all denominations would do well to examine the pattern of thinking among their leaders, especially editors and youth leaders, who occupy positions where they have unusual opportunity to influence thought and determine trends in future policies of the denomination.

J. Edgar Hoover puts it like this: "I confess to a real apprehension, so long as Communists are able to secure ministers of the gospel to promote their evil works and espouse a cause that is alien to the religion of Christianity. This 'apprehension' is shared by many, who have no platform from which to lift their voices, but who love their church, their country, and their 'way of life,' and who know that the deadly accuracy of 'cause' and 'effect' will finally bring these 'minority' voices, if left unsilenced, to be dominant in the counsel of Christendom."

LEADERS APPREHENSIVE

Even with the minds of religious leaders filled with apprehension, there is no real need to sit hopelessly by, wringing our hands and grieving as those who have no hope.

We are not only Christians — we are Protestants — and there is always the right of protest — and don't get the idea your protests will be tossed into the wastebasket and go unnoticed. That wise Old Testament leader knew human reaction when he said, "Let the redeemed of the Lord say so." When aroused, indignant people stand up and say so, their vibrant voices always get attention — and will in this case.

If you have been reading reports from the Baptist meeting in San Francisco, you have noticed the Baptists are using this method. Only recently the Presbyterian General Assembly did the same thing.

Shallow thinking has always been the "slough of despond" in which many bright dreams have been buried. Examples are endless. For one, to think that getting a lot of different colored feet under the same table, with a smiling white woman saying to a smiling Negro woman, "Mrs. Johnson, pass the biscuits," is the solution of all racial problems is to bypass the need for decent housing, adequate educational opportunity, and training for occupational independence.

The tide is coming in, and if taken at its flood — NOW, the cause of Christ will go on to fortune. Reprinted from "Atlanta Journal" (June 29, 1951)

UN Military To Take Over

Times (July 17) said: "Many of the troops who engaged in the practice maneuver had experienced the same problems in actual warfare, for they were veterans of military government teams employed in the liberation of cities in European and Asiatic war theaters during World War II."

Will Suppress Newspapers

I know some of them who are solid Americans, sick of what they saw inside the New Deal. But most of the appointees were wholly unable to distinguish a Communist from their own "liberal" shadow. I am afraid they will be willing tools in the hands of the political adviser which the Truman Administration (or the revolutionary Anti-Defamation League) will furnish in each city. They may be directed against the enemies of the Truman administration—meaning the anti-Communist, anti-Socialist Americans.

When one of the MG units "seized" Huntington Park, its commander, Lt. Col. Roy C. Evans, told the local Rotary club, (as reported in the Huntington Park Daily Signal, July 18), "The military unit will take over administration of all business, lock, stock and barrel, telling the businessman what he can make and how much, what he can sell and who he can sell it to and for how much, and what supplies he can have..."

"... the intent of Military Government as outlined by our Army is primarily intended to be beneficial for residents coming under its control, but the rights of individuals are coldly disregarded if they conflict with the better interests of the community or the desires of the occupying forces."

We expect that under martial law the military will be supreme. But Mr. Truman has been mentally so conditioned by his pro-Communist advisers that he now is vicious and vindictive toward those who criticize him, especially toward those who try hardest to get him to drive the Communists out of the administration. In his Detroit speech, July 28, he bitterly attacked those "who are using the smear that the big lie for person publicity and partisan advantage, heedless of the damage they do the country." Mr. Truman reportedly was referring to such patriots as MacArthur and Senators McCarthy and Byrd, who are trying to save their country.

In this state of mind Mr. Truman with power absolute, may be expected to issue instructions to liquidate or at least silence all critics because of "the damage they do to their country". The occupying officers of the California cities said specifically that all newspapers would be suppressed till they arranged for publication under their instructions. The light will go out, darkness will prevail, the hour that Truman proclaims martial law, however anti-Communist may be the officers in charge of the various American cities. They will follow orders from up channels.

The proclamation issued by the commanding officer who "seized" Huntington Park (which was fictitiously designated as the town of Agressi), read in part:

"Whereas, in prosecuting the war against Agressi, it has become necessary for the armed forces of the United Nations under my command, to occupy this town..."

"Now therefore I... by virtue of the authority vested in me by the United Nations Security Council, do hereby proclaim as follows:

"All persons in occupied territory will obey promptly all orders given by me or under my authority and must not commit any act hostile to the forces under my command or helpful to the Agressi forces; may not commit acts of violence or acts which may disturb public order in any way..."

"Your existing customs, religious beliefs and property rights will be fully respected and your existing laws will remain in force and effect except insofar as it may be necessary for me in the exercise of my powers and duties to change them by proclamation or order issued by me or under my direction."

Over the radio networks we are now getting the propaganda build-up for such a dictatorship. We are beginning to hear more and more the expressions "Defense Government" and "Military Government," as if it is a foregone conclusion that we are to have all our institutions of self-government and justice swept aside as in the Soviet Union, and to have imposed on us a completely new and absolute government.

Organizing As In The USSR

I have no information as to how long it will take to train enough MG units to take over the country, or the principal cities. It should not require many thousand men, for, since this is obviously the creation of minds promoting the United Nations world power plan the Anti-Defamation League and its affiliate, the American Jewish Congress, would be the planning agencies. There is also the fact that none of the left wing agencies have said a word against the Military Government and Civil Defense developments; on the other hand, they seem to favor these developments. Their people are infiltrating the new forces.

The absence of criticism from them is the surest sign that the MG and CD forces are not inimical to their plans. If these forces were likely to round up the scores of thousands of Communists, the ADL and AJC would be holding mass meetings condemning the military government units and program.

Wherever either the USA or the USSR has established Military Government forces each MG commander has been furnished a political "adviser." The military man may not have the slightest knowledge of the issues at stake. He may be a thoroughly loyal American, but he will have to comply with the instructions from his political adviser. In most instances of which I have any knowledge this adviser has been a Jewish nationalist, or Zionist, favoring all the measures and terrorist devices of the Communist revolution. For example, the adviser to General Clay over Germany was the Zionist Rabbi Philip Bernstein and the adviser to John J. McCloy is the former vice president of Kuhn, Loeb Co., Benjamin J. Buttenwieser, in whose palatial home Communist Alger Hiss was a guest during most of his second trial.

The Anti-Defamation League told us in its booklet, Fighting Anti-Semitism on the Home Front, that it had (in 1948) "2000 key men in 1200 American Jewish communities," that is, 2000 agents in 1200 American cities. That covers all our cities down to small towns. These agents are trained, and they have records on all the outstanding enemies of the Socialist-Communist-Zionist New Deal. Whoever becomes the political adviser in any of these 1200 cities will have his work already cut out for him.

We will get nowhere unless and until we expose the Anti-Defamation League and bring about the seizure of its records and the suppression of its activities. It will destroy America if we do not destroy it, and the clock may strike any day; and in the first few days of absolute power, how do we know the invisible government will not smuggle our atomic bombs out to Red submarines?

Anna Rosenberg the Boss?

We cannot overlook the fact that Anna Rosenberg is the Assistant Secretary of Defense in charge of George C. Marshall and would wield great power over the military dictatorship. I have felt from the time of her appointment that she was to be the key figure, perhaps the Ann Parker, of the Communist ("Zionist") revolution in America.

True, the mighty US Senate was fooled and scared (by the threat of being smeared as anti-Semitic) and stampeded into confirming Truman's appointment of her, but her old Communist record still stands. Her whole life has been on the side of the Marxist minority power and her son admitted to Jewish newspapers that she had long worked with Zionist organizations. She contributed an article to the official Communist organ, New Masses, Dec. 8, 1942, a harmful article, but to an official Communist paper.

17-GUN SALUTE FOR JEWESS!

Whenever she appears at formal military functions, Assistant Secretary of Defense Anna M. Rosenberg, the Hungarian-born Jewess, is to be given a 17-gun salute. This is equivalent to the salute of honor given to General Douglas MacArthur.

Considering that Annie has written for the official Communist publication, "New Masses," perhaps she deserves one more salute than General MacArthur.

She was at that time New York Regional Director, War Manpower Commission (a government employee). I photographed enough of the article to show her title and the "NM" (for New Masses) and date, and re-print the photograph herewith.

Evidently most Senators even yet do not understand that a Communist revolution turns on the word "anti-Semitic." The technique is to push a willing Jewish tool into a position of power, then smear the opposition as anti-Semitic. The technique forces us to risk the cheap little Communist smear "anti-Semitic," or risk enslavement. In this age of moral cowards, there seems to be a majority selling us out in the Senate. All the Senators needed to do was to explain in the public press that the "anti-Semitic" smear is just a scare-goblin of the Communists, and pay no further attention to it.

It may be that Truman has no knowledge of the existence of the military government plans. His cronies may not have interrupted his poker game to tell him. Rosenberg and Comrades may simply have set up this dictatorship plan on their own initiative. Who or what is to prevent such seizure of power?

How will you stop this revolution? How will you keep Zionist agents from exploding bombs in our cities and Truman from proclaiming martial law and the Military Government from moving in and taking over, with the ADL directing the show from behind the scenes?

You tell me. For two years I have felt that this country might be destroyed unless we could get rid of Harry Truman. Congress has shown that it is not going to impeach him. It will not even impeach Acheson, whose record shows him to be an outright Communist, deliberately serving the enemy. We have been unable to stop the revolution by letters.

But God help us if we stop fighting! We will be sorry. Let's really try, this time. Why not get some sensible friends together and call on your editors with these facts. Get the editors to start probing and start fighting. Get them to start a march to Washington. Then call on your mayor and police chief and sheriff and city councilmen. Make them see the facts. Write General MacArthur in Waldorf Towers, New York City, urging him to lead the fight. Then rally your neighbors—and go to Washington and hound your delegation and other Senators and Congressmen till these busy men take time to see what is happening to the Republic. We should impeach Truman and get out of the subversive United Nations—and before Congress adjourns.

Maybe you can start something.

SENATOR JOHN W. BRICKER

Senator John W. Bricker, (R., Ohio) recently termed the proposed United Nations Covenant on Human Rights a "blue-print for tyranny," aimed at stifling criticism of the "Fair Deal" through government control of the press.

He introduced a resolution calling on the Senate to express disapproval of the covenant and its desire that U. S. delegates to the UN should break off all negotiations on it. Further, he urged Mrs. Roosevelt — one of the Covenant framers — to "renounce this blue-print to tyranny or accept the consequences for sponsoring it."

Propaganda In The Movies

Whether the public realizes it or not, paid agents of the United Nations organization are engaged in a deliberate and organized campaign to propagandize American citizens into paying allegiance to the United Nations rather than to the U.S.A. This is being done by "glamorizing" the U. N. in every way possible. At the same time militant defenders of Americanism and the constitution are being portrayed as "extremists," "isolationists," "reactionaries," "dangerous nationalists" etc. etc.

Significantly, the chief of the United Nation's department of Public Information—which is a propaganda agency, pure and simple—is one Benjamin Cohen. To see that pro-United Nations propaganda is injected into the movies, Mr. Cohen keeps a U.N. propaganda agent in Hollywood on a fulltime assignment. This agent, one Mogens Skot-Hansen, is charged with the task of 'setting the stage for a better understanding of the U.N. for the next hundred years.'

He's succeeding too. The Jew producer, Julian Blaustein, has already produced two movies popularizing the U.N. "Mister 880," for example, is a comedy about an aged counterfeiter with a heart of gold and a penchant for printing $1.00 bills. The heroine of the play is Margaret McGuire, who is cast as a United Nation's interpreter. Several scenes of the U.N. in action are worked into the picture. Blaustein is also producing an interplanetary fantasy involving a "United Nations of the Universe."

Here are a few other examples of how U.N. propaganda (which, incidentally, we are paying for) is being injected into the movies: In one film, "Here Comes the Groom," Bing Cosby is cast as a journalist writing about U.N. relief work. Other films dishing out the pro-U.N. propaganda line are (1) "When Worlds Collide," (2) "The House on Telegraph Hill," (3) "The Big Glass House." The latter story is about the U.N. Secretariat.

From all indications there's a lot more of this. One World propaganda on the way. Says the Christian Science Monitor: "There are a dozen other stories in preparation which refer to the U.N. in one way or another. U.N. field observers, interpreters, and mediators are important characters; international co-operation is highlighted in a trip to the Himalaya peaks or a campaign against disease in a trip to the Amazon region. Eric Pommer is doing a Lanny Budd script based on Upton Sinclair's globe girdling novels, and Robert Riskin is working on something called the "Girl from Bogardus," in which the main character is a U.N. delegate."

And we can expect more of the same "for the next hundred years," just like the man said.

Douglas For Recognition Of Red China

Indignant Representatives Ask for His Resignation

Inflamed by the statements of Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas that the United States recognize Red China, Senator

Connally (D-Texas) accused him of making "fool statements," and Representative Roy O.
Woodruff (R-Mich.) called on President Truman to ask for Douglas' resignation. Woodruff accused the jurist of giving "aid and comfort to the foes of the United States and democracy."

The uproar was started by press reports of August 31st which quoted Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, as proposing that the United States recognize Communist China.

Americans can well wonder if it is possible that the Invisible Government has maneuvered such screwballs onto the Supreme Court. When all signs point to an all-out war between the U. S. and Communist armed forces, Justice
Douglas wishes the United States to "recognize" and further strengthen the Chinese Communist outfit which was created under direction of world Marxism.

Buddies of Douglas—such as General Marshall, Dean Acheson, Owen Lattimore, John Carter, Vincent and John Foster Dulles, Phillip Jessup, all working through the Institute of Pacific Relations, succeeded in driving Chiang Kai-Shek from China, thereby placing 450 million people under Communism. That enormous manpower is being used in Korea where 85 THOUSAND American battle casualties have been suffered (170 thousand if one includes all wounded) and that does not include the Korean lives which have been lost.

Supreme Court Justice Douglas is a strong "world government" advocate. He, along with Dean Acheson, should be tried for treason and, if found guilty, should be hung and his property confiscated.

We compliment Representative Roy O.
Woodruff of Michigan for calling upon President Truman to fire Douglas. However, we realize that it is the traitorous screwballs like Douglas who are the closest to "Red Herring" Harry.

Honorable Martin Dies Says U.S. "In Grave Jeopardy"

Speaking in the Municipal Auditorium of San Antonio, Texas on May 17, 1951, under auspices of the American Heritage Protective Committee, the former Texas Congressman
Martin Dies called for a re-vitalized America that will put the Constitution and the God of our Nation above selfish interests.

Mr. Dies' speech follows:

My fellow Citizens, in the past five years and particularly in the past year and a half,
I have been making a good many speeches throughout the State of Texas. As a matter of fact, I have made over 200 speeches in the past year and a half. I am not making these speeches for money—90% of the places where I talk, I am lucky if I get my expenses. Occasionally, and very occasionally, I get an honorarium. I am not primarily concerned with political office. My chief motive is to do what little I can, to arouse and educate a sleeping and indifferent citizenship. I know that this Republic cannot be preserved if the good people of this land devote all their time to their business and pleasure, and let the bad people run their Government.

Consequently, I have felt that by telling the people of Texas, the story—the story that I know—not what someone told me, or not what I imagined, but what I saw . . . What I witnessed—what I heard from the lips of President Roosevelt—and President Truman, and the Cabinet Officers, what I read in volume of correspondence which passed between the Kremlin and the agents of the Kremlin in the United States . . . What I heard from Leon Trotzky, and General Krevisky, who was liquidated in the City of Washington and no one was apprehended for it, although it occurred within three blocks of the Capitol of the United States . . . I have felt that if I could tell my story to the people of Texas—my own State—that perhaps I could make them realize the truthfulness of the old adage—"Eternal Vigilance is the Price of Liberty." I have felt —in fact, I have known for a long time, that our country was in very grave jeopardy. I do not believe that the majority of our people know this today. I am quite certain that Washington does not know it, despite all their professions. How could they believe what they are saying to the American people—"that we are on the brink of war, that we face the greatest struggle the world has ever seen—that our cities may be demolished—that millions of our people may be slain." . . . How could they believe that, and continue to waste millions of dollars buying eggs and potatoes to rot in the canyons of our country? How can they believe that civilization is on the brink of ruin, that we face another great crisis in history, as great as the period when Mohammedanism threatened Christendom. How could they believe that and continue in the face of such emergency to play cheap politics?

I am compelled to believe that either they don't believe what they say—that they say what they are saying, solely for political effect, or that if they believe it, they lack the intelligence and the foresight and the leadership to do the things that are essential to our preservation . . . How can I reconcile their statement that the world is threatened with the destruction from Communism when I behold them advocating in our own land, Communist measures, such as socialized medicine, under the compulsory health insurance bill—and socialized agriculture under the Brannan plan, and socialized industry under the Spence Plan. If, as they say, they are opposed to Communism, and they want my three sons to shed their blood to stop militant and aggressive Communism which threatens to engulf the world . . . If, as they say, they

Terror In The Armed Forces

Do you oppose the administration's policies?
If you are a member of our American Armed Forces and say yes to that question, you may face dismissal from the Services or court martial.

The dismissal of General Douglas Mac-Arthur, the hero of the Pacific War, who turned Japan from an enemy to a friend, has cast a spotlight on a move by groups friendly to Communist China to "get" all opposition. Acting under a mysterious regulation issued last December, the Defense Department is purging anti-Communists from the Army, Navy and Marines. The removal of MacArthur is only the first step in a move which threatens thousands in our Armed Forces and the very security of the United States.

One hundred fifty million Americans awoke one morning to discover that the nation's most famous and beloved military man had been arbitrarily dismissed by the very same small clique that favored giving Red China the strategic island of Formosa. Why was he removed? Did he fail to carry out the Korean "police action?" No; on the other hand Mac-Arthur's military strategy of invading Inchon is conceded by his most vehement opponents to have been a stroke of genius. Did he refuse to fulfill American government policy? Certainly not; it was brought out before the Investigating Committee that he fulfilled every want us to make the supreme sacrifice to halt the tide of Communism which is sweeping over the earth . . . what is their justification for advocating the passage of Communistic measures in the United States? What will it profit us to defeat Communism abroad, and embrace it at home? Wherein will we be justified in the pages of history if we destroy 8,000,000 American youths, and then adopt the very essence of Communism—the things that Karl Marx advocated in 1848 in his Manifesto . . . The thing that Lenin preached time and time again—Socialism. Is it possible that the President of the United States doesn't know the close affinity between Communism and Socialism? Does he not know that they are half brothers? That the Manifesto of Karl Marx and Frederick Engels is the Bible of modern socialism—that the Communist and Socialist worked hand in hand in the first international and in the second international—that they split during the 1st World War on the issue of loyalty to their respective governments . . . When the socialists insisted that they were going to remain loyal to their respective countries—Lenin withdrew from the second international and later formed a Third International—but there was no disagreement between the Communist and the Socialist with regards to the ultimate objective of socializing the world under 'ruthless dictatorship'. So when Mr. Atlee preaches against Communism—he is preaching against his twin brother—and when Mr. Truman in his Fair Deal program advocates FEPC, the appropriation of the lands of our state, and his socialized medicine and his socialized agriculture—he may not know it, in fact, there is much that I suspect that he does not know—he may not know it but he is paying the greatest tribute to Joseph Stalin that he could possibly pay . . . in effective substance, he is saying, "I am against Stalin—I am against Lenin—but I am in favor of what they preach and in what they advocate." In other words he is against the teacher but in favor of the teaching. What inconsistency of position! Now my fellow citizens, I think all of us will agree that we are in a very serious predicament. Here is a country—Russia—that only a few years ago was a third rate power, and yet, in the space of a few short years, she has expanded until today she is a world menace, and according to the admissions of our military leaders, she is the strongest military power on the face of the earth. Russia has welded the man power and the resources of nearly half the earth into a single, unprecedented striking force and tonight—850 millions of peoples—nearly one-half of the population of the earth, are under the domination and control of the Kremlin—and all of this has been accomplished without firing a gun . . . Indeed, we have been engaged in war in Korea for nearly one year . . . We have sustained 85,000 battle casualties, and Russia hasn't lost a man . . . What greater proof could the American people have, that Stalin has out-smarted and out-generated the leaders of our country? And of our allies? Now who is responsible for it? It is tremendously important that you know who is responsible for the ability of a third rate power to rise to the position of a world menace without the loss of a Russian soul . . . in the post war period. Well, the truth is that our government is more responsible for the present might and power of the Soviet Union than any other factor . . . The plain and ugly truth is that our government has coddled and protected Communism at home and abroad from 1933 until quite recently. In 1933, Stalin wanted to negotiate a treaty of recognition, with our country . . . Russia, was on the verge of economic collapse. It was essential to her survival as a Communistic dictatorship, that Russia secure all of the trade and commercial advantages which would accrue from recognition . . . So Stalin sent his ablest diplomats to the United States, headed by Maxim Litvinov, and he succeeded in negotiating a treaty with President Roosevelt. Under the terms of that treaty, the Soviet Union agreed, that in exchange for all the tremendous advantages which would accrue to her from recognition, she would not interfere in our internal affairs, that she would not permit her agents to operate in the United States, that she would not tolerate or encourage subversive activities in the United States. That agreement was very clear and precise, and was one of the most important documents that this country ever signed with a foreign power . . . The ink had hardly dried on that memorable document when the Soviet Union began a course of flagrant and arrogant violation of every term and every provision of that agreement. In 1938, we had before our committee a man by the name of Dubrowsky, a former top ranking official of the Kremlin, and a member of the Soviet delegation which came to the United States to secure recognition. By 1938, Mr. Dubrowsky had become disillusioned with Communism in practice and had decided to seek asylum in the United States. We persuaded him to publicly testify before our committee in Washington, and in his public testimony, which was made available to the President of the United States, and to the Cabinet Officers, and to every man in Congress—Mr. Dubrowsky related the circumstances attending the negotiation of the treaty between Russia and the United States. He said that on the night when the treaty was finally agreed to, that Maxim Litvinov returned to the Soviet headquarters and with a smile upon his face, exclaimed as he entered the room where the others were—"Well—it's in the bag—the President asked me to pay our debts to the United States . . . I told him that we would negotiate, but I didn't tell him that we would negotiate until doom's day. The President asked me to guarantee religious freedom in Russia . . . I was prompted to tell him that we would be glad to gather up all the Bibles in Russia and ship them to the United States." That, my friends, was the attitude of the Soviet Union as expressed by its chosen representative, Maxim Litvinov, within one hour after the important agreement had been made. And soon thereafter, that is, soon after the testimony of Dubrowsky—we became suspicious of a man by the name of Sam Carp, who was a brother-in-law of Premier Molotov. Sam Carp was operator of a chain of filling stations in the State of New Jersey. We had information that Carp was engaged in questionable activities . . . We had our best investigator to trail him . . . One morning when he was going to the bank in New York to open his safety deposit box, our investigator was there . . . We seized the contents of that box and discovered $450,000.00 in one hundred dollar bills, and a letter of credit from Premier Molotov drawn upon Amtorg Trading Corporation, the official trading agency of the Soviet Government in the United States, directing and instructing Amtorg to extend a credit of two hundred of millions of dollars to his brother-in-law Sam Carp, to be used for the purpose of buying and stealing military and naval information and to bribe public officials. When Sam Carp was on the stand publicly, he confessed, after I had subjected him to cross-examination, that he had employed an Assistant Executive of the National Democratic Committee, Preston McGoodwin, and paid him a fee of $25,000 to assist him in his work. He further confessed that he had employed a National Committee-man at the suggestion of Mr. McGoodwin, (you see, this was before the 'mink coat' business) and paid him a fee of $25,000 to assist him in the necessary contacts. Furthermore, the evidence developed that a Cabinet Meeting was called for the purpose of facilitating Mr. Sam Carp in the prosecution of his work in the United States. We secured the original memorandum, that had been drawn up shortly after the Cabinet had met. The Cabinet of the United States unanimously agreed that Sam Carp and his assistants should be facilitated in every possible way. Now my fellow Americans—certainly that was enough public testimony and yet the government of the United States refused to prosecute Sam Carp—or to hinder him in the slightest degree in his work. The government refused to proceed against Preston McGoodwin, and in fact I think he was promoted shortly thereafter. Now my fellow citizens—if there had been no other evidence before the President, and the Cabinet, if there had been no other evidence before Congress, that was sufficient within itself to fully apprise our leadership that they were dealing with a foreign power that could not be trusted—that they were dealing with a treacherous foe that was determined to violate, in the very beginning, its sacred obligation made with our country.

That should have put our leadership upon guard—that they couldn't compromise—with evil—that we couldn't do business with a rattle snake. They not only continue to do business with the rattle snake, but later on, they took him into the White House as a guest of the President and let him stay in the White House for several weeks.

TO BE CONTINUED NEXT ISSUE

The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith is the backbone for Marxism in the United States. It is known as the Jewish Gestapo Smear Bund. Its task is to smear anyone who effectively combats the Marxist-Communist plan. Favorite trick of the Anti-Defamation League is to brand as "Anti-Semitic" patriots who fight Communism and to use every means possible to make people fear the brand: "Anti-Semitic."

Any one who is not "Anti-Semitic" (as they give meaning to the word) is uninformed or a cowardly, spineless Christian hypocrite.

The Anti-Defamation League has succeeded in deceiving a few Catholic Bishops and Priests, as well as some Protestant Ministers, into cooperating with the A.D.L. Supposedly, this "cooperation" is to discourage intolerance; actually the purpose is to prevent the public from learning that the A.D.L. of B'nai B'rith is dedicated to erasing Christianity.

The A.D.L. is currently engaged in engineering the smear campaigns against General Douglas MacArthur — Senator Joseph McCarthy — Senator Patrick McCarran. However, Marxist tools like Dean Acheson, General Marshall and Ike Eisenhower are given full A.D.L. support.

The Influence Of One Life

Millions have perished in war and terror.
We survive.

Millions are homeless.

We are sheltered.

This night in all the world, for every man well nourished, three are hungry.

We are fed.

The world's abundance should have blessed mankind with homes, health, and competence. Instead, it has been used to destroy all these—to breed pestilence, misery, and poverty.

The finger of the bitter past points to a bloody page . . . "and we shall meanly lose or nobly save the last best hope of earth."

Each life is tested by its answer to the question first asked in the world's beginning:—"Am I my brother's keeper?"

One Life was lived in answer. By all the formal measurements of greatness it should have failed. 'Twas such a little span of years in such a far-off lonely little land.

He was born in a village stable. No birth could be lowlier, hence none need despair because of lowly birth. Possessed of profound wisdom. He had but meager education. None, therefore, need despair for lack of schooling. No wife, no child—He showed each lonely heart its deepest need.

For thirty years, near the village of His birth, He grew and learned His simple trade, shaping the native wood to serve the wants of home and craft.

Three years He wandered, teaching, shaping the native hearts to service of truth and love. He was never more than a few hundred miles from His birthplace.

He held no earthly rank or office, wrote no military command and the Administration admitted that they had no definite political objectives. Why then was a man so important to American security fired? General MacArthur was fired because he opposed appeasement of Red China and wanted to bring the war to a speedy conclusion. He had dared to tell the truth that Truman's unconstitutional war was a bloody STALEMATE.

While the nation was embroiled in the MacArthur controversy, the Administration moved swiftly to silence all opposition. According to the New York World-Telegram and Sun of May 31st, Navy hero Lt. William H. Evans, Jr. of the destroyer Rodgers in the fighting zone of Korea was cruelly dismissed. His offense? Denouncing the Yalta betrayal and urging that the interests of America be put before those of the Soviet Union!

Generals Wedemeyer and Willoughby and Admiral Denfeld were forced to retire. The New York Sunday News recently reported that at this June's West Point Commencement a number of top Generals prepared a complete plan for the defense of the United States and the invasion of the Soviet Union in case of war. But it further reported that they had to hide the plan and that they refused to give their names for fear of reprisal from the Pentagon. The Defense Department also forced the retirement of the commandant of the Air Force Base in Alabama for "opposing national policy." Major Robert Williams of the Military Intelligence Reserve was dismissed recently for denouncing the appointment of Anna Rosenberg as Secretary of Defense.

Senator Joe McCarthy, former Marine hero and sworn foe of Communism, termed these dismissals — the results of "gag rule." General MacArthur said that the President was deliberately silencing opponents of appeasement.

What's behind these dismissals of loyal Americans? A mysterious regulation issued last December formed the basis of their dismissal. This regulation requires that any American in the Armed Forces, who writes anything regarding foreign policy, must first have the approval of the State Department.

The story goes back to the time when Secretary of Defense Jim Forrestal was literally martyred. Behind his removal were the Zionist groups who could never forget his warning that America's oil security was threatened by the establishment of a pro-Red Israel. Also involved was the State Department's Atcheson-Michael Lee clique, which supported Red China. (Michael Lee, Ephraim Zinoyi Liberman was in charge of the State Department's Far Eastern Division, a prime figure responsible for the Korean War, a recently ousted as "a poor security risk.")

President Truman was induced to fire Forrestal and appoint as Secretary Lewis Johnston, a political favorite. When Johnston refused to cooperate with the Zionists and the State Department crowd, he too was removed. To make absolutely sure that they controlled the Defense Department, General Marshall was appointed. Marshall, who couldn't even remember where he was when Pearl Harbor was bombed, is a total misfit. Years ago General MacArthur refused to promote him after Marshall in two weeks destroyed the discipline of a crack Georgia regiment, one of the best in the Army. The complete story of General Marshall was told recently by Senator Joe McCarthy in a Senate speech. Copies are available from the Senator's office.

Then to appease the Zionist crowd, Anna Rosenberg, one of the Mrs. Roosevelt clique, was appointed Defense Manpower Director, which put her in charge of the Draft and plenty more. When her nomination came up before the Senate, a number of witnesses testified that she was a "Communist" and "a poor security risk" but cries of "anti-semitism" from the liberal-leftist press frightened Congress into confirming her. Ever since then it has been evident that she actually runs the Defense Department. Whenever Secretary Marshall testifies before Congress, loyal Anna sits by his side "advising" him.

All these maneuvers and many more follow a detailed plan for dictatorship, developed by a group of Generals at the request of certain Pentagon officials. This document known as the Guderian Plan is labeled "Top Secret" and circulated throughout the Pentagon. These facts were revealed by Congressman Thomas Werdel (R-Calif.) in a historic speech, entitled "Our Growing Prussian Staff." He declared: "I am reluctant to admit that I now believe that we have come to the awful day in America, where we have a Supreme General Staff . . . seeking military control over industry, labor, all military establishments, the economy and the press. I am convinced that this is their plan against the expressed will of the Congress."

Who wants this "military control?" Is it our old line West Point military men? Certainly not: for almost 200 years Americans have safely entrusted power to these military men. What is the one group that today seeks a dictatorship over our nation and the world? The answer is unquestionably — the Communists and their so-called liberal-leftist allies.

Mrs. Mary Stalcup Markward, a former undercover agent in the Communist Party for the F.B.I., testified before the House Un-American Activities Committee THAT she knew of 18 open Communist clubs and two undercover cells in Washington. She said there were probably many more. Previous witnesses before the Committee as well as experiences in other countries — now Red dominated — revealed that the Defense Department and our military establishment are prime targets of Red infiltration. The State Department, another prime Red target, has been under constant surveillance and yet new investigations and leads are announced daily. What a real investigation of the Defense Department would turn up can only be surmised.

An indication is found in the vast numbers of new employees hired by the Defense establishment without a thorough loyalty check since the appointment of Mrs. Rosenberg as Manpower Boss. In recent years there has been a shortage of persons interested in obtaining government jobs. Only the Communists have been urging their members to get jobs in Defense. When we recall the tremendous damage caused by the Gold-Rosenberg Atom Spy clique — people then unknown to millions of Americans, we shudder at the sabotage a handful of Reds could do in the Defense Department.

While nothing is being done about the Reds, this purge of anti-Communists is under way. During the same month that Anna Rosenberg was appointed, December, that mysterious regulation was issued which clearly denies to members of the Armed Services the right of freedom of speech, guaranteed by the Bill of Rights.

Behind this simple regulation lies a clear danger to every American and to our national security. Congress recently passed a Draft extension and U.M.T. law which puts many more millions of Americans under the power of the Manpower Office-Defense Department. Bernard Baruch has been urging Total Mobilization or a Labor Draft by which every man, woman and child would be completely subject to the dictatorship of the Manpower Office. Now certain elements within the Department following the plan, are striving to eliminate all opposition from the Armed Forces so as to make impossible an adequate defense of the United States from Soviet invasion. They are establishing a dictatorship over the Armed Forces as a prelude to a Soviet "dictatorship of the proletariat."

The time of decision is here. We must have real unity or be destroyed. We must have leadership. President Harry Truman is incapable of that leadership. All Americans regardless of political party, who cherish freedom, must unite behind General Douglas MacArthur for Christianity, Free Enterprise and Free Government.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Herewith $20.00 towards the printing press. Keep it rolling. I have written three Senators to ask why, if these persecutions have in fact taken place, they do not investigate the A.D.L.

God bless you for your courageous and true American stand!

I never heard of such a thing before! A friend sent me a copy of your paper telling how the Zionists stopped your printers. I am telling others about it. Meantime, put this $5.00 in your Fund.

Truman's Way

Republished From N. Y. Herald Tribune

In recent months we have heard a lot of criticism of the Congress for not letting Truman have his way. In the words of the "Happy Warrior," let us look at the record and see what would have happened to our country if a spineless Congress had given Truman everything he asked for.

If Truman had had his way, every farm in America today would be operating under the Brannan plan—socialized agriculture.

If Truman had had his way, there would have been no Federal legislation to imprison Communist spies, traitors and saboteurs in the government departments.

If Truman had had his way, Red China would today be a member of the United Nations, to vote with Russia and her Iron Curtain prisoners.

If Truman had had his way, the country would today be saddled with socialized medicine under that great medical genius, lawyer Oscar Ewing.

If Truman had had his way, American atomic secrets would have been traded to other nations.

If Truman had had his way, under his Point Four program, every nation in the world would today have a direct call on the United States Treasurer for technical assistance and economic development loans.

If Truman had had his way, there would today be no Taft-Hartley provision requiring official registration of Communists and labor unions.

If Truman had had his way, every major river in America today would be a part of some T. V. A. with state and local government submerged by Federal bureaucrats.

If Truman had had his way, every school in America would today be under direct supervision of the Washington bureaucracy — socialized education.

If Truman had had his way, housing and home building would today be a complete government monopoly, with subsidies for socialized housing.

If Truman had had his way, there would have been no investigation of Communism in the State Department and other Federal agencies. His red herring statement of August, 1948, would have ended the Alger Hiss case.

If Truman had had his way, total Federal spending since 1946 would have been about $75 billion more than it has been to date. That is the accumulated cost of all the new programs Truman proposed which were turned down by a resolute and wise Congress.

Had it not been for the defenders of constitutional government in the House and the Senate, Truman would have had his way in all these things.

In one major decision Truman had his way. He plunged this nation into war in Korea. In doing so, Truman circumvented the Constitution by calling the war in Korea "police action." Only Congress has the right to declare war.

Truman seeks blanket authority to send American boys to new wars all over the world.

Today a brave and wise Congress stands between the American people and Harry Truman.

THE REIGN OF ANTI-CHRIST

Written by the Reverend R. Gerald Culleton this simulated-leather bound edition of 225 pages deals with scriptural prophecies and Apocryphal scripture. One extremely interesting prophecy in this writing is that which states that all out persecution against christianity will begin in 1952.

The author, who lost his life in an automobile accident while on his way to say Sunday Mass, avoids expressing his own views. He has endeavored to present a historical record of oracles for good Christians.

Annie Rosenberg And Her Army Corps

Here we go again. Annie Rosenberg, Assistant Secretary of Defense, when pictured on a tour of United States' troops in Europe, had to have her photo taken. It looks like another planned effort to mongrelize the German people.

It is well known to those who have studied the background of "world government" movements that one of the principal objectives is to break down all pure-blooded whites and eventually install a "one world" religion — Ba'hai. Mongrelization is the well-laid plan of the Jews who have motivated all "world government" schemes.

The Jews who completely directed World War II, as well as creating it, sent Negro troops to England, leaving 20 thousand half-breed children in England. Eleanor—the Grate—asked the American people to adopt 5,000 of the mongrels.

When Stuttgart, Germany, was captured during World War II hundreds of Black French Colonial troops, under the command of General Eisenhower herded German women into subways and raped more than two thousand of them. These were black semi Savages. This went on for three days, women and girls screaming and committing suicide. Large numbers of Negro troops have been kept in Germany for six years.

Anna Rosenberg, one of the most important in the plan to establish Marxist rule, undoubtedly knows what the "pitch" is with large numbers of Negro troops abroad. She is happy when she sees the Jewish plan operating. That plan is that WHITE, CHRISTIANS will be bred into half-breeds while the Jews maintain their own PURITY of Race.

In the United States there is also much propaganda towards mongrelization, despite the fact that clear-thinking Negroes are not in favor of it.

Jews from New York are financing and directing propaganda in the South (Georgia, the Carolinas, Texas, Mississippi and Alabama). Those Communist Jews preach to the Southern Negroes that they are being "persecuted" and the only people interested in Negro welfare are the Jews.

The Jewish-Communist plan is to trick fourteen million Negroes into voting with the Communist faction.

His native land was ruled by conquerors and foreign legions. While still in the flush of youth, His own people turned against this Man who strangely taught that evil can only be overcome by good.

He was denied by His close friend, deserted by most, betrayed for thirty pieces of silver by one He had befriended.

One dark hour He knelt in the Garden, His hour of decision.

He gave Himself over to His enemies, was tried and condemned in mockery, spat upon and lashed, nailed to a cross between two thieves.

He died asking forgiveness for His persecutors while His executioners gambled for His only earthly possession—His robe.

He was laid in a borrowed tomb.

Nearly two thousand years have passed and none has reigned or wrought, or served, or dreamed who has so touched and moulded human life. He is the ideal—the example—who has inspired the noblest and the humblest lives—the great unalterable, wholesome, growing influence in a world of blood and tears.

He who was friendless would be Friend of all. Homeless, He dwells in countless homes. Books on His life fill libraries. His Gospels cover the earth. Songs and music in His praise can fill the heavens. Pictures, spires and monuments proclaim His influence. Scholars, illiterates, rich men, beggars, rulers and slaves . . . all are measured by His life.

The names of Pharaohs, Caesars, emperors, and kings of all the ages that have come and gone are but ghosts upon a printed page. All their combined legions and military might are dust upon the land; their proud sea-borne armadas rust upon an ocean floor.

But this one solitary Life surpasses all in power. Its influence is the one remaining and sustaining hope of future years.

Where does such power dwell?

"Be ye not therefore anxious saying: 'What shall we eat?' or 'Wherewithal shall we be clothed?' But seek ye first His kingdom and His righteousness—and all these things shall be added unto you."

In a Roman court nearly twenty centuries ago, Pontius Pilate asked of the multitude demanding the death of this young Galilean: "I find no evil in Him. What shall I do with this Man?"

Today each troubled heart must meet the challenge when the Pilate-within asks: "What shall I do?"

PRESS FUND

As we go to press, initial returns in Common Sense's $20,000 Press Fund Drive have started to arrive. While the net amount received to date represents only a small portion of the $20,000 goal, we want to thank the many loyal friends and subscribers who have already contributed.

The press is now ready. We cannot back down. It must be work to win if we are to have printing facilities which are free from coercion and intimidation by Marxist agents. Now, when there is every reason to believe that the long hard years of battle are beginning to bear fruit, we must stay in the pro-American, pro-Christian crusade.

The plotters of treason are beginning to show fear. We must keep spot-lighting their subversive activities with a press that rolls faster than ever before.

This is not the time to quit! This is the hour for an all-out drive against the traitors. It is the time, also, for a supreme sacrifice before the American Republic is lost.

We urge all those who have not yet contributed to the Press Fund to use their money NOW — while they live — to keep alive.

Rush your largest possible contribution AT ONCE. Your "share of Freedom" can be $1.00 or $500.00, but send it TODAY. Surely, Christ will bless your most generous help.

Martin Dies Says U. S. In Grave Danger

speech former Texas Congressman Dies gave at the Municipal Auditorium on May 17, 1951.)

Fortunately, however, there was a mountain of evidence which we piled up from 1938 to 1945 which disclosed thousands of instances of the violation of this agreement which we made with the Soviet Union. In 1938 while the Communists were quite secure and bold, at a time when they did not suspect that anyone in the government would dare seize their records, under legal process we raided every Communist organization in the United States and we got all of their records. We got truck loads of records. It is an amazing thing that even today the people do not understand that the story of Communistic conspiracy and treachery was completely and fully unfolded as far back as 1938. Do you know what those records revealed? First, let me tell you what the records were. Among other things we had the correspondence that passed between the Kremlin and the agents of the Kremlin in the United States. We had the minutes of Communists meetings—we had many of the membership records showing who were members of the Communist party. We had the highly confidential directives which had come from Moscow. In other words, we had in every detail this ghastly, criminal conspiracy that was designed to destroy the United States and all Freedom loving people everywhere. What did we find specifically from those records? Well first, we discovered that literally thousands of so-called Americans had traveled to Moscow at the expense of the Soviet Government to be educated and trained in the Labor Schools of Leningrad and Moscow... That they had been taught the use of explosives, how to sabotage, parliamentary procedure—and then they had returned to the United States with specific instructions to infiltrate the Labor Unions and capture positions of leadership. We discovered from other records that twenty-one International Unions affiliated with the C.I.O., representing a majority of the Unions affiliated, had entrenched Communist leadership, and that nearly one-half of the members of the Executive Board were members of the Communist party. When I got that information, I called up Mr. John L. Lewis and arranged for a conference, and I went to his office in 1938. I showed Mr. Lewis what we had. At that conference Mr. Lee Pressman was standing to his right. Lee Pressman was his chief attorney and was a former high ranking official of the New Deal. At that time, Lee Pressman was cently, he has confessed that he lied in 1938... that

WE CONSIDER IT IMPORTANT ALL CHRISTIANS VOICE OUTRAGE AT REMOVAL OF THE CROSS OF CHRIST FROM GRAVES OF OUR CHRISTIAN DEAD. IT IS OUR SINCERE BELIEF THAT OUR SOLDIER DEAD ARE ENTITLED TO HAVE THE SYMBOL WHICH THEY LOVED AND FOR WHICH THEY DIED TO MARK THEIR RESTING PLACE. THANK GOD WE LIVE IN A COUNTRY THAT CAN STILL COMBAT THE ATHEISTIC PRINCIPLES OF SOVIET RUSSIA WHOSE FELLOW TRAVELERS HAVE INSPIRED THIS DASTARDLY ACTION. ISN'T IT PARADOXICAL THAT WHILE BUILDING A TEMPLE FOR THE FOUR CHAPLAINS THAT WE PERMIT ANNA M. ROSENBERG TO REMOVE THE SYMBOL OF CHRIST? IF WE PERMIT THIS, WE ARE TAKING AWAY FROM THE SORROWING MOTHERS THE THOUGHT THAT THEIR SONS NO LONGER LIE BURIED UNDER THE SYMBOL OF THE CROSS. (This telegram was sent to leading citizens of all walks of life simultaneously)

The three "Macs"—MacArthur, McCarthy, and McCarran—are the subjects of such extremely foul vilification by the Jewish press that it is time for all true Americans to pause and question why America's

Senator Joseph R. McCarthy

There is nothing wrong with our Government that ten more McCarthys won't cure. He cannot be bought or bluffed.

three leading anti-Communists are so bitterly abused by a group which supposedly favors what they call "democracy."

General Douglas MacArthur's record is open for all to see. He has served America as few other men have served the Republic. An outstanding student at West Point, his leadership in the Pacific theatre during World War II proves his early suspected capabilities. His firm, yet farsighted, administration of Japan offers irrefutable proof that the United States need never have abandoned a potentially good ally (as was the case in Germany and China) in order to appease the Soviet Union.

The strictly American record of MacArthur is of double importance at the present time. The un-Americans are fully aware of the untarnished service of MacArthur. That is why the Zionist-Communist faction which controls Senator Robert A. Taft (R-O.) is presently wooing MacArthur. It is the ultimate goal of the Taft sponsors to have General MacArthur back the Ohioan for the U. S. presidency in 1952. Senator Taft, already the "buddy" of the radical, Zionist Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, would be almost certain to win the '52 election if MacArthur can be persuaded to campaign for the beloved-of-the-Rabbi, Senator Taft. Such a MacArthur-backs-Taft movement would assure the Zionists control of the winning party whether it was called Republican, "Fair Deal," or Democratic.

Prior to the very recent cosying of MacArthur, the Jewish viewpoint was bitterly expressed by the Jewish press. Here is one poisonous statement by Sam Gach, editor of the California Jewish Voice. Published on May 4, 1951, it stated:

"Braying in Brass—
G.O.P. Doug Daze

"By instinct I've been against most everything Hearst ever put in print except a weather report and the baseball scores. The same intuitive guidance has caused me to shy away from his promotions.

"Even a reader as dumb as some of the clucks that don't believe Americans loved their country a damned sight more in the days of the free lunch, 5c shuper, and the two-hour orator on the 4th of July, can smell this Doug MacArthur ground-swell as the overflow out of the Hearst sewer.

"For once I'm scared. Never since the days of Herbert Hoover, when a President of the United States in his frantic incapacity ordered his General to attack with lethal weapons on the streets of Washington the starving men who won the war for 'democracy' against the Kaiser's killers, has this country of ours come so close to being taken over by a militarist in absolute defiance of all constitutional concepts.

"The General then and now is MacArthur.

"An icy chill clamped my heart when I viewed over television the screaming, hysterical mobs which welcomed Mr. Brass. Reason, restraint, truth and logic, all were violated. The mob ruled. All the man had to do was hire himself a white charger, march on Washington, and in short order a defiant, insubordinate dictator could have forcibly taken over the government before the headline-whipped citizenry could realize that a dictatorship had taken over these United States.

"To all who still can think it is clear as daylight that MacArthur is the head of a political conspiracy against his Commander-in-Chief, and against the very government he took the oath to serve. He is the mouth-piece for the dangerous political and journalistic clique who have howled 'Nordic supremacy' in this country. . . . There is no mistake about it. Truman should have fired MacArthur long before Mr. Brass broke the rules for the second, the third, fourth and fifth time."

The official voice of Jewry carried an editorial captioned "A Deadly Parallel." In that write-up the B'nai B'rith Messenger of May 11, 1951, stated:

"The United States is about in the same position Germany was in the days of Hindenburg, when the future Fuehrer and his followers were gnawing away at whatever there was of democracy in that blood-soaked land. . . . In this country, the process of conditioning the people to favor such an idea has been going on since the end of World War II. Through the American Firsters . . . through fascist and anti-democratic organizations, financed by big money; through bigotted and power-seeking legislators, . . . the first stages of this conditioning is apparently assured the wreckers of our democratic way of life.

"It is now only necessary to find the necessary and timely excuse, and the man to be dramatized as the 'savior of the country' to bring the whole matter to a riotous and bloody head. The necessary excuse is already at hand—the emergency created by the war in Korea. Is the man at hand? Is it possible that the General whom Truman fired because of lack of co-operation could be the candidate? Is it possible that General MacArthur could or desires to be groomed and dramatized in the minds of the American people, already conditioned to the acceptance of a fuehrer?

"How closely the possibility exists is clearly demonstrated when a Senator can, in a radio debate, state baldly that anyone who disagrees with MacArthur is disloyal to the United States of America. In Germany that was the kind of idea drilled into the heads of the nazi-conditioned Germans."

A columnist for the B'nai B'rith Messenger followed his paper's MacArthur hatred when, on June 29, 1951, under the by-line of David Weissman, it said:

"We get a sinking feeling in the pit of our stomach when we run across a headline like the following from the L. A. Times: 'MacArthur, Architect of Freedom.' To us such a statement is the zenith in the glorification of the military over the civilian—it is, to us, an attempt to condition our thinking toward the end that it be acceptable to us that a general (or maybe a Navy officer) is the proper individual to design our liberty, our freedom. That idea is something foreign to American traditions. It smacks of something like a European or South American or Asian importation. Somehow, it brings up the pictures of Field Marshall Stalin, Corporal Hitler, General Franco, and General Peron, and the kind of liberties they designed."

(The foregoing is probably what is known as "blanket attack." If one can't call a man a Franco, or Hitler—call him by the name of all dictators.—McG.)

SEN. M'CARTHY CALLED "MUCK"

While Senator Joseph R. McCarthy has been doing his all to weed out of government offices all Communists and their proteges, the Jewish press has dipped the bowl of gall and derided all his efforts.

One such blast by Sammy Gach, editor of the California Jewish Voice, in his "In the Know" column of July 18, 1951, was captioned "Muck McCarthy and the G.O.P." The arsenic-tainted words read:

"The Voice has again had bestowed upon it the dubious honor of being quoted in Gerald L. K. Smith's gutter sheet . . . the spiritual polecat even had photostats shot of the material quoted. . . . I guess this means that Gerry the gyp and this writer are still on opposite sides of the fence. . . . Which brings me to his latest hero, a pin-head in high position who is just a natural for the adulations of a Gerald Smith, the 'honorable' Senator for Wisconsin, Joe McCarthy—and if you skip the 'honorable' no one but Smith will sue you and he can't win on anything moral.

" . . . I would still call blubber-mouth Joe a darned good facsimile of a fascist. Do his colleagues in the Republican party disown him or repudiate him? . . . Millions of voters are entitled to know whether the Republican Party disavows McCarthyism or indorses it. And they are bound to consider that the continued silence on the part of the Republican high command constitutes indorsement of the slimy politics of Joe McCarthy. . . ."

Another Jewish writer, Weissman, whose scribbles appear in the B'nai B'rith Messenger, wrote some would-be poetry on January 12, 1951. He, like most other Jews, praised an A.D.L. man, and rapped an anti-Communist, in the lines:

"Here's a cheer son
For columnist Pearson.
And a raspberry hearty
For 'Smear' McCarthy!"

Senator McCarthy was also attacked as "fertilizer" by the Jewish columnist, Milton Friedman, a writer for the California Jewish Voice. In his article of March 16, 1951, Friedman stated:

"McCarthyism is emerging as the fertilizer which is nourishing the seeds of anti-Semitism. A Jewish veteran in Washington has been denied employment by the national defense establishment because his parents and in-laws had the bad fortune to be born in countries now controlled by Communist regimes. . . ."

"While such incidents are being investigated Sen. Herbert H. Lehman compared Republican Senator Joseph McCarthy with Hitler. Sen. Lehman said the 'black evil of McCarthyism,' applied through the Hitlerian 'big lie technique,' has captured 'the imagination of the American people.'"

"Sen. Lehman told an American Civil Liberties Union panel here that 'we would be foolish not to realize' the extent to which McCarthyism has advanced and how McCarthy has 'sold ideas to the American people and made successful political capital from those ideas.' The distinguished four-time governor warned that McCarthyism is bringing about the 'loss of liberty through gradual and disguised encroachment.'"

Friedman, of course, made no mention of the fact that Lehman, a definitely left-wing Zionist, was addressing a positively RED group, the American Civil Liberties Union. The American Civil Liberties Union is known as an organization which always takes the RED line and battles for REDS.

SEN. M'CARRAN ALSO SMEARED

For a man who worst "fault" has been that he has fought against Communists and Communism, Senator Pat McCarran of Nevada has been the object of foul abuse and smearing by the Jewish press. One of the most depraved pieces of writing ever seen is an article, part of which follows, by Samuel B. Gach, editor of the California Jewish Voice. His "In the Know" column of September 14, 1951, says:

"For months and years political heels have been screaming for Acheson's scalp. Included in the mob are Republicans and a few Democrats. To hear them one could almost believe they were sincerely concerned about the welfare of the country they serve.

"Yet it isn't so. Not one of them gives half the hoot for his country that he does to get re-elected to government office where, as a Senator or Congressman, he can dig his greedy snout into the public trough and not have to compete in private life for a living where his run of talent starves for a meager existence.

"Take fatso McCarran, Senator from the gambling State of Nevada, where men are more concerned with the lack of morals in a politician than in the statesmanship of a public servant. I said take him. I don't blame you if you don't for I personally wouldn't take that hog-jowled fascist apologist even for free on bank-night in one of those casinos his state boasts.

"I call him a fit subject to be investigated by our Un-American committees. First, he is the official spokesman in this country for a gent who helped kill Allied soldiers for Hitler, the dictator Franco of Spain. As such he has failed to register as an agent of a foreign government.

"Next, after Acheson's brilliant display of diplomatic genius in his handling of the Conference to sign the Japanese Peace Treaty, where time and again he made the Russians look like diplomatic pygmies, the only person in these United States who gave comfort to the Rooskies, and propaganda to their grist mills, was this same fat-head McCarran.

"Forty-nine nations as one man applauded the great task. . . . But dunder-head No. 1 in the U. S. Senate saved the day for the Russian loudmouth."

"The very morning after the conclusion of the treaty, the fat-head from Nevada broke national headlines with the statement that 'Gromyko won victory on treaty.' The only person in this country idiot enough, subversive enough or cheap politician enough to come out with the one statement which could possibly save the neck of one of America's deadly enemies, Ambassador Andrei Gromyko of red Russia, and give substance to the international Commie propaganda mills, was McCarran, of Nevada.

"We personally don't care what makes a subversive tick, whether it's ideals, a cushy job, or re-election. If patriotic-wise he is a louse, he should be apprehended. By his giving comfort to an enemy in time of national peril I call upon the F.B.I. to investigate as a security risk the Senator from Nevada, hog-jowled McCarran.

"The 'statesmen' from Nevada are really terrific. In a recent poll to discover the most DISPENSIBLE United States Senators, out of ten mentioned TWO came from the hardly settled state also notorious for its divorce mills and crap tables."

Americans must remember that each of the three "Macs" were smeared because they have always been anti-Communist. This is exactly what happened with Common Sense. When this publication was issued originally, no mention was made of Jews or Zionists. Nonetheless it has been only the Jewish faction which fought us and used every possible unethical means to stop the paper.

Common Sense repeats—so there will be no misunderstanding—the quotations given herein ARE FROM THE JEWISH PRESS. They have been quoted only because it is felt that Americans should know precisely what the Jewish press is saying about anti-Communists.

vigorously denying any Communist affiliation, but re-as a matter of fact he was a member of the Communist party and that not only was he a member, but that John Abbt and Kramer and Nathan Witt—who ran the NLRB were all members of the same cell with him. Well I told Mr. Lewis what we had to do, and I said to him—"Mr. Lewis, if your organization will agree to expel these traitors—these minions of Moscow, from positions of leadership, we will not have any public hearings because we have no desire to injure you, we simply want to get rid of these traitors so that they can't cripple American economic life and American industry." Mr. Lewis was very insulting and boldly said to me that "Communists had the same right to hold positions of leadership in his organization as any one else." The next day, I was summoned to the White House, and when I went to the White House, Senator Shepherd was in the room, having gone there to talk with the President about some Texas Project—and as the Senator started to leave, the President said "Wait a minute Senator, I want you to hear what I am going to tell Martin" . . . and the President said to Senator Shepherd, "You know Senator, Martin has a very bright future in the Democratic Party. He can go a long way in our Party, because I am determined to promote the young men in the party, and he can go a long way, if he will 'play ball with us'." I said, "What do you mean—'play ball,' Mr. President?" "Well," he said, "Mr. Lewis has called me by telephone and is very much disturbed about your proposal to hold public hearings for the purpose of exposing Communism in the C.I.O." I then told the President about my conference with Mr. Lewis and that Mr. Lewis had defied me and had said that "Communists have the same right to hold positions of leadership as anyone else." The President said "that may be true, but you can't go forward with this investigation." Then I said—"Why can't I go forward with it?" and he said because "if you do, you'll antagonize the C.I.O., and we are dependent on it in the doubtful districts, and it is important to have its support to win the next election." Let me tell you that what I am telling you tonight, I have told many audiences in the United States. In fact, I told it in substance during the time President Roosevelt was alive. He was confronted by the Press, and they asked him—"Is Martin Dies telling the truth?"—and never once did the President deny the truthfulness of any statement I made. You know why? Because I have here his letters . . . I hold here the correspondence that passed between me and the President of the United States and the Cabinet officers, and I have here the original letter written to me by the Majority Leader Mr. McCormick, requesting me not to expose Communism in the C.I.O. I said to the President, "Mr. President, I love the Democratic Party. The Democratic Party has honored me, and I am grateful to the Party. Before me, my father was a Democrat and for many years was a member of Congress and headed one of the important Committees of the House . . . Before my father, my grandfather was one of the pioneer political Democratic leaders of Texas, and I love the Dem. Party, but I can not forget something my father said to me before he died. He said to me, and I shall always remember it—"Son, some day you may aspire to public office and it is an honorable thing for a man to want to serve his country, and you may some day reach an important post of trust and responsibility—and some day, you may be compelled to choose between your country and your Party. If that day ever comes, make no mistake, choose your country, because your country is infinitely more important than any political party on earth." Well, the President said, in substance, "If that's your attitude, it's going to be pretty bad for you, Martin." He said, "You are going to brand yourself as a foe of labor, as an enemy of the Democratic Party and in the end, you'll ostracize yourself from this Party, and destroy what would have otherwise been a very bright political career." Well, I left the White House just as determined to go forward as when I entered it. I was certainly apprized in 1938, exactly what the Administration intended to do.

PURGED POLITICALLY FOR FIGHTING COMMUNISM

When I got this letter from the present Majority Leader, which was transmitted to me over the signature of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, I said to him, "Now listen, I didn't want this job, the Committee on Rules, of the House, insisted that I head this Committee. I knew it was a headache, but I got it, and this resolution commands me to investigate and expose Communism, the same as Nazism or Fascism, and I am going to carry this resolution out. Then he said, "if you do—you won't get any money. Well block your request for appropriations." I had requested $100,000 to carry on the work of the Committee, but when I went before the Committee of Accounts, the Administration had called up every Democratic member and had asked them not to give me anything except a very small and insufficient amount. I finally got $25,000. Now think of it—I was given $25,000 to carry on the most important work that this Congress has undertaken in the last century, and yet the Government has already spent billions of dollars, attempting to halt Communism. Well, I took the $25,000 and did the best I could with it, and when I didn't have enough money, I supplemented it with my own money. I was determined to hold on to the best of my ability.

Now when we exposed the fact that these unions in the C.I.O. were under the control of stooges of the Kremlin, every creature—every foul-mouthed propagandist of the Communist Party and their fellow travelers turned loose a barrage and bombardment of filthy-lies against me, and the Committee.

In my own Congressional district, where there were more members of the C.I.O. than any other congressional district of Texas, they persuaded thousands of good American people, that what I was doing—was being done to injure the Democratic Party and organized Labor. Mr. Lewis and Mr. Murray and the entire leadership carried on a campaign of vicious and unconscionable lies. But in the last 12 months they have, by their own voluntary actions confessed the truthfulness of every finding that our Committee made in 1938. They expelled the very persons and unions we exposed twelve years before. But they kept them on their payrolls and in important positions for 12 years. During those 12 years, they were able to instigate strike after strike for the sole purpose of promoting the program of Moscow in the U. S., and they were able to steal invaluable industrial secrets. We discovered from these records that 2000 government employees and officials belonged to the Communist party. We had the membership records of many of them taken from the Washington Chapter. I went to the President with this information because I thought the President would agree with me that a Communist's allegiance is to Moscow, there is no doubt about that, and there has never been any doubt to anyone who would take the pains to read their own literature, their own programs. I thought surely that the White House would cooperate to get these minions and stooges of Stalin out of the State Department and Dept. of Justice, the Navy and the Army and the Interior, and of all other departments of the Government. When I told the President what we had, he turned to me and he laughed and said—"You know, Martin, I think you see a Red under your bed every night." He said, "You know—you're unduly alarmed about Communists"—he said "I'm not a Communist, and I'm not a Communist sympathizer, but I've got some good friends who are Communists and I think the Communists are harmless and I believe that Russia is our natural Ally."

Marxist Stooge

Senator Tom Connally of Texas

President Truman sent the appointment of Philip Jessup, as representative to the U. N., to the U. S. Senate.

Senator Connally, stooge for the Marxist New Deal, knowing the Senate would vote down this appointment, withheld it on his desk until Congress adjourned so that President Truman could make an "interim" appointment of the Zionist stooge, Jessup. From all sides, Jessup has been branded as a Communist.

At the next election, patriotic Texans should retire stooge Connally and let him pick cotton. The Honorable Martin Dies could then extremely well represent the great Lone Star State. Communists could not have obtained the power they now have in Washington except for dupes like Connally.

MARXIST FRONTS

There are more than 600 Marxist or Communist fronts in the U. S. operating under non-suspicious sounding names. The names usually embody the words American — Democracy — Liberty — Freedom — Civil Rights — Human Rights.

Common Sense has, in the past, published the names of many of those Communist fronts. Some, due to having the spotlight of publicity focused on them, have gone underground, or have been reorganized and consolidated under new titles.

The "Crusade for Freedom," which operates "Radio Free Europe," is the most openly active at this time. The Anti-Defamation League (Jewish Gestapo) set up the "Crusade for Freedom" frame-work before the "Crusade" was announced, and many well-meaning people were fooled into fronting for that over-financed, deceptive movement.

Knowing that, if they did not provide a movement to enlist people opposed to Communism, real anti-Communist movements would be launched, Marxist Jews under the guidance of the Anti-Defamation League (B'nai B'rith) set up "Crusade for Freedom," giving notice to the members of the many Marxist fronts and Jewish organizations.

Simultaneously all Jewish publications carried large ads for "Crusade for Freedom" while their editorials and feature columns attacked all real crusaders against Communism—particularly Senator McCarthy, Senator McCarran and General MacArthur.

"Crusade for Freedom" is a super-Marxist, pro-Trotsky Communist front. Those few real patriots who are being used as window-dressing by the Marxists should study the foundation of that deceitful organization. They will learn that it should be called—Crusade for Slavery.

"Freedom House," set up in New York during the time Wendell Willkie was the most prominent stooge for the International Marxist Jews, is a nest of Marxists, New Dealers and "one worlders."

"Americans for Democratic Action" is an organization of Marxists and their screwball dupes.

"United World Federalists," another front for International Marxists, is boosting "Crusade for Freedom."

All of the above have unlimited financial backing and direction from Kuhn, Loeb and Co. (the Warburgs), 53 William Street, New York City—Lehman Brothers—Goldman Sachs and Lazard Freres. Will any of the official representatives of the above organizations defend themselves from the accusations by Common Sense? They will NOT!

Crusade For Freedom

revolutionaries inside our borders, it became necessary for the big-name Zionists—those figures who have the ear of Presidents and shape policies helpful to the world revolution, and who have fought doggedly if subtly to protect Communists, to reorganize with new window dressing. They had to whitewash themselves to hold their influence, and they wanted, among other things, to continue to confuse our European policies and bring a delaying action there against the rising Anti-Communist movement.

PACKED WITH REDS

Quietly, behind the scenes they set up plans for a "Radio Free Europe" short wave propaganda network. Then they laid plans for a big popular front in America which would whitewash them and at the same time give backing and money for the radio net.

Before any public announcement was made of their plans, they handpicked the men who were to control the new national front. These names composing the national council never were made public intentionally, so far as I know; but some of them were inadvertently publicized. For instance, in a question-and-answer program on a radio station, the eminent General Ira C. Eaker, who lent his name to the crusade at that time, revealed that the organization had chosen Walter Wanger and Benjamin H. Kizer as two of its national councilmen before he, General Eaker, ever heard of its existence.

"Wanger" is a notorious old time Communist front-er, cited many times in official files of the California Un-American Activities Committee. He is a big Zionist and brother of the equally Red Lion Feuchtwanger. Kizer likewise has a long Zionist and Communist front record.

Wanger, in addition to his national office, became head of the Crusade for Los Angeles; Kizer became director for Washington state.

But the two top figures from the outset were Senator Herbert H. Lehman and Barney Balaban, both vice presidents of the Anti-Defamation League, Balaban recently chairman of the executive board of the ADL. These men are foremost, with Felix Frankfurter, among the revolutionary strategists in America. Isolate them and 100 of their top associates and the revolution would be stunned and staggering.

Lehman, as you doubtless have observed in news reports, has fought every effort to enact legislation against Communists. He fought the McCarran act and is still trying to get it nullified.

SEN. TENNEY CONDEMNED CRUSADE

He was described by the Chicago Tribune (May 29, 1950) as constituting, with Felix Frankfurter and Henry Morgenthau, Jr., "the secret government of the United States." As governor general of UNRRA long after the war, Lehman delivered $400,000,000 of American goods to the Red Army which then occupied Yugoslavia. He attacks General MacArthur in the same way the Communist papers attack the General. He has a life-long record of revolutionary activities, destructive to the Christian West.

To dramatize the new front and give it a great send-off, the national council chose Carl Byoir and Associates, public relations specialists (who engineered many of the big New Deal splurges, such as Roosevelt's birthday balls, and Wendell Willkie's one-world campaign). Mr. Byoir is a crypto Jew. He seems to have the full cooperation of the Anti-Defamation League's mighty propaganda machine (including Winchell and Pearson) in his left wing, internationalist campaigns.

They "christened" the new front Crusade for Freedom.

Generals Lucius Clay and Dwight Eisenhower, who owe their promotions and pompous reputations entirely to the Anti-Defamation League (see the July, 1951, issue of the Intelligence Summary for the backers of Eisenhower), were chosen as window dressing. Millions of Americans followed their lead. Men who should have had their eyes open failed to observe that all the old Marxist groups which call themselves Zionist (including their radio spokesmen) jumped onto the white-wash bandwagon.

State Senator Jack B. Tenney, for ten years chairman of the California Committee on Un-American Activities, deceived by the new front for about two weeks, saw behind its curtain and resigned, issuing a statement to the newspapers that he could not associate himself with an organization of which Walter Wanger was one of the managers.

This writer tried in his small way to point out that the control of the Crusade for Freedom's short wave propaganda would be in alien hands and would promote our enemies, or at best, confusion and delays. But the Crusade fooled millions of good people and raised millions of dollars.

Now the Crusade is once more in a big drive for American money, and it has sent copies of some clean, innocent broadcast scripts to its various chairmen in America. But I have some reports from Europe that the Crusade's Radio Free Europe is not innocent. It is using not a single uncompromisingly Anti-Communist speaker or device. It is promoting the old fellow-travelers who lost their countries to Communism. It is still fighting the now-dead Nazism, and with such emphasis and technique as stir friction, create division and make it difficult for us to consolidate other Europeans with the German people against Communism. And it is flagrantly advertising Jewish speakers and causes, thus showing the Anti-Communist white Russians and Ukrainians, Poles, Hungarians, Rumanians, etc.—who know that Communism is Jewish—that America is so much in the hands of Jews that they even dominate Radio Free Europe.

Thus, they are hardening our kind of people, the Anti-Communists, behind the iron curtain against surrendering to our armies in case of war. Those people will be afraid that we too are Communist and they will say, "What's the use of surrendering to the Americans? Reds cannot liberate us from Reds."

The device may cost us millions of men.

EUROPEANS SEE DOUBLE-DEALING

There is a rising protest among the more thoughtful peoples of Europe. For instance, the Salzburger Nachrichten, one of the great dailies of Austria, recently featured an article showing the dangerous duplicity of the broadcasts.

The eminent displaced Hungarian scholar, Dr. Kolo-man Rattkay, author of Anti-Communist books and for 30 years an active opponent of Communism, agreed with the Austrian paper and wrote the manager of the broadcast network protesting. Referring to the author of the article in the Austrian paper, Dr. Rattkay wrote Radio Free Europe:

"He is correct in stating that it is absurd that the new radio, functioning on German soil, and thus enjoying German hospitality, should utter throughout weeks of broadcasting, no word of recognition for the German people; but rather should repeatedly seek to wound its self-respect; and to besmirch the honor of its soldiers who have valiantly battled against the Soviet hordes.

"The German nation has atoned for all its sins. . . . What is the sense, therefore, of the new radio raining just as many blows of its whip upon the no longer extant bogey of 'Nazism' as upon the very much alive and deadly peril of Bolshevism? . . .

"What is true in regard to Germany is equally true in regard to the Hungarian, Romanian and Czechoslovakian broadcasts. The programs beamed toward Prague, Bucharest and Budapest are not content with censuring the pro-Bolshevik governments now in power in those countries; they proceed to vilify in the same terms the legitimate Romanian, Slovak and Hungarian governments of the war years and the old nationalist parliamentary parties of the right (the Anti-Communist parties—Ed.). . . .

Both the Austrian newspaper and Dr. Rattkay pointed out that Radio Free Europe is featuring as propaganda speakers, "only persons who, for whatever reason, professed Anti-German views during the war. These speakers are now encouraged to air their hatred of all things German at a wholly inopportune time. For all statesmen of note are now openly professing that without the cooperation of Germany it is impossible to save Europe in case of a new assault on the part of the Bolsheviks.

"It is indeed a two-edged weapon to set before the microphone individuals who, after the 'liberation' of 1945, collaborated as fellow-travelers with the Soviet occupation forces in the countries beyond the iron curtain, and helped to break the moral resistance of their peoples."

The new personal news letter of refugee Prof. Geza Arany, "American-Hungarian Voice," New York City, likewise expresses concern.

This is a revealing and shocking indictment of the Radio Free Europe which the Crusade for Freedom supports.

There is reason also to suspect that the persons in control of the Crusade and Radio Free Europe are playing a dangerous game with Anti-Communist underground elements behind the iron curtain. They are broadcasting to them in such a way, and using DP spokesmen in such a way, as to betray some ulterior motives which may bring the destruction of underground leaders. The whole mess should be aired by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, or other suitable Congressional body.

"ANTI-SEMITISM" REDS' SECRET WEAPON NATION'S SECURITY AND CIVILIZATION THREATENED BY MARXIST CONSPIRATORS Camouflaged traitors high in government are secretly sabotaging U.S.A. plans for defense

"Anti-Semitism" is the "smoke screen" behind which the enemies of this nation and Christianity aim to win their "cold" war. Their "creeping conquest" must be stopped or the international Marxists' conspiracy for world rule will become a reality very soon. It is well known that their "cold" war-plans rely upon "anti-Semitism" as their secret weapon. At the very first "peep" out of a possible future antagonist they "call out" their vicious Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund.

Patriotic Christian Americans take it "from whence it comes" and "sound off" with a "line drive" attack against this Marxist conspiracy for world conquest. The cry "anti-Semitism" by the Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund has become the political, economic, and social "A-bomb" in the arsenal of the invisible agents of the international Marxist conspirators. They have given "anti-Semitism" a destructive power which is devastating beyond the power of any words to describe.

The existence of a conspiracy to conquer the world is well established. The American people are not sufficiently informed about it. The facts which follow will go far in convincing the most skeptical person that this nation is in immediate danger. NOW is the time to act. The FIRST step to take is to LEARN the "SCORE."

UNSEEN DISEASE DESTROYING NATION'S LIFE

In this crisis it becomes necessary to treat the DISEASE. Americans have been treating SYMPTOMS. This nation is the victim of a malignant malady. Like all malignant maladies the danger is invisible. Its existence is only evidenced by its symptoms. To treat the SYMPTOMS but not the DISEASE will quickly prove fatal.

In order to survive it becomes vital to discover the disease BEFORE it reaches the stage where it is TOO LATE to save the patient. When many patients finally reach the operating table it is discovered that it is TOO LATE. The case is HOPELESS. The patient is sewed-up and sent home to wait for the inevitable. IT IS TOO LATE THEN TO START "REVERSING THE TREND."

This nation and Christianity are now in that stage. IS IT TOO LATE TO REVERSE THE TREND? That is the ONLY important issue. WE THINK IT IS NOT TOO LATE! But the condition is critical. There must not be an instant's delay in ATTACKING THE DISEASE. The nation's patriots must not allow themselves to be misled by their enemies into treating SYMPTOMS, and ignoring the existence of the DISEASE producing the symptoms.

Common sense teaches us to follow this logical course to SAVE OUR LIVES. Common sense should tell us also to use that same logic to SAVE OUR NATION. There is not a moment to be lost in making a CORRECT DIAGNOSIS. Until that is done it is not possible to give the CORRECT TREATMENT. Unless the CORRECT TREATMENT is given without much loss of time the DISEASE will soon reach the HOPELESS stage. Tears will not then be able to wash away those mistakes.

MARXIST UNDERGROUND ENDANGERS NATION

Julius Rosenberg, Ethel Rosenberg, Judith Coplon, Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, Lee Pressman, Nathan Witt, Gerhard Eisler, Irving Potash, Alexander Bittelman, Gilbert Green (Greenberg), Jacob Golos, "J. Peters" Goldberger, Jacob Stachel, Sidney Weinbaum, Hanns Eisler, Israel Regenstein, Philip Bart, Ephraim Zinoyi Liberman (Michael Lee), Phillip Jaffe, Mark Julius Ginsburg (Mark Gayn), Andrew Roth, Dorn Weiss (Harry Dexter White), Avro Gus Halberg (Gus Hall), are only SYMPTOMS. The DISEASE itself is the international Marxist conspiracy for world conquest. IT IS NECESSARY TO PAY ATTENTION TO THE SYMPTOMS BECAUSE THEY INDICATE THE NATURE AND THE LOCATION OF THE DISEASE. THE DISEASE, HOWEVER, MUST BE ATTACKED AND DESTROYED.

The anti-Christ atheist Marxist aggression is under the direct leadership of Yiddish Marxists. The Yiddish Marxists claim Marxism as their offspring. Apart from the political, social and economic implications of Marxism it also harbors a very definite anti-Christ implication.

TALMUDIC PRAYER MAKING TRAITORS PRAYER PROMOTES TREASON Loyalty oaths valueless at time taken, a prayer nullifies oaths before taking.

A prayer recited in synagogues preceding the Day of Atonement religious ceremonies makes traitors of everyone participating in these ceremonies. The threat contained in that prayer to the security of this nation and to the survival of civilization commands the immediate consideration of all patriotic Americans.

The recitation of that prayer in synagogues prior to the Day of Atonement religious ceremonies renders valueless the loyalty oath of all who participate in the ceremony.

RUSSIA DEFEATS THE JUDAIZED KHAZARS

When in the 11th Century A.D. the Russians conquered the Judaized Khazars an important alteration was introduced by Yiddish communities, the former Judaized Khazars, in their ceremonies on the Day of Atonement.

Bloch and Madelstamm, the two foremost Judaic authorities on matters relating to the historic evolution of Judaism, both state that this significant alteration was the premeditated consequence of "a definite historical event."

The "definite historical event" referred to by Bloch and Madelstamm was the final conquest of the Judaized Khazars, called since then Yiddish communities, in eastern Europe, by the Russians in the 11th Century. That conquest wiped from the face of the map of Europe the 1000 year old Khazar kingdom which during its last 500 years flourished as a sovereign Judaic theocracy under Talmudic law, the totalitarian rule over civilians by rabbis.

PRAYER DECLARES OATHS NULL AND VOID

The interpretations made during the past 800 years by leading Judaic authorities upon the alteration made in that prayer confirm that its effect is to make null and void for the coming year all oaths, vows and pledges. As a consequence of that alteration in the prayer all oaths, vows and pledges made in the coming year become ineffectual, ineffective and invalid even before they are made.

The immunity thereby obtained from responsibilities or obligations assumed under oaths, vows and pledges to be taken during the coming year is renewed each year by the "Kol Nidre" ceremony on the Day of Atonement.

JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA EXPLAINS PRAYER

According to the Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 539, the following prayer is recited three times at the opening of the Day of Atonement services. That prayer is called "Kol Nidre" (All Vows). The text of that prayer is reproduced here exactly as it appears in the official translation in the Jewish Encyclopedia:

"All vows, obligations, oaths and anathemas, whether called 'konam,' 'konas,' or by any other name, which we may vow, or swear, or pledge, or whereby we may be bound, from this Day of Atonement unto the next (whose happy coming we await), we do repent. May they be deemed absolved, forgiven, annulled and void and made of no effect; they shall not bind us nor have power over us. The vows shall not be reckoned vows; the obligations shall not be obligatory; nor the oaths be oaths."

PRAYER'S PURPOSE PURELY POLITICAL

Notwithstanding the fact that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is recited three times at the opening of the Day of Atonement services, the Jewish Encyclopedia emphasizes that this prayer has no connection with the Day of Atonement religious services which follow its recitation. The political nature of the alteration made in the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in the 12th Century A.D. is confirmed by the complete lack of any spiritual significance. The Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VI, page 441, arrives at the same conclusion, stating:

"The Kol Nidre has nothing whatever to do with the actual idea of the Day of Atonement . . . It attained to extraordinary solemnity and popularity by reason of the fact that it was the first of the prayers recited on this holiest of days."

MYSTERY FOR MODIFICATION OBSCURE

The Jewish Encyclopedia, in Volume VII, page 540, describes the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in a most concise and correct description of its implications, stating:

"An important alteration in the wording of the 'Kol Nidre' was made by Rashi's son-in-law, Meir ben Samuel, who changed the original phrase 'from the last Day of Atonement until this one' to 'from this Day of Atonement until the next.' Thus the dispensation of the 'Kol Nidre' was not as formerly a posteriori and concerned with the unfulfilled obligations of the past year, but a priori and having reference to vows which one might not be able to fulfill or might forget to observe during the ensuing year. Meir ben Samuel likewise added the words 'we do repent of them all.'"

The leading authority on rituals, including the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer, is Professor Theodor Reik, the famous pupil of Dr. Sigmund Freud, renowned psychoanalyst. Professor Reik wrote a classic text book in German, his native language, called "The Ritual, Psycho-Analytical Studies," the greatest work on this subject.

Professor Reik's analysis of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer was translated into the English language and published in the United States by Farrar, Straus & Company in 1946. The Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund cannot accuse the author, his teacher, or his publisher of being "anti-Semitic." They are interested only in determining the truth and communicating it to as many who are interested in this subject as can be reached.

Professor Reik states his conclusions which must be accepted as the analysis of the leading authority on this subject. With reference to the consequences resulting from the alteration in the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer, Professor Reik on page 168 in his famous book, states:

"The text was to the effect that all oaths which believers take between one Day of Atonement and the next Day of Atonement are declared invalid."

TALMUDIC LAW SANCTIONS CHANGE

The intent and the purpose of the alteration introduced by Meir ben Samuel in the text of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in the 12th Century A.D. is a well established fact. Documented proofs exist that Meir ben Samuel himself cited in support of his argument Nedarim 23b, known in English as The Talmudic Treatise on Oaths:

"whoever wishes all the vows he may make throughout the year to be null and void shall come at the beginning of year and say 'May all the vows that I shall vow be annulled.'"

Professor Reik brings out the fact that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer has no spiritual significance. Attention is called by him to the absence of spiritual meaning in the version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer with the alterations introduced by Meir ben Samuel, and to prove this point, on page 175, he states:

JUSTIFICATION FOR CHANGE INVALID

The sinister Yiddish defenders of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer offer as their justification for its retention in the liturgy on the Day of Atonement the plea that the prayer refers "only to one's obligations to one's self," according to the Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VI, page 441. They offer hair-splitting arguments and "double-talk" as their basis for retaining this prayer in their ritual. Professor Reik differs and destroys the force of their reasoning with his statement on page 176, as follows, which completely disproves their only defense:

"The whole weight of the argument that the immunity only applies to the oath sworn and taken upon himself by a believer rests on the subordinate sentence, 'I asarna al nafshathana,' ('which we have taken upon our souls,' or expressed in more modern language 'which we have taken upon ourselves'). The significance of the words is clear. The defenders of the Kol Nidre state that the formula does not concern oaths valid at law regarding other persons, but it concerns one's oaths, vows, pledges, etc., which impose upon one's self therefore a contract with one's ego."

Professor Reik exposes the fraudulence of this absurd contention by the defenders of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. It insults the intelligence to listen to the justification of the defenders. Professor Reik concurs with other leading authorities that the justification offered cannot be acceptable on that basis as vindication. In his treatise on this subject, Professor Reik, on page 178, summarizes:

"Does the phrase 'which we have imposed on our souls' (or 'upon ourselves') exclude the participation of a second person. Only apparently, we think. Apart from philological doubts, it is quite possible that oaths as well as vows which we impose upon ourselves concern a second person. I swear to myself, for instance, I will support a poor relation. Of course in such a case it is not a matter of a contract between two persons, BUT FULFILLMENT OR NON-FULFILLMENT OF THIS VOW AFFECTS THE OTHER PERSON."

LOYALTY OATHS SACRED CONTRACTS

A loyalty oath is an oath with "one's self." A loyalty oath is not a contract between two persons. The loyalty oath to defend the nation and to support its Constitution is a pledge made with one's self exactly like the pledge to support a poor relation. The fulfillment or non-fulfillment of a pledge to defend the nation and to support its Constitution affects other persons exactly as fulfillment or non-fulfillment of a pledge to support poor relations affects the poor relations. LOYALTY is our promise given to GOD.

A person taking a loyalty oath makes a vow or pledge with "one's self" to be loyal to his country. A loyalty oath is never a "contract between two persons," according to Professor Reik. A "contract between two persons" is a "meeting of the minds" whereby the parties mutually promise to perform an understanding between the parties. In many cases such understandings are strengthened with an oath, vow or pledge. Loyalty oaths by their very nature are oaths made "with one's self," and by their very nature cannot be with "second parties."

Professor Reik is an authority on the subject of oaths. The operation of the mind plays an important part in the making of oaths, vows and pledges. Professor Reik emphasizes the fact that an oath is a promise made by a person to himself. He stresses that an oath is a promise given to God by the person who takes the oath. He cites that there is never a second person to the contract entered into between anyone taking an oath and God. Professor Reik corroborates the interpretation by other leading authorities of the phrase, "which we have taken upon our souls," or as expressed in more modern language, "which we have taken upon ourselves," on page 184, as follows:

"We can say that an oath is a promise WHICH THE PERSON IMPOSES UPON HIMSELF," and, "The vow, therefore, would be A PROMISE GIVEN TO GOD."

Professor Reik lays great stress upon the intentions of Meir ben Samuel when he introduced the alteration in the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in the 12th Century. He brings out the fact that it was after the final conquest of the Judaized Khazars by the Russians in the 11th Century, and the loss of their independence and sovereignty, that the Yiddish communities, the Judaized former Khazars, introduced this alteration in the liturgy of the Yiddish congregations in eastern Europe. Meir ben Samuel was inspired to introduce the alteration for a very obvious reason. Professor Reik referred to this on page 179, calling attention to the threat to our security, thus:

"An important alteration in wording of Kol Nidre was made by Rashi's son-in-law, Meir ben Samuel; hitherto released from the vows from the last year had been pronounced, but he had the vows of the coming year declared void."

PRAYER LOSES RELIGIOUS SIGNIFICANCE

The Jewish Encyclopedia calls attention to the manner in which the alteration introduced by Meir ben Samuel deprived the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer of its former religious character. The alteration in the original text by Meir ben Samuel in the 12th Century which robbed "Kol Nidre" of its former spiritual significance is referred to by the Jewish Encyclopedia in Volume VII, page 541, which establishes its non-religious character:

"The words 'as it is written in the teachings of Moses, thy Servant' which were said in the old form before Num. XV. 26, were cancelled. (Abudarham, p. 75b)."

Professor Reik calls attention to the fact, above described by the Jewish Encyclopedia, as a violent departure from the sacred character of oaths in the time of Old Testament Bible history, indicated by "Kol Nidre" of today:

"The purport of the formula is in complete contrast with the high esteem in which obligations, whether taken on oath or otherwise, are held in biblical and Talmudic Judaism"

The Jewish Encyclopedia, in Volume VII, page 540, indicates the sacred character of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in its long history. The congregations participating in the Day of Atonement ceremonies regarded the recital of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer as an important part of these holiest of services, according to the Jewish Encyclopedia, which emphasizes that point thus:

"Declares that the petitioners, who were seeking reconciliation with God, solemnly retracted in His presence all vows and oaths . . . and made them all null and void from the beginning, entreating in their stead pardon and forgiveness from the Heavenly Father."

RELIGIOUS LEADERS CHALLENGE CHANGE

The Jewish Encyclopedia points out that the alteration made in the liturgy was opposed at the time by rabbinic authorities. The political considerations entering into the introduction of the alteration of the text caused considerable opposition from sincere and devout religious leaders. The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 539, makes mention of this opposition to the alteration thus:

"Kol Nidra. Prayer recited in the synagogues of the beginning of the evening service on the Day of Atonement; the name is taken from the opening words. The 'Kol Nidre' has had a very eventful history, both in itself and on the legal status of the Jews. Introduced in the liturgy despite the opposition of the rabbinic authorities, repeatedly attacked in the course of time by many halakists, and in the 19th Century A.D. EXPUNGED FROM THE PRAYER BOOKS OF MANY COMMUNITIES OF WESTERN EUROPE."

The alteration introduced in the 12th Century by Meir ben Samuel in the text of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is found only in the ritual of Yiddish congregations. Of the 14,000,000 Yiddish persons in the world today about one-half are at the present time in the United States. Approximately 88% of the total Judaic American population are members of this Yiddish community, all 1st and 2nd generation eastern Europeans. munity, all first and second generation eastern Europeans.

REBELLION BY LEGITIMATE RELIGIOUS

The efforts of Yiddish communities to compel the introduction of the altered text of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer into the ritual of non-Yiddish communities met with strong opposition. This opposition began shortly after the introduction of the altered text in the 12th Century. Before the 19th Century the altered version of the "Kol Nidre" had created so much conflict between the Yiddish and non-Yiddish Judaic populations of the world, that it produced a historic crisis. In 1844, at a rabbinical conference called in Brunswick, Germany, IT WAS UNANIMOUSLY DECIDED THAT THE "KOL NIDRE" PRAYER WAS NOT ESSENTIAL TO JUDAISM AND THAT MEMBERS OF THE CONVENTION SHOULD EXERT THEIR INFLUENCE TOWARD SECURING ITS SPEEDY ABOLITION. The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 542, reports this eventful occurrence as follows:

"Yielding to the numerous accusations and complaints brought against 'Kol Nidre' in the course of centuries, the rabbinical conference held at Brunswick in 1844 decided unanimously that the formula was not essential and that members of the convention should exert their influence toward securing its speedy abolition. The decision of the conference was accepted by many congregations in western Europe, AND IN ALL THE AMERICAN REFORM CONGREGATIONS." ("Protokolle der Ersten Rabbiner Versammlung," pg. 41, Brunswick, 1844.)

NON-YIDDISH DENOUNCE PRAYER

The Reform congregations in the United States make up less than 12% of the total Judaic American population, and consist almost in their entirety of non-Yiddish communities. The Jewish Encyclopedia calls attention to the rupture resulting from opposing views between worldwide Reform and Yiddish (Orthodox) communities as an indication of the growing rebellion against "Kol Nidre":

"The decision of the conference was accepted by many congregations of western Europe AND IN ALL THE AMERICAN REFORM CONGREGATIONS, which, while retaining the melody SUBSTITUTED FOR THE FORMULA a German or a Hebrew psalm."

NON-YIDDISH DENOUNCE YIDDISH

The Jewish Encyclopedia supplies an abundance of evidence to indicate the extent of the opposition by the non-Yiddish Judaic communities throughout Europe to the altered text of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. Reference is made in the Jewish Encyclopedia to the instances of opposition which arose from the time the alteration in the text was made. These protests were most articulate in the non-Yiddish communities of Italy, France, Spain, North Africa and elsewhere in western Europe and North Africa, as the Jewish Encyclopedia points out, very briefly quoted here for lack of space:

"It has never been adopted in the Catalonia (Spanish) or in the Algeria (North Africa) ritual . . . There were always many congregations in lands where the Provencal and Spanish ritual was used which did not recite it. ("Orlitz Hayim," p. 1054). . . The change was bitterly opposed by the Italian Isiah de Trani (1250 A.D.) . . . For the same reason Jeremiah ben Meshullam, who lived in Provence about the middle of the 14th Century, inveighed against those fools who, trusting the 'Kol Nidre' made vows recklessly, and he declared them incapable of giving testimony . . . Judah ben Barsillai, a Spanish author of the 12th Century in his halakic work 'Sefer ha-Itim' declares the custom of reciting the 'Kol Nidre' was unjustifiable and misleading, since many ignorant persons believe that all their vows and oaths are annulled and consequently they take such obligations upon themselves carelessly."

In non-Yiddish communities in other areas of Europe the same condition existed. The Jewish Encyclopedia, in Volume VII, page 541, cites the casts of Judah Hadassi, who in 1145 in Constantinople, wrote the "Eshkal-ha-Kofer" protesting vigorously against the "Kol Nidre" prayer. Other opposition in the Middle Ages included Yom-tob ben Abraham Ishbili, who died in 1350, and Isaac ben Sheshet, Rabbin in Saragosa, who died in 1406.

MELODY SOLE JUSTIFICATION

Yiddish communities throughout the world have retained the altered version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in the Day of Atonement liturgy in spite of the unfavorable reactions which resulted. They justify their continued use of the altered version upon the ground that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is chanted to a melody which is pleasing to the ear. The Jewish Encyclopedia, exposes this justification, in Volume VII, page 542:

"The principal factor which preserves the great religious authority of the 'Kol Nidre' . . . is doubtless its plaintive and appealing melody."

Professor Reik comments upon the importance placed upon the melody for the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in a manner which indicates that he also is unable to reconcile the serious nature of the prayer with the beautiful melody to which it is chanted. Professor Reik, on page 169, expresses his doubts about their justification:

"This . . . almost juridical formula is accompanied by a deeply affecting melody that is quite foreign to the text."

The Jewish Encyclopedia reaches the same conclusion regarding the melody to which "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is chanted. The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 542, suggests the melody may be the answer to it:

"Even more famous than the formula itself is the melody traditionally attached to its rendition. This is deservedly so much prized that even WHERE REFORM HAS ABOLISHED THE RECITAL OF THE TEXT, the air is often preserved, either in association with some other passage . . . or as an organ prelude to attune the mind of the congregation to the solemnity of the evening."

The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 540, states that in the time of Old Testament Bible history there was a tendency of the population to take vows and oaths carried to extremes. They state that in the ancient days it was necessary to include in the code of the Pentateuch prohibitions which prevented placing an exaggerated value upon the religious value of oaths and vows (Deut. XXIII, 23.) In those days vows were taken too frivolously and too frequently and inevitably involved the populations in difficulties over broken oaths and vows.

In ancient times, as a consequence of taking oaths recklessly, people were compelled to seek a method by which dispensation might be obtained from obligations and responsibilities of oaths assumed by them (hattarat Nedarim). In this connection the Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 540, describes the origin of "Kol Nidre":

"In view of their addiction to making vows it might easily happen that these obligations would be wholly forgotten and either not kept or be violated intentionally . . . religious consciousness . . . devised a general and comprehensive formula of dispensation which was repeated . . . at the beginning of the fast of Atonement."

DESTROYS RESPECT FOR OATHS

In many countries of the world better acquainted with the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer recited on the Day of Atonement by Yiddish congregations, there is still a question regarding the value of oaths taken by members of Yiddish communities. The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 541, cites several instances indicating that this suspicion was first aroused at the time the altered version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer was adopted in the 12th Century by Yiddish communities:

"As early as 1246 Jehiel was obliged to defend the 'Kol Nidre' against these charges . . . already in 1239 Nicholas Doumian accused the Jews of annulling their oaths by means of the Kol Nidre. Since that time the sanctity of Jewish oaths . . . has always been questioned."

"Religious freedom" and "anti-Semitism" are the defenses offered for the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer by Yiddish communities. When the question of loyalty enters into the discussion of this matter, Talmudic rabbis defend Yiddish communities on the grounds of their Constitutional right to worship God according to one's personal beliefs, even though a question of loyalty is involved.

Talmudic rabbis seek to impress upon doubting Christian Americans that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is a harmless religious ritual. They do not go into the basic factors. They refute doubt and suspicion by reminding Christian Americans their Saviour was a "Jew."

REFORM JUDAISM FIGHTS YIDDISH

There is no basis in Judaism for accepting the "Kol Nidre" prayer as a spiritual recital, according to spokesmen for Reform congregations. Reform congregations are composed almost entirely of Judea Americans whose European origin can invariably be traced back to non-Yiddish western European communities. Reform congregations as a rule consist of Judea Americans of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh generations, who deservedly command the respect of their Christian American fellow Americans despite rumors regarding "Kol Nidre."

CRIMINAL ASPECTS OF PRAYER

The fact that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is recited in a synagogue can alter neither its character, its purpose, nor its effects. The recitation of the Communist oath to "overthrow the government by force and violence" inside a synagogue is not acceptable as a valid defense against criminal prosecution. "Religious freedom" cannot become a defense for traitors seeking our overthrow.

The Mormon religion permits the practice of polygamy. The laws of this country make polygamy a crime. If Mormons practice polygamy inside their churches, it is still a crime. The mere fact that an act occurs inside a place of worship is no defense for a crime or the recital of prayers like the "Kol Nidre" in synagogues.

Religious beliefs practiced in other areas of the world contain ceremonies of a character which constitute crimes under the laws of this country. Foreigners visiting the United States cannot practice these ceremonies with immunity from criminal prosecution on the grounds of "religious freedom" and "tolerance." When living in a country it is obligatory to abide by the letter and the spirit of the written and the unwritten laws of that land.

Recitation of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in synagogues on the Day of Atonement constitutes a form of "subornation of perjury." The fact that "subornation of perjury" takes place within the walls of a synagogue does not lessen its hazard as a threat to the nation's security.

REFORM JUDAISM REJECTS PRAYER

The non-Yiddish Reform congregations in the United States and throughout the world have "purged" their Day of Atonement ceremony of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. Reform congregations have gone on record that (1), THE "KOL NIDRE" PRAYER HAS NO CONNECTION WITH THE IDEA OF THE DAY OF ATONEMENT, AND (2), THE "KOL NIDRE" PRAYER IS NOT "ESSENTIAL TO THE EXISTENCE OF JUDAISM."

In an effort to lessen the suspicions of Christians among whom the Yiddish communities live, Talmudic rabbis have from time to time very slightly varied translations into English of the original Aramaic and Hebrew texts of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. The original Aramaic and Hebrew texts continue, however, as the texts recited in synagogues wherever it has been retained in the Day of Atonement ceremonies. The English slanted versions have been made for the consumption of doubting Christians. The misleading translations in all English versions of the official Aramaic and Hebrew texts do not alter an iota the intentions, the purposes or the results effected by the "Kol Nidre" prayer.

VALUE OF LOYALTY OATHS

How many persons holding high government positions participate on each Day of Atonement in the ceremony of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer? Has the Assistant Secretary of Defense, Anna M. Rosenberg, participated in this ceremony each year since her childhood?

CASE OF ANNA M. ROSENBERG

Anna M. Rosenberg was reared in the Yiddish tradition in her homeland, Hungary, in the heart of the Yiddish communities in eastern Europe. Since immigrating to the United States her associations have been principally within Yiddish communities until recent years, both in her private and public life, and are largely so today.

The qualifications of Anna M. Rosenberg for the most important position in the Department of Defense in these critical times are questionable if she presents herself each year in her synagogue on the Day of Atonement for the recital of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. The Senate Armed Services Committee which recently "white-washed" Anna M. Rosenberg did not touch upon the "Kol Nidre" impact upon her fitness for that high position.

WHAT IS SENATOR LEHMAN'S GAME?

Senator Herbert H. Lehman is not a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee. However, Senator Herbert H. Lehman spent the better part of four days, with evening sessions, in the meetings of the Senate Armed Services Committee which was at that time considering Anna M. Rosenberg's fitness for the position. Didn't Senator Lehman trust the members of the Senate Armed Services Committee? Are they "anti-Semites" too?

Any Senator who dared to touch upon the "Kol Nidre" question at those hearings might just as well then and there have signed his own political death warrant. Senator Lehman injected himself into these hearings before the Senate Armed Services Committee as the "bird-dog" for the undisclosed contacts responsible for Anna M. Rosenberg's mysterious rise to unprecedented power.

ZIONISTS CANNOT BE LOYAL

Since the creation by the United States of a sovereign Zionist state in Palestine, many Christian Americans have raised the question of the "dual allegiance" and "divided loyalty" of Judea Americans who are also Zionists. The analysis of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer by Professor Theodore Reik, and other leading Judea American authorities on the subject, indicates the possibility that it may be a question of "no allegiance" and "no loyalty." With very few exceptions Yiddish communities are the source from which political Zionism obtains its support.

"ANTI-SEMITISM" REDS' SECRET WEAPON

"MARXISM" BASIC FOR ALL "MOVEMENTS"

Marxism is the sow and its suckling pigs are called Communism, Bolshevism, Socialism, Fabianism, Liberalism, Progressives, and World Federalists. Newspapers are filled with the name Communism when in fact they should be shouting about Marxism. The same applies to these other Marxist suckling pigs. All are equally evil.

Marxism is fundamental. Marxism is a creed. Marxists establish many organizations to reach all classes in all fields of activity. Marxism is to those organizations what Christianity is to the Christian organizations established to bring Christianity to all people by the quickest and easiest route, the network of Christian denominations.

YIDDISH MARXISTS ANTI-CHRIST LEADERS

Marxism is committed to the destruction of Christianity. Marxists have decreed that the last trace of Christianity is to be destroyed. Marxists plan to leave no trace of Christianity in the world. Marxist plans for world rule do not include the future existence of Christianity.

Marxism and Christianity cannot both exist in the same world at the same time. Newton's law has established that no two objects can occupy the same space at the same time. If Marxism lives, Christianity dies.

There is even less possibility that Marxism and Christianity can occupy the same world at the same time for long, one or the other must go, and quickly too.

Marxists realize that Christianity is the only "road-block" which can prevent their conquest of the world. Marxists are concentrating on the destruction of Christianity at the earliest possible date to facilitate the realization of their program is de-Christianize the world.

"MARXISM" DISGUISE FOR ANTI-CHRIST

Christianity is Enemy No. 1 of Marxism. Christianity is the spearhead of organized opposition to Marxist world rule. Marxists will rule the world very shortly after the fall of Christianity from the leadership from which it contributed so much to world progress for almost 2000 years. Marxism plans to move in as Christianity moves out.

Marxism is not a manifestation of political, social or economic discontent or unrest. Marxists tell the world that Marxism is the index of this unrest and discontent.

But Marxism is something quite different. Marxism is a religion to those who follow it. Marxism is a cult to those who believe in its teachings. Marxists are fanatics.

Marxism is a crusade sailing under false colors. Marxists say one thing and think something entirely opposite. Marxists would have the world believe that Marxism is an organized effort to improve the conditions of the underprivileged. That is the bait in the trap. That is how they lure millions of discontented fools to join.

FREEDOMS CANNOT BE RECAPTURED EVER

By the grace of God this nation has been destined to become the trustee for posterity of all our God-given rights, the freedoms and liberties synonymous with human dignity. This nation is today the only road-block against complete world control by the Marxist international conspirators in Moscow. They realize this better than we do.

When our God-given rights disappear here for anyone they will disappear for everyone. When the liberties and freedoms synonymous with human dignity disappeared in these other countries they disappeared there for everyone. In the countries which have already fallen under the Marxist steam-roller all God-given rights have ceased to exist. "IT CAN HAPPEN HERE." Those who KNOW say so!

UNTRUTHS CAMOUFLAGED AS REALITIES

"Anti-Semitism" is based upon untruths. "Anti-Semitism" is made a religious issue without any justification. "Anti-Semitism" is fabricated "from stem to stern" out of a tissue of lies. "Anti-Semitism" from start to finish is completely a "state of mind" incited by false propaganda. "Anti-Semitism" is made a political issue solely for the purpose of "stealing" elections which cannot otherwise be won. "Anti-Semitism" is a mental infection intended to poison the thinking of American people. "Anti-Semitism" is eating away the cultural foundations of our national life like a cancer eats away the vital organs of a human being.

"Anti-Semitism" exists in name only. "Anti-Semitism" is non-existent outside the "state of mind." "Anti-Semitism" is the foul device of the atheist enemies of humanity who are seeking to destroy this nation and Christianity. "Anti-Semitism" is truly a "living lie."

SMEAR-BUND LEADER OF UNDERGROUND

The war against Marxist world conquest will be half won when Americans learn the truth about the Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund. Unless Americans learn that very soon they may never have the opportunity of fighting and winning another war, the last as free men.

Unless that war is won the American Way of Life is doomed. The American Way of Life may soon suffer the fate of other victims of the Marxist creeping conquest. The Marxists appear to be rolling along smoothly towards the early realization of their conspiracy for world rule.

In every case it has always been a Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund which spearheaded the invisible Marxist underground armies which were responsible for the final overthrow of all the governments which "fell."

It is a fatal mistake for Christian Americans to say, "It cannot happen here." These infamous words are treason to the trust which God has seemingly now imposed upon this nation. Those who said it lived to regret it.

"ANTI-SEMITISM" BECOMES "SMEAR" WORD

The international Marxist conspirators have created a vile and vicious implication for the word "anti-Semitism" with the powerful propaganda machine and the unlimited funds placed at their disposal. They have "sold" this vile and vicious implication 100% to the American people by the expenditure of countless millions of dollars over a long period of years. They have succeeded far better than their most optimistic expectations anticipated.

The international Marxist conspirators have succeeded in converting the American people to the belief that "anti-Semitism" is a violent hatred by Christians towards persons professing Judaism as their religions faith, towards persons who worship God in synagogues instead of churches and solely for that reason. There is hardly an American today who does not now regard "anti-Semitism" as exactly just that, and nothing else.

Christian Americans collectively challenge the implication that men and women who are both Christians and Americans bear ill-will toward fellow Americans for the reason that they attend synagogues instead of churches for the worship of God and solely for that reason only.

CHRISTIAN AMERICANS BECOME VICTIMS

This vile and vicious implication for "anti-Semitism" is a libel against Christianity and against every Christian American. This vile and vicious implication for "anti-Semitism" accuses Christians of a most un-Christian offense. It accuses Christianity of breeding a violent hatred amongst Christians towards that small, that less than 1% of the world's population which allegedly professes Judaism as its religious faith and solely for that reason.

Christian Americans make it a practice to judge fellow Americans upon the basis of their character and conduct as Americans, upon their attitudes and activities as Americans. It is not true that anyone who is both a Christian and an American ignores the conduct and character, ignores the attitudes and activities when judging fellow Americans, and bases consideration upon religious belief instead, an untruth which must not survive.

The Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund are spending countless millions to make the world believe otherwise about Christian Americans. The Marxist international conspirators have created this vile and vicious implication for "anti-Semitism" to insure and hasten "all out" success.

The Marxist international conspirators have developed "anti-Semitism" into a sinister diabolical political weapon. The "anti-Semitism" smear is the device used by the international Marxist conspirators to install and to keep their invisible secret agents in high government positions and in important positions in all sections of our national life. Have you been reading the papers lately?

PRESERVE CONSTITUTION AND CHRISTIANITY

Any ill-will by men and women who are both Christians and Americans towards their fellow Americans is based upon a variety of other reasons. The religious affiliation of an offender is only a matter of coincidence. Christian Americans are interested primarily in protecting and preserving the culture, the customs and the conventions inherent in the American Way of Life. Christian Americans aim to protect and preserve the Constitution and Christianity. That is every American's first duty.

The shadow as well as the substance of the American Way of Life is primarily based upon the principles embodied in Christian civilization. Any form of aggression against these principles quickly brings upon the aggressor condemnation from Christian Americans regardless of the religious affiliation of the aggressor. Christian Americans look upon the offense as something separate and apart from the religious affiliation of the American offender.

SMEAR-BUND TERRORIZES ANTAGONISTS

In order to guarantee success for the OFFENSIVE of Christian Americans against the Marxist conspiracy for world conquest, it is necessary to deprive the international Marxist conspirators of the advantage they now enjoy by the destructive power of their "anti-Semitism" smear.

Christian Americans live in mortal fear of being branded "anti-Semitic." This fear is accelerating the ultimate accomplishment of the Marxist plans for world conquest. Christian Americans have learned from experience or observation that it becomes very difficult, or impossible, to earn a normal livelihood in the United States once they have been smeared "anti-Semitic."

The underground grapevine of the invisible agents of the international Marxist conspirators in this country has infiltrated into the political, economic and social structure of this nation to an extent little understood by the average Christian American. By means of political, social or economic boycotts which they are able to impose they can make it impossible to remain in business and prosper, or to hold their former positions in spite of reliability.

TIME TO THINK IN TERMS OF AN OFFENSIVE

It has been proven time and again, on and off the battlefield that, "the best DEFENSIVE is an OFFENSIVE." Christian Americans must take the OFFENSIVE if they hope to win the war against Marxist world conquest. It is folly to commence an OFFENSIVE unless provided with weapons which make complete victory a possibility.

Off the battlefield the international Marxist conspirators rely for success exclusively upon their "anti-Semitism" smear-bund. It is their most effective weapon. "Anti-Semitism" has fully demonstrated its deadly destructive power. In the "cold war" they need no other device unless and until the "cold war" reaches the "hot war" stage. Only a "cold war" victory can prevent the "hot war."

The conspiracy for world conquest first, last, and always is constantly working to erase from the face of this earth every trace of Christianity. They have already succeeded in accomplishing this result in one half the world. One half the world today is being taught that Christianity is a menace to the progress of mankind.

The international Marxist conspirators label resistance to their creeping conquest as "anti-Semitism." They represent themselves to Christian Americans as "Semites." They represent that the "Semites" are the "Chosen People." They represent to Christian Americans that "anti-Semitism" is Christian malice towards "Jews," as they call themselves and invite others to call them.

SAVIOUR MALICIOUSLY CALLED "JEW"

They represent that they are "Jews" and that the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, was a "Jew" and a member of their "race." But these are all untruths as the facts which follow will disclose. The international Marxist conspirators have hypnotized Christian Americans into believing that these untruths are actually the "Gospel" truth.

Linking up the Saviour as a "Jew" with the Judea population of the world vests in "Jews" a tremendous power over Christian Americans. That power is too obvious to require explanation. Christian Americans are constantly "reminded" from pulpits of the 100,000 churches to attend to be kind to "Jews" because "Jews" gave the Saviour to the world. These statements from the pulpit give "official approval" to all who hear as well as to numberless "reminders" from endless other sources that the Saviour was a "Jew" and a member of that "race."

Christian Americans have been taught since their Sunday School days that "Semites" were God's "Chosen

CONSPIRACY! REMEMBER!

REMEMBER Franklin D. Roosevelt and his dangerous wife were DIRECTED to put the U.S.A. into World War II BY ZIONISTS representing the Yiddish International Marxist CONSPIRATORS who knew that Marxism would receive its death-blow if Germany and Japan put the Soviet Union in the "nut cracker." Germany and Japan a next-door neighbors of the Soviet Union at that time "knew the score" much better than we know it today. Roosevelt knew that the triumph of the Soviet Union meant a victory for atheism over Christianity but that did not stop him from working for the destruction of the two most Christian countries in Europe, the only ones then strong enough to keep all Europe from going communist.

REMEMBER Roosevelt was directed to appoint incompetent Stettinius and the traitor Alger Hiss to draw up the charter for United Nations Organization, which they did in such a way that UNO CANNOT TAKE ACTION AGAINST AN AGGRESSOR OVER THE SOVIET UNION VETO. This rendered the UNO impotent to act AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION! Alger Hiss wrote the Charter with Molotov, Stettinius was the "showpiece" of the State Department. Molotov is married to sister of a Bridgeport man named Carp who has not accounted for $200,000,000 which has passed through his PERSONAL bank accounts since his sister married Molotov. UNO Charter is a camouflaged version of the one-world plans of the group making up the Zionist world-wide organizations working to establish a single government for all the world WHICH THEY PLAN TO HAVE UNDER THEIR CONTROL.

REMEMBER Zionists keep prating about "democracy" as though that were the solution to all the problems of the world. Their form of "democracy" is a totalitarian dictatorship of the proletariat with Zionists in the driver's seat. Thomas Jefferson and other leading American statesmen have impressed upon the nation that this country was founded as a "REPUBLIC" AND MUST STAY SO IF WE ARE TO RETAIN THE LIBERTIES AND FREEDOMS GUARANTEED BY THE CONSTITUTION. "Democracy" comes from the Greek word "democra" meaning "mob" which makes "democracy" mean mob rule. A democracy is a very different form of government from a republic. Red Zionists plug "democracy" which appeals to the emotions of the masses by its implication of equal division of power and wealth rather than the present system based upon "free enterprise" and Christianity.

REMEMBER weak General Marshall could not remember where he was the night before Pearl Harbor although he arose the morning of Pearl Harbor and went to the National Airport in Washington to meet Zionist LITVINOV who arrived that morning by plane from MOSCOW. Who was Marshall with the night before? A group discussing the agenda for dangerous Litvinov? The Zionists "invisible government" took Marshall out of campbore balls as a front so their men could run the "Marshall Plan." After the great scandals of the UNRRA under Senator Lehman they could not afford to have another out-and-out Zionist head the Marshall Plan organization although it was completely staffed with selections made by Zionists headed by Senator Lehman.

REMEMBER able General MacArthur warned the nation that the "ENEMIES WITHIN THE COUNTRY" are the real danger, not the enemies outside its borders, particularly the kept-press of the Zionist groups WHICH DISTORT THE NEWS to give it the "slant" desired by the counterfeit Americans who are Marxists in their hearts.

REMEMBER Eisenhower is the "back door" of Zionists, Truman being their first choice. At taxpayers' expense Eisenhower took Kay Summersby, red headed English girl, to Africa and back to England and France after first making her a Captain in the WACS. Eisenhower is the "straw man" for the gang that wants to reelect Truman in 1952. If they can get Eisenhower on the Republican ticket they intend to have Eisenhower make a campaign like Dewey made, intentionally planning to go easy enough to let Truman win. That is the present strategy. Dewey is in on the deal. Senator Lehman when he was governor of New York gave Dewey his start. Dewey will take any order from Senator Lehman. Eisenhower's nomination on the Republican ticket means odds of 500 to 1 that Truman will be reelected for another four years.

REMEMBER CONGRESS SHOULD INVESTIGATE Senator Lehman's scandalous conduct of UNRRA. BILLIONS of UNRRA materials were sneaked into the Soviet Union and her communist satellites which supplied our potential enemies with the financial aid badly needed by them to establish themselves solidly. There are many WILLING witnesses able to testify that the Soviet Union "hijacked" BILLIONS in materials intended for relief work among war refugees and ANTI-COMMUNIST groups. Instead, more than one BILLION of UNRRA materials went to fill the coffers of the REDS WHO ARE NOW KILLING OUR SONS. "Dr." Philip Jessup, of Red China "builder-upper" fame, now being groomed for appointment as United States Ambassador to the United Nations, was Senator Lehman's right hand man in this fraud upon the American taxpayers and the SECURITY OF THE NATION. Fulton Lewis Jr. exposed this treachery in his COLUMN on October 9, 1951. We will be happy to supply reprints.

REMEMBER Charles Wilson (supposed to be head of the defense preparations of this nation, although Anna Rosenberg and Sidney Weinberg really are the heads) stated in writing that David Niles, "leg-man" for the International Marxists-Zionists, (born David Neyhus), PERSONALLY SELECTED the members of the National Civil Rights Committee which prepared the report which would have precipitated a revolution if put into effect. David Niles is not a man of MYSTERY to those who know his background in Boston with the Marxist Ford Forum and his affiliation which landed him in the White House. He is the MOST pro-Soviet Union person in the United States.

REMEMBER our courageous General P. A. del Valle wrote on May 4, 1951, that, "Zionists will arrest MacArthur. They arrested Marshal Petain, and MacArthur is doing them more harm than Petain. ANNA ROSENBERG IS THE DIRECT AUTHOR OF ALL THIS STRATEGY," and, "that THIS IS A FIGHT BETWEEN CHRISTIANITY AND THE TALMUDIC MANIACS WHO WISH TO DESTROY IT." A stitch in time saves NINE.

REMEMBER Lenin decided upon the formula for the destruction of the United States in the following words, "We shall defeat America by spending it into bankruptcy." Marxists "Charley McCarthy" called Harry Truman, is "aiding and abetting" the enemies of this country by urging the spending of $400,000,000,000 in the near future in "backward countries," not "backward" when it comes to asking for money, which the heavily loaded American taxpayers will pay. This also deprives Americans of materials which are badly needed in the United States.

REMEMBER the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith (bad breath) (Brothers of the Covenant) is the most Gestapo-like organization ever conceived. It has more direct and indirect agencies and individuals working for it than any secret service force in the world. They are completely controlled by Yiddish Marxists who are interested in silencing opposition and exposure of the CONSPIRACY OF THE YIDDISH MARXISTS FOR WORLD RULE AND WORLD CONTROL. With all the investigations by Congress about "lobbying" groups they have never dared to touch this organization. Congressman Rankin introduced a bill in Congress to have an investigation of this organization and that is why they have been out knifing him. Crusade for Freedom being run by same "invisible group" who put us on rocks. Freedom House one of their FRONTS. After a ship has been wrecked by the crew's CARELESSNESS (?), only an insane person will hire that same crew to salvage the ship which the same "gang" has just finished "wrecking."

REMEMBER the victorious and venerable General MacArthur warned the nation recently that THERE IS AN "I-N-V-I-S-I-B-L-E-G-O-V-E-R-N-M-E-N-T" running this country which was not elected to do so by the people of the country. General MacArthur expresses the conclusions of competent Americans who have done considerable research to get to the bottom of this dangerous state of affairs.

REMEMBER Chicago Tribune printed that Felix Frankfurter, Henry L. Morgenthau Jr., and Senator Herbert Lehman constituted our "invisible government." Robert Patterson (the Charley McCarthy of Zionists who fronted for them as Secretary of War in Zionist World War II) was paid off at the end of war with $250,000 fee from the Zionist-controlled (Schenk) Fox Films and, guess?

REMEMBER the secret motive of the Zionists who instigated the Nuremberg "trials" was to stimulate the hatred of the Germans for Americans beyond its post-war intensity. The Zionists expected this to drive the Germans into the Soviet Union "camp" and result in a Red Germany, another Soviet Union communist satellite in Europe. Zionists kept Soviet Union out of the picture and, in the eyes of Germans, made the United States appear as the enemy of the German people. Dr. George Simons told Senate Committee, "... IN 1918, OUT OF 388 MEMBERS OF THE CONTROLLING GROUP IN RUSSIA, ONLY SIXTEEN WERE CHRISTIANS AND ALL THE REST WERE JEWS. ... AND THAT 265 OF THE JEWS CAME FROM THE LOWER EAST SIDE IN NEW YORK CITY." Today Zionists hold 83% of the top key positions in the Soviet Union's Marxist government. Names of Zionists who run Russia and her satellites, England and the United States are mentioned by names in issue No. 143. Copies of this directory of our secret enemies sent on request...

REMEMBER "JEWISH LIFE," a magazine printed in the United States, the official Yiddish mouthpiece here for their Marxist co-religionists in Moscow, in its June issue, featured news items of Christians sentenced to long prison terms in Soviet Union, Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia and Roumania for having made REMARKS which Yiddish Marxists CONSIDER TO BE "ANTI-SEMITIC." Recently the Zionist "kept press" in United States has attempted to "convince" Christian Americans that Soviet Union has turned "anti-Semitic." This is a genuine "RED HERRING" to take the "heat" off the guilty Yiddish Marxists in the United States who have been passing themselves off as the "VICTIMS" OF COMMUNISM as well as CHRISTIANITY. It is not so long ago that Yiddish Marxists in the United States were CLAIMING credit for the conception, creation and conduct of the Marxist world-wide revolution of the "proletariat." Rabbi Stephen Wise said, "Some call it Marxism, I call it Judaism." What he meant was that he was an active secret Marxist agent.

REMEMBER Felix Frankfurter and Dean Acheson walk to their offices together every morning they are in Washington. Frankfurter originally planted Acheson in Washington. Frankfurter is the nephew of Brandeis and was put into office to give the Marxists their man on the Supreme Court bench. Brandeis placed himself on the Supreme Court bench by blackmailing President Truman with the "Peck" letters. Frankfurter's brother has been in prison several times and on the payroll of the government under assumed names, most recently in Paris with the ECA. Frankfurter put 125 "agents" in key positions.

REMEMBER the Founding Fathers pledged their LIVES and FORTUNES TO PROTECT and PRESERVE this REPUBLIC, the precious, priceless, irreplaceable heritage with which they provided every American FREE OF CHARGE. YOU MAY SOON FIND IT ALSO NECESSARY TO PROTECT YOUR LIFE AS WELL, including YOUR FAMILY, so provide yourself WITHOUT DELAY with the RIGHT KIND OF TOOLS FOR THE "JOB." It may be too late to get them if you wait UNTIL YOU NEED THEM. "In time of peace prepare for war." OBEY THAT IMPULSE! (and tell your friends). You owe it to them.

REMEMBER Zionists coin words to confuse the public. "Genocide," "Isolationist," "Assimilationist," "One world," "pluralistic culture," and other words without definite meaning are given interpretations which appeal to the average mentality but upon examination ARE POISON TO THE NATION and will prove the death of it.

REMEMBER Zionists use every artifice to further INFLATION, their interests being in the fields where inflation creates added WEALTH for them at the sacrifice of the average American who is not engaged in industries where inventories play such a big part. In addition, by creating a false prosperity they can keep their gang in power and rob Americans. (Dummy corporations in various countries hide profits and duck taxes, how about it, Mr. Baruch?)

REMEMBER international Zionist financial dynasty wants to control the $5,000,000,000,000 (five THOUSAND billions) mineral wealth of the Dead Sea in Palestine. (Report of British Government in 1925 proof of this unbelievable wealth, and is reason Jews would not accept tracts of South Africa (Uganda), Australia, South America, Canada, and elsewhere, offered to them free for colonization.) The control of this wealth, (twenty times the national debt of the United States) will make the Zionists the RULERS

OF THE WORLD. The mineral wealth of the Dead Sea is what first interested the Rothschilds in the Zionist movement. It is what interests Baruch, Lehman and the Warburgs today. They privately in their Harmonie Club on 60th Street and 5th Avenue call the Zionists "kikes" a thousand times a day and will not allow one "kike" in their club at any price. They have prostituted their pride and "mixed" with them as the "price" of getting the Dead Sea into their hands. It now appears that the big shot "heimers" have been double-crossed by their Yiddish Marxist co-religionists who intend to keep the Dead Sea as their "mint" to get the money to "buy" the world.

REMEMBER Zionists cried hot tears, pleading that if phony "Israel" was recognized as a NATION (?) and admitted to the United Nations as a member that they would live up to the letter and the spirit of United Nations Charter. THEY HAVE NOT RESPECTED ONE OF THE SEVERAL RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL DEMANDING INTERNATIONALIZATION OF JERUSALEM UNDER THE TERMS OF THE PALESTINE PARTITION PLAN AND THE RETURN OF THE ONE MILLION NATIVE CHRISTIAN AND MOSLEM PALESTINIANS TO THEIR ANCIENT HOMELAND WITHOUT INTERRUPTION FOR 1700 YEARS. The Zionist controlled Administration in Washington is 100% responsible for this situation which has resulted in converting the world's 400,000,000 Moslems from friends to enemies of this country. Troubles today in Iran, Egypt, Iraq, and elsewhere, are the result of this dastardly decision Zionists forced on United States through Baruch, Lehman and Warburg.

REMEMBER the President of the American Bar Association made a public declaration that because our Constitution provides that treaties supersede all Federal, State and local laws in this country, THAT RESOLUTIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS BECOME THE "LAW OF THE LAND" IN UNITED STATES with the force and effect as though passed by Congress or our State Legislatures. The next to the highest court in the country recently decided that a law on the books of the state of California was invalid because it was rendered null and void by an opposite provision contained in the CHARTER OF UNITED NATIONS. America should take the jokers out of UNO or promptly get out of it. (Besides our paying 50% of cost of operating United Nations and Soviet Union ONLY 6%, in addition at a great cost to our taxpayers our F.B.I. must "shadow" Soviet Union and their satellite delegates who include many spies smuggled into the country that way.)

REMEMBER Harriman is now top Administration "trouble shooter," after years as chief "trouble maker," because his wife is a "red hot" Zionist, and because he is dumb enough to do the dirty work to satisfy his conceit. Harriman helped "jockey" his partner in Wall Street, Lovett, into Marshall's job because Lovett will obediently take his orders from the "right" boys. Senator Lehman's long Wall Street associations with Lovett keep Anna M. Rosenberg in her present job, the most important position in the entire country at this moment for safeguarding our form of government and our way of life. Another Harriman Wall Street partner, by name Bush, was put up as the Republican "straw man" candidate to insure the reelection of Democratic Senator MacMahon in the last Connecticut elections. Bush's campaign was financed by Zionists in New York. Zionist standard practice to finance "weak sisters" as candidates to insure election of their "slave" candidate running on the other ticket.

REMEMBER "Protocol of the Elders of Zion" are called a "forgery" in the defense of them. "Forgery" means an unauthorized copy of an original. Zionists scream "forgery" at the mention of the word "Protocol." Exercising Constitutional rights to express his views, able Henry Ford called the attention of the world to Protocols. (We can supply you with copies.) They were drawn up in Hebrew, now published in English. They are the "official" planks in the platform of the Yiddish Marxists in THEIR BID FOR WORLD RULE but they will hardly admit it.

REMEMBER ask your Senator to send you a copy of Censorship Bulletin No. 7000 of the Naval Intelligence. MANY YEARS AGO it listed the names of the communists convicted in past two years because they were communists. This bulletin exposes today the control exerted for many years by communists in high government positions to conceal from Americans the existence of communist infiltration into government and the names of known dangerous communists working to destroy us.

REMEMBER American Mercury Magazine published two articles exposing the shocking dishonesty of Harry Truman. These two articles expose lack of Presidential character in Fendegast gang-buster Truman better than any exposures reported elsewhere to date. (We can supply copies.)

REMEMBER international Yiddish Zionist-Marxist CONSPIRING to give U.S.A. another Pearl Harbor. They have PROMISED and are PLANNING TO GIVE Formosa to Communist China (to outflank Japan who would help us if permitted) and ruining our ability to defend Alaska, where there is a Zionist governor at the present time. Virgin Islands within rowing distance of Panama Canal, has a Zionist governor planted there "awaiting orders."

REMEMBER Major George Racey Jordan testified under oath that MOLOTOV lived at the White House under the name of "Brown" during World War II, and that Zionist controlled administration permitted and assisted in giving secret information to Soviet Union agents, and flew atom-bomb manufacturing secrets and blue-prints to Soviet Union 1943-1946 together with heavy "water." (Major Jordan was in charge of Great Falls, Montana airbase, where planes from Washington stopped before their next stop, Moscow, to deliver our A-bomb secrets there.)

REMEMBER ZIONISTS active in bringing into U.S.A. hundreds of thousands of blacks and browns from Cuba, Puerto Rico, Mexico, etc., etc., and settling them in states where their votes give them the "balance of power" in elections, insuring New Deal Fair Deal Raw Deal continuance in power. Already effective in five states where Administration won close elections with these votes which are "owned" by Administration for their "kindness" in bringing them into the country and their "generosity" in placing them on relief rolls immediately upon arrival here. Zionist-panderer LaGuardia and Communist-mouthpiece Vito Marcantonio were ringleaders in this conspiracy. Zionists have planned to get favorable decision in the South's test segregation case with a "packed" court.

How long before Southerners and Westerners open their eyes to the slaughter planned for THEM? Never forget, "give me ten courageous men and I'll get you 10,000 more."

REMEMBER Zionists have 100% control of our Department of Immigration, at home and abroad. Passports are issued to those whom Zionists wish to enter country. That is made a prerequisite to entering this country. No anti-Zionist has been known to have entered this country in many years although millions of them exist in Europe and have wanted to come to this country since 1939. An ex-Immigration Department man who was taken out of the department in 1933 and has been a stooge for the Zionists since then was made the first American ambassador to phoney "Israel." Soviet Union sent into U.S.A. thousands of secret agents as DPs. They were sent into DP camps and then with collusion by department agents brought into U.S.A. with Eleanor Roosevelt's big help.

REMEMBER the Catholic Church investigated and found out that it was General Curtis LeMay, a Zionist, who selected the Japanese cities upon which to drop the first A-bombs. He selected Hiroshima and Nagasaki, unimportant as military objectives, BECAUSE THEY WERE THE TWO CITIES IN WHICH CHRISTIANITY FIRST STARTED IN THE ORIENT. Zionist General LeMay now is in charge of our entire air-force, and Truman recommended this month that General LeMay be "raised" to a Four Star General. Wake up, Christians, LAST STOP!

REMEMBER CIO is a Zionist tool. Lee Pressman was its CHIEF counsel for many years WHILE HE WAS A MEMBER OF A COMMUNIST CELL OPERATING IN WASHINGTON, as testified under oath before a Congressional committee. Lee Pressman never denied it or took steps to compel retraction. CIO was guided through all important developments by Communist (?) Lee Pressman and several other admitted communists — Empsack and Matles of the United Electrical workers CIO UNION ARE OUT-AND-OUT AGENTS FOR STALIN HERE. ABOUT 90% OF THE GUIDING MINDS IN THE CIO ARE YIDDISH MARXISTS OR CHRISTIAN "FRONTS."

REMEMBER Judge George Armstrong of Fort Worth, Texas, recently published a booklet called "Third Zionist War." It presents some very interesting facts not generally known until now on this subject. (We can send you copies, or write to Judge Armstrong, Fort Worth, Texas.)

REMEMBER Senator Malone stated in the Congressional Record, in an address delivered before the Senate, that "This Administration has stolen 60% of the people's funds in savings accounts, life insurance, government bonds and plans to steal very much more," if it is left to steal.

REMEMBER Zionist sponsors of Anna M. Rosenberg expect her to become the "Anna Panker" of the U.S.A. She is being groomed for that job when "der Tag" arrives. She will become the mistress of all manpower, from the womb to the tomb, by her "police state" legislation. Under this phoney "military training bill" Anna M. Rosenberg would have the power to induct for 5 years every person in the U.S.A. into a nondescript army (?) which could be sent to any place in the world to do any kind of manual labor there, unchained chain-gangs. A husband could be sent to Alaska and his wife to the heart of darkest Africa, under the terms in that bill misrepresented to the Senate who then voted 79 to 5 for it. Aroused Congressmen killed it, thank God. WATCH FOR PHONEY "MILITARY TRAINING BILL." Anna M. Rosenberg is the "big brain" executing the plan of the "conspiracy" to straight-jacket the electorate of the country by "decrees" issued by the "Mistress of Manpower" Anna M. Rosenberg, Assistant Secretary of Defense, U.S.A.

REMEMBER the Sorge spy case will never be told in full. Sorge was a German communist who fooled Hitler into letting him represent Germany in Japan during the war years. Japan paid attention to Sorge as Hitler's trusted agent. Japan was preparing to attack the Soviet Union in Asia while Hitler attacked them in Europe. Had Japan done this the Soviet Union would have gone out like a candle. But Sorge was at all times an agent for the Soviet Union, a dyed-in-the-wool 100% Marxist. Sorge influenced Japan NOT to attack the Soviet Union in Asia but to attack instead the U.S.A. in the Pacific and England in Southeast Asia. Japan followed Sorge's advice. That is what brought us into the war. MEMBERS OF OUR GOVERNMENT WERE FRIENDLY WITH SORGE AND AIDED HIM IN PULLING US INTO WAR.

REMEMBER Judith Coplon was a Yiddish Marxist installed in a high government position to pass on to her Yiddish Marxist CO-CONSPIRATORS in Moscow the secrets which could make us a "sitting duck" for the Soviet Union when she chose to start a war. Who put her there? Who kept her there when staffs were reduced? Who is paying for her defense? AND how many more "Judith Coplons" are there in strategic spots to this very day? WAKE UP, YOU PATRIOTS, BEFORE COUNTRY-LESS SONS, BROTHERS, AND HUSBANDS PERISH!

REMEMBER in the United States the murder of one man will send him to the electric chair. TREASON MAY MEAN THE LOSS OF MILLIONS OF LIVES. Zionist judges allowed the convicted communists to go free under $10,000 bail. Many of them skipped their bail. Gerhard Eisler, Klaus Fuchs, Julius Rosenberg and others are illustrations how these traitors may bring death to tens of millions when the A-bombs begin to fall all over the U.S.A. Yet the men who organized these traitors and made it possible for them to operate are allowed to go free under small bail so that they can organize more Eislers, Fuchs, and Rosenbergs. There would not be one spy at work in the United States if the top agents of the Soviet Union were effectively restrained, not encouraged to continue their operations by setting them free under bail which they skip whenever it pleases them to do so.

REMEMBER Benjamin Buttenweiser, a Zionist, partner in Kuhn Loeb & Co., was the Zionist in Berlin calling the shots for McCloy and General Clay in Germany. Buttenweiser was interested in keeping Germany weak (AGAINST THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE UNITED STATES WHICH SHOULD WANT A STRONG GERMANY TO ACT AS A BUFFER AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION'S PRESSURE TO THE WEST.) The Germans wanted no part of the United States at any price if Germany was to be under the control of a Zionist. Buttenweiser's wife turned her home over to Alger Hiss and his wife during their stay in New York for their treason trial, and made a contribution to the fund with which to pay the lawyers, (in addition to Mrs. Buttenweiser who is a lawyer and related to Senator Lehman.) We let Russia rearm East Germans and we refuse to rearm West Germans to offer real resistance to Europe's conquest.

REMEMBER three of the five Atomic Energy Commission were Zionists, Lillenthal, Strauss, and Bacher! Lillenthal only RESIGNED (?) as Chairman 12 days after the arrest of Klaus Fuchs, protégé of Professor Albert Einstein, who gave our atom bomb secrets to the Soviet Union. They will be dropped on us any day now, thanks to the "kindness" shown to Klaus Fuchs by Professor Albert Einstein! When Congressmen threatened EXPOSURE Lillenthal RESIGNED (took a powder). During the critical years (1945-1950) the Zionist controlled Atomic Energy Commission delayed U.S. development on the H-bomb (hydrogen) and the cosmic ray bomb while other Zionists, having easy access to all our data, gave the secrets for production of atom bombs, and samples of the materials, to our enemy.

REMEMBER Rothschilds made their great fortune by forging and dishonestly reporting a Napoleon victory at Waterloo — meanwhile buying from the English their securities for one to three cents on the dollar. A week later the truth of the Wellington victory reached England and the Rothschilds sold a small percentage of their total purchases at a tremendous profit retaining control of England's financial structure FREE OF COST. By another conspiracy Germans and Austrians were paperized after World War I by Yiddish profiteers from Russia and Poland who bought securities and properties with small cash payments and large mortgages which became worthless by their planned inflation of the German mark. Proof exists of the conspiracy by Zionists to deliberately destroy the British Empire, which today is 98% accomplished.

REMEMBER in the U. S. there is now another conspiracy — a plan through confusion and inflation to rob Americans not only of their material assets — but their God given freedoms and their Bill of Rights. To top it off they plan destroying the American Christian way of life. Defense Department under sinister Anna M. Rosenberg recently ordered removal of the Cross of Christ from the graves of soldiers. See Congressional Record, page 6275, for protest of Senator Langer. WAKE UP, CHRISTIAN AMERICANS! DON'T BE CAUGHT NAPPING NOW!

REMEMBER expose the Zionists! HELP DEFEAT THEIR SINISTER UN-AMERICAN AND ANTI-CHRISTIAN PLANS! U. S. NEEDS A GREAT SPIRITUAL REVIVAL. CHRIST IS THE ANSWER TO OUR EVERY NEED! WHAT SACRIFICES ARE YOU MAKING TO HELP?

REMEMBER Edmund Burke said, "The ONLY thing necessary for the triumph of EVIL is that good people do nothing." Lip service and hesitancy to make material and personal sacrifices insures victory for the sinister forces at work for centuries to obtain control of the world.

CHRISTIAN CHURCHES AID ANTI-CHRIST

The ordained of every Christian denomination are taught and they should teach the truth about their Saviour. They know that the Lord Jesus Christ was not a "Jew" in any of the "secondary" meanings given to the word "Jew" in the last two centuries by Yiddish propagandists. They must always remember John VIII, 32: "Know ye the truth and the truth shall make you free."

These anti-Christ atheists all call themselves "Jews." Marxists are anti-Christ atheists. A short study of their fundamental beliefs and objectives will convince the most skeptical of this fact. Marxists do not deny it when charged with it. They cannot. They are damned by the words spoken by them publicly on the subject.

These anti-Christ Marxist atheists protest to the Christian Americans that they are "Jews" and devout followers of "Judaism." They appear before the Christian world wearing "Judaism," a shining suit of armor.

That shining suit of armor, "Judaism," dazzles Christians who incorrectly associate "Jew," "Jewish" and "Judaism" with their Saviour. That shining suit of armor, "Judaism," also provides the anti-Christ atheists with an outer covering which Christians cannot penetrate. They cannot "X-ray" armorplate to read their evil minds.

"CHOSEN PEOPLE" MYTH CHRISTIAN TRAP

Christian Americans have had dinner into their ears since their Sunday School days the fabulous fiction that "Jews," as they describe themselves, are God's "Chosen People." The propaganda machine of the international Marxist conspirators leaves no stone unturned to infect the minds of Christian Americans with the untruth that "Jews," as they insistently depict themselves, actually are God's "Chosen People" and God's real favorites.

The fabulous fable that the ancestors of the Judaized Khazars migrated from Palestine to eastern Europe is the greatest hoax ever inflicted upon the credulous Christian world. The belief in that fabulous fable by Christian Americans was utilized by "Jews," as they ask to be called, to conscript the power and the prestige of the United States for the fraudulent "repatriation" of the counterfeit "Chosen People" to their embezzled "Promised Land." The Administration betrayed the Americans!

They claim to have been temporarily dispossessed from Palestine and scattered around the world by the same God who promised to give them back Palestine someday as their "Promised Land," presuming that Palestine had been their "homeland." They appear to have been delayed 2000 years in eastern Europe en route back.

"SECONDARY" MEANINGS FOR WORDS CREATED

The United States Supreme Court recognizes the existence of "secondary" meanings for words. The highest courts in the country today base their decisions upon recognition of the fact that "secondary" meanings have been given to many dictionary words which bear no relationship to their original meaning. Litigation over the use of dictionary words as trade-marks has won recognition for the preeminence of the "secondary" meaning over the original and correct meanings for words.

By the expenditure of huge sums of money for advertising "secondary" meanings are created for words. The expenditure of countless millions for many years has created "secondary" meanings for such dictionary words as "camel" and "ivory." Reference today to a "camel" is regarded as reference to a brand of cigarettes. Reference today to "ivory" is regarded as reference to a brand of soap. A request for a "camel" is not intended as a request for an animal by that name. A request for "ivory" is not intended as a request for the tusks of an elephant.

"ANTI-SEMITISM" GETS SECONDARY MEANING

A "secondary" meaning has been created for "anti-Semitism" by the concealed expenditure of enormous sums for publicity. Direct and indirect control of all the mediums for influencing public thinking are available for this purpose to the international Marxist conspirators, including the pulpits of approximately 100,000 churches.

"Anti-Semitism" today means a violent hatred by persons professing Christianity as their religious faith toward persons professing Judaism as their religious faith solely for that reason. There is hardly a person in the world who does not regard "anti-Semitism" as meaning just that, and nothing else. The "secondary" meaning created for "anti-Semitism" has been a greater success than any attempt ever made to create a "secondary" meaning for a word in all the history of this art.

"Anti-Semitism" has been given a "secondary" meaning in modern history by the expenditure of countless millions by the international Marxist conspirators. They have been eminently successful in this respect. The original meaning has been totally eclipsed by their efforts to establish the "secondary" meaning as the generally accepted and the only meaning today for "anti-Semitism."

SECONDARY MEANING FOR "ANTI-SEMITISM"

According to its correct meaning "anti-Semitism" indicates a dislike for the CULTURE of the "Semite" population which consisted 95% of "Semites" who had embraced either Christianity or Mohammedanism and 5% of "Semites" who had embraced a form of religious worship which is today referred to inaccurately as "Judaism."

HISTORY EXPLODES "SEMITIC" MYTH

The "Semite" peoples are assumed to have been the descendants of Shem, one of the sons of Noah. "Sem" is the Latin and Greek equivalent for "Shem." Thus the "Shemites" of the Old Testament have become the "Semites" of modern history. For the same reasons the "Shemitic" languages have become the "Semitic" languages in modern history, and known as such only since 1781.

From all the evidences which have been discovered by leading authorities it is now certain that the "Semites" were the inhabitants described in the ancient histories of Arabia, Syria, Palestine, Egypt, Mesopotamia, Abyssinia and the extensive areas adjacent to these territories.

SEMITIC "RACE" DELIBERATE UNTRUTH

The "Semites" are known to have included the numerous racial groups inhabiting the geographic area generally referred to as Asia Minor and the territories adjacent to Asia Minor. The leading anthropologists unanimously assert that there never was a "Semite" RACE in all the recorded history of mankind.

The leading anthropologists submit abundant evidence to support their unanimous conclusion that the many "Semite" nations were composed of segments of the numerous racial groups known to inhabit that area at that time. Reference in modern history to this mixed racial population by the term "Semite" is not evidence that the term "Semite" ever CORRECTLY described a RACE.

It is also the unanimous conclusion of the leading authorities on the subject that at no time in history has there ever existed a "Semite" RELIGIOUS BELIEF.

JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA REVEALS TRUTH

The Jewish Encyclopaedia, Vol. XI, dispels any doubt on this question in the minds of Christian Americans. The Jewish Encyclopaedia defines "Semites" as a regional group composed of many races, thus:

"Semites (originally Shemites): term used in a general way to designate those people who are said in Gen. X. 21-30 to be the descendants of the patriarch Shem . . . includes the North-Arabs, South-Arabs (Minas, Sabaeans, etc.), the Abyssinians, Babylonians, Assyrians, Aramaeans (consisting of many widely scattered tribes extending from the Persian Gulf to Lebanon and the Hauran), the Phoenicians, Canaanites, and Hebrews, together with the kindred of the last named, the Moabites and the Edomites."

There is no authority better qualified to speak on the subject of "Semites" than Professor Allen H. Godbey, Professor of Old Testament at Duke University. Professor Godbey accumulated his knowledge of the history of the "Semites" during the sixty years he devoted to this subject, a more intensive study of this subject than any other authority, and recognized as the outstanding authority.

In the most important work of reference on this subject, his "The Lost Tribes Myth; Suggestions Towards People." Masquerading as "Semites" the international Marxist conspirators have been able to prevent the suspicion of Christian Americans from interfering with their plans for world conquest and the end of Christianity.

YIDDISH MISREPRESENT SAVIOUR AS "JEW"

The great advantage obtained by calling themselves "Jews" and members of a "race" by that name, is obvious. The propaganda machine of the international Marxist conspirators loses no opportunity to "remind" Christian Americans that their Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, was also a "Jew," and a member of their "race." They use countless mediums of publicity to impress this fraudulent distortion of a historic fact upon Christian Americans.

Christian Americans have walked into a trap. It may well be a booby-trap. It has not gone off — yet. But it may go off — soon, much sooner than anyone expects. Christian Americans must have their eyes opened. It is urgent that they see the danger which threatens them. If they do not, they may soon see the trap snap shut.

The trap is a double-acting trap. It has two actions. The first is, the Yiddish method of referring to themselves as "Jews." The second is, the emphasis given to the fiction that the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, was a "Jew."

Rewriting Hebrew History," on page 155, Professor Allen H. Godbey states the following:

"THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS A SEMITIC RACE."

In his outstanding classic, "The Lost Tribes A Myth; Suggestions Toward Rewriting Hebrew History," Professor Godbey, on page 155, states this simple fact:

"WE USE THE TERM SEMITIC TO DESCRIBE A TYPE OF LANGUAGE AND A SORT OF CULTURE WHICH WE CAN TRACE BY MEANS OF THAT TYPE OF LANGUAGE THROUGH MANY MILLENNIUMS PAST."

SEMITIC REFERS ONLY TO LANGUAGES

Dr. Lewis Bayles Paton, Ph.D., D.D., Nettleton Professor of Old Testament Exegesis and Criticism in the Hartford Theological Seminary, in his authoritative classic, "The Early Religion of Israel," published by Houghton Mifflin Co. in 1910, defines "Semites" as follows:

"In language, customs, and beliefs, the Hebrews were closely akin to the Canaanites, Aramaeans, Assyrians, Babylonians, Arabs, Ethiopians, and OTHER RACES THAT ARE GROUPED BY ETHNOLOGISTS UNDER THE GENERAL NAME OF 'SEMITIC'."

The Oxford English Dictionary in Vol. IX, 1933 edition, is of the same opinion as other leading authorities on this question, and defines the "Semites" as follows:

"Semite: A person belonging to the race of mankind which includes most of the peoples mentioned in Gen. X as descended from Shem, son of Noah, as the Hebrews, Arabs, Assyrians, and the Aramaeans. ALSO A PERSON SPEAKING A SEMITIC LANGUAGE AS HIS NATIVE TONGUE."

The Encyclopaedia Britannica, in Vol. 20, 1947 edition, publishes the unanimous opinion of leading authorities on the subject of "Semites." The Encyclopaedia Britannica calls the "Semites" a regional group:

"The 'Semitic' or 'Shemitic' languages, so named in 1781 by Schlozer because most of those who spoke them were descended from Shem (Gen. X-XI), were spoken in Arabia, Mesopotamia, Syria and Palestine, whence they spread into Abyssinia, Egypt, Northern Africa and elsewhere. All are closely related in structure and vocabulary."

"SEMITIC" COINED IN THE YEAR 1781

It was only in 1781 A.D. that the word "Semitic" was conceived by a Swiss professor named Schlozer in 1781 as a matter of necessity. In all the 5000 years during which "Semites" inhabited the Near and Middle East prior to 1781, no word existed in any language to describe the group of languages spoken by "Semites." Professor Schlozer was compelled to create such a word to meet his existing needs in the absence of any such word.

Since its creation by Professor Schlozer in 1781, the word "Semitic" has been used throughout the world to describe the group of languages spoken by "Semites." "Semitic" is the adjective form of "Semite." The word "Semitic" cannot correctly be applied to denote a "racial" group. It is as incorrect to apply "Semitic" as a designation for a "race" as it is to apply, as explained "Semite." Historic and scientific fact confirm that there has never been a "Semitic" RACE, nor has there ever been a "Semitic" RELIGION in all mankind's recorded history.

"SEMITISM" REFERS TO CULTURE NOT "RACE"

The best qualified and most competent authorities on the subject unanimously agree that "Semitism" defines the CULTURE of the populations speaking the group of languages called "Semitic" languages in modern history. These authorities exclude any possibility that "Semitism" defines racial origin, religious worship, or political evolution of all or any part of the "Semite" populations.

The Oxford English Dictionary, Vol. IX, 1933 edition, expresses the unanimous opinion of leading authorities on this question. The Oxford English Dictionary defines "Semitism" as the CULTURE of ALL the people there:

"SEMITISM. THE ATTRIBUTES CHARACTERISTIC OF THE SEMITIC PEOPLES. ALSO THE FACT OF BEING A SEMITE."

CHRISTIANS AND MOHAMMEDANS SEMITES

In the period of Old Testament history, from the time of Abraham, about 1900 B.C., to the birth of Christ, less than 5% of the "Semite" people embraced the form of religious worship today incorrectly referred to as "Judaism," and not called by that name in Palestine or anywhere during that entire period. The remaining 95% of the "Semite" people embraced either Christianity or Mohammedanism but very little is ever said about it.

The propaganda machine of the international Marxist conspirators spends countless millions to drive into the heads of Christian Americans the untruth that "Semite" is just another name for "Jew" and that "Jew" is just another name for "Semite." As a result of relentless repetition of this untruth Christian Americans today regard "Jews" as "Semites" and "Semites" as "Jews."

Nothing is at greater variance with historic and scientific fact. The truth is concealed from Christian Americans. The international Marxist conspirators realize that once Christian Americans know the truth "anti-Semitism" will then lose its power as their deadly secret weapon.

It is as equally incorrect to regard "Semite" a synonym for "Jew" as it is to regard "North American" a synonym for "Protestant," "African" a synonym for "Moslem," or "Asiatic" a synonym for "Hindu." The former denote inhabitants of specific geographic areas. The latter denote forms of religious worship practiced by parts of the total populations which inhabit these areas.

NO CHRISTIAN AND NO MOHAMMEDAN "RACES"

The "Jews," as we are always reminded to refer to them, are no different in this respect than the adherents of other religious beliefs which have been spread by missionary effort throughout the world. There is no Christian "RACE." There are Christians of every race. There is no Mohammedan "RACE." There are Mohammedans of many races. There is no Buddhist "RACE." There are Buddhists of many races. Nor is there a Judeo "RACE." There are also Judeo segments of many races.

The "Jews," as they represent themselves to the world, are not "racial" descendants of the 5% of that

"Semite" population in Asia Minor which embraced the form of religious worship in Old Testament Bible history today referred to incorrectly as "Judaism." The facts which follow will clearly convince the most skeptical that propaganda to that effect is a deep-rooted plot.

Christian Americans are NOT told that of the total "Jewish" population of the world more than 88% are the direct lineal descendants of the Asiatic, Mongoloid, Turki-Finn barbarian tribal nation which was converted to "Judaism" in the 7th Century. This Asiatic barbarian tribal nation invaded eastern Europe about the 1st Century B.C. and created there the Khazar kingdom of approximately 800,000 square miles prior to their conversion to "Judaism" and the creation of a Talmudic theocracy.

"SEMITIC" MISREPRESENTED AS "JEWISH"

Countless millions are spent annually to impress Christian Americans that things referred to as "Semitic" are also in fact "Jewish," and vice versa. Christian Americans are NOT told that less than 4% of the "Jewish" population of the world are legitimately "Semites." Christian Americans are NOT told that 96% of the "Jewish" population of the world never at any time in their history had a racial or historic connection with the "Semites" in Palestine. HISTORY PROVES THAT.

The "Jews," as they wish to be called, are not a "RACE." If by the word "Jew" they wish to designate all people of the world who profess "Judaism" as their religious belief, it is impossible for all these people to be members of a "RACE." Religion never determines "RACE."

"JUDAISM" NOT WHAT IT IS REPRESENTED

During the period of Old Testament Bible history a form of religious worship was introduced in Palestine from outside that area. At that time this religious belief was known as "Torath Yahve," meaning the instruction as revealed by Yahve, or Jehovah. In the period during which the Saviour was born on earth that religious belief was known as "The Traditions of the Pharisees." The forms of "Judaism" practiced in synagogues today are modernized versions of the ancient worship based on the invisible, eternal and omnipotent Deity concept.

As previously explained, a part of the population of every nation bordering on the Mediterranean in ancient times embraced the form of religious worship today incorrectly referred to as "Judaism." These nations were composed of all the races of mankind known to inhabit that tremendous area in Europe, North Africa and Asia Minor.

Christianity, Mohammedanism and what is incorrectly today referred to as "Judaism" in that period, were first introduced into the areas beyond the borders of their birthplace by missionary effort. These three modern religious beliefs were introduced into all parts of the outside world through activities of missionaries.

"Judaism" was a name coined by the Roman historian Josephus Flavius many years after the Crucifixion of Christ. Josephus Flavius coined the term "Judaism" not as the name for any particular form of religious worship. Josephus Flavius coined the word "Judaism" as the word for the CULTURE of the "Semites" who inhabited the Palestine area during the period about which he was writing in the Greek language for his fellow Romans.

A part of every population of the many nations bordering on all the shores of the Mediterranean were converted to this form of religious worship during the 2000 year period prior to the conversion to "Judaism" of the Asiatic barbarians who invaded eastern Europe. These Asiatic barbarians are known to history as the Khazars.

The populations of the many nations on the shores of the Mediterranean consisted of numerous races. It is a historic and scientific fact that this new religious belief was adopted by peoples of every race known to exist in that area of the world. The descendants of these original converts to this religious belief today practice the same form of worship in their native ancient "homelands."

Josephus Flavius coined the word "Judaism" in order to be able to make a comparison between the CULTURE which existed at that time in the Palestine area and "Hellenism," the name used to describe the CULTURE identified at that time with the people of Greece.

"JUDAISM" A LABEL FOR YAHVISM CULT

"Judaism" is the name applied in modern history to this ancient form of religious worship. It was not known by that name by people who practiced it at that time, as explained above. "Judaism" was only applied in modern history as its name to the form of religious worship now practiced in synagogues exclusively under that name.

RABBI MOSES TELLS THE TRUE STORY

The eminent and greatly respected Rabbi Adolph Moses, in his classic essay on the origin of the name "Judaism," calls attention to the fact that "Judaism" has only been applied in modern times as the name for the religious worship known by that name today. Rabbi Adolph Moses, in this classic work, "Yahvism and Other Discourses," edited and with an introduction by Rabbi H. G. Enelow, D.D., and published by the Louisville Section of the Council of Jewish Women in 1903, on page 1, reveals the origin of the modern term "Judaism":

"Among the innumerable misfortunes which have befallen the Israelites since they ceased to form a state and nation, one of the most fatal in its consequences, is the name Judaism. . . The Bible speaks of the religion of Israel as 'Torath Yahve,' the instruction, or the moral law, revealed by Yahve. . . these and other kindred appellations continued for many ages to stand for the religion of Israel among adherents. . . It was Josephus Flavius, writing for the instruction of Greeks and Romans, who coined the term Judaism, in order to pit it against Hellenism. . . By Hellenism was understood the (Greek) civilization, comprising language, poetry, religion, art, science, manners, customs, and institutions, which . . . had spread over Europe, Asia and Africa. The Christian writers eagerly seized upon the name thus furnished them, in order to distinguish Christianity. . . The Jews . . . detested . . . Josephus . . . refrained from reading his works . . . and adopting . . . his theological ideas. HENCE, THE TERM JUDAISM COINED BY JOSEPHUS REMAINED ABSOLUTELY UNKNOWN TO THEM. IT WAS ONLY IN COMPARATIVELY RECENT TIMES, AFTER THE JEWS BECAME FAMILIAR WITH MODERN CHRISTIAN LITERATURE, THAT THEY BEGAN TO NAME THEIR RELIGION JUDAISM."

HISTORIC ORIGIN OF EASTERN EUROPEAN JEWS

The Khazars were part of the Turki-Finn population which inhabited a large area in that section of Central Asia which now includes Sinkiang, the most westerly province of China. The descendants of these Asiatic barbarians conceived, organized, and are now directing the world-wide, atheist, anti-Christ Marxist crusade.

The origin of the Judaic population of eastern Europe is one of the most successfully suppressed historic facts. Until very recently this information was not called to the attention of the public. Despite the fact that in the New York Public Library alone there are more than 300 volumes dealing with this subject, nothing has ever been taught in our schools or colleges about this significant development which is accountable for much of our woe.

KHAZARS INVASION OF EASTERN EUROPE

The Khazars were driven out of Asia about the 1st Century B.C. after a succession of defeats suffered by them in wars they waged against their Asiatic neighbors. The Khazars thereupon invaded eastern Europe by way of the land passage lying between the Caspian Sea and the Ural Mountains affording easy entry into Europe.

The Khazars waged relentless war against their new neighbors. The Khazars rapidly annexed to their kingdom by conquest more than 800,000 square miles. At the height of its power in the 8th Century A.D., the Khazar kingdom occupied more territory and had the largest population of any of the nations in Western and Eastern Europe.

The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume 4, page 1, devotes considerable space to the invasion of eastern Europe by the Khazars. The Jewish Encyclopedia reconstructs the entire invasion of eastern Europe by the Khazars. The history of the Asiatic Mongoloid Turki-Finns and their Khazar kingdom appears at great length, from which the following quotation ament the Khazars is taken:

"Khazars: A people of Turkish (Turki-Finn) origin whose life and history are interwoven with the very beginnings of the history of the Jews of Russia. The Kingdom of the Khazars was firmly established in most of South Russia long before the foundation of the Russian Monarchy by the Varangians (855) . . . Historical evidence points to the regions of the Ural as the home of the Khazars. Among the classical writers of the middle ages they were known as Khazars . . . driven onward . . . by their own desire for plunder and revenge . . . they made frequent invasions . . . until the final conquest of the Khazars by the Russians."

JUDAIC AUTHORITY TELLS OF KHAZARS

The dean of Judaic historians, Professor H. Graetz, in his "History of the Jews," published in 1894 by the Jewish Publication Society of America, in Philadelphia, states in Vol. 3, page 138, these historic facts:

"The Khazars . . . settled on the frontier between Europe and Asia . . . they founded a kingdom . . . their Kings . . . led these warlike sons of the steppes from victory to victory . . . the Byzantine emperors trembled at the name of the Khazars, flattered them, and paid them tribute in order to restrain their lust after the booty of Constantinople . . . other tribes were the vassals of the Khazars and . . . were obliged to pay them as an annual tax a sword and a fine skin for every household. WITH THE ARABS, WHOSE NEIGHBORS THEY GRADUALLY BECAME, THEY CARRIED ON TERRIBLE WARS."

The Khazars were a war-like people. Within a short time after their invasion of eastern Europe the Khazars conquered the twenty-five tribal nations occupying the territory lying between the north shore of the Black Sea and the Gulf of Finland, and extending from the Ural Mountains to the middle of Europe. These primitive and peaceful agricultural peoples had inhabited this area from a time so remote that history shows no record of it.

KHAZARS CONVERSION TO "JUDAISM"

The Khazars were CONVERTED to "Judaism" in the 7th Century A.D. The conversion of the Khazar nation to "Judaism" explains the sudden appearance of the large Judaized Population in eastern Europe in the 7th Century A.D. The "homeland" of these Judaized Khazars was NOT in Palestine. The ancestors of the Judaized Khazars had never set foot in Palestine. The "homeland" of the Khazars had always been "deep in the heart of Asia."

The direct descendants of these Asiatic barbarians now form the "hard-core" of the Marxist creeping conquest of the world. From its very inception down to the present moment the descendants of these Asiatic barbarians have been the driving force behind the world-wide, atheist, Marxist's devastating assaults upon Christianity.

The Judaic population of eastern Europe at no time in its history was composed of "Semites." At no time in its history did the Judaic population of eastern Europe have a historic or racial connection with the ancient population in Palestine, in the period of Old Testament Bible history, who today are incorrectly referred to as "Jews."

JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA EXPLAINS CONVERSION

The Jewish Encyclopedia in Volume 4, page 2, supports Professor Graetz with an official account of the conversion of the Khazar nation to "Judaism" prepared by leading Judaic authorities on the subject. A short quotation indicates the completeness of the conversion:

"It was probably about this time that the Chagan (king) of the Khazars and his grandees, together with a large number of his heathen people embraced the Jewish religion . . . the conversion took place in 626; according to others, in 740 . . . It was one of the successors of Bulan, named Obadiah, who regenerated and strengthened the Jewish religion. He invited Jewish scholars to settle in his dominions and founded synagogues and schools. The people were instructed in the Bible, Mishnah, and Talmud, and in the 'divine service of the hassamin.' In their writing the Khazars used the Hebrew letters . . . it appears as if all the Khazars were Jews and that they had been converted to Judaism only a short time before that book was written (9th Century)."

JUDAIC HISTORIAN TELLS OF CONVERSION

Professor H. Graetz, in his "History of the Jews," supplies important historic data about the conversion of the Khazar nation to "Judaism." It will be rather difficult for anyone to contradict these historic facts. Professor Graetz, in Volume 3, page 139, emphasizes as follows:

"Like their neighbors . . . the Khazars professed a coarse religion, which was combined with sensuality and lawlessness . . . One of the Chagans (kings) gives the following account of their conversion: The king Bulan conceived a horror of the foul idolatry of his ancestors, and prohibited its exercise within his dominions, without, however, adopting any other form of religion . . . It is possible that the circumstances under which the Khazars embraced Judaism have been embellished, but the fact itself has been too definitely proved on all sides to allow any doubt as to its reality . . . the nobles of the kingdom numbering nearly 4,000 adopted the Jewish religion . . . and made its way among the people, so that most of the inhabitants were Jews . . . invited Jewish sages to settle in his dominions, rewarded them royally, founded synagogues and schools, caused instruction to be given to himself and his people in the Bible and the Talmud and introduced a divine service MODELED ON THAT OF THE ANCIENT COMMUNITIES."

KHAZAR KINGDOM BECOMES JUDAIC THEOCRACY

The existence for over 500 years of a "Jewish" state, a Judaic theocracy, in eastern Europe known as the Khazar kingdom, is substantiated by the authoritative Judaic historian, Professor H. Graetz in his "History of the Jews," Volume III, page 141, where Professor Graetz calls to our attention the great Judaic theocracy:

"AFTER (KING) OBADIAH CAME A LONG SERIES OF CHAGANS (KINGS), FOR ACCORDING TO A FUNDAMENTAL LAW OF THE STATE ONLY JEWISH RULERS WERE PERMITTED TO ASCEND THE THRONE."

After his conversion to Judaism in the 7th Century A. D., King Bulan established Judaism as the state religion for the Khazar kingdom. Thereafter none but a Judaic king could occupy the Khazar throne. Thousands of Talmudic rabbis were brought into the Khazar kingdom by him from Babylonia. These Talmudic rabbis ruled the communities under their jurisdiction as totalitarian dictators with the authority vested in them by Talmudic law.

The Khazar kingdom continued as the most powerful nation in all Europe from the 7th to the 11th Century A. D. During these five centuries the Judaic Khazar theocracy was governed like theocracies in that stage of civilization when political authority was exercised by a priestly power. This form of government continued until the final conquest of the Khazar kingdom by the Russians in the 11th Century when they "janked" the Judaic theocracy.

BIRTH OF THE RUSSIAN EMPIRE 855 A. D.

In 855 A. D. a small number of Scandinavians known to history as Varangians, sailed across the Baltic Sea. They landed to the north of the Khazar kingdom near the Gulf of Finland. They settled there permanently. They found the area inhabited by a very primitive Slavic people. These Slavic nomads had inhabited that area as peaceful pastoral people from prehistoric times.

The Varangians organized these Slavic nomads into a nation in the year 855 A. D. This tiny, new-born nation is designated by historians as the Principality of Ros.

The Principality of Ros became the nucleus of the Russian Empire, which became the Soviet Union of today.

It was this infant political subdivision which grew since its birth in 855 A. D. into the giant Russian state by conquests of 106 sovereign nations in Europe and Asia.

RUSSIANS CONQUER KHAZAR KINGDOM

The Russians (Russians), the Slavs of the Principality of Ros, soon made war against their Khazar neighbors to the south. After a long war lasting many decades the Russians (Russians) finally conquered the Khazar kingdom. The complete conquest of the Khazar kingdom by the Russians (Russians) in the 11th Century extended the borders of the Principality of Ros (Russia) to include the entire 800,000 square miles of the former Khazar kingdom.

The Judaized former Khazars became subjects of Russia as the result of that historic conquest. The name "Khazar" disappeared entirely from the history and the maps of Europe after the 11th Century. The historic maps of Europe made prior to the 11th Century indicate to the eye the rise and fall of the Khazar kingdom and the birth of the Russian Empire in the 9th Century as a tiny state.

Disturbances having their origin in religious differences between Judaized former Khazars and their pagan Russian conquerors did not assume serious proportions until the conversion to Christianity of the Russian ruler, Vladimir III, in 896 A. D. The conversion of Vladimir III to Christianity resulted in the Greek Catholic Church becoming the "national church" of the Russian state.

TALMUDIC RABBIS RESIST ASSIMILATION

The attempts by the Christian rulers of Russia to convert their Judaized former Khazar subjects to Christianity met with militant opposition from the Talmudic rabbis. They fought furiously to maintain a status of "state within a state" for the Judaized former Khazar communities. The Talmudic rabbis insulated and isolated the Judaized former Khazar communities from contact with the Russian government and the Russian people.

The Talmudic rabbis ordered the Judaized former Khazars to resist the efforts of the Russian government to absorb them into the Russian nation. The Russian government failed in its attempt to substitute the Russian language for the ancient mother-tongue spoken by the Judaized former Khazars (Yiddish), or to substitute the Russian alphabet for the (Hebrew) alphabet adopted by the Khazars at the time of their conversion to "Judaism" as the alphabet for their language, which had none.

The totalitarian authority of the Talmudic rabbis over the communities under their jurisdiction was challenged for the first time in 500 years by the conquest of the Khazar kingdom by the Russians. The Talmudic rabbis struggled to retain the authority vested in them by the 13,500 "ordinances" of their Talmudic "laws."

The struggle by the Talmudic rabbis to retain their totalitarian authority resulted in the disorders which developed between the Judaized former Khazars and the governments in eastern Europe among which they were divided when Russia surrendered territory to them.

After their final conquest by Russia an almost perpetual state of civil war existed between the Judaized former Khazars and the Christian population of the countries of which they thereafter became subjects.

RUSSIA DEFEATED BY EUROPEAN NEIGHBORS

After the final conquest of the Khazar Kingdom by Russia in the 11th Century, Russia was constantly engaged in wars with her neighbors in Europe. During the following centuries many of the small nations on Russia's European border grew into large powerful nations. These included Poland, Lithuania, Galicia, Hungary and Roumania, each in its turn dominating eastern Europe.

Russia was defeated in these wars by each of these countries and compelled to surrender territory to them. The territory surrendered by Russia to all her victorious neighbors formed a large part of the territory annexed by Russia through the conquest of the Khazar kingdom.

This territory had been the "homeland" of the Khazars for more than 1000 years. They continued to remain there throughout the frequent shifting of boundaries which occurred due to the recurring wars.

As a result of Russia's surrender of this territory to her victorious neighbors millions of Russia's Judaized former Khazar subjects were no longer Russian subjects. With the transfer of territory they became subjects of Poland, Lithuania, Galicia, Hungary and Roumania.

It must be observed also that Russia did not surrender all the territory acquired by the conquest of the Khazar kingdom. Russia retained a large part of it. The part which Russia retained was inhabited by many million Judaized former Khazars. The Russian provinces of the Ukraine and Byele (White) Russia retained the greatest proportion of the total original number of Judaized former Khazars conquered by the Russians.

JUDAIZED KHAZARS CHANGE NATIONALITY

The large Judaic (Yiddish) communities in Poland, Lithuania, Galicia (Austria), Hungary and Roumania are the result of the surrender to these countries by Russia of territory inhabited by the Judaized former Khazars. They are not the result of mass migrations into these countries from Russia itself, and of course not from Palestine.

The surrender by Russia of territory inhabited by Judaized former Khazars to the nations mentioned above accounts for the presence in these countries in modern history of populations, (1) possessing physical characteristics indicating common racial origin, (2) speaking a common language (Yiddish) foreign to the native languages of the people among whom they live, and (3) with a culture identical in every respect in each of the Judaic (Yiddish) communities in each country with a Yiddish community.

KHAZAR REFUGEES FLEE BEFORE RUSSIANS

During the Russian invasions in the 9th and 10th centuries the nobility and the wealthy Judaized Khazar families fled from the Khazar Kingdom. They escaped before the invading Russian armies like the French families which fled from France during the recent invasion of France by the German armies during World War II.

The Judaized Khazar refugees made their way to Egypt, Italy, Spain, France and other countries in Western Europe and North Africa. The Judaized Khazar refugees there came into contact for the first time with co-religionists of the many races converted to "Judaism" long ago.

When the Judaized Khazar refugees fled before the invading Russian armies they scattered to the countries bordering on the Mediterranean and in western Europe. The co-religionists of the Judaized Khazar refugees in these countries were amazed upon their arrival. The Judaic communities of the nations bordering on the Mediterranean and in western Europe had never seen co-religionists like those which suddenly appeared in great numbers and attempted to dominate the scene.

The Judaized Khazar refugees did not receive a hearty welcome from their co-religionists in the Mediterranean countries and western Europe. For some unexplained reason the Judaized Khazar refugees were not accorded by their co-religionists the legendary hospitality for which they were famous. They were quite unfriendly to each other at that time. That same feeling still exists.

EXPLODES "LOST TEN TRIBES" PROPAGANDA

Professor H. Graetz in his "Popular History of the Jews" translated from the Russian by Rabbi A. B. Rhine, edited by the great Judaic authority Alexander Harkavy, and published by Hebrew Publishing Company in 1910, confirms the historic fact that the "Yiddish" communities in eastern Europe were not connected with the "Semite" population in Palestine at any time in all history.

Professor Graetz demolishes the fabulous fiction that the "Yiddish" communities in eastern Europe were the progeny of the "lost ten tribes." In Vol. III page 47, Professor Graetz makes that point very clear, stating:

KHAZAR REFUGEES SELF-STYLED "YIDS"

According to the Jewish Encyclopedia Vol. VII Page 175 the Judaized Khazar refugees made a distinction between themselves and their newly-discovered co-religionists in the Mediterranean and western European countries. The Jewish Encyclopedia calls attention to the fact that the Judaized former Khazars thereafter designated themselves as "Yid" to distinguish between themselves and their co-religionists in other parts of the world. The Jewish Encyclopedia states:

"AMONG JEWS A DISTINCTION IS MADE BETWEEN Y'HUDI . . . AND YID, ONE OF RUSSIAN OR LITHUANIAN EXTRACTION."

The adoption by the Judaized former Khazars, after the conquest of the Khazar kingdom by Russia, of the word "Yid" as the term by which they thereafter designated themselves, explains the sudden appearance of the "Yiddish" population in eastern Europe in the 12th Century. After that date they were self-styled "Yids."

YIDDISH "HOMELAND" PSYCHOSIS

"Yiddish" was a regional word. It described a homogeneous population occupying the territory in eastern Europe the former "homeland" of the Khazar kingdom.

"Yiddish" is strictly a regional word. "Yiddish" is regional in the same sense that "Irish" and "Turkish" are regional words. It does also happen that the "Irish" are "Catholics" and that the "Turks" are "Mohammedans." But it does not necessarily make a man "Irish" because he is a "Catholic," nor does it necessarily make a man "Turkish" because he is a "Mohammedan." For the same reason, it does not necessarily make a man "Yiddish" because he professes "Judaism" as his religious faith.

All people who profess Judaism as their religious belief are not "Yiddish." But all people who are "Yiddish" allegedly profess Judaism as their religious belief, subject to the limitations of their atheist Marxist convictions.

YIDDISH INVADERS EMBLEZZE PALESTINE

The psychosis of the "Yiddish" communities that Palestine is their "homeland" should not influence Christian Americans to become psychopathic on that subject.

The "Yiddish" communities of the world are the descendants of the Judaized Khazars. The Judaized Khazars were CONVERTED to "Judaism" in the 7th Century A. D. as previously explained. The CONVERSION to "Judaism" of the ancestors of the "Yiddish" communities throughout the world gives NO right to them to legitimately lay claim to Palestine as their homeland:

If the "Yiddish" communities throughout the world have a valid right to invade and occupy Palestine as their ancestral "homeland" under international law, why have not the descendants of all the converts to CHRISTIANITY and to MOHAMMEDANISM the very same privilege?

Palestine was the birthplace of CHRISTIANITY and MOHAMMEDANISM as well as JUDAISM. All three religions are variations and developments of the ancient belief in "Yahve," or "Jehovah," as "Yahve" is known to modern theologians who do not tell this to the public.

If Palestine is the "homeland" for all descendants of the first CONVERTS of all the religions which had their origin in the worship of "Yahve," then Palestine is the "homeland" of at least 1,000,000,000 inhabitants of the world today who have embraced all three religions.

"YIDDISH" SUDDENLY APPEAR ON SCENE

The sudden appearance in the 12th Century of the large "Yiddish" population in eastern Europe was not easily understood or explained. It soon developed, however, that the "Yiddish" population was composed of the Judaized former Khazars. The "mystery" was solved.

Prior to the 12th Century there was not a "Yiddish" population anywhere in Europe, or anywhere in the world. There was no "nation" by that name anywhere. There was no "race" by that name anywhere. There was no "religion" by that name nor had there ever been one.

The large percentage of atheist Marxists in the "Yiddish" communities is confirmation of the fact that Marxist dogma and doctrine have made their greatest progress in that group which purports to profess "Judaism" as their religious belief but prefer to practice atheism.

YIDDISH KHAZAR'S MOTHER-TONGUE

The Jewish Encyclopedia states the fact that when the Khazars invaded eastern Europe they spoke "Khazar languages." The Jewish Encyclopedia, Vol. IV, pages 1-4, among other things regarding this question, states:

"THE KHAZAR LANGUAGES PREDOMINATED"

When the Khazars invaded eastern Europe in the first century B. C. they spoke the mother-tongue which they brought with them from their "homeland" in Asia. It is quite impossible that the mother-tongue which the Khazars spoke when they invaded eastern Europe was a language in which there was not one German word.

The language spoken today by the "Yiddish" people "borrowed" the greater part of its vocabulary from the cultured populations with whom they came in contact. That is also the history of all the languages of modern nations. They all "adopted" words from neighbors.

YIDDISH NOT A GERMAN "DIALECT"

The claim is made by both factions that "Yiddish" is a German "dialect." This is completely untrue. The Jewish Encyclopedia in one volume confirms the fact that the Judaized Khazars spoke an eastern European language which could have no possible relationship to German.

The Jewish Encyclopedia states the facts as they existed in this connection at the time of the Russian conquest of the Judaized Khazars. The Jewish Encyclopedia explains that prior to the 11th Century the only language spoken by the Judaized Khazars was a "Slavic" language. The "Slavic" languages were the languages of eastern Europeans for thousands of years. They state:

"THERE WERE JEWS IN SLAVIC COUNTRIES BEFORE THE 11th CENTURY BUT IT SEEMS THEY SPOKE SLAVIC."

The outstanding Judaic historian, Professor Dubnow, in his, "History of the Jews in Russia and in Poland," gives his version of the reason there are so many "borrowed" German words in the "Yiddish" language. Professor Gudnow, in Vol. I, page 143, states:

"Rabbi Eliezer informs us that the Jews of Poland, Russia and Hungary, having no scholars of their own, invited their spiritual leaders from other countries, probably Germany. These foreign scholars occupied the posts of rabbis, cantors, and school teachers among them and were remunerated for their services. At the same time Polish Jews were in the habit of going abroad to perfect themselves in the sciences, as was also the case with the settlers in Russia."

Christian Americans are not gullible enough to believe that the ancestors of existing "Yiddish" communities throughout the world inhabited a territory of 800,000 square miles in eastern Europe for more than 1000 years without a mother-tongue with which to orally communicate their thoughts to each other. Whatever language they "spoke" to each other, it could not possibly have been a "dialect" of the western European German language.

Prior to the 13th Century the "Yiddish" communities in eastern Europe were scarcely aware of the existence of the German speaking nations in western Europe. The first contact of any consequence occurred in 1255 A. D. In that year there occurred the first migration in all history of German speaking people from western Europe to eastern Europe. This migration included a small number of Germans converted to "Judaism" in the 2nd Century.

Upon their arrival in eastern Europe the primitive Asiatic Khazar mother-tongue added to its vocabulary from time to time from the languages of the people they had conquered. In the course of the next ten centuries the Khazars expanded into a kingdom of 800,000 square miles and incorporated into their kingdom many Slavic tribal nations inhabiting this area. The ancient, primitive, Asiatic mother-tongue spoken by the Khazars when they invaded Europe acquired many words from the vocabularies of their captive but more civilized Slav subjects.

WESTERN EUROPEAN EARLY CONVERSION

When the Romans invaded Western Europe and introduced their culture to the uncivilized nations there, they added many Latin words to the vocabularies of the very limited vocabularies of these uncivilized barbarians.

A great many of the words in the languages of western Europe are derived from the Latin words introduced there by the Romans. The fact that English, French, Spanish, Belgian, and other languages "borrowed" words from the Romans, does not make these languages Latin "dialects." Yiddish cannot be a German "dialect."

NO CONSPIRACY? THEN WHY—

WHY did our Zionist controlled Administration send this nation into a full-scale war in Korea, and fail to provide our soldiers with equipment to defend their lives?

WHY is there no realistic foreign policy which will win or end the war now in full swing despite "cease fire" TALK? (Read J. T. Flynn's new ROAD TO KOREA.)

WHY were General MacArthur's hands tied so that he was not able to end the war and save all those lives?

WHY permit phony truce negotiations to drag for months giving the enemies the time they need to plan their regrouping of their forces to kill more of our sons and brothers in the bad weather of winter months ahead?

WHY permit the communist strategy to hold the French military forces in Indo-China and the British military forces in Malaya while they walk into Iran and help themselves to the 800,000 barrels per day petroleum production? (Oil is Russia's shortest item, and will decide the winner in the now seemingly inevitable World War III.)

WHY did General Bradley in MAY testify that the U.S. Korean casualties were 140,000 while at that very time the pro-Soviet Zionist's kept-press reported only 70,000?

WHY was Secretary of Defense James E. Forrestal pushed to death from the 16th floor of a Government hospital? (By request, his priest made six trips to the hospital to see him and was refused each time.) (He warned of Zionist anti-American plot and attempted to warn us.)

WHY after the end of World War II (and each year since) did we turn over to the Soviet Union to be massacred hundreds of thousands of Soviet Union officers and soldiers who have had enough of Communism and who deserted to the U.S.A. and British to be of aid to us?

WHY did the pro-Soviet Union representatives of the U.S.A. enter into an arrangement for the occupation of Berlin which requires entrance and egress by airlift at the whim of the Soviet Union for whom we withdrew so that they could march in? (Similarly our "invisible government" stuck a joker into the recent Japanese constitution which outlaws war so that Japs now say that it is impossible for them to enter new war as our ally.)

WHY do we let Russia arm East Germany and our "invisible government" prevents us from arming West Germany which will ultimately save millions of American lives?

WHY did Franklin D. Roosevelt start and Truman follow the Marxist doctrine of creating discontent based upon fomented class hatred and synthetic "minority" gripes?

WHY do Zionist dominated organizations incite negro and labor groups to agitate for the passage of the FEPC legislation giving "radicals" control of a "national police"?

WHY did pro-Soviet Union Zionists manipulate themselves into control directly or indirectly of the labor unions in the industries most vital to our defense program and their Zionist kept-press withhold the facts from the American people in time to prevent war-time sabotage?

WHY did Henry L. Morgenthau sponsor the plan written by Communist-Zionist Harry Dexter White, Assistant Secretary of Treasury under him, to make Germany a goat-pasture and the future battlefield on which the Soviet Union would be able to fight the next war in Europe under conditions which guarantee Soviet Union victory?

WHY did Secretary of Treasury Morgenthau, and his assistant Zionist-Communist Harry Dexter White (born Weiss) give our plates, special paper and secret links to the Soviet Union with which the Soviet Union printed 1. MOSCOW $8 billions in U.S.A. legal currency which our Federal Reserve Banks and U.S.A. Post Office were compelled to redeem with genuine U.S.A. currency?

WHY was the treasonable Amerasia case flagrantly whitewashed? (The people repudiated Tydings for it by throwing him out of the Senate, Tydings being the son-in-law of U.S.A.'s "pink" Joseph "subMission to Moscow" Davies?)

WHY did pro-Soviet Zionist groups concentrate upon control of our radio, television, newspaper and other fields and now control the thinking processes of this nation?

WHY were patriots like ex-President Hoover, the late Secretary of Defense Forrestal, General Patton, General MacArthur, General Wedemeyer, Congressman Martin Dies, and others like them smeared and made the victims for Zionist mouthpieces Winchell and Pearson who rent their anatomy from the neck up like "male prostitutes"?

WHY did the "Hidden Hand" put the finger on thirty-six air-generals like Wedemeyer, Kenny, our top air-general, MacArthur, etc., and twenty-five admirals, all recently FORCED into retirement by THE I-N-V-I-S-I-B-L-E G-O-V-E-R-N-M-E-N-T at the time that our country faces daily danger of an A-bomb attack on our leading cities?

WHY did Zionists put up the money and supply the management to create the National Conference of Christians and Jews for the explicit purpose of getting Christian leaders to re-write the New Testament, and recently the first million of the re-written versions of the New Testament have started rolling off the Thomas Nelson presses?

WHY were orders sent to General Eisenhower and General George Patton at the direction of leading pro-Soviet Zionists to pull back fifty miles from their advanced positions before Berlin to permit the armies of Joseph Stalin to make the victorious entry into Berlin first for its political effect, and to then "freeze" us out?

WHY did David Lillenthal, Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission resign 12 days after the Klaus Fuchs atomic-bomb spy scandal broke? (Recently, September 1951, he joined Lazard Freres, as a FINANCIAL ADVISER?) (Lazard Freres are the Rothschilds of France and hardly need David Lillenthal as a "financial adviser" — this is just a pay-off to the Warburg-Lehman-Baruch "group," U.S.A. agents of Rothschild financial dynasty.)

WHY DID NOT the Zionist controlled administration between 1945 and the outbreak of war in Korea stockpile critical materials as authorized by Congress with funds for that purpose, but instead waited for the crisis to develop to allow the Zionists and Rothschild dynasty to take $4 billions unnecessarily out of the American taxpayers' pockets for the "squeeze" in rubber, tin and wool on which they pay no Capital Gains Tax in England, and the "freight" (tax-free) of Tangiers, (Congress should investigate), while law-abiding decent Englishmen are unable to retain more than $15,000 out of all earnings?

WHY did the three pro-Soviet Zionists hold back the Atomic Energy Commission from developing the hydrogen and cosmic-ray bombs so that the Soviet Union could catch up with us with developments which may make the betrayal of our A-bomb secrets to the Soviet Union by Zionist-Marxist traitors the most gruesome betrayal in history and make our stockpile of A-bombs worthless?

WHY can the Soviet Union today put more bombers and fighter planes into the air than the United States after our spending billions of the taxpayers' money to develop an air-force to protect our homes and to preserve peace?

WHY did the United States Government prostitute its professions of "self-determination for all peoples" and give the necessary aid to the Zionists to expel from their ancient homeland in Palestine 950,000 Christians and Moslems, 77% of the total population at the time, thereby alienating the former friendship of 400,000,000 Moslems, a religious group the numerical equivalent of the 400,000,000 Christians outside the iron curtain, with whom the Christians should form a "united front" against the 800,000,000 under the Soviet Union's control? (The 400,000,000 Moslems occupy territory along the underbelly of the Soviet Union in Europe and in Asia and could be the vital factor in determining victory in a war with the Soviet Union which they know they will win if they can keep the 400,000,000 inflamed against the U.S.A. That is why the Soviet Union permitted the U.S.A. to act as the "lead horse" in driving 850,000 Moslems out of the country which has been their legitimate homeland for 1700 years and setting up a sovereign state of their ancient enemies disguised as a "Jewish" repatriation?

WHY has the Soviet Union at this very moment a full division in "Israel" in uniforms of "Israeli" soldiers?

WHY do the saps yak-yak that counterfeit "Israel" is a bastion of democracy when it is actually an ideological and military "beach-head" for the Soviet Union in an area of vital strategic importance to our national security, under direct control of Moscow's top agents?

WHY did Assistant Secretary of Defense Anna M. Rosenberg, "Mistress of Manpower, U.S.A.," General Guinsburg, "Public Relations" executive officer of the Department of Defense, and General Feldman, Quartermaster General of the Department of Defense, in charge of PURCHASES, arrange for the removal of the Crosses of Christ from the graves of Christian Americans who paid the supreme sacrifice, for Christ and country, to "ECONOMIZE" because climatic conditions made replacements "TOO COSTLY"? Were orders also given to remove the Stars of David?

WHY did the late Secretary of Defense Forrestal in his diary, which is now being published, supplying solution to many mysteries, state, "Loveit (present Secretary of Defense) reported he was never under such pressure" as was put upon him to prostitute the prestige and power of the United States to bring into existence a sovereign Zionist state in Palestine, and that the Democratic Party sold out the American people for the "contributions" and the "votes" of the "Jews" to keep the Democratic Party in the White House, although the Administration knew that this action would cost the United States the friendship of the 400,000,000 Moslems inhabiting the territory along the "underbelly" of the Soviet Union? The Democratic Party "high command," according to Forrestal, "sold out" to the Zionists to "save" the electoral votes of New York, Pennsylvania and California. Forrestal stated he urged that, "it was about time that somebody should pay some consideration to whether we might not LOSE the United States." Obtain a Forrestal's diary today!

WHY did Senator Lehman and his "old buddy" the quasi-pseudo "Dr." Philip Jessup "team up" to actually DONATE more than ONE BILLION in UNRRA materials to the Soviet Union and her satellites for which American taxpayers had to dig down into their pockets, materials INTENDED for war refugees, at the same time staffing UNRRA with "Dr." Jessup's "hand picked" collection of COMMUNIST FOREIGNERS? German words were introduced into the vocabulary of the "Yiddish" people in eastern Europe through circumstances which are historic milestones. Before the conquest of the Khazar kingdom by Russia in the 11th Century, the Khazar kingdom had little contact, if any, with the Germans whose interests were solely in the west.

What is today incorrectly referred to as "Judaism" was introduced into western Germany in the 2nd Century by Roman soldiers. Inasmuch as 10% of the 40,000,000 Roman population practiced that faith, this religion was introduced into Germany by the Romans. The Jewish Encyclopaedia in Vol. 7, page 305, states:

"After the devastation of Galicia (Polish-Austria) by the Tartars, however, (King) David of Galtich (1216-1266) invited strangers, among them German Jews, to settle in his wasted province."

YIDDISH "JARGON" IN DICTIONARIES

In the Russian language the definition of "Yiddish" is "jargon." In the English language the definition given in English dictionaries for the Russian word "jargon" is:

"THE DIALECT RESULTING FROM THE MIXTURE OF DISCORDANT LANGUAGES."

The English language "borrowed" the word "jargon" from the Russian language to describe, according to English dictionaries, what they all describe as:

"CONFUSED, UNINTELLIGIBLE TALK OR LANGUAGE; GABBLE; GIBBERISH."

"Yiddish" is the mother-tongue of the Judaized former Khazar nation just as Gaelic is the mother-tongue of the former Irish Kingdoms. "Yiddish" has exactly the same relationship to Judaism that Gaelic has to Roman Catholicism, and that Turkish has to Mohammedanism, and German has to Lutheranism and Russian has to Greek Catholicism, as must be evident to everyone.

YIDDISH LANGUAGE WITHOUT GRAMMAR

The "Yiddish" language has no grammar. There is no established grammar for the "Yiddish" language. The several "Yiddish" communities each "manufacture" their own individual grammar for the Yiddish language.

The German "dialects" follow the German grammar exactly as the "dialects" in other languages follow the grammar of those languages. The Scotch "dialect" can be understood only with the greatest difficulty by an Englishman even though spelling and grammar are one.

If the "Yiddish" language is a German "dialect" as the "Yiddish" communities contend, the "Yiddish" language would follow the German grammar. There is no more certain evidence that "Yiddish" is not a German "dialect."

YIDDISH ADOPT "HEBREW" ALPHABET

The Jewish Encyclopaedia refers to the adoption of the characters of the "Hebrew" alphabet by the Judaized Khazars as an alphabet for the language spoken by them in Volume IV, pages 1-4, where among other facts dealing with how Hebrew became the Yiddish alphabet, states:

"IN THEIR WRITINGS THE CHAZARS (KHAZARS) USED THE HEBREW LETTERS."

King Bulan learned that a spoken language could also make permanent records in writing by the use of an alphabet for the language. There was no written form for the Khazar mother-tongue because there never was an alphabet ever for the spoken language of the Khazars.

King Bulan ordered the alphabet which appeared in the Bible adopted as the alphabet for the Khazar mother-tongue. The Hebrew alphabet was used thereafter by the Khazars as the alphabet for their mother-tongue.

English, French, Spanish, Italian, Swedish, Portuguese, Dutch and many other languages use the characters of the Roman alphabet. The languages are not the same although the characters of the alphabet which they use are identical with each other in every respect.

The "Yiddish" language and the "Hebrew" language use the same characters for their alphabet. The use of the same characters for the alphabet of a language does not mean that languages using one alphabet are all alike.

Mark Clark A Stooge for Zionists

General Mark Clark is shown here addressing Jewish soldiers at a Passover service in Italy in 1944. This picture appeared in the book The Jew in American Life, by James Waterman Wise, member of some 55 Communist fronts and son of the late radical Rabbi Stephen S. Wise. The book was published by Julian Messner, Inc., in 1946. Although Communist-fronter Wise makes no comments on the photograph, it is obvious that Clark's Jewish background makes him eligible for participation in a Passover service.

With Christianity all over the world being driven underground, the anti-Christian Marxist Jews have divided and set Christians against each other here in the United States by cleverly manipulating the appointment of General Mark Clark as Ambassador to the Vatican.

As informed persons know, the Invisible Government (Zionism) has been directing the New Deal and the Fair Deal since F.D.R. was elected to the presidency. When unpopular appointments such as the above are made, Truman receives the criticism. There is never a mention made of Felix Frankfurter, the Warburgs of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., Bernard Baruch, Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver and others of the Jewish Kehillah which constitutes the Invisible Government. The Kehillah uses men as "spokesmen"; Truman is one of them. In urging the appointment of General Clark, Truman is given the reason that it will influence Catholic votes in the 1952 election.

The appointments of General Mark Clark as Ambassador to the Vatican; Marxist Chester Bowles (of OPA fame) as Ambassador to India, and RED Philip Jessup as representative to the United Nations, are dictated by the Jewish Kehillah which realizes that it dares not place Jews in all key spots, and consequently arranges the appointments of Gentiles whom they have trained or framed into carrying out the Zionist program. In many instances, such as Dean Acheson, the Gentile stooges dare not refuse to carry on.

The Zionists are killing two birds with one stone in forcing Truman to make the appointment of Mark Clark. First, they realize that the public is becoming aware of the fact that Communism is Jewish and, in order to take the attention away from themselves, are pitting Protestants against Catholics as they do the laboring man against employer, white man against black. This is a typical, fundamental Zionist tactic.

Second, and most important, the Zionists would be placing a Zionist spy in the Vatican.

Spokesmen for the President gave as their reason for appointing General Mark Clark, "We want to get the world information which is poured into the Vatican's foreign office just as quickly and just as surely as any other nation . . . because it is the center of world-wide information from every missionary and every bishop." What the Zionists are interested in is securing this information just as they do from Embassies all over the world. In practically every Embassy, Zionists have been placed for just that purpose. They manage, too, to place a Zionist on almost all governmental committees—such as the Un-American Activities Committee—so that the Kehillah (Jewish Secret Government) will know what is going on. Pat Hurley resigned as Ambassador to China saying that the State Department had placed under him men who were giving reports from his office to Moscow before he could get the information to Washington.

If Mark Clark should succeed in the appointment as Ambassador to the Vatican, the world Jewish Kehillah—Communism, Zionism, and "world government"—would have global information before it even reached the Marxist administration in Washington.

Naive Catholic leaders, not realizing that General Mark Clark is a Zionist (regardless of the fact that he is publicized as an Episcopalian—his mother is a Jewess, Rebecca Ezekiel, and his wife is Jewish) are rejoicing at the apparent honor bestowed upon the Catholic church. They do not realize that the same Zionists that tore down crucifixes from religious institutions in the Holy Land, as soon as Zionists took over, are trying to place a Zionist spy in the Vatican as one of their last diplomatic moves to bring the world completely under Jewish "world government."

Numerous publicity releases on Clark are careful to

THE WARBURGS—AN AMERICAN SUCCESS STORY

In the 1890s, two young gentlemen leisurely toured Europe, stopping at the fashionable resorts and astonishing the impoverished aristocracy by the amount of money they spent. These were members of the new ruling class of Europe, Paul and Felix Warburg, sons of the powerful Jewish banker M. M. Warburg of Hamburg, German representative of the Rothschilds. After they had completed their Grand Tour, the young gentlemen were employed in Paris and London banking houses and then migrated to America. They played a considerable part in the subsequent history of this country, although they have been extremely reticent about their own importance, and, indeed, have concealed their influence as much as possible.

Felix Warburg arrived in New York in 1898, and became a partner in the banking house of Kuhn, Loeb Company, the American representatives of the Rothschilds. Kuhn, Loeb specialized in railroad properties, and, according to Department of Commerce figures, controlled sixty-four per cent of all railroad mileage in the United States in 1900. This figure dropped to a mere forty-one per cent by 1939. The breakdown of Jewish control of the United States in 1900 was J. P. Morgan and Kuhn, Loeb, ninety-three per cent of American railroad mileage; Speyer & Co., New York real estate and South American minerals; J & W Seligman, sugar and public utilities; August Belmont (Schoenberg), New York subways, and Lazard Freres, gold and silver, specializing in international gold movements. These Jewish banking houses also held important directorships in American heavy industry; Kuhn, Loeb controlling such properties as Western Union, Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co., U. S. Rubber, and International Telephone & Telegraph.

In 1902, Paul Warburg arrived in the United States, and became a partner in Kuhn, Loeb Co. at a salary of five hundred thousand dollars a year. He married Nina Loeb. Brother Felix married Frieda Schiff, the daughter of Jacob Schiff, financier of the Russian Revolution in 1917 and senior partner of Kuhn, Loeb Co. Schiff had put up E. H. Harriman as a front to secure for Kuhn, Loeb the vast Union-Pacific Railroad properties then held by the United States Government. Otto Kahn and Harriman were later prosecuted for this conspiracy and convicted, but the Supreme Court reversed the verdict, proving, then as now, that the Supreme Court never judges against a Jewish banker. Harriman's sons, E. R. and W. A. Harriman, have been prominent in the State Department; W. A. Harriman having been our unofficial Secretary of State for some years.

Despite his huge salary, Paul Warburg paid little attention to the business of Kuhn, Loeb Company. Instead, he spent much of his time writing and lecturing on the subject of banking reform, and was probably the wealthiest writer on economics we have ever known. He was a member of the secret party on Jekyll Island, Georgia, in November, 1911, where the Aldrich Plan was written. This Plan was later passed by Congress as the Federal Reserve Act of 1913. There is a great deal of documentation on Paul Warburg's activities on behalf of the Act. He spent most of 1913 in Washington, exerting pressure on Congress to pass the Owen-Glass Bill, later called the Federal Reserve Act, which would give international Jewish bankers complete control of the financial resources of the United States. Colonel Edward M. House, the unofficial President of the United States during Woodrow Wilson's two administrations, and international Rothschild agent, wrote in his memoirs, "The Intimate Papers of Colonel House":

As Commander of the Sixth Army, General Mark Clark called at the White House to report to President Truman on progress of Italian reconstruction in 1946. Accompanying him was his son, Lt. William D. Clark, then an aide to the commandant of West Point.

Flying to Washington from Chicago in 1945, General Mark Clark is shown being greeted by his Jewish mother (Rebecca Ezekial) and his Jewish wife.

mention the fact that Clark is an "Episcopalian." The gullible public really believes him to be an "Episcopalian."

Bernard Baruch and his brother, the former ambassador to Belgium, were both married in the Episcopalian church. Clarence Dillon (J.APOWSKI) is a Jew who prefers to be known as "Dillon." He, too, was married in the Episcopalian church and by an Episcopalian Bishop.

Are these men Jews—or what?

Or, can this situation be best summed up in the experience of one of our workers? That party, upon asking his Episcopalian Priest (yes, the high Episcopalian church ordains for the priesthood when, upon completion of study the new priest may declare whether or not he prefers to marry) about the RED World Council of Churches, was told: "Well, we will have either Communism, or Catholicism." That short-sighted answer, mind, came from a man of Christ; one ordained a Priest, although not of the Catholic order.

As Catholics and Protestants bicker about the appointment of Mark Clark, the Jews stand on the sidelines and laugh up their sleeves as they think of Jewish world control. This is exactly what the Zionists did after maneuvering the Christians in America into war with the Christians of Germany so that Jews could gain control of the so-called Communist countries; the British Empire, and large portions of Asia. Now, Britain and the other formerly great nations stand trembling, waiting to be taken over by Jewish-directed, brutal Marxism.

As evidence that the Invisible Zionist Government considers Mark Clark a trustworthy operator, readers are reminded of the fact that General Mark Clark's miserable war record, during which time he ordered thousands of Texas boys to needless slaughter in the crossing of the Rapido, resulted in two meetings being held by the officers and men under his command in an effort to have him (Clark) court martialled.

And . . . there stands his record in Austria where he brought in thousands of Jewish-Communist refugees while turning back innumerable Christian persons escaping Communist terror to be tortured by the Soviet Union red army.

Despite his poor record, Clark was moved up over many other generals and put in charge of all land forces which he now commands.

Catholics should not rejoice over this contemplated appointment to the Vatican. Instead, they should ask that a Christian, of unquestionable faith, be sent to the Holy City. Protestant, the ones truly believing in our Lord, Jesus Christ, would likewise be wise to stop battling any other denomination which believes in Him.

Christians—Catholic and Protestant—wake up to what you are doing to Christianity! The Zionist-Marxists compliment you—invite you to lavish dinners—give you important jobs—put your pictures in the paper—contribute to your church—just to make you tolerant and quiet.

How dumb can Christians be?

As the late, unlamented, radical Rabbi S. Wise said, according to the New York Tribune of March 2, 1950: "It is the Jew who lies when he swears allegiance to another faith; who becomes a danger to the world."

How dumb can Christians be?

A COMMUNIST IS A TRAITOR

That any member of the Communist Party can be anything other than a traitor to the American Republic, is best proven by the Communist Oath. It reads:

"I now take my place in the ranks of the Communist party, and the Party of the working class. I take this solemn oath to give the best that is in me to the service of my class. I pledge myself to spare no effort in uniting the workers in militant struggle. . . . I pledge myself to work unsparingly in the unions, in the shops, among the unemployed. . . . I pledge myself to rally the masses to defend the Soviet Union. . . . I pledge myself to remain at all times a vigilant and firm defender of the Leninist line of the Party, the only line that insures the triumph of Soviet Power in the United States."

—From "The Communist Party Manual on Organization" (Page 105).

If America is to defend herself and maintain the Republic, the Communist Party should be outlawed and all of its members deported at once, or placed in prison.

"December 19, 1912. I talked with Paul Warburg over the telephone, regarding currency reform. I told him of my trip to Washington and what I had done there to get it in working order. I told him that the Senate and the Congressmen seemed anxious to do what he desired, and that President-elect Wilson thought straight concerning the issue.

"March 13, 1913. Paul Warburg and I had an intimate discussion regarding currency reform.

"October 13, 1913. Paul Warburg was my first caller today. He came to discuss the currency measure. There are many features of the Owen-Glass bill that he does not approve. I promised to put him in touch with William McAdoo and Senator Owen, so that he might discuss it with them.

"November 27, 1913. Paul Warburg telephoned about his trip to Washington. Later, he and Jacob Schiff came over for a few minutes. Warburg did most of the talking. He had a new suggestion in regard to grouping the regular reserve banks so as to get the units welded together and in easier touch with the Federal Reserve Board."

House's memoirs also include the following sentence, "President Wilson accepted House's suggestion of Paul Warburg of New York for the Federal Reserve Board because of Warburg's interest and experience in currency problems under both Republican and Democratic administrations." (Jewish bankers are always above party politics, and support the Republican and Democratic parties simultaneously, contributing to both because they wish to keep up the appearance of a popular government. The only party which the Jews really support and believe in is the Communist Party.)

The Federal Reserve Act was important enough to take up Paul Warburg's time for eleven years because it created a Central Bank of the United States, owned by private stockholders. This stock, capitalized at $143,000,000 in 1914, was reported by the Treasury Department in 1947 to be worth forty-five billion dollars. It was worth his efforts to enact the banking and currency bill. More important, the principal job of a central bank is war finance. The First World War began a few months after the Federal Reserve System was set up. Without the mobilization of credit which the System afforded, European nations could not have engaged in the World War, because they fought on American money.

Colonel Ely Garrison, in "Roosevelt, Wilson, and the Federal Reserve Act," wrote that, "Paul Warburg is the man who got the Federal Reserve Act together, after the Aldrich Plan aroused such nationwide resentment and opposition. The mastermind of both plans was Baron Alfred Rothschild of London."

Woodrow Wilson named Paul Warburg the first Governor of the Federal Reserve Board. Warburg wished to set the Federal Reserve System up the way he wanted it, but despite the fact that he dictated to the government of the United States, he was not quite so popular with the people. Many editors and writers objected to Wilson's handing the monetary system of our country over to an international Jewish banker, although he was merely fulfilling his promises to his Jewish backers. The public outcry forced the Senate to make a token investigation of Warburg, and he was asked to appear before a Senate Subcommittee in June of 1914 and answer some questions about his international banking connections and his activities in getting the Federal Reserve Act through Congress. Warburg refused to appear, because he did not dare risk public denunciation as a Rothschild agent.

The Nation, on July 23, 1914, observed that "Mr. Warburg finally had a conference with Senator O'Gorman and agreed to meet the members of the Senate Subcommittee informally, with a view to coming to an understanding and to giving them any reasonable information that they might desire. The opinion in Washington is that Mr. Warburg's confirmation is assured." The Nation was correct. The Senate confirmed Mr. Warburg as the first Governor of the Federal Reserve System, after an informal meeting at which no minutes were taken and no public statements made. Mr. Warburg was very eager to leave his five hundred thousand dollars a year at Kuhn, Loeb Co. for a salary of twelve thousand a year with the System, an instance of his devotion to public service.

Warburg was now the most powerful banking figure in his adopted land (he had been naturalized in 1911, but he never lost his thick accent), and he proceeded to mortgage this country to pay the costs of the Allies in the First World War. His older brother, Max Moritz Warburg, was the chief financial agent of the Kaiser and head of the German Secret Service (international espionage was perfected by the Rothschilds during the nineteenth century). We had the amusing situation of Paul Warburg in charge of American finance while brother Max was in charge of German finance, at a time when the two nations were at war with each other, but such things never seem to bother international bankers. Numerous charges were made against Paul Warburg regarding his brother's position. He resigned in May, 1917, after we had been at war for more than a year. The New York Times stated that he had left public service because of criticism arising from the fact that his brother was in the Swiss Secret Service. The U. S. Naval Secret Service Report of December 12, 1918, is as follows:

"WARBURG, PAUL: German, naturalized American citizen 1911, was decorated by the Kaiser 1912, was chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, handled large sums furnished by German bankers (M. M. Warburg & Co.) for Lenin and Trotsky. Has a brother who is leader of the espionage system of Germany."

Paul Warburg continued to dominate the Federal Reserve System as President of the Federal Advisory Council, a group of bankers which met with the Board and passed on all of its decisions. His place on the Board of Governors was taken by Albert Strauss, partner in the international banking house of J & W Seligman. We were fortunate to secure the services of so many experienced bankers for the low-paying position of Governor of the Federal Reserve Board.

The nation's largest owners of railroads, Kuhn, Loeb Co., protected its interests by ordering Woodrow Wilson to set up a United States Railroad Administration during the First World War. Wilson appointed as Director-General his son-in-law, William McAdoo. President of the Kuhn, Loeb owned Hudson & Manhattan Railroad. In 1918, Warburg designed a more efficient organization, which he called the Federal Transportation Council.

On the 18th of May, 1920, Paul Warburg and Albert Strauss met with the Federal Reserve Board and raised the rate on agricultural paper to 7%, which caused the Agricultural Depression of 1920-21 and wiped out twenty billions of dollars in land and farming values. Farmers had made money during the war, and the government encouraged them to overextend their credit. When Warburg raised the rate, the banks called the loans in and ruined our farmers.

Paul Warburg also exercised considerable influence on the Federal Reserve Board as President of the American Acceptance Council. Acceptances, the currency of international trade, had not been used widely in this country before the First World War. Paul Warburg set up in 1920 the International Acceptance Bank, the largest acceptance bank in the world, handling acceptances for seventy-one per cent of our foreign trade in 1928. His brother Felix was vice-president, his son James Paul Warburg was a director. Paul Warburg was also a director of the Westinghouse Acceptance Bank. At the second annual convention of the American Acceptance Council on Dec. 2, 1920, President Warburg said, "It is a great satisfaction to report that during the year under review it was possible for the American Acceptance Council to further develop and strengthen its relations with the Federal Reserve Board."

During the 1920s, Paul Warburg organized the international dye trust I. G. Farben, setting up the American branch as American I. G. Chemical Corporation in partnership with Walter C. Teagle of Standard Oil. (This writer in years of study and research on economic problems has never found an international trust which did not have at its source Jews and Jewish bankers.) Warburg also set up the Agfa Ansco Film trust. Who's Who in American Jewry in 1928 listed Paul Warburg as director of the following corporations: Union Pacific Railroad and subsidiaries, Baltimore & Ohio RR, National Railways of Mexico, Western Union, Wells Fargo, American I. G. Chemical, Agfa Ansco, Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Corp., Chairman of the Board of the International Acceptance Bank, Warburg Company of Amsterdam, Farmers & Merchants Bank of London, and many other banks, railways, and factories.

In 1927, Paul Warburg met with the heads of the European Central Banks to discuss putting Europe back on the gold standard. Five hundred million dollars in gold was withdrawn from New York, precipitating the Great Depression of 1929-31.

Paul Warburg was the guiding personage behind the Council on Foreign Relations, which dictates United States foreign policy in the interests of international Jewry. His son, James Paul Warburg, is its present leader. Paul Warburg died in 1932, leaving a fortune officially reported at seventy-five million dollars, and actually much more than that, all of it made in this country.

His brother Felix Warburg was for many years the chief financial backer of the Zionist Organization of America, and was a close friend of its President, Justice Louis Brandeis of the U. S. Supreme Court, and his understudy, Justice Felix Frankfurter. Felix Warburg was a director of the Palestine Economic Corporation, the National Railways of Mexico, the Prussian Life Insurance Co. of Berlin, Staten Island Rapid Transit Co., and many other banks and corporations. His son, Edward M. M. Warburg, is a director of the Jewish Telegraph Agency, head of the Displaced Persons Division and political advisor to Supreme Headquarters of the Allied Expeditionary Forces under General Eisenhower. Edward had previously been a special coordinator of information in Washington. Felix' other son, Frederick M. Warburg, helped Senator Herbert Lehman organize the giant holding company the Lehman Corporation, which profited so greatly from the Crash of 1929, was a member of Kuhn, Loeb, and Lehman Brothers, is now a director of the Boy Scouts of America. His cousin, John Schiff, of Kuhn, Loeb, is President of the Boy Scouts of America.

Otto Warburg, cousin of Paul and Felix, was President of the World Zionist Organization. Their brother Max, chief financial agent of the Kaiser, was head of the Financial Commission of the German Delegation to the Peace Conference, while his nephew, James Paul Warburg, represented the U. S. Treasury. Max continued to exercise considerable influence in the Nazi regime. George Sokolsky, in his book "We Jews," points out that "Even in Hitler Germany the firm of Max Warburg was exempted from persecution." The Warburg firm of I. G. Farben was not harmed by Allied bombing and is today the richest corporation in Germany.

James Paul Warburg, son of Paul, was born in Hamburg, Germany, was selected by Franklin D. Roosevelt as his Director of the Budget in 1933, but resigned to accompany Kuhn, Loeb Lawyer Henry Stimson, then Secretary of State, to the World Economic and Monetary Conference in London in June of 1933, where the Second World War was planned. Members of the two Rothschild agencies, the Council on Foreign Affairs and the Royal Institute of Foreign Affairs in London, decided how much of Hitler's announced program they would help him carry out before starting the war. Mrs. Ludendorf testified that James Paul Warburg lent Hitler $34,000,000 to carry out his plans. In 1941 James Paul Warburg organized the Office of War Information, official United States propaganda agency, which concealed from American soldiers the fact that they were dying for international Jewry's planned program of world conquest for Zionism. James Paul Warburg was the London director of the OWI from 1942-44, and dictated the pro-English policies of General Eisenhower. He is a director of Nederlandsche Credieten Financiering Maatschappij, President of the International Manhattan Co., Polaroid Corp., and controls the Bank of Manhattan. As the head of the Council on Foreign Relations, he controls the State Department.

The Schiff-Loeb-Warburg union is the ruling family of the United States. Their personal assets are conservatively estimated at two and a half billion dollars. Since the Warburgs arrived in this country, we have had three major depressions and two World Wars, and they played an active part in bringing on each of these disasters. The Third World War seems destined to bring true their insane dream of world conquest, and the American people are helpless to avert the approaching calamity. Jews have found democracy an ideal system of government for their sinister purposes. If we continue to let them lead us, we can expect nothing but destruction.

ANTI-COMMUNISTS ARE CALLED ANTI-SEMITES

Jews in this country frequently "sound off" with a great deal of senseless drivel about "anti-Semitism," as if it were something bad.

Anyone who exposes Communism is branded an anti-Semite, doubtless because, as competent authorities point out, "the Communist Party in the U.S. is more than 90% Jewish." Gentile "fronts" are used wherever possible. There are Gentiles today, as in Bible Times, who become "Jewish proselytes," mouthpieces for corrupting Gentiles with anti-Christian philosophies.

Any effective opposition to Communism is branded anti-Semitism. A few of the men who have been thus branded are Senator Joseph McCarthy; J. Edgar Hoover, head of the F.B.I.; and General Douglas MacArthur.

The Jews use the term, "anti-Semitism," as a synonym for "anti-Communism." Anti-Communism is also called "McCarthyism." Thus, anti-Semitism, anti-Communism, and McCarthyism, all mean the same thing in Yiddish parlance. They mean opposition to Communism.

A sense of "guilt" causes the term, "anti-Communism," to stick in the craws of the Jews, so they call it, "anti-Semitism." If exposing Jewish treason is "anti-Semitism," then let's have more of it—much of it, in fact. Christ openly exposed Jewish treachery, treason, and hypocrisy and thus became history's Number One Anti-Semite. Christ was crucified for His alleged anti-Semitism.

The Jewish attitude toward Christianity has not changed in 1900 years. For example, the American Hebrew, March 1, 1946, says—

"American Jews too must come to grips with our contemporary anti-Semites. We must fill our jails with anti-Semitic gangsters, we must fill our insane asylums with anti-Semitic lunatics, we must combat every alien Jew-hater, we must harass and prosecute our Jew baiters."

That, ladies and gentlemen, is the Jewish formula for dealing with Christians and anti-Communists. The above quotation is from Rabbi Leon Spitz. We have never seen any more concentrated hate packed into one paragraph. These are the people who accuse others of "hatred" and "prejudice." They, themselves are bristling with it. No wonder Christ said of them, as He would today if He were here—

"Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye (Matt. 7:5).

Frank Britton in his book, "Atom Treason," calls attention to the fact that there were nine Jews in the Fuchs Atom Spy Ring—the group that gave our atomic bomb secrets to Soviet Russia. Britton says further, "The Fuchs ring was not the only one passing atom secrets to Russia, nor has spying ceased with its break-up. The unhappy truth is that our Atomic Energy Commission is so infested with Marxist-Jews that it may prove next to impossible to root them out in time to prevent an atomic version of Pearl Harbor. In every case of espionage uncovered thus far the trail has led straight back to our closely guarded laboratories at Oak Ridge, Los Alamos, and Princeton, and in every single instance a highly placed Jew at one of these installations has been involved. And the story is only partly told. . . ."

The Jews would like to suppress this kind of information. Therefore they brand our genuine American patriots "anti-Semites" because these patriots will not stand silently by and permit traitors to destroy our country.

Therefore, to be called an "anti-Semite" is to be highly complimented on your loyalty to the American form of government and to the Lord Jesus Christ.

Let's "educate" the public to the real meaning of the term, "anti-Semitism," and expose the treachery and treason of those who call patriots by that name.

For twenty years I have investigated the philosophies of the Jews who call Gentiles "anti-Semites," and in each instance—without a single exception—I have found such Jews to be either Communists or ultra-pro-

Communists. Therefore, the Jew who brands you an "anti-Semite" is advertising the FACT that he is a "Red." If the F.B.I. would investigate those who brand patriots as anti-Semites, the F.B.I. would find a lot of Communists.

ANTI-SEMITISM IN ISRAEL

In touring Palestine I found that the Jews nourished a vitriolic hatred toward the Arabs. The Arabs are "Semites." Jewish hatred of the Arabs constitutes an "anti-Semitism" unequalled by any other people anywhere in the world. Jews who call Gentiles "anti-Semites" are themselves by far the worst anti-Semites of all. Nobody hates anyone else more than a Jew hates his half-brother Arab. The Jews are more than well-plastered with the mud they are throwing at others. If anti-Semitism is "outlawed," every Jew in the country could immediately be incarnated because of his hatred for his Semitic half-brother—the Arab.

SANTA CLAUS GOVERNMENT

By DEWITT EMERY

(Editor's Note: DeWitt Emery is president of the National Small Business Men's Association.)

The bureaucrats and new deal politicians have had a hard time peddling socialism to the American people. They never dared to call it by its right name, and they had to take it apart and sell the pieces one by one. Even then it took a series of tailor-made "emergencies" to get Americans to buy it piece by piece.

When you put all the pieces together you have socialism. And if you don't believe it, go down to Washington and count the bureaucrats, or add up the national debt, or take another look at your tax bill. Or better yet, re-read the Constitution and see how far we have come from the principles expressed in it.

Some of us have chosen to fight this socialistic trend with every means at our disposal. There are others who will simply try to live with it. That's what the socialist plotters are counting on. Their most powerful weapon is the indifference of the American people.

For this group, those who would rather live with socialism than fight it, there appeared a book recently that will make it easier. It's called "How to Get It From the Government." The author's name is Stacy Jones. It's a guide to life in a socialist America, and it's one of the clearest signs of the road we are traveling I've seen in a long time. The publishers have issued it in a paper binding and priced it so that anyone can afford to buy a copy. The book begins:

"The Federal Government has something to offer everybody, from the cradle, at which mother may use a booklet on Infant Care, to the grave, which may be in a national cemetery." The rest of the book tells you, in simple language, how to get yours. If you want a pension, an unemployment dole, a job, a loan, a piece of farm land, the date of your great-grandfather's wedding, an education, a recipe for strawberry jam, a vacation spot, a customer for your goods or services, or a conducted tour of the capitol city, the government can provide it. The booklet tells you exactly how to manage it—where to apply, what forms to get, how best to deal with the bureaucrat through whom these various handouts are administered.

This is the formula for success in the new era—"Get it from the government." It may take Americans a while to get accustomed to it. It used to be that personal success depended on ambition, inventiveness, thrift and hard work. Now all you need is a pad of paper, pen or pencil and a manual to guide you through the bureaucracy. The government will take care of you.

What is the price for all this?

The author says:

"These federal benefits aren't charity of course; we pay for them in taxes or in depreciation of our dollars, and we could stop them at any time. In our role as taxpayers, we demand economy, but in our role as beneficiaries we insist that the ax fall somewhere else. The result is that it usually doesn't fall anywhere; once they're established, pensions and similar gratifications are seldom curtailed. It is unlikely that even a change of administration will effect any permanent cut."

It would be hard to state the American dilemma clearer than this. Each of the pieces of socialism that we have accumulated in the last 20 years was represented as a benefit to some special group. Once the law was on the books, someone had to pay the bill. If it couldn't all be paid in taxes, the government would simply operate in the red for a while, printing as much money as it needed. Each phony dollar diluted the value of the good ones. One way or another, we're paying the bills, if not in taxes, then with the part of our savings that inflation eats away. But complaining about high taxes and rotten dollars is not the way to stop the march of socialism and big government.

For what the government spends is not determined by what it gets but by what it does. The way to stop it is by cutting functions, by rejecting the socialist idea of "getting it from the government." As long as Americans continue to run to Washington for handouts, the government will grow. You won't stop big government by cutting taxes.

Of course, there's another way. You can take your handbook and your writing paraphernalia (the bureaucrats prefer typewritten requests) and see how much you can get from the government. Maybe you can keep ahead of the game.

This is a sure-fire way to assure the socialists a victory in the United States. The only winner in the race to Washington for handouts is the bureaucrat. There are more than two million of them now, and if the people continue to depend on Santa Claus government for the things they want, there will be many more. And their power over our lives is increasing all the time.

It's time to take a stand. If you have decided to live with socialism, I suggest you get a copy of "How to Get It From the Government" and start getting yours. If you have decided to fight it, I suggest you write to your congressman demanding a stop to the handout state, to special privileges, to this idea of mail-order government that is bound to destroy us, our form of government, and our traditional liberties.

(This is republished from release of Mr. Emery's column.)

TWO KINDS OF SOCIALISM

To almost everyone, socialism means that the government owns and operates all the means of production, transportation, communication and so on. That's one kind of socialism, all right, but there's another type which is just as oppressive—socialization of income. There is more of this kind of socialism in America than in socialist Britain.

In Great Britain in 1950 national taxes averaged $181.00 for every man, woman and child in the country.

In the United States in 1950 federal taxes averaged $261.00 for every man, woman and child in the country.

Dollar for dollar, much more income is socialized in America than in socialist Britain.

Editor—Common Sense:

I am enclosing money order for $2.00 towards the Press Fund. How I wish it could be more. It is small, but a sacrifice from me and mine.

What I cannot understand is why people do not realize the great work you are doing. I know that you and your volunteers have given everything. I know that if the Marxists get control—and they may in a year or so—your head will roll in the gutter. I can only hope that all the stupid, selfish slackers will also suffer.

You are a great Christian, Mr. McGinley, and I am sure you will not like the expression, but I can have no sympathy for the dumb Christians who are letting you fight this battle unaided. They will deserve every hardship they must suffer. A few of us, at least, will be able to face Him with clear hearts.

May Christ be with you always.

PRIESTS WHO KNOWINGLY OR UNKNOWNLY PROMOTE MARXISM MUST BE CHALLENGED

(A LETTER TO THE EDITOR)

Dear Mr. McGinley:

The recent attack on loyal Americans by the notorious libertine, Walter Winchell, was no surprise to anyone, since the Christian patriot has long been the target of this professional hate-monger. But it was shocking indeed and beyond the norm of comprehension to hear this purveyor of obscenity quote the Jesuit's National Catholic Weekly Review, America, as the source of his vulgar assault. From "a reporter's report to the nation" on key-hole peeping into the privacy of boudoirs of illicit love nests to reporting the opinions of a Jesuit periodical is quite an accomplishment for a man of Winchell's questionable talents. We might also add that many of the opinions expressed in the America magazine are not above questioning either.

Perhaps a brief sketch of the lives of Ernie Clough and Hugh Brown would be of interest to the readers of COMMON SENSE. This tragic tale of two men, who might have enjoyed brilliant newspaper careers instead of long prison terms, is sordid proof of the fate suffered by those who are innocently led astray by vicious opportunists. In the near future I shall forward to you an article exposing "the magnificent fool" whose only virtue is a lurid past and only talent the heinous assassination of character. My present contention is with my fellow clerics, particularly the clerico-liberals of the editorial staff of the America magazine.

Following Winchell's broadcast, I looked up the November 10th issue of America and with considerable consternation read: "Conde McGinley, publisher of the misleading 'hate sheet,' Common Sense, condemned by the Holy Name Society of nine Catholic parishes in New York City." I would certainly appreciate a list of these Holy Name groups and their respective parishes. It is inconceivable to me that, in this era of global peacelessness when the entire structure of Christian civilization is crumbling in ruins everywhere, Christians would deliberately combat fellow Christians, but a brief review of the history of Christianity will convince the reader that men who called themselves Christians have arrayed themselves on the side of Lucifer and opposed Christ and His followers in every period.

The events of the 16th century which foreshadowed present events, particularly the great apostasy from the Christian faith in preparation for the rise of the last and greatest of all Antichrists, were notably reminiscent of the present era. The Christian rulers of Europe bitterly opposed each other to the sole advantage of Solomon Molcho, a Marrano Jew who professed to be the world's saviour. Hailed throughout Eastern Europe, the Near and Far East, Turkey and elsewhere as the great Messiah by his Jewish, Marano, Morisco, Saracen, Anabaptist, and other followers including vast numbers of Christians, he failed to ascend the throne of a new world order not only because his followers were not successful in their numerous attempts to assassinate Pope Clement VII but also due to the fact that the great apostasy was not at hand. It was only beginning. Molcho's brief career came to an inglorious end when he was captured and burnt at stake by Emperor Charles V of Spain in spite of the protest of Clement VII who acknowledged his long and close friendship for this perfidious Jewish usurper. The events preceding and following the adventures of Solomon Molcho in 1529 are swiftly approaching conclusion in the year 1952 when we will again witness Christians supporting the cause of the Antichrist of this our day. In a remarkably prophetic vein, Father Faber, the great spiritual writer and orator of the 19th century, warned that the foremost feature of the reign of the Antichrist would be the deceitfulness of good men supporting the cause of evil. In his Pentecostal sermon preached in the London Oratory in 1861, Father Faber warned:

"We must remember that if all the manifestly good men were on one side and all the manifestly bad men on the other, there would be no danger to anyone, least of all the elect, being deceived by lying wonders. It is the good men, good once, we must hope good still, who are to do the work of Anti-Christ and so sadly to crucify the Lord afresh . . . Bear in mind this feature of the last days, that this deceitfulness arises from good men being on the wrong side." (From "Devotion To The Church," p. 27).

Mindful of the terrible evils in our midst and perhaps in anticipation of greater ones to follow, in which Christians would bitterly oppose their fellow Christians such as our generation witnessed in Spain, the late Pontiff, Pius XI, expressed his grief at the horrible spectacle of Christians opposing one another to the sole advantage of the destroyers of Christianity. His words, taken from the Encyclical Letter, Divini Redemptoris, are clear and explicit:

"Many times our paternal heart has been saddened by the divergencies—often idle in their causes, always tragic in their consequences—which array in opposing camps the sons of the same Mother Church. Thus it is that the revolutionaries . . . profiting by this discord, are able to make it more acute and end by pitting Catholics one against the other."

St. Augustine described the Church as a Perfect Body of imperfect members and so we find that in every upheaval when thrones were toppled and altars desecrated the imperfect allied themselves with the legions of Lucifer. But the greatest enemies of Christ,

Jewish controlled organizations such as the National Conference of Christians and Jews keep Christians intimidated and quiet through "tolerance" and "brotherly love" campaigns until the revolution is ready. Then the Jews take over the government completely, as in Poland, Latvia, Estonia, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Rumania and Yugoslavia.

This is a reproduction of large posters in churches in so-called Communist countries which have Jewish rulers. This is the atheist idea of "The Last Supper."

JEWISH ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE USES PRIESTS TO SMEAR ANTI-COMMUNISTS

"It is significant that the Communist Party, more than any other labor group, has been able to achieve successful united fronts with church groups on the most important issues of the day. This is not due to any compromise with religion as such, on our part. In fact, by going among the religious masses, we are for the first time able to bring our anti-religious ideas to them."—From Earl Browder's book, What Is Communism?

From close contact with Protestant ministers of different denominations, we learned the serious extent to which Maxism has gone in paralyzing or neutralizing various Protestant groups—Methodists, Baptists and Episcopalians. The position of Rev. Louie Newman, President of the Southern Baptist Convention, is made quite clear in a booklet which can be purchased at Communist bookstores. Reverend Newman's booklet shows pictures of him while he was touring Russia, photostats taken in Soviet halls with city officials and the caption stating that Reverend Newman was holding religious service. The idea has been to give readers the false belief that practice of the Christian religion in the Soviet Union is allowed. Actually, Christian worship has been wiped out of the U. S. S. R., with the exception of one church in Moscow. That church is for "visitors."

In the Methodist group, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam is the main wheel for Marxism. Years back the B'nai B'rith financed Bishop Oxnam and directed him in bringing into the Federal Council of Churches of Christ those Protestant groups which could be bought or fooled into believing that they were making a move to strengthen Christianity. Those gullible people do not yet realize that the main faction in back of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ are not Christian, but anti-Christian, Marxist Jews who use money-hungry hypocrites like Oxniam to organize Christian "fronts" to support Marxist moves in the United States.

Today the Federal Council of Churches of Christ (now the National Council) which comprises approximately 27,000,000 people, backs practically everything Marxism and Communism stands for—such as F.E.P. C., United Nations, UNESCO—while disclaiming any association with Communists. New members are constantly being recruited under the Council banner and, as the organization becomes more dominated by the Marxist element, it becomes less Christian. Sad though it may seem, pure Christianity is being abandoned to some "religion" for the laboring man. The new thought appears to be that Christ can go hungry for the love of His children, but the children must have better hours, less labor and more material wealth.

Individual churchgoers being drawn into the Council's net do not know that the organization which is supposed to have no connection with Marxism has been financed through foundations under the direction of leading Jews, the B'nai B'rith or Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Down through the pulpits has come the planted poison until now those regimented to back up Marxist movements, such as the United Nations, Civil Rights legislation, Socialized medicine, and "brotherly love," follow the dictates of their "superiors" almost without thinking.

Most people would ridicule the thought that Communism could bore into the Catholic Church.

The fact is that Judaism (which created Communism and other "isms" as tools in the plot to wreck Christianity and secure world rule for the Jews) has done its most colossal job among Catholic leaders. The Catholic Church, of course, has always been the toughest problem Judaism has had to cope with, as it is the largest Christian body and the only world-wide Christian organization. Hence, the Jews placed their most skillful operators at this task for several hundred years. Unlimited amounts of money have been spent and much patience exercised in doing a job to disrupt or neutralize the Catholic mind.

During the last five years the world has seen how priests who stood firm for Christianity in Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, and Hungary, paid with their lives. It is also known that hundreds of others in that same section went over to the Marxists and organized phoney Catholic groups in order to deceive those outside the Iron Curtain into believing that there is religious freedom in Jewish-ruled Communist countries. Lately, some priests and bishops have even taken the oath of loyalty to the Jew rulers in the so-called Communist countries—Hungary, Czechoslovakia, etc.

What will happen in the United States when the New Deal-Fair Deal drops its mask and appears as brutal Communism? Will all Catholic priests stand against it? Or, will many of them take the easier way and ease their conscience by coming out for "modern Catholicism," whatever that is.

Since Roosevelt took over our government twenty years ago and opened the doors of all departments to the Zionist-Jews, our Treasury has been made available to those who would serve the Jewish plans for destroying America and establishing World Government (world slavery). This money has been spent in a clever way, appropriated for hundreds of different purposes mainly with the idea of trapping people into a position where they were happy, and are happy, to serve the New Deal. Today, we witness the spectacle of Catholic priests who will scream that they are against Communism, but they approve practically all of the important Communist moves which are designed to break down and condition people for that final, brutal Communism. They are for Civil Rights, F.E.P.C., "brotherly love," National Council of Christians and Jews, tolerance racket, etc.

The Jesuit weekly magazine, America, has been fast slipping into left gear. Now it has reached the point where that magazine, established to fight for Christ, is being used to smear those who have the intelligence and ambition to study and learn what Communism (Judaism) is, and possess the courage to stand up for Jesus Christ.

Those priests should have learned before now. But, since they have been reckless enough, un-Christian and uncharitable enough, to attack Christian people who have been fighting a gallant battle against the devils who have plotted and pushed the United States into its present on-the-brink-of-Communism position, then those priests have stepped out of their profession as preachers and defenders of Christ. They have joined the Roosevelt-lovers, New Deal-Fair Dealers, and made dupes of themselves. They have taken off their collars and entered a fight about which they know nothing. It is now up to them to defend themselves in the best manner they can.

The Church, or the Jesuits, should have long since appointed a committee of saintly priests, with no political connections, to study the crisis which has been like a black plague pushing its way across the world, so that at least the 28,000,000 Catholics in the United States would not be denied intelligent direction. It was the duty of all Catholic leaders, who have been entrusted with the confidence of millions of Catholics, to intelligently guide them in this darkest period of all United States history.

Instead, in their November 10th issue of the America magazine, the Jesuit priests forgot themselves so completely as to attack the top fighters against Communism. They attempted to smear and belittle men by whom Communism has been fought for over fifteen years; men who have given up their business, put all their money into the fight and spent years at research seeking the root of Communism.

Joe Kamp, a Catholic who has stood for America against all comers for 25 years, is referred to as one of "such creatures."

Major Robert H. Williams, former counter-intelligence officer, an outstanding, fearless American who has opposed the New Deal, is likewise labeled. Conde McGinley is listed as "publisher of the misleading hate sheet." But during the six years Common Sense has been published, neither America nor anyone else has dared to attempt to prove Common Sense was wrong.

Whether publication of the America article was achieved by trickery, fraud, or deceit, the Jesuits connected with it have publicly branded themselves gullible innocents in the battle against Communism. First of all, they based their attack upon the anti-Communists on a three-year-old smear perpetrated by the Jewish Anti-Defamation League, which had one of their mouthpieces—Libonati—condemn many anti-Communists through a Committee of the American Legion in Chicago. Since the original "speech" by Libonati, the Anti-Defamation League (part of the B'nai B'rith, the Jewish Masons) has done all possible to have Libonati's words appear in Christian publications.

With America, the A.D.L. was successful. The New Deal blinded Jesuits published the smear as something "hot off the press," and Walter Winchell (A.D.L. hatchetman) in turn picked up the America editorial as evidence that America, a Catholic publication, condemned Common Sense, and others. Thus, through maneuvering which took THREE YEARS to accomplish, the Anti-Defamation League was able to get a coast-to-coast broadcast of something they would NEVER HAVE DARED to utter in the name of the Anti-Defamation League.

If the Jesuits had looked into the F.B.I. files they would have found that the head of the Anti-Defamation League in New York, the man who wrote A Measure of Freedom, Mr. Forster (real name FASTENBERG), is a former member of a Communist spy ring. If the Jesuits had taken the time to check, they would have discovered that Libonati is one of the Libonati brothers, lawyers in Chicago, who would do anything for a fast buck. They would have learned that the Libonati brothers represent James Belcastro, alias Jimmy the Bomber, a maker and thrower of bombs during the prohibition era.

If the editors of America had looked in Life magazine, November 29, 1948, they would have seen nine pages devoted to Al Capone, Roland Libonati and Charles Fischetti. They would have seen pictures of Roland Libonati with Al Capone, murderer, panderer, bootlegger and convict. One photo shows Libonati with Al Capone and Machine Gun Jack McGurn who, in the Valentine Day slaughter of the Capone era, killed seven people.

Innumerable valiant, anti-Communist Catholics—priests, sister and lay men—who read Common Sense may ask: "But is this not America's only offense?"

Definitely not! William F. Buckley, Jr., an Army veteran, has just had his first book, God and Man at Yale, published. Presenting an eloquent case against Communist professors in colleges, the book has received favorable mention from many sources, including the New York Daily News, which devoted an entire editorial to praising the accomplishment of this young college man. As a Catholic, Mr. Buckley may have assumed that his efforts against Communism would have full support of America, the Jesuit organ. America ridiculed the book!

Edited by New Deal priests, America has attacked or ridiculed other effective opponents of the New Deal Marxist philosophy. They slur the Chicago Tribune, an outstanding American daily. The December 8th issue of America attacked Westbrook Pegler and defended—of all groups—the Red, Marxist organization calling itself "Americans for Democratic Action." America says Pegler knows nothing about Marxism; it ridicules Pegler for calling David Dubinsky and Walter Reuther "Socialists." We would call Dubinsky and Reuther worse than Socialists; they are Trotskyites.

Common Sense says that the editors of America know NOTHING. PERIOD. If they knew anything at all they would not be consorting with the Jewish Anti-Defamation League, which is the backbone of Marxism in the United States.

We have the declarations of Bulls of over forty Popes forbidding Catholics to associate with Jews, socially or commercially, or entering their employ. Also forbidding Jews to live amongst Christians, or to hold any public office. These Bulls were issued to discourage the tendency of Jews to demoralize the Christians among whom they lived.

Surely, it is high time that the priests responsible for the policy of the New Deal (so-called Catholic weekly) America devoted their time to learning who is behind the crisis fast approaching, which has been prepared for the coming of the Anti-Christ (Jewish Messiah). They should do this, or stay off the subject entirely.

After nineteen years of study on this subject, the writer can state conclusively that Communism, Zionism, "World Government," Socialism and all the other "isms" is Judaism masked to deceive the Gentile and use him (the Gentile) to enslave those who insist on following Christ.

What created Communism, and keeps the fire going, is the hatred of Christianity. Priests and Bishops, who have been such ardent followers of the New Deal-Fair Deal, fail to realize that they are only the deceptive names for Socialism and Communism. As a United States Senator told us a short while ago, "but for this group (Common Sense and other anti-Communists) standing uncompromisingly against the red New Deal, the New Deal would have already dropped its mask and appeared as Communism."

Clergymen are so accustomed to talking that they will not listen. They are afraid to look for the truth and face it. They prefer, instead, the "easy" way—"tolerance" and "brotherhood" promoted by Zionists—and having their pictures taken with groups of Marxists who say they are opposed to Communism.

Common Sense knows that all priests are not blind to the evils in America. One top Jesuit told the editor sometime ago, in the presence of three people, "You will be knocked down by priests, but get up and keep the paper going for you are fighting the battle of Christ."

That saintly man, the late Father Louis Ott, a Jesuit, read Common Sense carefully for five years. He also read many of the books advertised in the paper. Head of the Loyola House of Retreat in Morristown, N. J., for eight years, Father Ott celebrated his 50th Jubilee as a Jesuit. Before he died in May of this year, Father Ott was Treasurer of St. Peter's College, Jersey City, N. J. Father Ott stated at one time that he had always suspected the Jews of being behind Communism, but that he had never fully understood the Communist network until he had heard one of Common Sense's speakers, a former Jew.

It is unfortunate that the Jesuits responsible for America attacked Common Sense before knowing anything about the group, or its work. Composed of Protestants, Catholics and—yes!—a few former Jews, the Common Sense group is always ready to educate any Christian wishing to know the truth and understand Communism. America, before falling into the Anti-Defamation League trap, might have availed itself of such service. The Jesuits of America could have learned that in Hungary alone, with a Catholic population of seven million out of the total population of nine million, the Jewish minority of 7 percent secured control of that nation. How could such a thing happen? The Jews sold Catholic leaders on "tolerance" and "brotherly love"—things entirely foreign to Judaism which is motivated by hate of Christianity.

In short, priests who fly to the defense of the Marxist-minded New Deal remind us of a young farmer in Texas who was called outdoors to watch a gathering storm. The farmer watched the cloud for awhile, then shouted to his wife: "Martha, come here! See? It is plain in the sky—P. C. That is my calling to Preach Christ." Two years later he decided it meant PLOW CORN!

America had better decide what it is going to do. If it is going into the fight against Communism, it must first learn what it is doing so it will know what side it is on.

Don't go shooting down your own soldiers!

Priest Speaks

the real 5th Column of the warriors of hell, are those cowardly Catholics who are neither with Him nor against Him. It is from these contemptible souls that Lucifer draws his greatest strength. This was clearly pointed out by the saintly Pontiff, Pius X, now a Beatus of the Church, on the occasion of the Beatification of Joan of Arc. Contrasting the heroism of the little peasant with the cowardice of modern Catholics, Pius X said:

"In our time more than ever before, the chief strength of the wicked lies in the cowardice of good men. . . . All the strength of Satan's reign is due to the easy-going weakness of Catholics. Oh! if I might ask the Divine Redeemer as the prophet Zachary did in spirit: WHAT ARE THOSE WOUNDS IN THE MIDST OF THY HANDS? the answer would not be doubtful: WITH THESE WAS I WOUNDED IN THE HOUSE OF THEM THAT LOVED ME. I was wounded by my friends, who did nothing to defend me, and who, on every occasion, made themselves the accomplices of my adversaries. And this approach can be levelled at the weak and timid Catholics of all countries."

This reproach applies in particular to the Catholics of America. It has truly been said that history is the greatest teacher, but apparently the study of the destruction of nation after nation in Europe has taught American Catholics nothing. There are even those Catholics, so smug in their vaunted tolerance and liberalism, who deny the existence of a concerted plot against Christian civilization. These so-called Catholics would even deny the fact that civilizations decay because the masses become impregnated with false ideas and evil philosophies. The greater the evil of the philosophies propounded the more liberal its guises. But the eternal battle for good and evil is not waged between these conflicting views but between the forces who hold them. "We Catholics," wrote the brilliant French defender of Christianity, "lose ground perhaps more on account of the truths that good men have not the courage to proclaim than because of the errors that the wicked have been cunning enough to multiply." The greatest error is the denial, not only of the cult of evil, but also of the existence of a plot against Christianity directed from a central agency. These Naturalistic Catholics, who call themselves Liberals, are in reality the 5th Column of the organized Naturalists, but they conceal their evil under the cloak of tolerance. These so-called Liberal "Catholics" are deserving of a chapter unto themselves.

LUCIFER AND HIS AGENTS

Many Catholics, in an effort to conceal their cowardice, ignorance, or in some instances evil machinations, deny not merely the aims of the organized Naturalists but even the existence of their deliberate plot against Christianity. These are the Catholics who don the garment of tolerance in order to conceal their lack of Christian virtue. Liberalism is another guise they assume to deliberately create perplexity in the minds of Catholics by confusing truth with error. The "Catholics" are far removed from the equity and prudence of the Church, warned Pope Leo XIII in his Encyclical Letter, Libertas, wherein he states:

"As to tolerance, it is surprising how far removed from the equity and prudence of the Church are those who profess what is called Liberalism. For, in allowing that boundless licence of which we have spoken, they exceed all limits and end at last by making no apparent distinction between truth and error, honesty and dishonesty. . . . IT IS CONTRARY TO REASON THAT TRUTH AND ERROR SHOULD HAVE EQUAL RIGHTS. . . . For there is a moral power which it is absurd to suppose that nature has accorded indifferently to truth and falsehood, justice and injustice."

THE ORGANIZED NATURALISTS

The tolerant and liberal Catholics are the deliberate accomplices of the organized Naturalists, i.e., Zionists, Communists, Socialists, etc. Zionism, according to Max Nordau and other International Jewish leaders, is a new name for that old thing called political Messianism. Lucifer, as the Prince of this World, is also its political Messiah and therefore the organizer of the political Messianists. Since Zionism and political Messianism are identical in concept, it naturally follows that Zionism is Lucifer's most powerful weapon in the conquest of Christian civilization. Communism, Socialism, Theosophy, Vedantism, Bahaism, etc., all are but tentacles of the evil body of political Messianism (Zionism). This entire cult of evil recognizes no other

God but Lucifer and whatever its professed religion or purpose, it is in reality the doctrine of Naturalism organized on a world-wide scale and dedicated to the destruction of all Christian society. In his work, The Kingship of Christ, Cardinal Pie described the doctrine of Naturalism in the following words:

"Naturalism is more than a heresy; it is pure undiluted anti-Christianism. Heresy denies one or more dogmas; Naturalism denies that there are any dogmas or that there can be any. Heresy alters more or less what God has revealed; Naturalism denies the very existence of revelation. It follows that the inevitable law and the obstinate passion of the Naturalists is to dethrone Our Lord Jesus Christ and to drive Him from the world. This will be the task of Antichrist and it is Satan's supreme ambition. . . ."

"The great obstacle to the salvation of men of our day, as the Vatican Council pointed out in the first Constitution on Doctrine, what hurls more people into hell nowadays than any other epoch, is Rationalism or Naturalism. . . . Naturalism strives with all its might to exclude Our Lord Jesus Christ, Our One Master and Saviour, from the minds of men as well as from the daily lives and habits of peoples, in order to set up the reign of Reason or of Nature. Now, wherever the breath of Naturalism has passed, the very source of Christian life is dried up. Naturalism means complete sterility in regard to salvation and eternal life."

THE PLAN

No man, gifted with normal intelligence and right morals, can profess ignorance of the existence of the organized Naturalists or the universal scope of their power any more than he can deny the fact that these forces are carrying out their plan to destroy Christianity according to a prearranged program. There are too many incontrovertible proofs to support this charge. Zionism is anti-Christian by the very fact that it is political Messianism and is preparing the way for the universal reign of the political Messiah, i.e., Antichrist. This plan is outlined in THE PROTOCOLS OF THE ELDERS OF ZION, but whether this political document is referred to as THE PROTOCOLS OF THE ELDERS OR THE WISE MEN OF ZION OR THE BASLE PROGRAMME is as irrelevant as the origin of the plan itself. Whatever the origin, the fact remains that the plan for destruction of all existing order has been in existence since 1897.

It was in August of 1897 that International Jewry held its first public convention in Basle, Switzerland. But the World Jewish Congress was pledged to THE BASLE PROGRAMME as early as 1884, when International Jewry convened in Kattowitz, a city situated on the border of Russia. It was at the 1897 Congress, however, that the plans were drawn up for a future world war to secure Palestine for Jewry, under the Presidency of Theodore Herzl. While International Zionism might attempt to deny the authenticity of THE BASLE PROGRAMME OR THE PROTOCOLS OF THE ELDERS OF ZION, they cannot deny the realization of their plans which have been carried out, according to detail and exact schedule. Their political program, drawn up more than a half century ago, will be brought to fruition in 1952 unless an aroused Christian world throws off the yoke of the organized Naturalists and returns to the Doctrine of Life as taught by Christ on Calvary. The wood of the Cross became not only the Throne of the True Messiah and only Saviour of the world, but the Chair of the Doctrine of Life as well. It is to this Seat of Learning that the world must return in order to survive.

While the Devil's Agents deny the authenticity of THE BASLE PROGRAMME or denounce THE PROTOCOLS OF THE ELDERS OF ZION as a forgery, it is interesting to note that the Sovereign Pontiff of the Church, the brilliant Leo XIII, in an Apostolic Letter reviewing his Pontificate, warned the world of the purpose and program of the organized Naturalists, drawn up by a central agency, for the promotion of world upheaval. To quote the language of his Holiness:

"For the simultaneousness of the assaults in the persecutions so suddenly burst upon us in these later times, like a storm from a clear sky, that is to say, without any cause proportionate to the effect; the uniformity of means employed to inaugurate this persecution, namely, the press, public assemblies, theatrical productions; the employment in every country of the same arms, to wit, calumny and public uprisings, all this betrays clearly the identity of purpose and a programme drawn up by one and the same central direction. All this is only a simple episode of a prearranged plan carried out on a constantly widening field to multiply the ruins of which we speak."

(Apostolic Letter, March 19, 1902.)

The entire purpose of this program drawn up by the Devil's Agents under Lucifer's supervision is the establishment of the kingdom of the Antichrist. The Devil himself is the chief architect in building his own throne. The present world conflict, then, is not a struggle for political power but a religious war. The forces of truth and error are now recruiting for the final engagement between the followers of Christ and the Antichrist. Foremost of the signs of the approaching reign of this terrible monster of impiety is the universality of false doctrines. The apostasy has resulted in a world-wide defection of the faith and moral degeneration. The present Administration in Washington is sufficient proof that "the abomination of desolation," spoken of by Daniel the prophet, is already here. Many of the prophecies preceding the Christian era refer to the age when the Gentile (Christian) nations would deny the very existence of God. The recent Beatus of the Church, Pope Pius X, who died in 1914, spoke of this apostasy as the harbinger of the Antichrist in his first Encyclical Letter issued October 4, 1903, as follows:

"We consider it impossible that you are ignorant concerning facts as regards the wicked struggle which is being waged against God in these, our own times. Indeed, the heathens are raging against their Creator and the nations meditate vain things. The common cry of the enemies of God is almost nothing but: 'Depart from us!' Among most men the reverence due to Almighty God has disappeared and in private and public daily life the name of God is not pronounced with reverence. Man is even attempting with all force and cunning possible to blot out even the remembrance and idea of God. When, therefore, we consider the present state of things, we must actually fear that this iniquity of men is already the beginning and the preparation for the Evil One, who will appear towards the end of the world and that the 'son of perdition,' of whom the Apostle speaks, has already come on the earth!"

Who are the principal accomplices of this evil "Son of Perdition" preparing the way for the Antichrist? No, not those who, from earliest infancy, have been taught to reject and despise their Divine Saviour and seek the political Messiah who will build them a paradise here on earth. Nor the Orientals, who are also preparing for the advent of the political Messiah and the "New Dispensation" or kingdom of God on earth. These are to be pitied for their blindness, for they have never known Jesus Christ. But those who, having known Him, deliberately reject or oppose Him by joining forces with the organized Naturalists, these are the greatest criminals, for they are the accomplices of the Antichrist. The cowardly and lukewarm Christians who are neither with Him nor against Him, Christ will contemptuously vomit from Him because of their timid indifference. As for the apostates, we can only tremble in fear. Pope Leo XIII described these monsters of apostasy in his Encyclical Letter, Tametsi, as follows:

"Never to have known Jesus Christ in any way is the greatest of misfortunes, but it involves no perversity or ingratitude. But after having known, to reject or forget Him, IS SUCH A HORRIBLE AND MAD CRIME AS TO BE SCARCELY CREDIBLE."

THE LIGHT THAT FAILED

There would have been no excuse for anyone, least of all Catholics, to become lost in the whirlpool of modern confusion if the Christian world had heeded the teachings of the SYLLABUS OF MODERN ERRORS published by Pope Pius IX. Pope Leo XIII, the successor of Pope Pius IX, referred Christians to the SYLLABUS of his predecessor, as a light that they might follow to steer them from shipwreck in the sea of error. Leo's own words, quoted from his Encyclical Letter, Immortale Dei (1885), are as follows:

" . . . Pius IX branded publicly many false opinions which were gaining ground and afterwards ordered them to be condensed in summary form, in order that, in this sea of error, Catholics might have a light that they might safely follow."

The SYLLABUS was published on December 8, 1864, and together with his Encyclical Letter, Quanta Cura, Pius IX sent it to all the Bishops of the world. No Catholic, therefore, can be excused for joining forces with the organized Naturalists, whether they be Zionists, Communists, Socialists, Vedantas (oh, yes, there are Catholics who have joined this vile Oriental cult, just as there are Catholics who became members of the infamous Ordo Templis Orientalis). Neither can

Catholics, hierarchy, clergy or laity participate in such organizations as the National Conference of Christians and Jews or any other Inter-Faith cult which places Catholicism, established by Christ, on the same level as man-made sects. All of these Inter-Faith, Clerico-Liberal, Biblical and other Naturalistic societies are absolutely banned by the SYLLABUS under pain of excommunication.

The publication of the SYLLABUS occurred just a few days after Pope Pius IX's suggestion of an Ecumenical Council. "Between this publication and the convocation of the Vatican Council," wrote Rev. Alzog in his Universal Church History, "men of judgment and ability have professed to find a close and even necessary connection. The Sovereign Pontiff, in his decision on matters of faith discussed in the SYLLABUS, did not promulgate any new doctrines but merely set old truths, by which Catholics are bound, in a clearer light, thus guarding them against increasing errors. This Profession of Faith was sworn to by Pope Pius IX and every one of the Fathers of the Vatican Council during the Second Public Session of the Council, January 6th, 1870. The SYLLABUS, concerning matters of Faith, was a decision given by the Pope speaking as the Universal Pastor, that is, Ex Cathedra, and all Catholics are bound, under pain of excommunication, to adhere to its teachings. What is meant by an infallible decision? Archbishop Sheehan in his Apologetiques and Catholic Doctrine, Vol. 1, p. 179, tells us that:

"The Pope possesses a twofold teaching authority, viz., supreme or infallible and ordinary. The Pope teaches the Church with his ordinary authority, either directly or through one of the Roman Congregations, that is, through one of his committees of learned men who assist him in his work. The Congregation of the Holy Office or Inquisition is concerned with purity of doctrine; the Biblical Commission with questions connected with the Sacred Scriptures. When he employs his ordinary authority, he is not infallible and does not, of course, bind us to an assent of Faith."

Is the SYLLABUS an infallible decision which all Catholics are bound to accept? Yes, it is! In the language of the author of the article on the SYLLABUS in the Catholic Encyclopedia, we are told:

"Even should the condemnation of many propositions not possess the unchangeableness peculiar to infallible decisions, nevertheless the binding force of the condemnation in regard to all the propositions is beyond doubt. For the SYLLABUS, as appears from the official communication of Cardinal Antonelli (accompanying it, when it was sent to the Bishops) is a decision given by the Pope, speaking as teacher and judge to Catholics the world over. All Catholics, therefore, are bound to accept the SYLLABUS; exteriorly they may neither in word nor in writing oppose its contents; they must also assent to it interiorly."

THE SYLLABUS OF MODERN ERRORS

For immediate purposes and the sake of brevity, I shall comment on Sections I to IV of the SYLLABUS: Section I condemns the doctrines of NATURALISM, PANTHEISM and EXTREME RATIONALISM. These Naturalistic teachings identify God with nature and place man on the same level as God. In identifying God with nature, He is as subject to change as man's whims or the political weather vane dictates, as is now so commonly witnessed.

Pantheism, the doctrine of the deification of man, teaches that God evolves in every man as well as the world, hence, spirit is identified with matter, God is also identified as matter and man evolving in God and God in man, both are viewed as matter. The natural conclusion of this paganistic doctrine is atheistic Communism and Zionism which holds that all men, being matter, are the natural property of the State. This blasphemous triumvirate of Pantheism, Naturalism and Extreme Rationalism also hold that necessity is identified with liberty, truth with falsehood, good with evil, justice with injustice, leading to every sort of social disorder and moral disintegration. Any effect of God or action of His upon men and the world is denied. Human reason, these egotistical fiends argue, is the sole judge of morality, not God, and they appoint themselves the sole arbiters of good or evil.

All truths of religion, they insist, originated in the minds of men and not with God. Hence they argue that human reason alone is the sovereign guide men should follow to attain all knowledge and truth. The Faith of Jesus Christ, they maintain, is opposed to human reason; therefore, Divine Revelation is harmful to man's human progress and material welfare. Christ is a myth, so they insist, and the books of the Old and New Testament are mythological inventions of men. The prophecies and miracles of Holy Scripture are poetical fictions and the Divine Mysteries of the Christian Faith are merely the investigations of the philosophers. These are also part of this doctrine of the organized Pantheistic triumvirate of apostasy. All of their philosophies are condemned by Pope Pius IX in the SYLLABUS as explained in his Allocution, Maxima Quidem, June 9, 1862; the Encyclical Letter, Qui Pluribus, Nov. 9, 1846; Singulari Quidem, Mar. 17, 1856.

Section II of the SYLLABUS proscribes the teachings of the Moderate Rationalists which are the natural consequences of the doctrines described in Section I. The entire series of errors, more restrained and less blasphemous than those of the Extreme Rationalists, are summarily condemned, for they spring from the same folly of identifying human reason with and placing it on the same level with God. The Moderates teach that the self-constituted divinity of man must be permitted to distinguish between good and evil and not the Church's Divinely appointed mission to safeguard truth. They demand also that the decrees of the Church and her attachment to the old-fashioned teachings of St. Thomas Aquinas and the scholastics be done away with because they hinder man's modern progress. These teachings are condemned in the Letters: Gravissimas Inter, Dec. 11, 1862; Tuas Libenter, Dec. 21, 1863; Eximiam Tuam, June 15, 1857; Dolore Haud Mediocri, Apr. 30, 1860.

Section III condemns the evils of INDIFFERENCE, LATITUDINARIANISM, and the modern doctrine of so-called tolerance and liberalism. Particularly forbidden are those doctrines which teach that every man is free to embrace and profess that religion which, guided by the light of his own human reason, he considers to be true. The Apostolic Letter, Multiplices Inter, June 10, 1851, and the Allocution, Maxima Quidem, June 9, 1862, discusses the condemnation of these false doctrines, including the teaching that men can find the way of eternal salvation and reach eternal salvation in any form of religious worship. Also condemned is the teaching that those religious sects which are the products of man's own reason are merely different forms of the same True Christian religion established by Christ. Also forbidden is the practice of putting the religion established by Christ on the same level as those doctrines which are the products of man's own disordered mind. These condemnations are explained in the Allocution, Singulari Quidem, Dec. 9, 1854; Encyclical Letters, Quanto Conficiamur Moerore, Aug. 10, 1863; Nocitis et Nobiscum, Dec. 8, 1849.

Section IV of the SYLLABUS condemns SOCIALISM, COMMUNISM, SECRET SOCIETIES, BIBLICAL SOCIETIES, CLERICO-LIBERAL SOCIETIES, Inter-Faith organizations, such as the National Conference of Christians and Jews, Brotherhood organizations and all such groups which were designed by the organized Naturalists to bring about the destruction of Christian civilization by spreading indifference and Atheism. These pestiferous organizations are condemned in the severest and gravest possible language and all Catholics, no exceptions are made, all Catholics are absolutely forbidden to have any association with these organizations in any manner whatsoever. All of these organizations are nurseries for man's deification of himself and the Clerico-Liberal, Inter-Faith and Brotherhood societies, no less than the Communists, Socialists and Nihilistic Secret Societies favor the propagation of this doctrine, since they put man-made religions on the same platform or dinner table level as the religion instituted by Christ. These condemnations are given in the Allocutions, Quibus Quantisque, Apr. 20, 1849; Singulari Quidem, Dec. 9, 1854; Encyclical Letters, Nocitis et Nobiscum, Dec. 8, 1849; Quanto Conficiamur Moerore, Aug. 10, 1863.

Prayer

"PRAY AS IF EVERYTHING DEPENDED ON GOD: WORK AS IF EVERYTHING DEPENDED ON YOU."

St. Ignatius Loyola

The power of prayer is beyond our imagination. We should bury our pride and pray to the Blessed Mother of God that she will give us understanding, judgment and courage.

DRAFT MACARTHUR FOR PRESIDENT AND TAFT FOR VICE PRESIDENT

The Fort Worth Press staff writer, Norton McGiffin, reports that Republican National Committee-man Henry Zweifel favors Senator Taft for President and General Douglas MacArthur for Vice President, and advocates an uninstructed delegation from Texas to the National Republican convention.

I am an ardent "States' Righter" and a former Democrat, but see no hope in the Democratic party and therefore wish to assist in the promotion of a strong, effective Republican party in Texas. If the Republicans adopt the Zweifel program I will vote the Republican ticket, and hope to be able to take an active part in the campaign. I am pleased to say that I have practically recovered from the recent attack of illness which was so widely publicized.

I prefer General MacArthur for President and Senator Taft for Vice President. I believe that God has ordained General MacArthur to save our government from Socialism and Communism and a dictatorship, and that General MacArthur recognizes the call and will accept the Republican nomination for President, and that Senator Taft will accept the nomination for Vice President—he has, in fact, indicated that he will do so.

Such a ticket will win in Texas and sweep the nation. I have spent my entire life of 86 years in Texas and I think I know the people of Texas better than does Senator Duff of Pennsylvania, who recently campaigned in the interest of the Socialist candidate for President, General Eisenhower.

There is no demand in Texas for Eisenhower, as Senator Duff claims. The Socialists, Communists and Zionists are for him vociferously, and the pro-Zionist press are advertising him extensively, but fortunately they do not represent the people of Texas. We are a Christian people who are devoted to our system of government. Senator Taft would carry Texas overwhelmingly on a platform that stands four-square for the restoration of constitutional government, against Eisenhower or any other Socialist.

REDS TRY MAIL CONTROL

The Jewish Examiner of Brooklyn, New York, Rabbi Louis D. Gross, editor, in issue of December 28, carries bold headlines over an article which states that Common Sense flooded New York and Brooklyn with issue No. 148, evoking angry demands by Jews to demand of Congress that the mails be denied to Common Sense.

The article also states that McGinley, editor of Common Sense, "played a leading role in the attempt to smear Mrs. Anna Rosenberg when she was appointed to the post of assistant defense mobilizer."

The Examiner article mentions further that some Congressmen publicly stated: those responsible for the attempted character assassination, "including the convert to Christianity, Benjamin Freedman, Gerald L. K. Smith and McGinley," would be probed by a committee, but "nothing has happened so far."

Common Sense, according to the Examiner, "equated" Judaism with Communism. Actually, Common Sense stated positively that they are the same, and will gladly prove it.

In closing the article the Examiner says: "Whether or not the bills could be introduced at the coming session may depend on the force of public opinion."

The Jewish Examiner takes the same position Judaism always takes—it refuses to answer the charges made by Christian people who are alarmed at the control of key positions, in principal governments of the world, by Jews.

The reason no committee of Congress called for a hearing of those who exposed Anna Rosenberg for what she really is should be plain to those informed. Common Sense knows, and the Jewish Examiner knows, that if a fair, open hearing was held Anna Rosenberg would not have been allowed to retain the position she has which gives her control of hiring thousands every month—approximately a million people since December 6, 1950.

When evidence of Red affiliations began to mount, Zionist friends of Anna M. Rosenberg arranged for a release stating that the Red Anna Rosenberg was located in California. It is a year since, but no amount of prodding or accusing has been sufficient to bring forth the supposed "California" Anna Rosenberg. No one to whom we have talked believes the concocted story which took the heat off the Anna M. Rosenberg named to a top government position. Why was it, of such importance that the Jews have Red Anna placed in this position? Before the end of 1952, everyone will know.

The Jewish Examiner calls for Jewish organizations to bring pressure on Congress soon after it convenes to prevent Common Sense from using the mails—just because they do not like the exposures. They say Common Sense is guilty of grave libel. Common Sense gladly takes them up on this accusation. If it is proven that we are libeling them, we will voluntarily discontinue.

How simple to get rid of Common Sense: Congress arranges an OPEN hearing and, if we do not prove our charges against Judaism, then we are libeling them. If it is proven that we are libeling the Jews, we will apologize and turn Common Sense over to the Red, American Jewish Congress.

Rabbi Gross, just think how ridiculous you would make us look—discredited before the whole Country.

As soon as you Jews have complete control here, as you have in Hungary, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Rumania and the Soviet Union, you can close Common Sense WITHOUT A HEARING. If you try it now, you will meet plenty of opposition. Thousands of people would welcome an OPEN hearing. The following are a few things we will prove:

You Jews are entirely responsible for the United States' entering World War II which cost our taxpayers 500 BILLION, took countless American lives, and placed Europe almost entirely under Jewish control.

You Jews were, and are, the power behind Roosevelt and Truman.

You Jews have eaten the heart out of the Republican and Democratic parties. You own the two principal candidates in the Republican Party as well as the Black Horses.

JEWS HONOR TRAITOR

Paul Ginsburg, national commander of the Jewish War Veterans, presents the organization's 57th annual gold medal to Secretary of State Acheson. Albert M. Greenfield, Philadelphia, dinner chairman (right), looks on.

The Country has been screaming for the firing of Acheson. The Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion passed resolutions asking that Acheson be fired. The Jewish War Vets, on December 30, 1951, at the Waldorf in New York, presented Acheson with their top annual award, a gold medal as one of the most valuable Americans of 1951! Yes, valuable to the Jews.

Acheson has been giving all possible aid to Reds by the slipshod methods employed by the State Department. It has been necessary to ransom American fliers; newspaper reporters have been imprisoned. This grew so bad the American Legion was finally forced to comment, through its national leader, Donald R. Wilson, that the American Legion would, if necessary, pay the $120,000 ransom demanded by "Communist Hungary" for the release of four American airmen.

The statement issued, after condemning the imprisonment of the four American fliers, commented on the Otis and Vogeler cases. It said:

"In this case, the Bill Otis case, the Vogeler case and all the others, stand as monuments to the muddled-headedness and bankruptcy of the foreign policy of our government. They show the open contempt which other governments have for us. They reflect the ultimate price which will have to be paid for the continuation of indecision, defeatism, incompetency, and lack of firmness in the conduct of our foreign affairs. This demonstrates the need for an immediate change in the leadership of the State Department beginning with the present Secretary of State. We must have leadership with courage enough, confidence enough and boldness enough to proclaim an end to the indignities arrested upon this nation and its citizens by other governments by demanding and getting the respect which the greatness and power of America merits. Let those who would insult us be clearly and firmly told that we are sensitive to our honor and will fight to defend it."

Those who have wondered what mysterious power has kept Acheson in office, despite all opposition from loyal Americans and demands for Acheson's removal, NOW have the answer.

With the blood of 150,000 casualties on his shoulders Acheson accepts the Gold Medal for his service to America. What a hypocrite—what a cover-up!

CHRIST versus ANTICHRIST

"Let no man deceive you by any means, for unless there come a revolt first, and the man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and is lifted up above all that is called God, or that is worshipped, so that he sitteth in the Temple of God, showing himself as if he were God. Remember . . . I told you these things? And now you know . . . that he may be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity already worketh . . . and the wicked one shall be revealed . . . Whose coming is according to the working of Satan, in all power, and signs, and lying wonders. And in all seduction of iniquity to them that perish; because they receive not the love of the truth." (2nd Epistle St. Paul, 2:1-16)

THE GREAT APOSTASY

The reigning Pontiff of the Church, Pope Pius XII, describes our times as the darkest days since the Deluge and speaks of punishment such as humankind has never known before. The Most Rev. Andrew Joseph MacDonald, O.S.B., Archbishop of St. Andrews and Edinburgh, said: "At the present moment the world is trembling on the brink of the greatest catastrophe that the human race has ever known and yet Catholics remain sunk in apathetic complacency . . . Some twelve months ago the present Holy Father pronounced perhaps the most solemn warning ever given to the Church by the Vicar of Christ. He said that the hour had struck; the battle, the most widespread, bitter and ferocious the world has ever known, has been joined. It must be fought to a finish."

A world which still pretends to belief in Almighty God, yet denies the very existence of Lucifer, is the saddest commentary on our modern times. It is the greatest paradox in an age of paradoxes. In this era of brilliant lights and black shadows, we have "great" theologians who dismiss Satan as one mythological beast resembling the dragon of our childhood fairy tales and even relegate their Creator to the category of mythology. Ours is an "enlightened" era, of social security from womb to tomb; an age of science, but even the scientists can't provide security against their contribution to civilization of bigger and better atom and hydrogen bombs! Indeed our age is so progressive that we are even formulating a "new" religion based upon scientific knowledge which will prove far more dangerous than any atom or H-bomb! This new weapon of the scientific and social-minded theologians is designed to destroy men's souls, not merely their minds and bodies. The present struggle is not a mere political battle to defraud the minds and bodies of mankind but to destroy their souls and is in very fact a religious war.

This "new" religion, which has the support of the United Nations organization, is no doubt the "religion" Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick refers to in his article in the December, 1951, issue of the United Nations' world, entitled "Tomorrow's Religion." Dr. Fosdick is one of those National Council of Churches of Christ (formerly Federal Council of Churches of Christ of America) atheists who neither believes in the Divinity of Christ nor His Virgin Birth: "Of course," he says, "I do not believe in the Virgin Birth or in that old-fashioned substitutionary doctrine of the Atonement and I do not know any intelligent Christian Minister who does." Neither does Fosdick believe in the life hereafter; in the course of his Ingersoll Lectures at Harvard, he ridiculed heaven as "a perpetual religious serenade." The only basis for belief in immortality is the futility of the present world if no other world follows, and Fosdick's belief in immortality is not based upon Christian theology but the Naturalistic views of Ralph Waldo Emerson, the Agnostic poet. "My belief in life eternal," wrote Fosdick, "springs out of the haunting faith which Ralph Waldo Emerson put into words characteristically compressed, 'What is excellent, as God lives, is permanent.'" (see New Faith For Old, pp. 36, 13, etc.).

Fosdick and his fellow apostates in the NCC subscribe to the belief that the contributions of Buddha, Mohammed, Brahmo, Karma-Krishna, Baha 'u 'llah, founder of the Baha'i cult and its present prophet, Abdul Baha, to religion are just as important as those of Christ, Whom they ignore as the Redeemer of mankind from the bondage of hell. Fosdick's fellow apostate in the NCC, Dr. J. W. Nixon of the Colgate-Rochester Divinity School and Chairman of the FCC Department of Research and Education, tells us that if a prophet should arise who can make man's life more rich and abundant than Jesus did, he will inaugurate a revolution comparable to that of Jesus Christ. In his work, An Emerging Christian Faith, Nixon writes:

"We shall not bandy words about the finality of Christ nor attempt to prejudge the future. The field is open for anyone at any time to mean more to men than Jesus has meant. If anyone can give us a vision of God more satisfying than that of Jesus, if he can make God more real and accessible, man's life more rich and abundant, fellowship with God more intense and expansive than Jesus made it, if he can meet the needs of the humblest and illumine the dark hours as Jesus could not: then he will inaugurate a revolution in religion comparable to that associated with the Nazarene." (p. 200)

"The great religious traditions within which we were reared as children is breaking up," says Dr. Nixon on p. 21 of this same work, "and a new framework of religious thought" must be developed to replace the religion of Christ, but he adds: "we cannot be sure that it will even be recognized as Christian." (p. 20) As for the "new" god (apparently Nixon and his associates overlook the fact he is none other than old Lucifer, the Prince and god of this world), whom Nixon tells us "will inaugurate a revolution in religion comparable to that associated with the Nazarene," he will actually be a human being, and under this great "religious" reign, Nixon adds:

"The wolf will need to dwell with the lamb, the calf, the young lion and the fatling together . . . only the Agent of that regeneration will be no Messianic King endowed with miraculous powers but man . . . 'Nature's Insurgent Son' leading the urges and the strivings of Nature to their larger fulfillment . . ."

One is led to believe that Dr. Nixon only copied the works of philosophers of Karma-Krishna, the Vedantas, Theosophists and find them duplicated in the works of Swami Vivekananda, Baha 'u 'llah, and other atheists of the Orient. For instance, he teaches that Christ was only a man and on p. 90 insists that modern Christians "are not turning to the formulated doctrines of the Church concerning Christ nor are they turning to the supernatural or miraculous investiture which accompanies the presentation of his figure in the Gospels," for the Gospels, says Nixon, "may be traced for their origin to the religious fancy" of Jesus (p. 175), who was "unreservedly a human being. As a demi-god he is not an object of imitation. And if he walked among us on spiritual stilts, exhorting us to come up higher, there is an unreality in his message which is ultimately unescapable . . . He was the child of his people and of his time." Therefore, Dr. Nixon insists, we must turn to comparative religion, the Natural religions of the Oriental prophets, those other faiths besides Christianity which had their special revelations, their inspired books, their miracles, saviours, and salvation (p. 17) and discard our inherited conceptions such as those concerning hell, the Second Coming, and even "the Virgin Birth" (now) traced to non-Christian origins.

We shall discuss the Fosdicks, Nixons, Caverts, and other helmsmen of the rudderless ship of the atheistic FCC, otherwise known as the National Council of Churches, in a subsequent chapter entitled The Apostles of Atheology. For the present the eulogy given Fosdick and his fellow monsters of apostasy by the American Association for the Advancement of Atheism should suffice to convince the reader that these Faithless leaders of the faithful are the Agents of Lucifer and devoted to the task of establishing the Synagogue of Satan. In its Fifth Annual Report, the American Association for the Advancement of Atheism praised the efforts of Fosdick and his fellow atheists as follows:

"They are saving the ship of Christianity by throwing her cargo overboard. With what zeal the Fosdicks and Shailer Mathewses and the whole crew of rescuers toss out . . . the Virgin Birth, Atonement, and the Resurrection. How long will men sail the seas in an empty ship? They will go ashore and enjoy life with the atheists. We welcome the aid of the modernists and pledge them our fullest support in ridding the world of any serious acceptance of Christian theology."

Bishop Griffin of Springfield, Ill., who, in the course of a sermon delivered in his cathedral January 8, 1948, and reported in the Catholic Worker and other publications, said:

"It will not be by Doctrine that reconciliation will be effected. People are not drawn to Christ by theological filibustering. Does the zealot of the picket line give a snap of his fingers about Purgatory? Does the millionaire worry about the Virgin Birth or the Immaculate Conception? How many Catholics embrace the Faith because of Dogma? . . ."

The present writer embraces the Faith because of Dogma and we sincerely believe that the vast majority of Catholics do likewise. Perhaps the Bishop can explain just what Christ meant when He exhorted His Apostles to go forth and teach His Doctrine to all nations? Their theological filibustering brought them eventual Martyrdom, but it also planted the seeds of a new civilization. One is also tempted to doubt that either of these members of the Catholic Hierarchy ever heard of the SYLLABUS OF MODERN ERRORS of Pope Pius IX, which forbids just such errors as these men are perpetrating, let alone the "MONITUM" of the present Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, of June 5, 1948, which forbids Catholic participation in Inter-Faith societies, including the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Rev. John La Farge, S.J., of the editorial staff of the Jesuit's National Catholic Weekly Magazine, America, would have the public believe that the Church intends to eliminate Her prayer in the Good Friday Liturgy which refers to "perfidis Judaeis," as reported in the New York Times, Oct. 1, 1948. But an inquiry directed to the Liturgical Commission, headed by Clemente Cardinal Micara, revealed that Rev. La Farge's public statement was a baseless invention of his own imagination and he made a public retraction of his statement which appeared in the New York Times of Oct. 6, 1948. Father La Farge, together with his Clerico-Liberal associates on the editorial staff of America, have been peddling a diluted Catholicism which is in absolute violation of the SYLLABUS of Pius IX, which seeks to soften up the "hard" doctrines of Christ, in favor of the "new" Christianity whose central doctrine is Socialism and racial equality. Brotherhood with International Jewry is more important to the editorial staff of the America than Brotherhood in Christ. The entire theme of International Jewry's doctrine of hatred of all things Christian for the past two thousand years is: "if you can't lick 'em, jine 'em." Thus, Jewry's sole purpose in having Christians "jine" up with the National Conference of Christians and Jews is to destroy Christianity by promoting atheism. Pope Leo XIII made this explicitly clear in his Letter of Dec. 8, 1892, wherein he warned Catholics:

" . . . familiar intercourse should be cut off, not only with the openly wicked but with those who hide their real character under the mask of universal toleration, of respect for all religions, of the mania of reconciling the maxims of the Gospel with those of the Revolution, Christ with Belial, the Church of God with the State without God. . . . Besides, as it is a question of a sect which has invaded all domains, it is not enough to remain on the defensive; Catholics must descend courageously into the arena and combat it face to face. This you shall do, dear Sons, by opposing publications to publications, schools to schools, associations to associations, congresses to congresses, action to action. . . . Above all, Catholic parents should not confine their children to schools that are not safe. . . . With your persons and your money help the Catholic Press. . . ." (Trans. of Orig. pub. by Le Bonne Presse, Paris)

WHAT CATHOLIC PRESS? How many Catholic publications today, with the exception of the Brooklyn Tablet, London Tablet, and a few journals of minor circulation, are actually "Catholic" publications? How many of them remind their readers of His promise uttered from Calvary's height: "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all things to Myself." (John XII:32)? On the contrary, many of them would drag Catholics down to the same secular level as the Public Press, which was described by An American Agnostic, in his work, Rebuilding A Lost Faith, as follows:

"A considerable portion of the Press is now an ominous danger to public morals, since it has shown itself to be both vile and venal and willing to deceive and brutalize mankind. . . . What adds to the peril of this capitalized Press,—which is, of course, not confined to any country—is the deplorable fact that millions of the peoples of all lands find in their newspapers their only mental food, and form their opinions on practically all subjects by reading insincerely-written editorials. Some even have time only for the headlines!"

Newspaper men "are intellectual prostitutes," the author says, and quotes "Phillip Francis, for years an editorial writer of great influence in America, and who had had for forty years an intimate connection with journalism," as stating: "With a few honorable exceptions, the big papers and magazines of the United States are the most ignorant and gullible, as well as the most cowardly and controlled Press, printed in any country in the world. The majority of their owners are mere financiers, who look upon their magazines and newspapers simply as money-making mills, and who, whenever it is a question between more coin and good, honest, patriotic public service, will take the coin every time." (The Poison In America's Cup, p. 31). And, the author continues: "... It is the duty of the New York journalist," quoting John Swinton, New York Editor, during an annual dinner of the New York Press Association, whereat he said: "It is the duty of a New York journalist..." (mark the words well) "to lie, to distort, to revile, to toady at the feet of Mammon, and to sell his country and his race for his daily bread, or what amounts to the same thing, his salary. We are marionettes. These men pull the strings, and we dance. Our time, our talents, our lives, our capacities are all the property of these men; we are intellectual prostitutes." (3rd Ed., p. 28).

The only differences we can distinguish between some of our so-called "Catholic" publications, such as America, Commonweal, Catholic Worker, Integrity, etc., is that they write lukewarmly, indifferently, and do not attempt to form a convinced partisan for or against Christ. While on the other hand, the contrast between Zionist, Socialist, Communist and Jewish publications in general, and those purportedly controlled by Catholics, is astonishing indeed! From the first to the last line, the Naturalists, who are anti-Christian, aim at forming a convinced partisan of their readers, and their columns are written with vigor and profound conviction, even though they are the "rag pickers" of hate, ill will, falsehood and misery and propagate the doctrine of the Antichrist!

The only articles we've seen in America and other so-called "Catholic" journals that are written with conviction are those eulogizing Irish "Catholic" politicians of the New-Deal-Fair-Deal Social Revolution or articles in defense of the Communists and fellow travelers harbored by the Administration in the State Department, or the Social Revolutionaries in the ranks of Labor organizations. These so-called "Catholic" publications are also vehement when they attack such patriots as Westbrook Pegler, Senator McCarthy, Joe Kamp, Conde McGinley, Major Williams, Merwin K. Hart, Gerald L. K. Smith, and other Christian defenders of God and nation. We might summarize the publications purportedly controlled by Catholics, that is to say, if they are actually controlled by Catholics or a newspaper syndicate wielding outside financial influence, in the language employed by the author of the article "Catholic Journals?" which appeared in La Vie Intellectuelle, April 25 to May 10, 1933, from which we quote the following reference to Catholic journals which:

"... only too often shares in that cold and indifferent outlook on religious matters, with which the pupils of Catholic schools are reproached. They (the pupils of Catholic schools) have been brought up in a Catholic atmosphere they have breathed naturally, but they do not feel the healthy, life-giving purity of it. They are 'fed up' with religion as they are with Latin and Greek. The joy of possessing a treasure and the ambition to increase it seem to be dead within them. ... All these young Catholics seem to be unaware of the fact that they hold in their hands the torch which is meant to illumine the world. They carry it along lifelessly and without interest, just as they would a candle in a procession. Our Catholic paper does the same. Its attitude towards religion is the stereotyped one of discharging a duty that has to be performed." (Dr. Eberle, director of Vietnamese Catholic Weekly)

We might remind the editorial staff of America magazine and the owners, editors or directors of other Catholic publications of the admonition of Pope Pius X, when he established fundamental rules for Catholic Action, and which advice he repeated in his Encyclical Letter, SINGULARI QUADAM, Sept. 24, 1912:

"Whatever a Catholic does, even in temporal matters, he has not the right to neglect his supernatural interests, nay more, the prescriptions of Catholic teaching oblige him to direct everything toward the Sovereign Good as towards the last end of all things. All his actions, inasmuch as they are either morally good or bad, that is to say, in agreement or disagreement with natural and divine law, come under the judgment and jurisdiction of the Church. All those, therefore, who glory in the name of Catholic, whether considered individually or as members of an association, if they are mindful of their duty as Catholics, should endeavor to promote peace and charity and not hostility and jealousy between different classes of citizens. ... the social question is above all a moral and religious question, and for that reason must be settled by the principles of morality and according to the dictates of religion (Encyclical, Graves de Communi)."

To all apparent evidences, the editorial staff of the America has never heard of the MOTU PROPRIO, "Fin Dalla Prima," of Pope Pius X, issued December 18th, 1903, a collection of rules of Christian action traced out by Pope Leo XIII in his Encyclicals. To quote those dealing with Economics, utilizing the English Catholic Truth Society's translation:

"I. Human society, as God established it, is composed of unequal elements, just as members of the human body are unequal; to make them all equal is impossible, and would be the destruction of society itself (Encyclical QUOD APOSTOLICI MUNERIS).

"II. The equality of the different members of society consists solely in this: that all men come from the hands of their Creator; that they have been redeemed by Jesus Christ; and that they will be judged, rewarded, or punished by God ACCORDING TO THE EXACT MEASURE OF THEIR MERITS AND OF THEIR DEMERITS (Encyclical QUOD APOSTOLICI MUNERIS).

"III. Consequently, it is conformable to the order established by God that in human society there should be princes and subjects, masters and men, rich and poor, learned and ignorant, nobles and plebians, who, united by the bond of love, should help one another to attain their final end in Heaven, and their material and moral well-being on earth. (Encyclical, QUOD APOSTOLICI MUNERIS).

"IV. With regard to the goods of the earth, man has not only, like the animals, the use of them, but also the right of permanent ownership; and this, not only with reference to those goods which are consumed in being used, but also with reference to others. (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"V. Private property is an indisputable natural right, whether it be the fruit of labor or industry, or transfer or gift on the part of another, and each one may reasonably dispose of it at will (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"VI. To calm the strife between rich and poor, it is necessary to distinguish between justice and charity. Only when justice has been violated is there a right to make a claim (Encyclical RERUM NOVARUM).

"VII. The obligations of the poor and of the workman are these: to perform wholly and faithfully the work which has been freely and equitably agreed upon; not to injure masters in their property or person; to abstain from acts of violence, even in defense of their own rights; and never to turn their demands into disturbances (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"VIII. The obligations of justice for capitalists and masters are as follows: to pay a just wage for workmen; not to injure their lawful savings by violence, fraud, nor by open or hidden usury; to allow them freely to fulfill their religious duties; not to expose them to corrupting allurements, nor to the danger of scandal; not to entice them from a love of their family; and from careful thrift; not to impose on them work unsuited to their strength, age, and sex (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"IX. It is an obligation of charity for the rich and for those who have means to help the poor and needy, according to the precept of the Gospel. This precept is of such binding force that, at the day of judgment, as our Lord Himself tells us, a special account of its fulfillment will be required (Matt. xxv.) (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"X. The poor, on their part, ought not to blush for their poverty, nor disdain the charity of the rich, above all when they think of Jesus, our Redeemer, Who, though He could have been born in wealth, made Himself poor to ennoble poverty and enrich it with incomparable merits for Heaven (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"XI. Capitalists and workmen may themselves largely help towards the solution of the labor question, by institutions formed to give timely aid to those who are in need, as also to draw together and unite the two classes. Such are societies of mutual help, numerous private insurance societies, what are called 'patronages' for the young, and above all, workmen's unions (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"XII. Finally, let Catholic writers, while upholding the cause of the people and of the poor, beware of using language which may inspire the masses with hatred of the upper classes of society.* Let them not talk of claims and of justice, when it is a question of pure charity, as has already been explained. Let them bear in mind that Christ wishes to unite all men by the mutual bond of love which is the perfection of justice, and implies the duty of working for each other's good (Instruction of Sacred Congregation of Ecclesiastical Affairs). (*Note: In a Letter of Cardinal Casparri, Secretary of State, 9-10-1926, to Mgr. Otto Miller, President of International League of Catholic Workmen's Associations, this point is also touched upon: "A dangerous tendency is showing itself even amongst some Catholics, who, under pretense of favoring the rights of workmen—a matter in itself assuredly very just and praiseworthy—do not seem to take as much account of their duties." (To be Continued)

WE WERE WARNED

"Your so-called 'progressive' politics in the United States were 'made in Germany.'"

"Your 'progressive' politics are the reflection of the sort of state socialism which Bismarck established as a concession to the great number of followers of Karl Marx, then existing, when he was molding the German Empire in 1870.

"Your educators do undergraduate work in our German Universities and come back chock full of conceptions of social justice, the beauties of bureaucracy, the efficiency of our system of government, and the high social and official positions accorded the pedagogues.

"As a matter of fact, our government is not nearly as efficient as most people think. No government ever is. It gets by because the German people are an obedient people, accustomed to regimentation. Are you Americans obedient?"

"You have adopted an income tax law in Congress. That is the beginning. You will have many more and more burdensome ones. Now you don't know a thing about the burdens of taxes. We in Europe know. But what amazes me is that your people seem so intent on following our example instead of developing the system provided by your constitution. Wait a few years and see the results!"

ISRAEL'S NEW PIONEERS

Samuel Rolbant, a Jew of Tel Aviv, writing in the New Statesman & Nation of August 18th, has this to say about recent immigration to Israel:

"It brought into the country thousands of black marketeers from post-war Germany, smugglers from Damascus, horse-flesh dealers and horse thieves from Turkey, professional Rumanians, toughs from Casablanca, currency dealers from Shanghai, British subjects who could not solve their differences with H. M. Inspector of Taxes, embezzlers from all countries to which they cannot be extradited, estate property dealers, contraband men, peddlers, gamblers, speculators and bona fide shopkeepers, and thousands of others who simply embody the age-old Jewish tradition of living by avoiding unproductive labor."

Harold Stassen and Governor Warren—whom you intend to use at the convention to jockey their following as you Jews direct.

No one questions that you own Truman. Hence again, you intend to let the dumb people go through the motions of an election, and you win either way. You fear one man, General MacArthur, because you cannot buy or bluff him.

Still, no decent Jew need fear MacArthur.

Left-wing papers, edited by Jews, called for the dismissal of General MacArthur for years before the General was recalled from Asia.

You Jews are responsible for China (500 MILLION) going over to Communism. There our manpower will be depleted until we are helpless to defend ourselves against organized world Communism which is directed, and was created, 100% by Jews.

It is common knowledge that our State Department, directed by Zionist-loving Dean Acheson, with the help of the mental midget General Marshall, broke down Chiang Kai-Shek and established Communism in China. Who put Dean Acheson in office and keeps him there against the will of the majority of Americans? Felix Frankfurter directs the State Department through Acheson.

Acheson was taught by Felix Frankfurter at Harvard, then went into the office of Louis D. Brandies (Frankfurter's uncle) for the final touches which prepared him for the important post the Jews could place him in.

The Jews already boast in print that Christianity is through. Jews, Dr. Emil Weil and one Gerson, engineered the persecution of Cardinal Mindszenty.

The Jews who have been maneuvered into important positions in all governments, started immediately after Germany was crushed to put the heat on for trouble between the Soviet Union and the U. S., so as to bring about complete Jewish rule in the United States, as exists in all Europe and the Soviet Union as a result of the last war.

No one knows this better than the Rabbis.

The Jewish network, designed for Jewish control of the world, is very shrewd and places great value on its "secrecy." It is to maintain this "undercover" work that the Jews wish Common Sense silenced. Jews do not deny that the government officials of the so-called "Communist" countries are Jews. They just do not want it publicly known.

Further, Jews dislike having any light put on their Talmud, for it is not a holy book. It is the most filthy, vulgar writing ever put before the eyes of man, and it is required study for Jewish youths for 10 hours a week, for six years. It is the Talmud which boasts that the Jews crucified Jesus Christ, and contains such filth as: "A woman who has intercourse with a beast is eligible to marry a high priest." (Soncino edition, page 397).

Let's have an OPEN hearing and settle, once and for all, whether or not the Jews are being libeled, or whether they are guilty as accused. No one is opposed to them because of their race or religion. "By their fruits you shall know them." (Matt. 7:16)

Why is it necessary for the Anti-Defamation League alone (there are many other Jewish organizations) to spend an average of ten MILLION a year in the U. S. to prevent the public from believing charges against the Jews? This A.D.L. organization alone has 17 offices in the U. S. Their literature boasts that they have 2000 "investigators" (snoopers) and use movies, speakers, many booklets, furnish two sizes of movie films, use billboards, magazine and newspaper writers, comic books. Is there any other group—race or religion—which has to do this—keep a permanent "defense arm" to defend themselves?

All the Jew leaders need do is quit being devils and there will be peace on earth.

WE ARE GRATEFUL

This Christmas we received many beautiful cards. We are very grateful. Inasmuch as we are so covered with work, may we ask that each of you accept this as an acknowledgment for your kindness.

We send, through these lines, our appreciation and best wishes for your Health and Happiness in the New Year.

Emil Weil

Emil Weil, recently appointed Hungarian Minister to the U. S., is shown above as he left the White House after presenting his credentials. A Jew, he joins the already-long list of Jews presently ruling "Communist" Hungary.

It is reported that President Truman, when accepting Weil's papers, spoke of America's "deep friendly interest in the welfare of the Hungarian people." Perhaps Truman, if he gives the matter any thought at all, can ask Hungary about the "deep friendly interest" recently shown four American Air Corpsmen, for whom the U. S. Government had to pay a $120,000 ransom. Perhaps even the Hungarian-born Jewess, Annie M. Rosenberg, will ask her native nation to return the U. S. airplane which the Hungarian "government" confiscated and has not, as yet, released despite the ransom money paid for the U. S. airmen.

The President of the United States does not, obviously, read Common Sense. If he did, he would know that his Assistant Secretary of Defense, Annie Rosenberg, is a relative in "faith" of the following rulers of Jew-ruled Hungary:

Matyas Rakoski, Deputy Prime Minister (Jew); Peter Gabor (Beno Auspitz), Chief of Political Police (Jew); Erno Gero (Singer), Minister of State (Jew); Zoltan Vas (Weinberger), Chief of Planning (Jew); Joseph Revai (Roth), Minister of People's Culture and Editor of official Communist Party organ SZABAD NEP. (Jew); Ivan Boldizar (Blum), Chief of Press for Foreign Affairs (Jew); Mihaly Farkas, Minister of Defense (Jew); Dr. Ferenc Erdei, Minister of Agriculture (Jew); Ander Berey, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs (Jew); P. I. Sebestyen, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs (Jew); Joseph Mecer, President of the Hungarian High Court (Jew).

In 1934 the Communist Doctor Weil, a Jew, was arrested in Budapest and sentenced to 15 years in jail. Now, sixteen years later, he has become Hungarian minister to Washington.

It was Doctor Weil who administered drugs to Cardinal Mindszenty after the Cardinal had fainted after seeing his secretary, Andrew Zakar, led into the Cardinal's presence. Zakar, covered with blood from harsh beatings, was hysterical and shouting wild answers to questions.

Such NICE people there are in Washington today!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. McGinley:

I greatly admire your faith and courage. It is a great tragedy that we have so very few men like you. Yourself and Senator Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin are, in my opinion, the two most outstanding men that I know of doing a great patriotic work without any fear or reward.

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Please accept the enclosed $100 towards financing the new printing plant. May many more be magnetized in your direction. Best regards.

"Brotherhood"

THE NEW ANTI-CHRISTIANISM

By NEP EMAN

Is "Brotherhood" a religion? Those who are selling it to America deny that it is. But, as Al Smith used to say: "Let us look at the record." Surely, we can take the word of Dr. Clinchy, who is the President of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, from which organization "Brotherhood" emanates. Dr. Clinchy calls "Brotherhood" a "spiritual movement." In his pamphlet "Education and human relations," regarding the propagandizing of "Brotherhood" among the children in the public schools, he says: "American public-school children are religious." And, in the official "Brotherhood" "Manual of Organization & Program" we read that "Brotherhood" rests squarely on the basic principles of religion and is the practical expression of religion. The "Manual" calls "Brotherhood" the "bed-rock of faith." And, as essential to the due practice of "Brotherhood," the "Manual" insists upon the need of being "truly religious." It further states that "If we are to be truly religious . . . we must practice brotherhood." It emphasizes the "religious ideals of brotherhood." It declares that the "National Conference of Christians and Jews is a religiously motivated organization" . . . "an organization of religiously motivated individuals," and contains many more expressions of the same religious tenor. Therefore, if the official "Brotherhood" "Manual of Organization & Program" can be accepted as a reliable source of information on the true character of "Brotherhood," is it not clear that the National Conference of Christians and Jews considers that "Brotherhood" is a religion? Moreover, can any investigator escape this conclusion if he ponder the fact that no member of "Brotherhood" leadership or control omits a definite inclusion of religion as a necessary element of "Brotherhood"? The religious nature of its origins, of its concomitants, of its co-operating associations, of its most ardent supporters, of its most acceptable spokesmen, of the announced purpose and obvious trend of its deliberative assemblies, of its official literature and of all its skillful window-dressing clearly insist upon the inclusion of religion. "Brotherhood" bases its defense against such a deduction on the fact that it does not name any particular religion and that it never defines religion itself. But, it carefully furnishes its activities with sufficient vagueness to be able to arrange, surreptitiously, that one religion takes the bow and that the others are made to appear as evanescent shadows. At tri-partite "Brotherhood" Meetings, the patronage and eclat are not equally distributed among what they call "The Three Faiths." The prestige of a minority religion is advanced and its influence is made dominant. The scheme recalls the fable in which the monkey persuaded the cat to pull the chestnuts out of the fire.

Persons with a fairly good think-box surmise that "Brotherhood" must be quite averse to such a discovery. Many must be familiar with "Brotherhood's"

When Winston Churchill got off the boat on January 4th, 1952, several hundred were there to picket and "boo" him. There should have been one day designated as "National Boo Churchill Day" and he should have been put on the next boat going back to England. Then the United States would have made at least one sense.

Churchill Works for Zionism

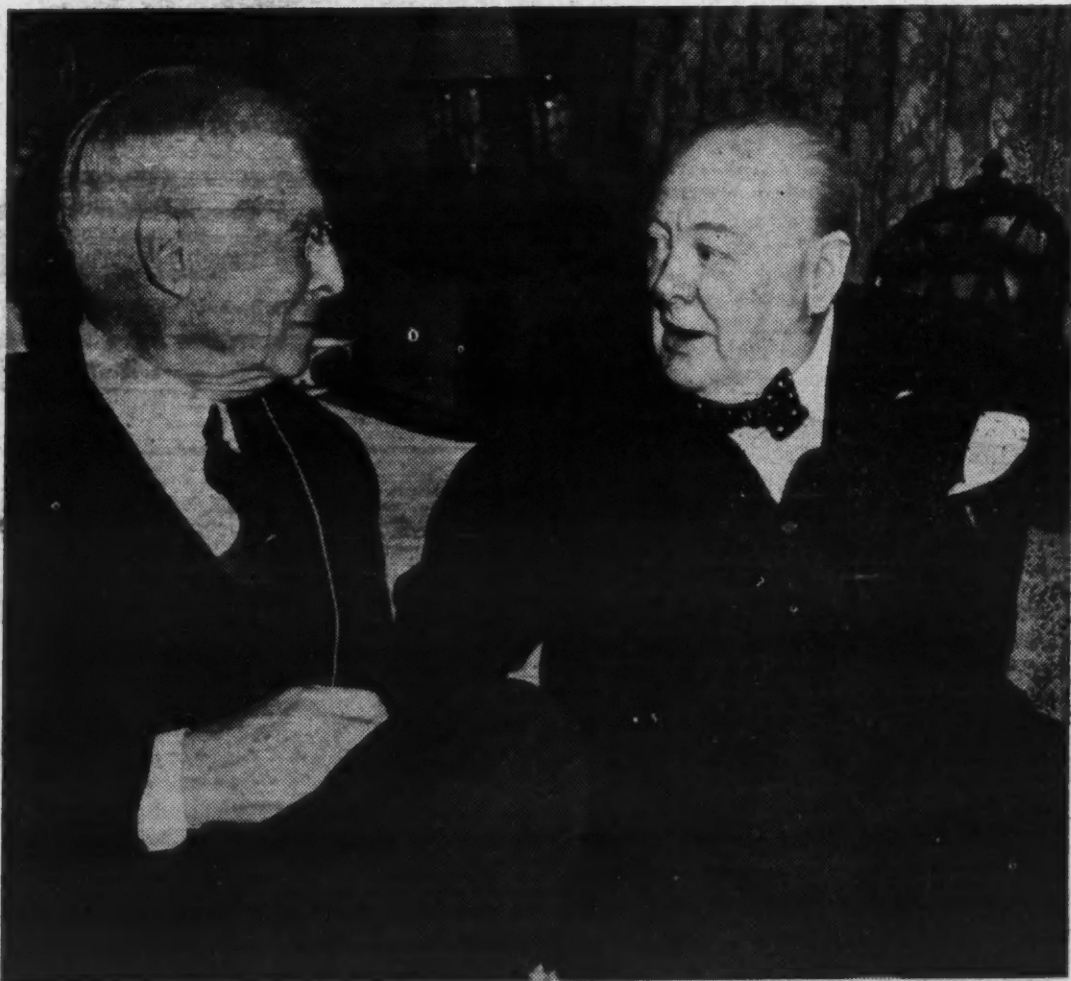

When Churchill's record is studied, one is entitled to wonder whether he likes Britons and Americans better than Jews or vice versa. He is half American, but his forebears on both sides of his parentage have been hand-in-glove with Jews.

His father, Lord Randolph Churchill, is said by Winston himself to have had Lord Roseberry as his greatest friend; Lord Roseberry married a Rothschild. Lord Randolph was recipient of a "loan" from Lord Rothschild of £5,000 and, accompanied by a mining engineer of Rothschild's, toured South Africa, investing his money in gold mines and making an enormous profit. His ancestor, the Duke of Marlborough, notoriously corrupt, received £6,000 a year from the Jew Solomon Medina in exchange for information about the progress of the war on the Continent, through which the Jew could rig the markets.

Mr. Churchill's maternal grandfather was the close

Bernard Baruch and Winston Churchill, two top plotters for "world government" against Christianity. These two, with F. D. Roosevelt, as leading planners for world-wide Invisible Government, are responsible for millions of dead and homeless. Baruch is a shrewd, evil Marxist. Churchill is a lying, double-crossing four-flusher whose blood is colder than ice water. For over 35 years these two manipulators have been friends and working to force England and the United States more deeply into bankruptcy while the Jews of the world get richer on the blood of Christians.

Thirty-five years ago, England was a powerful, proud nation. Today it is bankrupt and the people homeless. Thirty-five years ago, the United States was a vigorous, fearless, unbeatable country, purely American. Today, after the country has been flooded with Asiatic and Eastern European Revolutionaries, the United States is bankrupt and full of fear. Baruch, the top man for the Invisible Government along with Winston Churchill, one of their top architects, has engineered this. The taxpayers of both countries are billions in debt, but who will deny that the Jews are hundreds of billions richer?

vociferous and constant clamoring, that the very opposite is true. And their protest, in this respect, is not entirely lost, because of the ample veiling which makes opaque what otherwise would be transparent. This is also aided by a gliding process, which deludes the unwary by blurring the mental eyesight and by deflecting the judgment out of focus. The process is illustrated in this effort to prove that an INK-LINE IS A LAZY DOG. An ink-line is an incline, an incline is a slope up, a slope up is a slow pup, a slow pup is a lazy dog. QED. Such are the dialectics of "Brotherhood."

The "Brotherhood" religion is widely advertised. B'nai B'rith, the National Conference of Christians and Jews, the anti-Defamation League and the "Brotherhood" Movement itself are well-heeled with money bags to indulge in constant and extensive advertising. The following newspaper captions regarding "Brotherhood" activities have so many religious terms as to constitute additional evidence that "Brotherhood" is a religion. These captions have appeared in the Press at various times: "Inter-Faith Day Set." "Ideals of Brotherhood Extolled in Proclamation." "Amity of Faith Pushed." "Received Bronze Plaque by the Inter-Faith Movement, Inc." "Inter-Faith Sunday." "Inter-Faith Post Taken by Catholic Professor." "Inter-Faith Unity." "Bias Widely Fought by Inter-Faith Group." "Blind Christian Children are Guests at Jewish Service." "Hunter College Girls of All Faiths Work and Play in Roosevelt House." "Faiths United in U.S.O." "Inter-Faith Work of Mayor Stressed." "Inter-Faith Group Official to Serve on Clay's Staff." "Alumni Seek Funds for Inter-Faith Body." "Three Religions Back Plan for Boro Orchestra." "Inter-Faith Work Marked by Jewish War Veteran." "Youths Win Award for Inter-Faith Work." "Inter-Faith Groups will Confer Here." "Inter-Faith Group for World Urged." "Armed Forces Get Pamphlets on Faith." "Inter-Faith Parley Next Week."

Throughout, notice the emphasis on FAITH, which, of course, cannot be separated from RELIGION. And, probably, these captions were suggested by "Brotherhood" officials or Committees. And, can there be any logical or consecutive thinking about faith, "The Three Faiths," "Inter-Faith," "The Three Religions," etc., without entering into the domain of religion? Can anyone discuss these definitely religious terms without impinging upon distinct and essential doctrines? But, "Brotherhood" tells us that its purpose in so vehemently waving a religious flag is to produce "harmony" among all faiths. And, who made this "Brotherhood's" business? Is it not likely that the attempt, carried out under typical "Brotherhood" methods, will result in compromise, concession, watering-down or even extinguishing many of the old Christian doctrines and in bringing about conflict instead of harmony? Is this what "Brotherhood" is really trying to do?

And, in relation to the methods of "Brotherhood," and to throw light upon its true purpose and its heralded ones, it might serve to cite some Press reports. Frequently, they indicate how the "Brotherhood" religion tries to impress itself upon the public by seeming to revive Esop's Fables. It strives to effect an "Alice In Wonderland" atmosphere. It appears to give the public very little credit for knowledge of the subject, for analysis or for common-sense. It seeks to block the suspicion of the reader and, even, to ingratiate him if he happens to be religious. It praises RELIGION, but merges and confuses all religions. And, after having administered a sleeping potion of equalization of all religions, it begins to neutralize the force of settled beliefs and traditions. It then makes you a bit ashamed of them, by inducing you to believe that you cannot hope to be a good Christian without practicing the "Brotherhood" religion. It soothingly tries to persuade you to substitute your Christian philosophy for rationalistic "Brotherhood." And it would have you believe that you cannot be a patriotic American until you be inoculated with the penicillin of the "Brotherhood" religion. By this time you may be convinced that your capacity and performance as a Christian and your civic worth as an American have been missing the bus.

However, the "Brotherhood" religion realizes how delicate is the operation of making you think coldly of your Christianity in order to have you subscribe to the "Brotherhood" religion and of making you loosen your ideas of old style Americanism in order to accept the kiss of "World Government," etc. Therefore, it cannot afford to be too direct in its presentation or to offer you clear and sound reasons why you should sell out your treasured beliefs, religiously and patriotically, in favor of the new religion of "Brotherhood" and its new political notions. It seeks its purpose, chiefly, through moral suasion and through emotional impression. You must always hear the "voice of Jacob" and never see the "hands of Esau."

Hence, many samples of doctrinal weaving and of concealed infringement of "Inter-Faith" upon faith to swell the ranks of "Brotherhood" appear in the Press. They are often found in news reports of after-dinner speeches of "Brotherhood" parasites, officials or of stooges. Here is an instance: "Only this brotherhood inspires, nourishes and revives, in the hearts of men, that true charity which abhors all oppression and violence; which rises above egoism, whether in individuals or peoples; which is able to sacrifice itself for the common good and to give generously of itself to the destitute and to relieve those who are suffering." These are grandiose words, indeed. They demonstrate what can be done by the new religion of "Brotherhood." They drive out the last vestige of suspicion.

But, how does the "Brotherhood" religion plan to fulfil these holy aspirations and to assist the rest of the world to rise to that high plane? Simply by the acceptance of "Inter-Faith," leading to no faith and the equalization of all religions in order to destroy religion; the rapid substitution of naturalism for supernaturalism. The Jewish Examiner, of Brooklyn, reports an "Inter-Faith" Meeting. It congratulates the Meeting on the large number of Jews from men's and women's organizations who were present. It then executes a Jeremiad. It appears that there was a Christian Minister on the platform. He was called upon to offer a prayer. And, according to the Jewish Examiner, what a blunder he made. He very distinctly and audibly mentioned the Name of Jesus Christ with reverence and honor. The Jewish Examiner laments the minister's lack of tact and sense, to include anything in the prayer so offensive to the large number of Jews who were present as the reverent treatment of the Name of Jesus Christ.

So, when you sufficiently conform to "Brotherhood's" requisite, to compromise your Christian teaching and traditions as to no longer be called "anti-Semitic" by the anti-Defamation League, and when you submit gladly to frequent increases in the Federal Taxes and National Indebtedness to aid world Marxist Communism, when you enjoy State and Federal laws which are injurious to the Christian religion and which repress Christians in a so-called Christian country, when you are willing to be enchained by the foreign U.N. and forget your allegiance to your Uncle Sam and when you so completely cease to be an American that no one will any longer insultingly call you an isolationist, then the "Brotherhood" fraternity will love you and the long awaited millenium of "tolerance," "democracy," "freedom," etc., will be abundantly served to you on a large "Brotherhood" platter.

Some persons may not realize the technique of the "Brotherhood" religion in trying to establish itself as the American religion. They may not understand that it is a new and different ideology, and, indeed, as history shows, a conflicting one. It must oppose the Christian ideology and change it or obliterate it. It has said this. And it cannot be content until it accomplishes this end. The technique is skillful. This sample of news reporting of "Brotherhood" activity may, therefore, be illuminating and interesting. It is more revealing than the one cited earlier. Danton, the French Revolutionist, used the slogan: "Dare, Dare, Dare." And, possibly, "Brotherhood," in its ambition to revolutionize religion through "Inter-Faith" and the equalization of all religions, is emulating Danton.

The Press has indicated that Henry Ford II has publicly manifested a disposition to streamline the religious beliefs of Americans and to channel them into the "Brotherhood" religion for the precise purpose of putting an end to "discrimination" and thereby to create a "free people." It appears to be that before the coming of the "Brotherhood" religion and its proffered help from Mr. Ford, we were not a free people. Mr. Ford is worried about "discrimination." But, what is discrimination? Originally, it meant distinguishing crime from good conduct. Apparently, it is not bad in itself. It is what the moralists call an actus indifferens. And, under some conditions it might be considered to be positively good. It might even be viewed as a safety-valve for the judgment. Do we not still speak admirably of "discriminating persons"? So, it seems, that discrimination, unless the word be ignorantly and maliciously mutilated, connotes good powers of selection and intelligence on the part of the discriminator. He can distinguish between good standards and bad standards. But, in spite of this, in order to conform to "Brotherhood," many people feel obliged to sell their dictionaries for old paper and would not be caught recognizing the validity and logic, if not the common necessity, of discrimination, because the "Brotherhood" religion would ruthlessly throw this useful faculty into the discard.

The "Brotherhood" religion is not slow to recognize the value of prominent Christians, to back up its claims and to further its aims. It selects them from official, commercial, political, educational positions and even from among the clergy. The example of such men and women—very bad example, of course—is calculated to influence their co-religionists to anticipate their scruples and to suave their consciences. The mere status of such persons often dazzles observers and sways the common people in favor of the "Brotherhood" religion. "Brotherhood" intimidates or embarrasses these spineless creatures to do its bidding and to relay its verbal jugglery to an ignorant, unsuspecting and ill-trained Christian audience. It can make even the President of the United States serve in this capacity. Do these persons believe in the "Brotherhood" religion? Some of them may not believe in any religion. Some of them are atheists, agnostics or Marxist Communists. Possibly, some of them feel very much ashamed of their obvious duplicity. But, they can impress the people and they are being put on the spot. They may hope for protection and favor from "Brotherhood" or they may fear its power and reprisals. If they refused to co-operate, they might be placed upon the visiting list of the anti-Defamation League and be maligned, molested and, possibly, ruined. Therefore, many prominent men and women are made to babble whatever the "Brotherhood" tells them to say. The publicity value of skillfully arranged photographs is invoked, to make it appear that they are very intimately connected with "Brotherhood" and that they really believe what they tell the sheep about the virtues of the "Brotherhood" religion.

These poor embarrassed victims are cut off from escape from their anomalous position by the technique of the distribution of plaques. The "Brotherhood" selects some outstanding Christian who could be made amenable to the vindictiveness of the anti-Defamation League. It gives him a dinner, probably at the Waldorf, and glorifies him as the Aztecs used to glorify their Human Sacrifice victims. Then, with great pomp and a citation, he is presented with a plaque to prove what an excellent do-gooder he really is. It also serves as a sort of white-wash for him if he happens to need one. The most ideal material for this part of the promotion of the "Brotherhood" religion is a man in whom such renegade conduct will be an affront to his own religion and will produce scandal. Anyone who is weak enough to perpetrate a public betrayal of Christian principles in favor of the religion of "Brotherhood" is considered very valuable in such instances. "Brotherhood" will have him aptly photographed accepting his plaque from some Rabbi. And, to add palatable window-dressing, a few other Christians and, perhaps, a prominent member of B'nai B'rith, of the American Jewish Committee, or even of a Marxist Communist front may be included in the photograph. Thus, the victim is thoroughly ham-strung and is made to like it. His scandalous example to his fellow-Christian is invaluable to the "Brotherhood" religion. He begins to be quoted against those who may strive to enlighten the people on the evil of their joining the "Brotherhood" religion or who endeavor to protect them from its rationalism.

The effect of the plaque-awarding and of the glamorous publicity with which it is surrounded, place the victim in a serious dilemma between his public duty to Christian orthodoxy and his apparent embracing of the rationalistic "Brotherhood" religion. It becomes almost impossible for him to extricate himself from the deplorable anomaly to which he has been reduced. For, he must be retained on the active list, because this makes many of his co-religionists begin to favor and speak well of the "Brotherhood" religion. They fall into a religious glaucoma; or they develop a relish for his hypocrisy; or they make flimsy and cowardly excuses for straddling their religious principles and for patronizing the "Brotherhood" religion. They may even begin to frown upon the "narrowness" of those principles and to condemn those who refuse to be inveigled into the "Brotherhood" religion. But, all of this helps to spread the "Brotherhood" religion more than the words and actions of the open enemies of religion, because it is so insidious and seductive. Thus, "Brotherhood" forms "fronts" and "front" leaders for the "Brotherhood" religion. It is able to establish them in the most unsuspected and, at the same time, the most desirable places. This is what is so aptly called "boring from within."

It is excellent strategy to publicize the approval of rationalistic "Brotherhood" on the part of those who are reputed to be opposed to rationalism and to keep the cat from getting out of the bag. And, these sound production parrot plaque recipients do a good job in this respect. They are definitely an asset in the project of making the "Brotherhood" religion not only the religion of America, but a World Religion as well, with the political theories which must undoubtedly ensue.

Does the "Brotherhood" religion mean what it says, or is it a euphemism, or a catch-word, to allure those whom it might repel under a less mellifluous title? Is it as universally essential to "harmony," "tolerance," "peace and freedom" and the only supply of calories friend of the Jew, August Belmont, who was Rothschild's representative in New York.

Mr. Winston Churchill's brother is in a Jewish stock-broking firm, Vickers Da Costa & Co., who work for Rothschilds. Mr. Churchill's daughter was married to a Jew comedian, Vic Oliver, from whom she was divorced in 1945.

Churchill's son, Randolph, officiated in 1933 as Chairman of the Young Men's Committee of the British Association of Maccabees, an all-Jewish society.

When Churchill visited the U. S. A., before World War II, it was on the Jew Bernard Baruch's doorstep that he broke his leg, and Baruch saw him off when he left for England. Mr. Churchill received a legacy of £20,000 in 1944 from the Jew, H. Strakosch.

This is what the Jews themselves have said about Churchill's efforts in behalf against the English Aliens Bill and against tightening up of the naturalization regulation in 1903-04:

Jewish Chronicle, December 15, 1905: "Mr. Winston Churchill's splendid fight in Grant Committee against the first Aliens Bill will linger long in recollection of those who witnessed it."

Manchester Guardian, April 21, 1908: "Mr. (now Sir) Stuart Samuel reminded his co-religionists that in 1903 Mr. Churchill rendered valuable service to them by opposing the Aliens Bill. Mr. Churchill was one of the first to come forward and oppose that Bill, and no one fought against it with greater spirit or greater ability."

On November 17, 1944, Churchill admitted in the British House of Lords that he "had been a consistent friend of the Jews and a constant architect of their future." (Italics ours—Ed.)

Now that Churchill has paid his recent visit to Baruch, the Christian world can anticipate some new world disaster which will aid in the destruction of Christianity and further the Jewish plot for world domination.

—Most of the facts above were furnished by Arnold Leese, English patriot.

THE CALL OF WAR

SEND me your youth, the best of your youth,
The courageous, clean and strong—
From city, hamlet and countryside
Where life is a careless song.
Have him forget his house of dreams
With ivy 'round the door,
For I have a task for his eager feet,
Wallowing deep in gore.
Send me your youth, the pick of your youth,
You may keep the other kind.
I'll tear the song from his careless lips—
The dreams from his boyish mind.
I'll drive him out where the cannons roar,
And rend him limb from limb—
And when I'm through you can have him back,
Or all that is left of him.
In a heart that's free from brutality,
I will sow the seed of hate
Till he goes forth with a lust to kill
Like a crazed inebriate.
I'll twist his soul with shameful lies,
As he carries my banners high—
And prate to him of a sacred cause,
While he stumbles out to die.
You've sent me your youth, the best of your youth,
A thousand times or more—
And I've left their bones in a shallow grave
On some beleaguered shore.
I've plundered the world and laid it waste
With youth as my helpless tools.
Each time I call, you send them all,
For you are such hopeless fools.

BARUCH AND CHURCHILL

ble step towards preserving this country.

In some quarters and from some newspapers we even heard remarks about welcoming Churchill. Churchill has cost each man, woman and child in the United States several thousands of dollars. Many a man in the United States today has an arm or leg missing because of Churchill and other devils. He was one of the principal agents who brought the United States into World War I and World War II, which cost this country in the first war killed 126,000, casualties 238,800, total 364,800; World War II killed 326,000, casualties 245, 000, total 571,000. The total for both wars being 452,000 killed, casualties 483,800, total 935,800. The United States had not the least excuse for getting into these two wars, and gained nothing.

Immediately after we declared war on Germany in World War II, Churchill stated: "That is what I have dreamed of, aimed at and worked for and now it has come to pass." He started in by telling us to just give them the tools, so F.D.R. the traitor, gave them 50 battleships to fight a country with whom we were at peace and, as Truman does today, he did this without consent of Congress. In addition to the casualties, World War II alone cost the United States 500 billion dollars, hence every person to be born during the next 500 years at least will be saddled with a debt caused by the maneuvering of smooth devils such as Churchill, Baruch and F.D.R.

Tyler Kent, who decoded messages in our Embassy in London under Joseph Kennedy, had decoded 1200 messages between Roosevelt and Churchill. Those messages were sent at the time Chamberlain was Prime Minister trying to keep us out of war and Churchill a private citizen, and the Jews, working through Churchill and Roosevelt, were doing everything possible to get us into the war against Germany. Tyler Kent was discovered when he was trying to get those decoded messages to certain Congressmen in Washington so they could see how we were being maneuvered into war. The English Government had no jurisdiction whatever over him, but through the crookedness of F.D.R., knowing that he did not dare to bring him back to the United States where he could be interviewed by Senators or Congressmen, Kent was allowed to be jailed for 7 years in England so as to keep him quiet and then a special law was passed in Congress making it an offense of 20 years for anyone who disclosed the contents of such messages. That is how Tyler Kent, now living in the United States, is kept quiet.

Churchill's undertakings of his entire life have been summed up by others far more capable than the writer and they add up to complete failure and disaster with the exception of his ability to lie, trick and deceive the United States into fighting England's battles and sending over billions of dollars which they have no idea of ever repaying. The last big blunder of Churchill's career was when Germany, at the height of its success, offered what fair observers considered very reasonable peace terms. Churchill, with his pal F.D.R., demanded Unconditional Surrender, which has brought the British Empire to destruction and left Europe broken and helpless before the savage Soviet Union. Had we listened to advice given to us before the United States Senate by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, several millions of lives would have been saved and today Europe would not be fearful of Communism. Colonel Lindbergh advised against the foolishness of Unconditional Surrender and suggested we have a negotiated peace, but men of reason had no place under the Marxist New Deal regime.

Germany knew, and Hitler stated many times, they had only one enemy—Communism. In Germany then as in the United States now—Communism was Jewish. In the United States, during the last few months, some Jewish organizations are making every effort to prevent the public from learning that Communism is Jewish. Germany came within an inch of saving the world. But for our insane support at the time of Stalin-grad, there would have been no more Communism in Europe or Russia—that is what the Jews did not want.

Churchill has received credit as an orator and negotiator which he is not entitled to. The public believes that Churchill, through his own merits, comes over to the United States and talks our Government into giving him billions of dollars, which is not so.

Churchill, who on two occasions boasted that he is half American, once at a banquet in London and once when he spoke in the United States at Fulton, Missouri (elsewhere in this edition we give Churchill's background), is the top front man in Europe for world Jewry. When he arrived in the United States on January 4th, 1952, before seeing President Truman, he spent the night with Bernard Baruch in his estate at South Carolina. There Churchill was told what he should ask for and given assurance by Baruch that he would not receive opposition in Congress. In other words, the Invisible Government would agree to his gains. The next two nights, after seeing Mr. Truman, Churchill stayed with Bernard Baruch at his home at 4 East 66th Street, New York, where he naturally reported on his progress in Washington. Before going to this conference with Truman, Churchill stated that under no condition would he agree to an American Admiral being appointed head of the Atlantic Naval Command under NATO Chief General Eisenhower. This was to create a false value and not having anything of value whatever to trade for a million tons of steel, he created something out of thin air. This was as good as any, hence at the proper time he "reluctantly" gave up and allowed us to appoint an American Admiral in exchange for one million tons of steel. This at a time when we are hearing over the radio appeals asking workmen in the shops to sweep up and save even the steel shavings we are so desperately in need of, and 200,000 men are out of work because of the shortage of steel. We can be sure that England, as in the past, will use much of this steel for manufacturing items which will be sent to the Soviet Union and Red China to be used against the United States in the future. This is the way Winnie works.

While speaking to Congress, Churchill said he would like us to send a token force to Egypt to back up England's soldiers at the Suez Canal. A wonderful idea to make millions of people in the Near East hate the United States and side with the Soviet Union. What is England doing in Egypt anyway? And are our boys to die to keep the British there? Before the last war, Churchill asked for just a token force from the United States. Later at the Battle of the Bulge, just 22 miles across the channel from England, there were 25% English boys and 75% American boys 3000 miles from home. No wonder many people in England believe that "U.S.A." stands for "United Saps of America."

On November 4th, 1951, General Eisenhower embarked from a plane after coming from Europe and went immediately to Bernard Baruch's house to get his instructions. Bernard Baruch, the spokesman for the Invisible Government, has more power over Congress than all of the organizations in the United States put together, as he controls men who control many organizations, as well as hundreds of corporations who hire lawyers and keep them on at a handsome retainer fee, those lawyers being members of the law firms who have a member in Congress. Bernard Baruch speaks for Kuhn Loeb and Company; Dillon Read Corporation; Goldman Sachs and Lehman Brothers. Books could be written and should be written about the influence of Bernard Baruch since he became the advisor to Woodrow Wilson in 1913 when our Government owed one billion dollars. He has been the advisor and spokesman for the Jewish schemers ever since, regardless of the party in power. He was never elected to an office, still he has dictated to the government since 1913. He has spent millions of dollars taking care of Congressmen in different ways. Today the United States owes an actual debt of two hundred sixty billion dollars, with commitments for many billions more. Every person in the United States must assume his part of this debt. While Baruch and his gang of Jewish bankers have become richer and richer, more powerful and more bold, and have backed Communism all over the world, they have the means of breaking Governments down and conditioning them for World Government, which is Jew Government.

Under dictatorship by Bernard Baruch, we have been placed in two world wars, and the "police action" in Korea. We have on excellent authority information showing that during the months preceding our entry into World War II, Bernard Baruch had two apartments in the Waldorf in New York. Constant phone calls were being made between Churchill and Baruch, with Baruch then relaying information to F.D.R. Five or six times a week, Eleanor would be at Baruch's apartment to get important messages.

Baruch spoke for the Jewish crowd who used Roosevelt as a front to put us in the war. He worked for Kuhn, Loeb & Co. in 1917 when Kuhn Loeb financed Trotsky and Trotsky took 276 Jewish Communists from New York to Russia to spearhead the revolution which put Communism in action. When David Lilienthal was being heavily attacked as a Communist, before being made head of the Atomic Bomb Commission, it was Baruch who stepped forward at the crucial moment and brushed aside all charges of Lilienthal being a Red.

The reader knows what happened with four Jews on the Atomic Energy Commission; our bomb secrets were given out by Rosenbergs, Golds, and Bernsteins.

Baruch gave $10,000 to aid the repatriation of the Reds who fought in the Abraham Lincoln Battalion in Spain. That battalion was mustered by the Communist Party in the U.S.A. to aid in the murder of Spanish Christians, Sisters, Priests, and Bishops. But Baruch's press agent, Gerald Swope, is busy day and night arranging for Baruch to be honored, or decorated, by a variety of organizations—anything to get his picture in the papers and build up the false impression that he is a "great statesman"—a kindly, charitable man.

In reality, Baruch is a sly manipulator for the Invisible Government and has, for 38 years, cleverly promoted all moves for regimentation of the United States. No movement that Baruch backs is ever good for the Nation. The United States invariably comes out the loser, owing much more money and, of course, that money is owed to Baruch and his international bankers clique.

for the health of Americanism as its promoters, adherents and its intimidated fellow-travellers insist? Or is it a clever instrument and a hidden weapon of an organized minority, first, to anesthetize and then to subjugate an unorganized majority. Is it really a boon for America and for the World also, as they say? Does it honestly design to lead men to consistent practice of religion and to maintain a genuine patriotism as it pretends? Or does it neutralize their patriotism and water down their religious principles and loosen their religious anchorage by lulling them to sleep with the sweet cradle song of "tolerance," "love," "democracy," "world peace," etc.? Or is it a camouflaged plan to discredit Christian civilization and, through a sort of hypnosis, to supplant a rationalistic one? Contrary to the true spirit of brotherhood, does it show its ire at any objection to its confusing double-talk and cry "anti-Semitism" at any questioner of its claims as universal regulator? Does it depend upon wealth and political power, or can it go on its own logic and worthiness? Does it hope and plan for a gradual attrition and an ultimate choking of Christianity and a total and final victory of anti-Christianism? And does it propose to stretch forth its innumerable tentacles towards anyone who would dare to defend Christian ideology or to curb its encroachments upon Christian Civilization? Would it blight him with a volcanic blast of "anti-Semitism," freely administered by the anti-Defamation League? Does it tamper with Christian beliefs and practices and attempt to equalize them in order to reduce them to inanity? Is it separatist only for the maintenance of its own ideology and opposedly propagandist regarding others? In spite of its boast of "tolerance" and "Brotherhood," does it reprobate public, base and malicious attacks on other religious bodies, or does it exhibit a permissive, consenting and encouraging silence towards them? Does it cautiously limit its "Brotherhood" to its own interests and, in an un-American spirit, deny its application to those whom a sincere interpretation of the brotherhood would include?

From what sources does the "Brotherhood" religion stem? B'nai B'rith, the National Conference of Christians and Jews, the anti-Defamation League and their allies. B'nai B'rith is the inspirer and director. The National Conference of Christians and Jews poses as a group of religious persons, all ultra do-gooders, breathing love. With apparent harmlessness, they invite everyone to join their religion of "Brotherhood," with an intent similar to that of the fox, in the old fable, which invited the crow to sing so that she would drop from her mouth the coveted piece of cheese. "Come into my parlor," said the spider to the fly. And, if there be any opposition, hesitation or recalcitrance, the anti-Defamation League whipping boys are ready to invoke the "smear" of "anti-Semitism." In this way an effort is being made to stamp the "Brotherhood" religion on the public mind as the only true brotherhood, and, perhaps, irrevocably and indelibly if Christians remain in their coma. And, the advocates of the "Brotherhood" religion do not depend entirely upon its inherent spiritual power or on the adaptability of its principles to the American Way. They have millions of dollars with which to propagandize the "Brotherhood" religion and to intimidate and punish those who will not accept and support it.

Also, it may be clarifying to consider those who, from time to time, are publicized as the American leaders of the "Brotherhood" religion—our worthy and illustrious citizens who are in the "know" regarding "tolerance," "democracy," "peace Freedom," "Free World," etc. Of course, they attain to these ethereal heights through their conception and practice of the "Brotherhood" religion and through zealously fronting for it as the sine qua non of virtuous living and sterling Americanism. Some of those prominently mentioned in this category are: Eddie Cantor, a member of many Marxist Communist Fronts, whom the Press reported to have been ruled off the "air" for indecent, scurrilous and obscene language; Meier Steinbrink, head of the anti-Defamation League; enough said; Mayor Impellitteri, a Catholic (?), a graduate of Fordham, but often photographed with Marxist Communists or wearing a Jewish cap at Synagogues while looking very sheepish, artificial, unintelligent and embarrassed, as though he had lost his spinal cord and were being forced to do something which he was ashamed to do, with the facial expression of a boy caught stealing apples; Eric Johnston, once President of Motion Picture Association of America, if not clearly a Red himself, yet a kindly friend, a warm patron and a vigorous "Dutch Cleanser" of the un-Americanism and the Marxist Communism of all Hollywood Reds, the same man who had been represented in the Press as, with Stentor voice and much braggadocio, poured his unbrotherly venom upon the Catholic Bishops for their "Legion of Decency," a most inconsistent thing for a "General Chairman of Brotherhood Week"; Syros P. Skouras, President of Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation, which implies much responsibility for the un-Americanism of Hollywood Reds; Max Youngstein, Advertising and Publicity Vice-President for Paramount Film Distributing Corporation; Dr. Everett R. Clinchy, who maneuvered the anti-Christian Seligsberg Conference for the National Conference of Christians and Jews; the beloved "Willie" O'Dwyer, former Mayor of New York City, now Ambassador of Mexico, born in the land of St. Patrick, matriculated at Salamanca, eventually a graduate of Fordham, often pictured in the Press at Synagogue Services, his illustrious head adorned with a Jewish cap and, whenever it appeared to be politically advantageous, bellowing over the "Mike" insults to his own co-religionists, mockery of his Church and contempt for his Irish traditions, in unblushing violation of decency and honesty and eventually forced back to New York to have the crime investigating Keefauver Committee stain his record with a suspicion of fast and enduring friendship with the underworld, and, notwithstanding, the Press presenting William O'Dwyer as one of the great saints of the New "Brotherhood" Religion; the current photograph, illustrating Mr. O'Dwyers "Brotherhood," shows himself and Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver having a great laugh, probably over the folly of the people.

These are but a few of those who might have been selected. But, if you psychoanalyse most of these pillars of the "Brotherhood" religion, even in an amateurish way, if you examine their lives, if you search their motives, you may develop your own conclusions as to what kind of brotherhood they must believe in and what "Brotherhood" intended in selecting such men for its leadership. Would you judge from the consideration of such "leadership" that you should exchange your religion for the "Brotherhood" religion or that its teaching is the essence of Americanism and the very panacea for all National ills and even for World miseries? What would be the answer of the average common sense American?

Therefore, may an American patriot favor the "Brotherhood" religion which, though it mouths loyalty to the United States, it esteems Marxist Communists, it draws much of its strength and prestige from men and women who are tainted with un-Americanism, it encourages theories which are averse to true Americanism, detrimental to the political entity of the United States and destructive of their integrity.

May any member of the Christian religion affiliate with the "Brotherhood" religion, when it excludes Christ, the Founder of Christianity, and when it opposes its Naturalism against Christian Supernaturalism?

May any Catholic join, serve or approve of the "Brotherhood" religion? No. For, as conceived and interpreted by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, it is condemned by Catholic Theology, by Canon Law and by Popes Pius VII, Pius IX, Leo XIII, Pius XI, and Pius XII. All of these Catholic sources reprobate the "Brotherhood" religion because of its Rationalism, anti-Christianism, "Inter-Faith," "Inter-Creedalism," it equalizing of all religions which is destructive of religion itself and because of its gross violation of the Social Rights of Christ as King. Hence, none but ignorant and disloyal Catholics favor or participate in the activities of the "Brotherhood" religion. Catholics are bound in conscience not only not to remain silent, but openly to oppose its vain pretensions, its deleterious effects upon Christianity and Christian Civilization and to repress its blasphemies against Christ and His Religion.

Pope Pius XII in his official pronouncement on brotherhood has this to say: "Salvation will not come to the world until mankind, deriving its inspirations from the teaching and example of Christ, comes to recognize that all men are children and of the One Father who is in Heaven, destined to be truly brothers through union with His Divine Son, who he sent to be the Redeemer of all."

"Only this brotherhood gives to man, with the highest sense of personal dignity, assurance of true equality, the necessary basis of justice."

"Only this brotherhood guarantees the gift of true liberty in the enjoyment of our rights and in the fulfillment of our duties in the obedience to the laws given by Almighty God and His Divine Son for the morality and sanctity of human life."

"Only this brotherhood inspires, nourishes and revives in the hearts of men that true charity which abhors all oppression and violence; which rises above egoism, whether in individuals or in peoples; which is able to sacrifice for the common good and to give generously of itself to the destitute and to relieve those who are suffering."

This should settle the question of "Brotherhood" for Catholics. And, let those Catholics who, so scandalously, cowardly and hypocritically, insist upon maintaining and expressing their admiration of the "Brotherhood" religion and who are not ashamed to act as its auxiliaries, face their conscience and rid themselves of their hollow pretense. Let them think of the "Dies irae; Dies illa." Let them ask their friends in B'nai B'rith, in the National Conference of Christians and Jews, in the anti-Defamation League and in "Brotherhood" itself if in their great "tolerance" they can tolerate the Pope's explicit direction to Catholics and his preference of Christian brotherhood to its opposite. Let them ask them to cease molesting Christians for following the Christian idea of brotherhood and to stop misrepresenting and obstructing it.

THE TAXPAYER'S "GETTYSBURG ADDRESS"

One score and sixteen years ago our fathers brought forth upon this nation a new tax, conceived in desperation and dedicated to the proposition that all men are fair game. Now we are engaged in a great mass of calculations testing whether that taxpayer or any taxpayer so confused and so impoverished can long endure. We have come to dedicate a large portion of our income to a final resting place with those men who spend their lives that they may spend our money. It is altogether anguish and torture that we should do this. But in the legal sense we cannot evade—we cannot cheat—we cannot under-estimate this tax. The collectors, clever and sly, who computed here, have gone far beyond our power to add and subtract. Our Creditors will little note nor long remember what we say here, but the Bureau of Internal Revenue can never forget what we report here. It is for us the taxpayers rather to be devoted here to the tax return which the government has thus far so nobly spent. It is rather for us to be dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these vanished dollars we take increased devotion to the few remaining; that we highly resolve that the next year will not find us in a higher income bracket; that this taxpayer, underpaid, shall figure out more deductions, and that taxation of the people, by the Congress, and for the government, shall not cause our solvency to perish.

UN-World Jewish Plan

Trygve Lie, Secretary General of the U.N., smiles amiably while talking to Zionist Ernest A. Gross, U. S. Representative. Lie, who first visited the Soviet Union in 1931 as a rising young official of the Norwegian Labor Party, has proved himself a reliable friend of the U. S. S. R. for nearly a quarter of a century. As Norway's Minister of Justice in 1936, Lie performed a great service for Stalin: he was instrumental in deporting Stalin's arch-enemy, Leon Trotsky, from Norway.

Trotsky, one of the founders of the Communist International, in 1937 referred to Lie as "the Minister of Justice who not so long ago had been a member of the Communist International."

As Secretary-General, Trygve Lie is authorized to select all U. N. employees, control its finances and execute its decisions. No wonder he is much loved by the U. S. S. R. and the Zionists. Lie is in a position to perform great services for his masters.

White Race Doom Sealed

By: EUSTACE MULLINS

Recent events at last reveal to us the details of the Jewish plan to destroy the white race. The hordes of Asia, directed by the cunning of Zionist strategists, are intended to sweep across Europe before embarking for the shores of America, while those same strategists direct white governments into disaster and defeat all over the world. The slaughter of thousands of American boys in Korea at the whim of international Zionists is but a preview of the fate which they have prepared for us. The organizations which inflict Zionist strategy on white governments are the Council on Foreign Relations in the United States, publishers of the authoritative political journal "Foreign Affairs," and the Royal Institute of International Affairs in London, which dictates the policy of the British Foreign Office. These organizations were founded jointly at the Paris Peace Conference in 1919, together with the Institut für Auswärtige Politik of Hamburg, headed by Dr. Albrecht Mendelssohn-Bartholdy of the German Delegation to the Peace Conference. A subsidiary

WHO ORDERED REMOVAL OF THE WAR CROSSES???

A United Press dispatch of September 27th stated that members of Congress had demanded an investigation of the removal of white crosses from the graves of 13,000 American war dead in Hawaii's National Cemetery.

Representative John E. Rankin of Mississippi, chairman of the House Veterans Affairs Committee, cried: "Good Lord—who ordered such a thing?"

Common Sense does not know, but could it have been the Zionist Assistant Secretary of Defense Annie Rosenberg? Crosses, representing the Lord, Jesus Christ, are violently disliked by Zionists.

Representatives of the U. S. Army in the Pacific are pleading the action was taken because of "high cost of maintaining the wooden crosses," and have removed them for a flat stone marker.

Is it too much to ask why the wooden crosses were not replaced with STONE CROSSES, if the whole problem hinged on "cost of replacing wooden crosses"???

Representative James E. Zandt of Pennsylvania; Edith Nourse Rogers of Massachusetts; Dewey Short of Missouri and Overton Brooks of Louisiana have demanded an investigation. They, along with Representative Rankin, should receive the support of Christian Americans who question this wiping out of Christian symbols.

The Jewish plan for world conquest and for ruling the entire world is now well underway. There is every likelihood that the future "World Government" will be the organization presently known as the United Nations. Already the world has been divided into two concentrations of power—one controlled by the Jews of Moscow under the Jewish Seal of Solomon (Five pointed Star) and the other by American Jewry of Wall Street under the U.N.O. banner of pale blue and white, the same blue and white used for the Israeli flag.

The arch hypocrite of all times, Bernard Baruch, a member of the U.N. Atomic Commission, has called for economic conscription in the United States which will mean further and even tighter concentrations of economic power into the hands of American Wall Street Jewry. The internationalization of raw materials, the European Army, the European Parliament at Strasbourg, the Schuman Plan (originated by the Jew, David LILIENTHAL, not—of course—by the French Foreign Minister Mr. Schuman) all tend to weld together the non-Communist world more firmly in the clutch of American Jewry.

All that is now required is for the two giant power mechanisms, one operated by American Jewry under the pale blue and white Israeli colors, and the other by the Moscow Jewry under the five pointed star, to merge into one giant "Super State."

It is reported that the target date is 1955—hence the "World Government by 1955" Movement. If the five pointed star of the Soviet bloc be added to the pale blue and white U.N.O. flag by, say, 1955 all that will then be required for the "World Flag" to be identical with that of the new State of Israel will be to add one point—i.e., change it to the six pointed Star of David.

Plans call for giving to the U.N.O. all atom, hydrogen bombs—armies—navies—air forces, for they are "too dangerous to be left in the control of any power or group of powers." Ultimately the U.N.O. Army and atom bomb force, operating from Jerusalem, will be used to stamp out any Gentile revolt. The Jewish U.N.O. will be supreme and anything which can be interpreted as "anti-Semitism" (U.N.O. Genocide Convention, drafted by the Polish Jew Professor Raphael Lemkin, now on the staff of Yale University will cover the "crime") will be punishable by prison or death.

Because the rule of the U. S. S. R., as outlined in COMMON SENSE'S issue No. 143 which listed Jews in key spots in Communist countries, so neatly interlocks with the United Nations Organization, a partial listing of Jews in the U.N.O. is now being published.

PETITION

TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES,

I respectfully petition you to withdraw from the United Nations and the Atlantic Pact, and to declare war on the communists of all countries, including our own.

In a speech in the United States Senate on August 27, 1951, Senator McCarran (Democrat, of Nevada), chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, said:

"This country is faced with inevitable all-out war. It is inevitable and the country had best be prepared for it. . . . Enemies of the United States have been put in the highest echelon of government in the past and we should protect ourselves against them. We have enough enemies on the outside without having enemies that would destroy us from within."

He did not mention Truman or Acheson or their Zionist advisers; they are in the "highest echelon." War is indeed inevitable. Let us have it now, and in Asia, where we are winning it and have two powerful allies, viz: Japan and Nationalist China.

Truman and Acheson and Eisenhower and the Zionists are seeking to divert us to Europe. Senator Malone of Idaho said:

"The policy of the State Department is to furnish all of the troops to Europe; now it is 400,000—it was 6 divisions; it will soon be 1,000,000. In World War II we furnished 73% and in Korea 90%."

A European war means a land war under a Socialist general and with Socialist allies,—and probably national bankruptcy and defeat. War in Europe is near the source of Russian power; in Asia it is practically as remote for the Russians as it is from us. It is about 6,000 miles with an obsolete single-track rail line from Vladivostok to the center of Russian supplies, and about the same distance by air and ship from us. We are practically on equal footing in Asia but at too great a disadvantage in Europe, and hence the Communists and Zionists traitors prefer a European war. The Communists are waging a secret war against us in Korea and here in America. We should accept it as it is and not seek to divert it to Europe.

The governments and peoples of Europe are opposed to war, and they expect us to do the paying and fighting. They regard the threatened war as a war between slave Russia and free America (as do the Communists), and they do not wish to be involved in it. The Communists regard America as their principal enemy. If they can conquer America they can acquire the balance of our wealth and the mineral wealth of Palestine, and can establish their World Empire.

We will have the war; that is a certainty we cannot escape; but we can choose the time and place for it. We must win it, and can do so in Asia with General MacArthur as Commander; but we may lose it in Europe with Truman, Acheson and Eisenhower directing it.

I submit that Congress should promptly declare all-out war on Communism and appoint General Douglas MacArthur as Commander-in-Chief with plenary power. The Congress has the constitutional power to declare war and to take the necessary steps to win it. Our Socialist President and his Socialist Secretary of State Acheson and his incompetent Socialist Secretary of Defense Lovett should be suspended from office until the conclusion of the war.

War is preferable to Socialism and Communism and slavery. Let us have it now and get rid of the threat of it, and of dictatorships based on fear.

Resolution

Read Carefully

The American Heritage Protective Committee desires to submit an opportunity to endorse H. R. 5080, a bill introduced in Congress by the Hon. John T. Wood. This bill calls for the complete withdrawal of the United States from its membership in the United Nations.

We believe that continued membership of the United States in the United Nations Organization will ultimately result in the destruction of our Republic as a sovereign nation, and urge the support of H. R. 5080 for the following reasons:

1. Because membership in the United Nations Organization has the binding force of a treaty, and in cases of conflict of our domestic law with the United Nations charter, the latter will supersede our own domestic law, thus rendering our Constitution a meaningless document.
2. Membership in the United Nations has a direct tendency to destroy free enterprise, our American way of life, and to act as a restraint on our inherent rights as a sovereign of our own Country.
3. Membership in the United Nations strikes at the very source of the inalienable rights of the American people, namely, the right of freedom of speech, of press, of assembly, and the most cherished of all our rights—the right to worship God according to the conscience of the individual.
4. Membership of the United States in the United Nations is a wholly unwarranted and unnecessary burden on the taxpayers of our Republic, because the American people are defraying the major portion of the expenses of the United Nations where foreign and decadent European ideologies are brought to force on the American by a mandate of the United Nations.
5. Because the United Nations is composed almost entirely of men and women who advocate and think in terms of political and economic theories diametrically opposed to our American Heritage of freedom.
6. Because the United Nations, in its cumbersome and negative policies, is causing an international confusion among nations, and instead of promoting peace, is actually promoting the very conditions which breed wars among men, and needlessly and brutally prolong those wars which are already in process.
7. Because the leadership of the United Nations is, of record, Socialist-Communist, which has resulted in the subordination of the wishes of the American people and the continuing and seemingly endless prolonging of the Korean tragedy.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be furnished to every member of the United States Senate.

of these political organizations is the Institute of Pacific Relations, which used its members in the U. S. Department of State to betray China to the forces of international Communism and lost us our principal ally in the East.

These Zionist geopolitical groups are above all partisan political questions in the countries which they control. They are supported by the international banking houses of Rothschild, Speyer, Seligman, J. Henry Schroder, and Warburg. They receive large grants from the tax-free Carnegie and Rockefeller Foundations. No government official in the Western world dares disobey their orders. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, private secretary to Louis Brandeis when Brandeis was the active leader of the Zionist Organization of America, is the spokesman for the Council on Foreign Relations, and parrots the decisions of its chief, James Paul Warburg, of the German banking family.

The Council on Foreign Relations lists as its Executive Committee in 1919 Otto Kahn, Jacob Schiff, Mortimer Schiff, and Paul Warburg, father of James Paul Warburg, all partners of Kuhn, Loeb Company, bankers, New York. The Honorary Chairman was Kuhn, Loeb lawyer Elihu Root, former Secretary of State and chief of the American Mission to Russia in 1918, which spent twenty-two million dollars of Woodrow Wilson's special war fund to promote the Russian Revolution. None of the money was ever accounted for. Members of the Council on Foreign Relations were Leopold Frederick, treasurer of the Baruch-Meyer firm, the Yukon Gold Company, and treasurer of the Guggenheim mining enterprises; Henry Morgenthau, former Ambassador to Turkey and financier of Woodrow Wilson's campaign; Oscar Straus of the R. H. Macy family and former Ambassador to Turkey, also head of the U. S. Immigration Service when immigration officials in New York complained about the numbers of diseased and criminally insane Jews entering the country, was finally removed and replaced by Jew Oscar Nagel who continued his policies; Jules S. Bache, father of the income tax; former Ambassador to Turkey Abram I. Elkus, who was Trustee of the Baron de Hirsch Fund, the basic capital of the Zionist movement; and other investment bankers and lawyers in New York who were in the service of international Zionism. The Washington representative of the Council on Foreign Relations in 1919 was John Hays Hammond, mining engineer who discovered South African gold fields for the Rothschilds, and who was later paid six hundred thousand dollars a year by the Guggenheims.

Members of the Council on Foreign Relations who have recently made headlines are such traitors as Alger Hiss, Frederick Vanderbilt Field, Laurence Duggan, Owen Lattimore, and their associates in the State Department and Treasury Department, Lauchlin Currie, Stanley K. Horbeck, Robert M. Lovett of the Kuhn, Loeb agents Brown Brothers Harriman, and E. R. and W. Averell Harriman of the same firm. These three men hold many directorships in British insurance firms which are controlled by N. M. Rothschild of London. Former Ambassador to Russia W. Averell Harriman carried out the Rothschild aim of aiding Russia to crush Germany, and was responsible for the enormous sums of Lend-Lease placed at the disposal of international Communism, many of the weapons now killing American youths in Korea.

Other members of the Council on Foreign Relations are Philip C. Jessup, who figured in the betrayal of China, State Department economists Herbert Feis and Jacob Viner, Marshall Field, Cord Meyer Jr., Corliss Lamont, and partners in the international banking houses of J. P. Morgan, Lazard Freres, J&W Seligman, Speyer and Company, and Lewis Lichtenstein Strauss, John Schiff, Benjamin Bittenweiser, and James Paul Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb Company. After the Second World War, Germany was turned over to Kuhn, Loeb Company, so that she could never again rise to the defense of the white race. John McCloy, lawyer for Kuhn, Loeb, is High Commissioner of Germany, Bittenweiser is the Assistant High Commissioner, and other employees of that firm carry out their vicious and vindictive policies against the German people, their final gesture intended to be the handing over of Germany to the Communist hordes. Every attempt to build up Germany's defenses is sabotaged by these men.

Lewis Lichtenstein Strauss, who for some unknown reason became a Rear Admiral in the Second World War, was the first member selected for the United States Atomic Energy Committee. John Schiff is President of the Boy Scouts of America. Jewish bankers cannot wait for our youth to become eighteen before drafting them for the kill, but must attack their moral fibre in the years of adolescence by infiltrating once healthy organizations such as the Boy Scouts.

The Royal Institute of International Affairs, sister organization of the Council on Foreign Relations, has its headquarters at 10 St. James Square, London, owns several other large buildings, and has an operating budget of four hundred thousand dollars a year. It actually spends several times that sum in influencing British public opinion, and many of its agents are paid by the British Government as employees of the British Foreign Office. It received twenty-five thousand dollars a year from the late Sir Abe Bailey, partner of the Rothschilds in sixteen South African gold fields, forty thousand dollars a year from the Rockefeller Foundation, ten thousand dollars a year from the Carnegie Foundation, and large sums from "corporate subscribers," among whom are listed the Bank of England, N. M. Rothschild & Son, Baring Brothers, Lazard Freres, Speyer & Company, Erlangers, J. Henry Schroder & Co., Prudential Assurance Co. (Morgan Rothschild), Sun Life Indemnity (Rothschild), British South African Co. (Rothschild), British Broadcasting Company (Isaacs), Imperial Chemicals (Melchett), International Nickel, (Mond), and Hambros Bank, Ltd., all Jewish firms, in addition to many others of the same origin. One of the founders of the Royal Institute was Sir Otto Beit, of the international banking family Speyer. The Sassoon family, know as the "Rothschilds of the East," have been prominent contributors. The Patron of the Institute is His Majesty the King. All Prime Ministers of England and the provinces of the British Empire since 1923 have been Honorary Presidents of the Royal Institute of International Affairs.

This Institute has destroyed British prestige in the East and fomented native uprisings in many countries, in preparation for the final onslaught of the yellow race against the white, under the direction of Jewish leaders. At the same time, it has used its tremendous powers of propaganda to deprecate the native revolutions in Asia as isolated and of no importance. In an official publication, Pattern of Pacific Security, 1946, p. 18, the Institute reported that "the Group regards as remote the danger of a pan-Asiatic movement specifically directed against the West." Its subordinate organization, the Institute of Pacific Relations, may be credited with sabotaging all sympathies for the West in Asia.

The white race has been betrayed into this perilous situation by a long list of secret meetings. In the Nineteenth Century the Rothschilds gained control of gold, the medium of exchange in the West, and financed the development of communications, railways, and heavy industry in Europe and America. With the political and monetary systems of Western countries in their power, they proceeded to carry out a long-range program to destroy the white race. White men were sent to plunder the continents of Africa and Asia, the profits going to international Jews while hatred of the white race was stirred up. In the twentieth century, Rothschilds twice inveigled white nations into destructive wars with each other, making great inroads in their resources and manpower. France was ruined completely in the First World War, Germany and England in the Second, and the United States is intended for destruction in the Third. At the Paris Peace Conference in 1919, the Second World War was made certain by the reparations policy against Germany, sums levied which Germany could pay only by going to Jewish bankers. Hitler promised to free Germany from the Jewish stranglehold, was allowed to do so, and led Germany to certain destruction, as Zionists planned.

The United States was prepared for the Roosevelt dictatorship by the Great Depression of 1929-31, planned at a secret meeting of heads of the European Central Banks and the Governors of the Federal Reserve System. It was decided to force Europe back on the gold standard by the machination of the League of Nations. This meant withdrawing five hundred million dollars in gold from New York when stock prices were inflated to four times their list value. The resulting rise in money rates would mean certain collapse of the stock market. The Jewish bankers carried out their plan, stock prices were forced down to a third of their value, and scooped up into gigantic holding companies such as the Lehman Corporation.

At the height of the world-wide depression, a World Monetary and Economic Conference was called in London in 1933. Opened by His Majesty the King, it was composed of members of the Council on Foreign Relations and the Royal Institute of International Affairs. Hitler had just been allowed to take over Germany. Plans were laid at this Conference for the Second World War. The political developments of the nineteen thirties originated at this meeting. Hitler would gain in power until Europe was forced into a Second World War, bringing disaster and collapse to white nations.

At the conclusion of the Second World War, these organizations immediately began full-scale preparations for the Third World War, a gigantic onslaught against the weakened and confused white race. The Russian people, under the heel of Asiatic Jews, has been forced into the role of factory slaves producing weapons for Asiatic armies. The Institute of Pacific Relations, controlling the United States Department of State, is sabotaging every element in Asia which favors the West. The Zionist controlled press and radio stifles every attempt to warn the American and European peoples of their approaching doom. After the Third World War, the Protocols of Zion will become fact. Two thousand years of history culminate in the destruction of the power of the white race.

Pearl Buck, the "Christian" Missionary.

The Jewish author Samuel Roth in his book "Jews Must Live" p. 103, wrote that "Pearl Buck after spending twenty years as a Christian Missionary to the heathen Chinese, confesses blushing to being a Galician Jewess."

Pearl, whose real name is Sydenstricker, was a paid "missionary" for "Christianity" in China while in reality she was educating the poor heathens for Soviet Russia. Pearl's role as a Jewess, teaching Marxian conception of Communism is typical of those Jewish missionaries described in the B'nai B'rith publication "Facts About Fictions Concerning the Jew," under Art. VII entitled "Are Jews A Race? Religion, or Nation?" which states in part: "... Judaism seems so strange in many of its aspects that it sometimes puzzles its own adherents ... There is no official creed in Judaism ... But strange as is the organization of Judaism as a faith, stranger still is the relationships of Jews to their faith. There are hundreds of thousands of Jews who are unbelievers. Yet they still consider themselves Jews. What sort of religion is it if those who neglect it still consider themselves Jews? Or more curiously ... certain missionaries—men of Jewish birth who are converted to Christianity and work to convert other Jews to Christianity—certain missionaries wrote to the Zionists organization demanding the right to participate in the upholding of the Jewish homeland in Palestine. Now, certainly, nobody who was once a Catholic and became a Protestant would insist upon joining the Knights of Columbus. No Protestant who became a Catholic would insist in participating in a purely Protestant endeavor. Yet, here are men who deliberately abandoned Judaism and yet want to participate in a Jewish effort. What sort of religion is Judaism if not only those who neglect it, but those who try to convert others away from it, still consider themselves Jews?"

(The B'nai B'rith is the official representative of Jewry.)

Pearl "Buck" Sydenstricker is still carrying on her missionary efforts for the Marxists. She is now busy in New York furnishing Marxist speakers to sell the U. S. A. the Communist Party Line on China.

IS THE ANTICHRIST ALIVE TODAY? WILL HE RULE NEXT YEAR? THE YEAR 1952 WILL BE THE MOST EVENTFUL SINCE THE CRUCIFIXION OF CHRIST

Saints and sages agree from earliest antiquity to modern times that the Antichrist will come into power in 1952. Do you know the answer to these all important questions:

1. Will the Antichrist be Satan or man, or both?
2. Will he be introduced to the world on television?
3. Will he possess the full powers of Satan?

The answer to these and many other questions will be presented at a meeting to be held on Tuesday evening, October 30th, at 8:15 P. M. at the Veterans Memorial Home, Stuyvesant Avenue and High Street, Union, New Jersey, under the auspices of COMMON SENSE.

For a revealing lecture on "The Reign of Antichrist," don't fail to be present at the Veterans Memorial Home, Union, on

PUT CHRIST BACK INTO CHRISTMAS
"FEAR NOT, FOR THIS DAY IS BORN TO YOU A SAVIOUR, WHO IS CHRIST THE LORD." (St. Luke 2; 10:11).

Are you participating in what has now become a national campaign to "PUT CHRIST BACK INTO CHRISTMAS"? If so, we congratulate you for your fine Christian spirit in preventing Christmas from becoming a purely commercialized holiday. In this crucial year of 1951, when Communism is seriously threatening Christianity in every quarter of the globe, we need not only prayers but militant action to defeat the Red Front. This can best be accomplished by giving financial support to the patriotic forces fighting the Scarlet Beast. The most difficult problem in the fight against organized Communism is obtaining the necessary financial support. Consequently, this year, the most crucial in history, we are offering our subscribers the two-fold opportunity of not only putting Christ back into Christmas but fighting Communism on all fronts by assisting COMMON SENSE financially. Every Christian family spends a small sum each Christmas on greeting cards and gift wrappings. By buying these items from COMMON SENSE you will assist us in our battle against the forces of evil which have already erased the very name of Jesus Christ in some twenty or more European nations. It is not enough to bring Christ into our lives on December 25th. He must be instituted into our daily lives 365 days out of the year. It is up to our subscribers to help us accomplish this task by purchasing Christmas greetings and wrappings from COMMON SENSE. MAIL IN YOUR ORDER TODAY! WE HAVE A BEAUTIFUL SELECTION WE ARE PROUD OF. YOU WILL BE PROUD TO MAIL THEM TO YOUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS.

An Open Letter To All Christian Americans

Is your freedom worth $100 to you? $50 $25 $10 or even $1?

Are you aware that the Invisible Government in the United States is slowly but surely enmeshing you, and 150 million other Americans, in a web from which there will soon be no means of escape?

Are you aware that the Anti-Defamation League is spending millions of dollars a year to prevent you from knowing the tragic facts—and smearing those who oppose it as "antisemitic"?

This newspaper was established for the sole purpose of telling Americans the truth—the truth which no American daily newspaper dares to print—about the hellish conspiracy to destroy Christian America!

In their determined efforts to suppress the truth, the agents of political Zionism—the force behind the Invisible Government—have bullied, intimidated and even threatened death to the heads of eleven American printing firms who have dared to print this American newspaper, Common Sense. Eleven of our printers have yielded to this pressure and told us, sadly, that they would no longer be able to handle the job.

Common Sense now has an opportunity to set up its own plant, and the cost will be approximately $20,000. This fight must be carried on. We need your help—desperately.

If 20,000 readers will contribute $1 each—RIGHT NOW—we can fight on without fear of sabotage by the enemy. This is YOUR fight and we need YOUR help—every loyal American must value his liberty beyond price. How near you are to losing that liberty is known to only a few of us.

* If every American really knew the truth, the response to this appeal would be an avalanche of $1 bills.

COMMON SENSE is not, and never has been operated for profit. Its sole purpose is to defend America against its enemies by spreading the truth.

Can we depend upon YOU?

The Rulers Of Russia

By the Rev. Denis Fahey, C.S.Sp., D.D. This enlarged third edition not only gives full information on the Zionists who organized the Russian Revolution, but it tells how they have infiltrated other governments—and why.

UN Charter Drafted By Russian Jew

A very clear appreciation of the U. N. O. is to be found in Victors Beware!—a work by Professor de Madariaga. An exile from Spain, having held office in the Moscow-sponsored Spanish Republican government, de Madariaga should be a qualified judge of Soviet tactics. He writes:

"The (UNO) Charter is in the main a translation of the Russian system into an international idiom and its adaption to an international community The overwhelming mass of Russia's political influence has weighed down the evolution of world affairs and is now taking us back to an unholy alliance of big Powers, resting upon force and very little else."

"UNO," de Madariaga tells us, "bore upon its brow from the very beginning the mark of Moscow." (Page 270)

That this should be so must appear inexplicable to all who have been deceived by the false propaganda spread about UNO. But many who have heard so much have never been told that Dr. Leo Pasvolksy, "Special U. S. Assistant Secretary of State," drew up the United Nations Charter. Concerning Pasvolksy, a Russian-born Jew who has become one of the leading advisers of the U. S. government, the Chicago Daily Tribune stated:

"Leo Pasvolksy, Russian-born ardent internationalist, knows more about the new League of Nations to preserve peace than any other person in the world. That's because he wrote the first draft of the charter of the world peace league and attended its revision and amplification all the way from the first day of the Dunbarton Oaks Conference to the last day of the San Francisco Conference. He bids for fame as the father of the Charter . . . President Truman has appointed Stettinius the United States Representative in the world peace league. And Pasvolksy is to go right with Stettinius to the capital of the league, when it is selected, to guide the American delegate through the maze of the Charter and provide him with the answers to the questions that will arise. For Pasvolksy knows all the answers, can give them before the questions are asked. . . . He was brought into the department as an economist . . . and successively advanced to the highest rank outside of those positions filled by Presidential appointment subject to Senate confirmation. Pasvolksy, now a naturalized American citizen, was born in Pavlograd, Russia, 1893, and came to this country with his parents in 1905. . . . He has published several works on Russia including the 'Economics of Communism.'"
